How Do You Recognize HOUSING DISCRIMINATION?

Under the Fair Housing Act, it is Against the Law to:

• Refuse to rent to you or sell you housing
• Tell you housing is unavailable when in fact it is available
• Show you apartments or homes only in certain neighborhoods
• Set different terms, conditions, or privileges for sale or rental of a dwelling
• Provide different housing services or facilities
• Advertise housing to preferred groups of people only
• Refuse to provide you with information regarding mortgage loans, deny you a mortgage loan, or impose different terms or conditions on a mortgage loan
• Deny you property insurance
• Refuse to provide you with information regarding mortgage loans
• Set different terms, conditions, or privileges for sale or rental of a dwelling
• Conduct property appraisals in a discriminatory manner
• Refuse to make reasonable accommodations to your dwelling or common use areas, at your expense, if it may be necessary for you to fully use the housing. (Where reasonable, a landlord may permit changes only if you agree to restore the property to its original condition when you move.)
• Refuse to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices or services if it may be necessary for you to save the housing on an equal basis with nonhandicapped persons
• Fail to design and construct housing in an accessible manner
• Harass, coerce, intimidate, or interfere with anyone exercising or assisting someone else with his/her fair housing rights

For example: were you refused housing because of your race? Were you denied a mortgage loan because of your religion? Or turned down for an apartment because you have children? Simply explain why you think you have housing rights denied and list the factor(s) because of which you believe you were treated differently.
