At the discretion of SNRHA, the HAP contract may provide for vacancy payments to the owner for a SNRHA-determined period of vacancy extending from the beginning of the first calendar month after the move-out month for a period not exceeding two full months following the move-out month. The amount of the vacancy payment will be determined by SNRHA and cannot exceed the monthly rent to owner under the assisted lease, minus any portion of the rental payment received by the owner (including amounts available from the tenant's security deposit).

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will decide on a case-by-case basis if SNRHA will provide vacancy payments to the owner. The HAP contract with the owner will contain any such agreement, including the amount of the vacancy payment and the period for which the owner will qualify for these payments. Vacancy payments shall only be made when SNRHA has not referred clients to management for a period of 30 calendar days.

PART VI: SELECTION OF PBV PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS

17-VI.A. OVERVIEW

Many of the provisions of the tenant-based voucher regulations [24 CFR 982] also apply to the PBV program. This includes requirements related to determining eligibility and selecting applicants from the waiting list. Even with these similarities, there are requirements that are unique to the PBV program. This part describes the requirements and policies related to eligibility and admission to the PBV program.

17-VI.B. ELIGIBILITY FOR PBV ASSISTANCE [24 CFR 983.251(a) and (b)]

SNRHA may select families for the PBV program from those who are participants in SNRHA's tenant-based voucher program and from those who have applied for admission to the voucher program. For voucher participants, eligibility was determined at original admission to the voucher program and does not need to be redetermined at the commencement of PBV assistance.

For all others, eligibility for admission must be determined at the commencement of PBV assistance.

Applicants for PBV assistance must meet the same eligibility requirements as applicants for the tenant-based voucher program. Applicants must qualify as a family as defined by HUD and SNRHA, have income at or below HUD-specified income limits, and qualify on the basis of citizenship or the eligible immigration status of family members [24 CFR 982.201(a) and 24 CFR 983.2(a)]. In addition, an applicant family must provide social security information for family members [24 CFR 5.216 and 5.218] and consent to SNRHA's collection and use of family information regarding income, expenses, and family composition [24 CFR 5.230]. An applicant family must also meet HUD requirements related to current or past criminal activity.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will determine an applicant family's eligibility for the PBV program in accordance with the policies in Chapter 3.

In-Place Families [24 CFR 983.251(b)]

An eligible family residing in a proposed PBV contract unit on the date the proposal is selected by SNRHA is considered an "in-place family." These families are afforded protection from displacement under the PBV rule. If a unit to be placed under contract (either an existing unit or a unit requiring rehabilitation) is occupied by an eligible family on the date the proposal is selected, the in-place family must be placed on SNRHA's waiting list. Once the family's continued eligibility is determined (SNRHA may deny assistance to an in-place family for the grounds specified in 24 CFR 982.552 and 982.553), the family must be given an absolute selection preference and SNRHA must refer these families to the project owner for an appropriately sized PBV unit in the project. Admission of eligible in-place families is not subject to income targeting requirements.

This regulatory protection from displacement does not apply to families that are not eligible to participate in the program on the proposal selection date.

17-VI.C. ORGANIZATION OF THE WAITING LIST [24 CFR 983.251(c)]

SNRHA may establish a separate waiting list for PBV units or it may use the same waiting list for both tenant-based and PBV assistance. SNRHA may also merge the PBV waiting list with a waiting list for other assisted housing programs offered by SNRHA. If SNRHA chooses to offer a separate waiting list for PBV assistance, SNRHA must offer to place applicants who are listed on the tenant-based waiting list on the waiting list for PBV assistance.

If SNRHA decides to establish a separate PBV waiting list, SNRHA may use a single waiting list for SNRHA's whole PBV program, or it may establish separate waiting lists for PBV units in particular projects or buildings or for sets of such units.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will establish and manage separate waiting lists for individual projects or buildings that are receiving PBV assistance. SNRHA currently has waiting lists for the following PBV projects:

Juan Garcia

Coronado

Landsman (Rental Assistance Demonstration [RAD] Program)

Vera Johnson B (Rental Assistance Demonstration [RAD] Program)

SNRHA will also establish and manage separate waiting lists for the following Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) Program conversion to PBV assistance properties:

Biegger Estates (Rental Assistance Demonstration [RAD] Program)

Rose Gardens (Rental Assistance Demonstration [RAD] Program)

17-VI.D. SELECTION FROM THE WAITING LIST [24 CFR 983.251(c)]

Applicants who will occupy units with PBV assistance must be selected from SNRHA's waiting list. SNRHA may establish selection criteria or preferences for occupancy of particular PBV units. SNRHA may place families referred by the PBV owner on its PBV waiting list.

Income Targeting [24 CFR 983.251(c)(6)]

At least 75 percent of the families admitted to SNRHA's tenant-based and project-based voucher programs during SNRHA's fiscal year from the waiting list must be extremely-low income families. The income targeting requirement applies to the total of admissions to both programs.

Units with Accessibility Features [24 CFR 983.251(c)(7)]

When selecting families to occupy PBV units that have special accessibility features for persons with disabilities, SNRHA must first refer families who require such features to the owner.

Preferences [24 CFR 983.251(d)]

SNRHA may use the same selection preferences that are used for the tenant-based voucher program, establish selection criteria or preferences for the PBV program as a whole, or for occupancy of particular PBV developments or units. SNRHA must provide an absolute selection preference for eligible in-place families as described in Section 17-VI.B. above.

Although SNRHA is prohibited from granting preferences to persons with a specific disability, SNRHA may give preference to disabled families who need services offered at a particular project or site if the preference is limited to families (including individuals):

- With disabilities that significantly interfere with their ability to obtain and maintain themselves in housing;
- Who, without appropriate supportive services, will not be able to obtain or maintain themselves in housing; and
- For whom such services cannot be provided in a non-segregated setting.

In advertising such a project, the owner may advertise the project as offering services for a particular type of disability; however, the project must be open to all otherwise eligible disabled persons who may benefit from services provided in the project. In these projects, disabled residents may not be required to accept the particular services offered as a condition of occupancy.

If SNRHA has projects with more than 25 percent of the units receiving project-based assistance because those projects include “excepted units” (units specifically made available for elderly or disabled families, or families receiving supportive services), SNRHA must give preference to such families when referring families to these units [24 CFR 983.261(b)].

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will provide a selection preference when required by the regulation (e.g., eligible in-place families, qualifying families for “excepted units,” mobility impaired persons for accessible units). SNRHA will not offer any additional preferences for the PBV program or for particular PBV projects or units.

17-VI.E. OFFER OF PBV ASSISTANCE

Refusal of Offer [24 CFR 983.251(e)(3)]

SNRHA is prohibited from taking any of the following actions against a family who has applied for, received, or refused an offer of PBV assistance:

- Refuse to list the applicant on the waiting list for tenant-based voucher assistance;
- Deny any admission preference for which the applicant qualifies;
- Change the applicant’s place on the waiting list based on preference, date, and time of application, or other factors affecting selection under SNRHA’s selection policy;
- Remove the applicant from the tenant-based voucher waiting list.

Disapproval by Landlord [24 CFR 983.251(e)(2)]

If a PBV owner rejects a family for admission to the owner’s units, such rejection may not affect the family’s position on the tenant-based voucher waiting list.

Acceptance of Offer [24 CFR 983.252]

Family Briefing

When a family accepts an offer for PBV assistance, SNRHA must give the family an oral briefing. The briefing must include information on how the program works and the responsibilities of the family and owner. In addition to the oral briefing, SNRHA must provide a briefing packet that explains how SNRHA determines the total tenant payment for a family, the family obligations under the program, and applicable fair housing information.

Persons with Disabilities

If an applicant family’s head or spouse is disabled, SNRHA must assure effective communication, in accordance with 24 CFR 8.6, in conducting the oral briefing and in providing the written information packet. This may include making alternative formats available (see Chapter 2). In addition, SNRHA must have a mechanism for referring a family that includes a member with mobility impairment to an appropriate accessible PBV unit.

Persons with Limited English Proficiency

SNRHA should take reasonable steps to assure meaningful access by persons with limited English proficiency in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Executive Order 13166 (see Chapter 2).

17-VI.F. OWNER SELECTION OF RESIDENTS

The owner is responsible for developing written tenant selection procedures that are consistent with the purpose of improving housing opportunities for very low-income families and reasonably related to program eligibility and an applicant's ability to fulfill their obligations under the lease. An owner must promptly notify in writing any rejected applicant of the grounds for any rejection 24 CFR 983.253(a) and (a)(3).

Leasing [24 CFR 983.253(a)]

During the term of the HAP contract, the owner must lease contract units to eligible families that are selected and referred by SNRHA from SNRHA's waiting list. The contract unit leased to the family must be the appropriate size unit for the size of the family, based on SNRHA's subsidy standards.

Filling Vacancies [24 CFR 983.254(a)]

The owner must promptly notify SNRHA of any vacancy or expected vacancy in a contract unit. After receiving such notice, SNRHA must make every reasonable effort to promptly refer a sufficient number of families for the owner to fill such vacancies. SNRHA and the owner must make reasonable efforts to minimize the likelihood and length of any vacancy.

SNRHA Policy

The owner must notify SNRHA in writing (mail, fax, or e-mail) within 5 business days of learning about any vacancy or expected vacancy.

SNRHA will make every reasonable effort to refer families to the owner within 10 business days of receiving such notice from the owner.

Reduction in HAP Contract Units Due to Vacancies [24 CFR 983.254(b)]

If any contract units have been vacant for 120 or more calendar days since owner notice of the vacancy, SNRHA may give notice to the owner amending the HAP contract to reduce the number of contract units by subtracting the number of contract units (according to the bedroom size) that have been vacant for this period.

SNRHA Policy

If any contract units have been vacant for 120 calendar days, SNRHA will give notice to the owner that the HAP contract will be amended to reduce the number of contract units that have been vacant for this period. SNRHA will provide the notice to the owner within 10 business days of the 120th day of the vacancy. The amendment to the HAP contract will be effective the first day of the month following the date of SNRHA's notice.

17-VI.G. TENANT SCREENING [24 CFR 983.255]

SNRHA Responsibility

SNRHA is not responsible or liable to the owner or any other person for the family's behavior or suitability for tenancy. However, SNRHA may opt to screen applicants for family behavior or suitability for tenancy and may deny applicants based on such screening.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will not conduct screening to determine a PBV applicant family's suitability for tenancy. SNRHA shall screen for program eligibility. The management must determine tenancy screening requirements.

SNRHA must provide the owner with an applicant family's current and prior address (as shown in SNRHA records) and the name and address (if known by SNRHA) of the family's current landlord and any prior landlords.

In addition, SNRHA may offer the owner other information SNRHA may have about a family, including information about the tenancy history of family members or about drug trafficking and criminal activity by family members. SNRHA must provide applicant families a description of SNRHA policy on providing information to owners, and SNRHA must give the same types of information to all owners.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will inform owners of their responsibility to screen prospective residents, and will provide owners with the required known name and address information, at the time of the turnover HQS inspection or before. SNRHA will not provide any additional information to the owner, such as tenancy history, criminal history, etc.

Owner Responsibility

The owner is responsible for screening and selection of the family to occupy the owner's unit. When screening families the owner may consider a family's background with respect to the following factors:

- Payment of rent and utility bills;
- Caring for a unit and premises;
- Respecting the rights of other residents to the peaceful enjoyment of their housing;
- Drug-related criminal activity or other criminal activity that is a threat to the health, safety, or property of others; and
- Compliance with other essential conditions of tenancy.

PART VII: OCCUPANCY

17-VII.A. OVERVIEW

After an applicant has been selected from the waiting list, determined eligible by SNRHA, referred to an owner and determined suitable by the owner, the family will sign the lease and occupancy of the unit will begin.

17-VII.B. LEASE [24 CFR 983.256]

The tenant must have legal capacity to enter a lease under state and local law. Legal capacity means that the tenant is bound by the terms of the lease and may enforce the terms of the lease against the owner.

Form of Lease [24 CFR 983.256(b)]

The tenant and the owner must enter into a written lease agreement that is signed by both parties. If an owner uses a standard lease form for rental units to unassisted residents in the locality or premises, the same lease must be used for assisted residents, except that the lease must include a HUD-required tenancy addendum. The tenancy addendum must include, word-for-word, all provisions required by HUD.

If the owner does not use a standard lease form for rental to unassisted residents, the owner may use another form of lease, such as a SNRHA model lease. SNRHA may review the owner's lease form to determine if the lease complies with state and local law. If SNRHA determines that the lease does not comply with state or local law, SNRHA may decline to approve the tenancy.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will not review the owner's lease for compliance with state or local law.

Lease Requirements [24 CFR 983.256(c)]

The lease for a PBV unit must specify all of the following information:

- The names of the owner and the tenant;
- The unit rented (address, apartment number, if any, and any other information needed to identify the leased contract unit);
- The term of the lease (initial term and any provision for renewal);
- The amount of the tenant rent to owner, which is subject to change during the term of the lease in accordance with HUD requirements;
- A specification of the services, maintenance, equipment, and utilities that will be provide by the owner; and
- The amount of any charges for food, furniture, or supportive services.

Tenancy Addendum [24 CFR 983.256(d)]

The tenancy addendum in the lease must state:

- The program tenancy requirements;
- The composition of the household as approved by SNRHA (the names of family members and any SNRHA-approved live-in aide);

- All provisions in the HUD-required tenancy addendum must be included in the lease. The terms of the tenancy addendum prevail over other provisions of the lease.

Initial Term and Lease Renewal [24 CFR 983.256(f) and 983.257(b)]

The initial lease term must be for at least one year. Upon expiration of the lease, an owner may renew the lease, refuse to renew the lease for “good cause,” or refuse to renew the lease without good cause. If the owner refuses to renew the lease without good cause, SNRHA must provide the family with a tenant-based voucher and remove the unit from the PBV HAP contract.

Changes in the Lease [24 CFR 983.256(e)]

If the tenant and owner agree to any change in the lease, the change must be in writing, and the owner must immediately give SNRHA a copy of all changes.

The owner must notify SNRHA in advance of any proposed change in the lease regarding the allocation of tenant and owner responsibilities for utilities. Such changes may only be made if approved by SNRHA and in accordance with the terms of the lease relating to its amendment. SNRHA must redetermine reasonable rent, in accordance with program requirements, based on any change in the allocation of the responsibility for utilities between the owner and the tenant. The redetermined reasonable rent will be used in calculation of the rent to owner from the effective date of the change.

Owner Termination of Tenancy [24 CFR 983.257]

With two exceptions, the owner of a PBV unit may terminate tenancy for the same reasons an owner may in the tenant-based voucher program (see Section 12-III.B. and 24 CFR 982.310). In the PBV program, terminating tenancy for “good cause” does not include doing so for a business or economic reason, or a desire to use the unit for personal or family use or other non-residential purpose.

Non-Compliance with Supportive Services Requirement [24 CFR 983.257(c)]

If a family is living in a project-based unit that is excepted from the 25 percent per project cap on project-basing because of participation in a supportive services program (e.g., Family Self-Sufficiency), and the family fails to complete its supportive services requirement without good cause, such failure is grounds for lease termination by the owner.

Tenant Absence from the Unit [24 CFR 983.256(g) and 982.312(a)]

The owner may specify in the lease a maximum period of tenant absence from the unit that is shorter than the maximum period permitted by SNRHA policy. According to program requirements, the family’s assistance must be terminated if they are absent from the unit for more than 180 consecutive calendar days.

Security Deposits [24 CFR 983.258]

The owner may collect a security deposit from the tenant. SNRHA may prohibit security deposits in excess of private market practice, or in excess of amounts charged by the owner to unassisted residents.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will allow the owner to collect a security deposit amount the owner determines is appropriate.

When the tenant moves out of a contract unit, the owner, subject to state and local law, may use the security deposit, including any interest on the deposit, in accordance with the lease, as reimbursement for any unpaid tenant rent, damages to the unit, or other amounts owed by the tenant under the lease.

The owner must give the tenant a written list of all items charged against the security deposit and the amount of each item. After deducting the amount used to reimburse the owner, the owner must promptly refund the full amount of the balance to the tenant.

If the security deposit does not cover the amount owed by the tenant under the lease, the owner may seek to collect the balance from the tenant. SNRHA has no liability or responsibility for payment of any amount owed by the family to the owner.

17-VII.C. MOVES

Overcrowded, Under-Occupied, and Accessible Units [24 CFR 983.259]

If SNRHA determines that a family is occupying a wrong size unit, based on SNRHA's subsidy standards, or a unit with accessibility features that the family does not require, and the unit is needed by a family that does require the features, SNRHA must promptly notify the family and the owner of this determination, and SNRHA must offer the family the opportunity to receive continued housing assistance in another unit.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will notify the family and the owner of the family's need to move based on the occupancy of a wrong-size or accessible unit within 10 business days of SNRHA's determination. SNRHA will offer the family the following types of continued assistance in the following order, based on the availability of assistance:

PBV assistance in the same building or project;

PBV assistance in another project; and

Tenant-based voucher assistance

If SNRHA offers the family a tenant-based voucher, SNRHA must terminate the housing assistance payments for a wrong-sized or accessible unit at expiration of the term of the family's voucher (including any extension granted by SNRHA).

If SNRHA offers the family another form of assistance that is not a tenant-based voucher, and the family does not accept the offer, does not move out of the PBV unit within a reasonable time as determined by SNRHA, or both, SNRHA must terminate the housing assistance payments for the unit at the expiration of a reasonable period as determined by SNRHA.

SNRHA Policy

When SNRHA offers a family another form of assistance that is not a tenant-based voucher, the family will be given 30 days from the date of the offer to accept the offer and move out of the PBV unit. If the family does not move out within this 30-day time frame, SNRHA will terminate the housing assistance payments at the expiration of this 30-day period.

SNRHA may make exceptions to this 30-day period if needed for reasons beyond the family's control such as death, serious illness, or other medical emergency of a family member.

Family Right to Move [24 CFR 983.260]

The family may terminate the lease at any time after the first year of occupancy. The family must give advance written notice to the owner in accordance with the lease and provide a copy of such notice to SNRHA. If the family wishes to move with continued tenant-based assistance, the family must provide the manager with a Vacate Notice and be in good standing under their current lease (meaning not under an eviction not owing a debt to the PBV development). A copy of the notice shall be forwarded to SNRHA staff for placement on its tenant based PBV waitlist. SNRHA will notify families and management when there is no funding available for tenant-based vouchers as well as when funding becomes available again. The Vacate Notices shall not be accepted during a period of time when there has been written notice provided that there is not tenant-based funding available.

If the family terminates the lease in accordance with these requirements, SNRHA is required to offer the family the opportunity for continued tenant-based assistance, in the form of a voucher or other comparable tenant-based rental assistance. If voucher or other comparable tenant-based assistance is not immediately available upon termination of the family's lease in the PBV unit, SNRHA must give the family priority to receive the next available opportunity for continued tenant-based assistance, when funding is available.

If the family terminates the assisted lease before the end of the first year, the family relinquishes the opportunity for continued tenant-based assistance.

17-VII.D. EXCEPTIONS TO THE OCCUPANCY CAP [24 CFR 983.261]

SNRHA may not pay housing assistance under a PBV HAP contract for more than 25 percent of the number of dwelling units in a project unless the units are [24 CFR 983.56]:

- Specifically made available for elderly or disabled families; or
- Specifically made available for families receiving supportive services as defined by SNRHA. At least one member must be receiving at least one qualifying supportive service.

If a family at the time of initial tenancy is receiving and while the resident of an excepted unit has received Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) supportive services or any other service as defined as defined by SNRHA and successfully completes the FSS contract of participation or the supportive services requirement, the unit continues to count as an excepted unit for as long as the family resides in the unit.

A family (or remaining members of a family) residing in an excepted unit that no longer meets the criteria for a "qualifying family" in connection with the 25 percent per project cap exception (e.g., the family does not successfully complete supportive services requirements, or due to a change in family composition the family is no longer elderly or disabled), must vacate the unit within a reasonable period of time established by SNRHA, and SNRHA must cease paying housing assistance payments on behalf of the non-qualifying family.

If the family fails to vacate the unit within the established time, the unit must be removed from the HAP contract unless the project is partially assisted, and it is possible for the HAP contract to be amended to substitute a different unit in the building in accordance with program requirements; or the owner terminates the lease and evicts the family. The housing assistance payments for a family residing in an excepted unit that is not in compliance with its family obligations to comply with supportive services requirements must be terminated by SNRHA.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will not provide PBV assistance for excepted units.

PART VIII: DETERMINING RENT TO OWNER

17-VIII.A. OVERVIEW

The amount of the initial rent to an owner of units receiving PBV assistance is established at the beginning of the HAP contract term. Although for rehabilitated or newly constructed housing, the agreement to enter into HAP Contract (Agreement) states the estimated amount of the initial rent to owner, the actual amount of the initial rent to owner is established at the beginning of the HAP contract term.

During the term of the HAP contract, the rent to owner is redetermined at the owner's request in accordance with program requirements, and at such time that there is a five percent or greater decrease in the published FMR.

17-VIII.B. RENT LIMITS [24 CFR 983.301]

Except for certain tax credit units (discussed below), the rent to owner must not exceed the lowest of the following amounts:

- An amount determined by SNRHA, not to exceed 110 percent of the applicable fair market rent (or any HUD-approved exception payment standard) for the unit bedroom size minus any utility allowance;
- The reasonable rent; or
- The rent requested by the owner.

Certain Tax Credit Units [24 CFR 983.301(c)]

For certain tax credit units, the rent limits are determined differently than for other PBV units. These different limits apply to contract units that meet all of the following criteria:

- The contract unit receives a low-income housing tax credit under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;
- The contract unit is not located in a qualified census tract;
- There are comparable tax credit units of the same bedroom size as the contract unit in the same building, and the comparable tax credit units do not have any form of rental assistance other than the tax credit; and

- The tax credit rent exceeds a SNRHA-determined amount (not to exceed 110 percent of the fair market rent or any approved exception payment standard);

For contract units that meet all of these criteria, the rent to owner must not exceed the lowest of:

- 110 percent of the fair market rent or any approved exception payment standard minus the utility allowance for owner paid utilities;
- The reasonable rent; or
- The rent requested by the owner.

Definitions

A qualified census tract is any census tract (or equivalent geographic area defined by the Bureau of the Census) in which at least 50 percent of households have an income of less than 60 percent of Area Median Gross Income (AMGI), or where the poverty rate is at least 25 percent and where the census tract is designated as a qualified census tract by HUD.

Tax credit rent is the rent charged for comparable units of the same bedroom size in the building that also receive the low-income housing tax credit but do not have any additional rental assistance (e.g., tenant-based voucher assistance).

Use of FMRs, Exception Payment Standards, and Utility Allowances [24 CFR 983.301(f)]

When determining the initial rent to owner, SNRHA must use the most recently published FMR in effect and the utility allowance schedule in effect at execution of the HAP contract. When redetermining the rent to owner, SNRHA must use the most recently published FMR and the utility allowance schedule in effect at the time of redetermination. At its discretion, SNRHA may for initial rent, use the amounts in effect at any time during the 30-day period immediately before the beginning date of the HAP contract, or for redeterminations of rent, the 30-day period immediately before the redetermination date.

Any HUD-approved exception payment standard amount under the tenant-based voucher program also applies to the project-based voucher program. HUD will not approve a different exception payment stand amount for use in the PBV program.

Likewise, SNRHA may not establish or apply different utility allowance amounts for the PBV program. The same utility allowance schedule applies to both the tenant-based and project-based voucher programs.

SNRHA Policy

Upon written request by the owner, SNRHA will consider using the FMR or utility allowances in effect during the 30-day period before the start date of the HAP, or redetermination of rent. The owner must explain the need to use the previous FMRs or utility allowances and include documentation in support of the request. SNRHA will review and make a decision based on the circumstances and merit of each request.

In addition to considering a written request from an owner, SNRHA may decide to use the FMR or utility allowances in effect during the 30-day period before the start date of the HAP, or redetermination of rent, if SNRHA determines it is necessary due to SNRHA budgetary constraints.

Redetermination of Rent [24 CFR 983.302]

SNRHA must redetermine the rent to owner upon the owner's request or when there is a five percent or greater decrease in the published FMR.

Rent Increase

If an owner wishes to request an increase in the rent to owner from SNRHA, it must be requested at the annual anniversary of the HAP contract (see Section 17-V.D.). The request must be in writing and in the form and manner required by SNRHA. Rental increases must be submitted 60 calendar days prior to the anniversary date of the HAP contract for the participant.

SNRHA may only make rent increases in accordance with the rent limits described previously. There are no provisions in the PBV program for special adjustments (e.g., adjustments that reflect increases in the actual and necessary expenses of owning and maintaining the units which have resulted from substantial general increases in real property taxes, utility rates, or similar costs).

SNRHA Policy

An owner's request for a rent increase must be submitted to SNRHA 60 calendar days prior to the anniversary date of the HAP contract, and must include the new rent amount the owner is proposing.

SNRHA may not approve and the owner may not receive any increase of rent to owner until and unless the owner has complied with requirements of the HAP contract, including compliance with HQS. The owner may not receive any retroactive increase of rent for any period of noncompliance.

Rent Decrease

If there is a decrease in the rent to owner, as established in accordance with program requirements such as a change in the FMR or exception payment standard, or reasonable rent amount, the rent to owner must be decreased regardless of whether the owner requested a rent adjustment.

Notice of Rent Change

The rent to owner is redetermined by written notice by SNRHA to the owner specifying the amount of the redetermined rent. SNRHA notice of rent adjustment constitutes an amendment of the rent to owner specified in the HAP contract. The adjusted amount of rent to owner applies for the period of 12 calendar months from the annual anniversary of the HAP contract.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will provide the owner with at least 30 calendar days written notice of any change in the amount of rent to owner.

SNRHA-owned Units [24 CFR 983.301(g)]

For SNRHA-owned PBV units, the initial rent to owner and the annual redetermination of rent at the anniversary of the HAP contract are determined by the independent entity approved by HUD. SNRHA must use the rent to owner established by the independent entity.

17-VIII.C. REASONABLE RENT [24 CFR 983.303]

At the time the initial rent is established and all times during the term of the HAP contract, the rent to owner for a contract unit may not exceed the reasonable rent for the unit as determined by SNRHA, except where the PHA has elected within the HAP contract to not reduce rents below the initial rent under the initial HAP contract.

When Rent Reasonable Determinations are Required

SNRHA must redetermine the reasonable rent for a unit receiving PBV assistance whenever any of the following occur:

- There is a five percent or greater decrease in the published FMR in effect 60 calendar days before the contract anniversary (for the unit sizes specified in the HAP contract) as compared with the FMR that was in effect one year before the contract anniversary date;
- SNRHA approves a change in the allocation of responsibility for utilities between the owner and the tenant;
- The HAP contract is amended to substitute a different contract unit in the same project; or
- There is any other change that may substantially affect the reasonable rent.

How to Determine Reasonable Rent

The reasonable rent of a unit receiving PBV assistance must be determined by comparison to rent for other comparable unassisted units. When making this determination, SNRHA must consider factors that affect market rent. Such factors include the location, quality, size, type and age of the unit, as well as the amenities, housing services maintenance, and utilities to be provided by the owner.

Comparability Analysis

For each unit, the comparability analysis must use at least three comparable units in the private unassisted market. This may include unassisted units in the premises or project that is receiving project-based assistance. The analysis must show how the reasonable rent was determined, including major differences between the contract units and comparable unassisted units, and must be retained by SNRHA. The comparability analysis may be performed by SNRHA staff or by another qualified person or entity. Those who conduct these analyses or are involved in determining the housing assistance payment based on the analyses may not have any direct or indirect interest in the property.

SNRHA-owned Units

For SNRHA-owned units, the amount of the reasonable rent must be determined by an independent agency approved by HUD in accordance with PBV program requirements. The independent entity must provide a copy of the determination of reasonable rent for SNRHA-owned units to SNRHA and to the HUD field office where the project is located.

Owner Certification of Reasonable Rent

By accepting each monthly housing assistance payment, the owner certifies that the rent to owner is not more than rent charged by the owner for other comparable unassisted units in the premises. At any time, SNRHA may require the owner to submit information on rents charged by the owner for other units in the premises or elsewhere.

17-VIII.D. EFFECT OF OTHER SUBSIDY AND RENT CONTROL

In addition to the rent limits discussed in Section 17-VIII.B above, other restrictions may limit the amount of rent to owner in a PBV unit. In addition, certain types of subsidized housing are not even eligible to receive PBV assistance (see Section 17-II.D).

Other Subsidy [24 CFR 983.304]

At its discretion, a SNRHA may reduce the initial rent to owner because of other governmental subsidies, including tax credit or tax exemption, grants, or other subsidized financing.

For units receiving assistance under the HOME program, rents may not exceed rent limits as required by that program.

For units in any of the following types of federally subsidized projects, the rent to owner may not exceed the subsidized rent (basic rent) as determined in accordance with requirements for the applicable federal program:

- An insured or non-insured Section 236 project;
- A formerly insured or non-insured Section 236 project that continues to receive Interest Reduction Payment following a decoupling action;
- A Section 221(d)(3) below market interest rate (BMIR) project;
- A Section 515 project of the Rural Housing Service;
- Any other type of federally subsidized project specified by HUD.

Combining Subsidy

Rent to owner may not exceed any limitation required to comply with HUD subsidy layering requirements.

Rent Control [24 CFR 983.305]

In addition to the rent limits set by PBV program regulations, the amount of rent to owner may also be subject to rent control or other limits under local, state, or federal law.

PART IX: PAYMENTS TO OWNER

17-IX.A. HOUSING ASSISTANCE PAYMENTS [24 CFR 983.351]

During the term of the HAP contract, SNRHA must make housing assistance payments to the owner in accordance with the terms of the HAP contract. During the term of the HAP contract, payments must be made for each month that a contract unit complies with HQS and is leased to and occupied by an eligible family. The housing assistance payment must be paid to the owner on or about the first day of the month for which payment is due, unless the owner and SNRHA agree on a later date.

Except for discretionary vacancy payments, SNRHA may not make any housing assistance payment to the owner for any month after the month when the family moves out of the unit (even if household goods or property are left in the unit).

The amount of the housing assistance payment by SNRHA is the rent to owner minus the tenant rent (total tenant payment minus the utility allowance).

In order to receive housing assistance payments, the owner must comply with all provisions of the HAP contract. Unless the owner complies with all provisions of the HAP contract, the owner does not have a right to receive housing assistance payments.

17-IX.B. VACANCY PAYMENTS [24 CFR 983.352]

If an assisted family moves out of the unit, the owner may keep the housing assistance payment for the calendar month when the family moves out. However, the owner may not keep the payment if SNRHA determines that the vacancy is the owner's fault.

SNRHA Policy

If SNRHA determines that the owner is responsible for a vacancy and, as a result, is not entitled to the keep the housing assistance payment, SNRHA will notify the landlord of the amount of housing assistance payment that the owner must repay. SNRHA will require the owner to repay the amount owed in accordance with the policies in Section 16-IV.B.

At the discretion of SNRHA, the HAP contract may provide for vacancy payments to the owner. SNRHA may only make vacancy payments if:

- The owner gives SNRHA prompt, written notice certifying that the family has vacated the unit and identifies the date when the family moved out (to the best of the owner's knowledge);
- The owner certifies that the vacancy is not the fault of the owner and that the unit was vacant during the period for which payment is claimed;
- The owner certifies that it has taken every reasonable action to minimize the likelihood and length of vacancy; and
- The owner provides any additional information required and requested by SNRHA to verify that the owner is entitled to the vacancy payment.

The owner must submit a request for vacancy payments in the form and manner required by SNRHA and must provide any information or substantiation required by SNRHA to determine the amount of any vacancy payment.

SNRHA Policy

If an owner's HAP contract calls for vacancy payments to be made, and the owner wishes to receive vacancy payments, the owner must have properly notified SNRHA of the vacancy in accordance with the policy in Section 17-VI.F regarding filling vacancies.

In order for a vacancy payment request to be considered, it must be made within 10 business days of the end of the period for which the owner is requesting the vacancy payment. The request must include the required owner certifications and SNRHA may require the owner to provide documentation to support the request. If the owner does not provide the information requested by SNRHA within 10 business days of SNRHA's request, no vacancy payments will be made.

17-IX.C. TENANT RENT TO OWNER [24 CFR 983.353]

The tenant rent is the portion of the rent to owner paid by the family. The amount of tenant rent is determined by SNRHA in accordance with HUD requirements. Any changes in the amount of tenant rent will be effective on the date stated in SNRHA notice to the family and owner.

The family is responsible for paying the tenant rent (total tenant payment minus the utility allowance). The amount of the tenant rent determined by SNRHA is the maximum amount the owner may charge the family for rental of a contract unit. The tenant rent covers all housing services, maintenance, equipment, and utilities to be provided by the owner. The owner may not demand or accept any rent payment from the tenant in excess of the tenant rent as determined by SNRHA. The owner must immediately return any excess payment to the tenant.

Tenant and SNRHA Responsibilities

The family is not responsible for the portion of rent to owner that is covered by the housing assistance payment and the owner may not terminate the tenancy of an assisted family for DF nonpayment by SNRHA.

Likewise, SNRHA is responsible only for making the housing assistance payment to the owner in accordance with the HAP contract. SNRHA is not responsible for paying the tenant's portion of rent, or any other claim by the owner, including damage to the unit. SNRHA may not use housing assistance payments or other program funds (including administrative fee reserves) to pay any part of the tenant rent or other claim by the owner.

Utility Reimbursements [24 CFR 982.514(b)]

If the amount of the utility allowance exceeds the total tenant payment, SNRHA must pay the amount of such excess to the tenant as a reimbursement for tenant-paid utilities, and the tenant rent to the owner must be zero.

SNRHA may pay the utility reimbursement directly to the family or to the utility supplier on behalf of the family. If SNRHA chooses to pay the utility supplier directly, SNRHA must notify the family of the amount paid to the utility supplier.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will make utility reimbursements to the family.

According to HUD's Final Rule dated March 8, 2016, entitled "Streamlining Administrative Regulations for Public Housing/Housing Choice Voucher Final Rule," the PHA may elect to establish policies regarding the frequency of utility reimbursement payments (URP) for payments made to the family,

1. The PHA will have the option of making URPs not less than each calendar-year quarter for reimbursements. In the event a family leaves the program in advance of its next quarterly reimbursement, the PHA would be required to reimburse the family for a prorated share of the applicable reimbursement. PHAs exercising this option must have a hardship policy in place for participants.
2. If the PHA elects to pay the utility supplier directly, the PHA must notify the family of the amount paid to the utility supplier.

At this time, SNRHA will continue issuing monthly checks for utility reimbursement.

17-IX.D. OTHER FEES AND CHARGES [24 CFR 983.354]

Meals and Supportive Services

With the exception of PBV assistance in assisted living developments, the owner may not require the tenant to pay charges for meals or supportive services. Non-payment of such charges is not grounds for termination of tenancy.

In assisted living developments receiving PBV assistance, the owner may charge for meals or supportive services. These charges may not be included in the rent to owner, nor may the value of meals and supportive services be included in the calculation of the reasonable rent. However, non-payment of such charges is grounds for termination of the lease by the owner in an assisted living development.

Other Charges by Owner

The owner may not charge extra amounts for items customarily included in rent in the locality or provided at no additional cost to unsubsidized residents in the premises.

RENTAL ASSISTANCE DEMONSTRATION (RAD) PROGRAM:

SNRHA will administer a HUD, RAD (Rental Assistance Demonstration) program. .

At the time of the RAD award the residents are temporarily housed at other public housing and market units.

Residents of record of the designated SNRHA RAD properties at the time of award will have the right of return to the property once construction and rehabilitation are completed. Residents will be offered units in accordance with their family composition at the time of reentry.

Units not occupied by returning residents will be occupied in accordance with the Administrative Plan eligibility, admission, and selection policies for the Project Based programs in Housing Choice Voucher (Section 8) program.

Existing residents are not subject to re-screening, income eligibility or income targeting provisions in order to return.

Existing residents who have been temporarily transferred, whose accounts reflect a security deposit will have the security deposit transferred at RAD closing, except in the case of the deposit being applied for unpaid rent or tenant caused damage. Tenant is responsible for payment of any remaining security deposit due.

Tenant monthly rent increases of greater than 10% or $25 purely as a result of conversion will be phased in over 3 years or extended up to 5 years by the PHA. Increases will automatically be applied on the first day of the month of the effective date of recertification.

Renewal of Lease: Under current regulations at 24 CFR 982.257 (b)(c), upon lease expiration, SNRHA shall renew all leases unless cause exist.

Residents occupying the RAD, Project Based Conversion property may be eligible to receive a Section 8 voucher after 1 year of occupancy if regular tenant based vouchers are available and an appropriate 60-day written notice is provided to management. Tenant and tenant's household must be in good standing and meet eligibility requirements for the PHA's HCV (Section 8) program prior to being issued a voucher.

If the families are currently enrolled in PH Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) after the RAD conversion, SNRHA shall enroll them in its HCV FSS program. Resident under RAD not enrolled in PH FSS at the time of conversion will not be eligible to participate in the program. Residents shall have the right to establish and operate a resident organization and be eligible for participation funding.

Resident Procedural Rights [PIH-2012-32 (HA), REV-2]:

The following items must be incorporated into both the Section 8 Administrative Plan and the Project Owner's lease, which includes the required tenancy addendum, as appropriate. Evidence of such incorporation may be requested by HUD for purposes of monitoring the program.

Termination Notification:

HUD is incorporating additional termination notification requirements to comply with section 6 of the Act for public housing projects that convert assistance under RAD. In addition to the regulations at 24 CFR § 983.257 related to Project Owner termination of tenancy and eviction (which MTW agencies may not alter) the termination procedure for RAD conversions to PBV will require that PHAs provide adequate written notice of termination of the lease which shall not be less than:

- a. A reasonable period of time, but not to exceed 30 days:
  - i. If the health or safety of other tenants, PHA employees, or persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises is threatened; or
  - ii. In the event of any drug-related or violent criminal activity or any felony conviction;
- b. 14 days in the case of nonpayment of rent; and
- c. 30 days in any other case, except that if a State or local law provides for a shorter period of time, such shorter period shall apply.

Grievance Process:

Pursuant to requirements in the RAD Statute, HUD is establishing additional procedural rights to comply with section 6 of the Act. For issues related to tenancy and termination of assistance,

PBV program rules require the Project Owner to provide an opportunity for an informal hearing, as outlined in 24 CFR § 982.555. RAD will specify alternative requirements for 24 CFR § 982.555(b) in part, which outlines when informal hearings are not required, to require that:

- a. In addition to reasons that require an opportunity for an informal hearing given in 24 CFR § 982.555(a)(1)(i)-(vi),<sup>26</sup> an opportunity for an informal hearing must be given to residents for any dispute that a resident may have with respect to a Project Owner action in accordance with the individual's lease or the contract administrator in accordance with RAD PBV requirements that adversely affect the resident's rights, obligations, welfare, or status.
  - i. For any hearing required under 24 CFR § 982.555(a)(1)(i)-(vi), the contract administrator will perform the hearing, as is the current standard in the program. The hearing officer must be selected in accordance with 24 CFR § 982.555(e)(4)(i).
  - ii. For any additional hearings required under RAD, the Project Owner will perform the hearing.
- b. There is no right to an informal hearing for class grievances or to disputes between residents not involving the Project Owner or contract administrator.
- c. The Project Owner gives residents notice of their ability to request an informal hearing as outlined in 24 CFR § 982.555(c)(1) for informal hearings that will address circumstances that fall outside of the scope of 24 CFR § 982.555(a)(1)(i)-(vi).
- d. The Project Owner provides opportunity for an informal hearing before an eviction.

Current PBV program rules require that hearing procedures must be outlined in the PHA's Section 8 Administrative Plan.

Earned Income Disregard (EID) [24 CFR 5.617]:

Residents who are employed and are currently receiving the EID exclusion at the time of conversion will continue to receive the EID exclusion after conversion, in accordance with regulations at 24 CFR § 960.255. After conversion, no other residents will be eligible to receive the EID. If a tenant receiving the EID exclusion undergoes a break in employment, ceases to use the EID exclusion, or the EID exclusion expires in accordance with 24 CFR §960.255, the tenant will no longer receive the EID exclusion and the Owner will no longer be subject to the provisions of 24 CFR §960.255. Furthermore, residents whose EID ceases or expires after conversion shall not be subject to the rent phase-in provision, as described in Section 1.7.B.3; instead, the rent will automatically be adjusted to the appropriate rent level based upon tenant income at that time.

Earned Income Disregard (EID)

With HUD's Final Rule dated March 8, 2016, entitled "Streamlining Administrative Regulations for Public Housing/Housing Choice Voucher Final Rule," the requirements changed that families maintain continual employment in order to obtain EID benefits over a straight 24-month period. The Final Rule removes this requirement for continuous employment and benefits now applies for a straight 24 month period, with a clear start and end date, irrespective of whether a family maintains continual employment during the 24 months period. SNRHA shall not track start and stop time of employments but shall track start date, the 12-month date (on which the amount of the disregard may change from 100 percent to not less than 50% of earned income) and the 24-month end date. For families enrolled prior to the effective date of this regulation (March 8, 2016) the previous requirement shall continue.

FAMILY SELF-SUFFICIENCY STATEMENT OF POLICIES

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Family Self Sufficiency Program (FSS) is to promote the development of local strategies to coordinate the use of Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) and Public Housing (PH) assistance with public and private resources to enable eligible families to achieve economic independence and self-sufficiency

The FSS is a program designed to promote employment and increase asset building among families living in assisted housing. The three main features of the FSS Program are: (1) case management; (2) delivery of the services; (3) the creation of an escrow account.

The FSS Program has been in existence since 1992; operating within the City of Las Vegas Housing Authority, City of North Las Vegas Housing Authority and the Housing Authority of the County of Clark, Nevada until the regionalization into Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority (SNRHA) on January 1, 2010.

The local FSS Program is intended to serve as a catalyst for families to accept responsibility for themselves as they move toward achieving economic independence and self-sufficiency through the full utilization of resources made available through the FSS program.

In implementing its Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) Program, SNRHA) is committed to providing the highest quality of housing and related non-housing services to its FSS Program Participants. Such non-housing services will take the form of a wide range of supportive services directly related to promoting the economic self-sufficiency of program participants. To encourage participants to reach their fullest economic potential, SNRHA will link community supportive services with an individual's educational, job training, and job placement goals. Goal setting will be facilitated by the staff of the agency's FSS program.

Each participant will develop their Individual Training and Service Plan (ITSP) with the assistance of their FSS Coordinator.

The FSS Coordinator will develop the ITSP with input from each participant.

PART I: INTRODUCTION

BENEFITS OF OPERATING A VOLUNTARY FSS PROGRAM:

An aggressive and innovative FSS program will yield numerous, positive benefits such as:

- A direct increase in the number of working families within SNRHA programs - participants who, initially, may have received welfare benefits will be encouraged to seek and maintain employment in order to graduate from the program.
- A reduction of under-employed families – participants who may have lacked the necessary job skills to reach economic independence will have access to appropriate training which will lead to greater employment opportunities.
- Encourage good working relationships with local service providers and other community agencies for the benefit of the residents and program participants.

PROGRAM COORDINATING COMMITTEE (PCC)

The purpose of the SNRHA PCC is to assist with providing and/or securing public and private resources for the operation of the FSS programs and the development of the FSS Action Plan.

PCC membership is composed of a cross section of service providers, sponsors of skills-based training, community partners, employers, FSS program participants and SNRHA staff.

The PCC membership shall include the following:

- A PH resident and a Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) participant, who has currently or previously received public assistance, has successfully completed, or is currently enrolled in a self-sufficiency or welfare-to-work related program, and is in compliance with their program obligations;
- SNRHA FSS Coordinators
- Representatives from financial institutions
- Representative from local post-secondary educational institution
- Representative from local welfare agency
- Child care provider
- Representatives from non-profit service providers
- All Onsite Service Providers (at least one representative from each provider)

CERTIFICATION OF COORDINATION:

The development and retention of viable, extensive partnerships with the public and private sector are paramount to the success of the FSS Program. The FSS Program Coordinating Committee and FSS Coordinators shall coordinate this endeavor.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES:

The Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) program is intended to promote the development of local strategies to coordinate the use of Public Housing (PH) assistance and Housing Choice Vouchers (HCV) with public and private resources, to enable eligible families receive assistance under these programs to achieve economic independence and self-sufficiency.

The overall goal of the FSS Program is to assist and motivate low-income individuals and families by working together to overcome barriers, build self-esteem, and establish obtainable goals. The objective of the FSS Program is to reduce dependence of low-income families on welfare assistance, HCV and public housing assistance, and/or any other federal, state, or local rental or homeownership subsidies.

In order to obtain self-sufficiency, participating families are introduced to individualized case management where obstacles are identified so suitable goals can be set. Appropriate services are then identified to promote successful attainment of these goals. Participants shall be required to attend a set number of self-help workshops and seminars. Failure to attend required sessions can result in termination of the FSS contract, unless failure to attend is for good cause and prior notice was provided. Goals of the FSS Program are achieved through:

- One-on-one counseling to emphasize the importance of education and training to increase earning potential
- Career and personal counseling to set realistic goals and timeframes
- Strategies that encourage employment, entrepreneurship, and homeownership
- Referrals to community support services
- Incentives and recognition for achievements (i.e. escrow savings account, achievement highlights in the agency newsletter, and/or other communication tools.)

PROGRAM MEASUREMENTS

The FSS Program will measure the success of the families who participate in the program and achieve self-sufficiency or accomplish similar goals, by tracking:

- Family members who seek and maintain suitable-employment
- Family members who get higher paying jobs
- Family members who get the GED or higher educational degrees
- Family members who no longer are receiving welfare benefits

PROGRAM SIZE

The minimum program size for the FSS Program of Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority (SNRHA) is 140 mandatory slots as of February 2016.

ESTIMATE OF POTENTIAL PARTICIPATING FAMILIES:

SNRHA owns 2,882 Public Housing units and administers 11,013 Housing Choice Vouchers which together provide housing assistance to over 32,600 residents. The FSS Program is open to all adults, ages 18 and over, without regards to race, color, religion, sexual orientation, age, disability, familial status, or national origin.

SUPPORTIVE SERVICES NEEDS:

The following represents some of the most needed supportive services for program participants:

- Education
  - High School Equivalency Test (HiSET) preparation
  - Postsecondary education preparation
  - English as a second language (ESL)
  - Computer training

- Life Skills
  - Domestic Violence awareness and prevention
  - Home Management
  - Self-Enrichment
  - Child Care
  - Parenting and Child Development
  - Transportation

- Financial Literacy
  - Credit Counseling
  - Budgeting
  - Asset Building
  - Debt Management
  - Homebuyer Education

- Employment
  - Vocational Training
  - Resume Building
  - Effective Job Search
  - Interview Skills and Techniques
  - Job Placement and Retention

- Healthcare
  - Affordable Health Care
  - Social Services
  - Addiction Prevention

INCENTIVES TO ENCOURAGE PARTICIPATION:

SNRHA offers many incentives to encourage FSS Program participation, including the following services:

- Individual case management
- Links to community resources
  - Career assessment
  - Job skills/training
  - Financial management
  - Credit repair services
- Escrow account credits
- Homeownership opportunities

ASSURANCE OF NON-INTERFERENCE:

- The decision, by a family to participate, or not, in the FSS Program, will not affect their right to admission in the Public Housing or Housing Choice Voucher Programs, or their right to occupancy in accordance with their lease.

FAMILY SELECTION PROCEDURES

In accordance with applicable federal regulations, families are selected without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, handicap, familial status or national origin.

SNRHA observes all federal regulations related to FSS participation for all applicants.

After lease-up or occupancy, the participant/resident who has expressed an interest in participating in the FSS program is placed on the applicable FSS waiting list until there are available FSS slots available.

Applicants shall be selected in order of the date they were placed on the Interest List and the date of next annual re-examination. For the voucher FSS program, preference will be given to HCV Program FSS Port-in participants; then to those PH residents receiving HCV assistance as a result of demolition of their PH developments; then to Foster Care Youth preference holders.

Applicants will be denied participation if:

- They were previous participants in FSS and previously received escrow, violated the family obligations under HCV, or lease violations under PH the programs.
- Have an unpaid debt to any PHA and does not have a current repayment agreement that is compliant.

Applicants will be notified of their status within 15 calendar days. Each eligible head of household will be notified in writing or other communication method requested by a participant with a disability and given a date/time for their initial FSS program orientation session. This session may be conducted individually or in a group.

For each program applicant deemed ineligible for FSS program participation, the written notice shall inform the family of reason(s) for denial with enough specificity to allow them the opportunity to provide specific written evidence of eligibility and inform them of their right to an informal review of the decision to be held conducted by the Director of Supportive Services.

Each family must complete a Pre-Assessment Form. The Pre-Assessment Form is a tool that will be used to establish a base level of need. It will be used, for case management purposes only, to determine the participant's level of education, job skills, prior work experience, and career interest and program readiness. It will not be used to screen-out any participant.

Portability:

Portability members (Port-ins) from other FSS Programs will be welcomed into the SNRHA Family Self-Sufficiency Program, if open slots are available. If slots are not available, the family will be placed on the Interest Form List according to the date and time that the request was received. A new Contract of Participation (COP) will be executed for the remaining time of the initial contract. Exceptions to this policy in accordance with 24 CFR 984.306 regarding absorbing of FSS port-in clients. If SNRHA is absorbing under the HCV program, incoming HCV participants already enrolled in FSS and in good standing with the initial PHA will be absorbed, if funding is available.

The Head of Household (HOH) must sign the COP before other family members can participate.

The program participant must be:

- A current resident/participant, 18 years or older, in good standing with the SNRHA program under which they are a participant.
- Lease compliant (PH Residents)
- Current with community service hours (not applicable to HCV) or current on repayment agreement
- Not under eviction or termination.

SNRHA FSS Coordinators will use multiple methods to inform and recruit eligible program participants. Promotional materials are distributed to existing program participants and to applicants who are near completion in the lease-up process. These materials highlight program information and benefits, may include flyers, posters, FSS Brochure, and Interest Form. Several other outreach methods will be used to encourage FSS Program participation.

- The FSS informational brochures and interest forms will be available in SNRHA lobbies, administrative offices, management offices and /or distributed upon request
- The FSS department may mail brochures, annually to all eligible households
- FSS presentations may be conducted during any resident informational sessions

The FSS application process is as follows:

- The HOH must submit an interest form
- FSS Coordinators will verify the status of the resident, if lease compliant, the HOH will be placed on the interest list, in the YARDI system, by the date the interest form was received

- Eligible HOH will be invited, and must attend, an orientation session, if not; the family will be removed from the interest list. The orientation sessions will be held at various times on at least two different days, per month
- During the orientation session, detailed program information will be shared to assist the HOH in making the decision to participate
- If the HOH decides to participate, a Pre-Assessment Form must be completed
- If the HOH decides not to participate, the family will be removed from the Interest List

The Pre-Assessment Form is a tool that will be used to establish a base level of need. It will be used for case management purposes only, to determine the participant's level of education, job skills, prior work experience, career interest and program readiness. It will not be used to screen-out any participant.

The FSS enrollment criteria are as follows:

- The participant must be compliant with the terms of the lease or Housing Assistance Payment (HAP) agreement Family Obligations under the HCV program
- The HOH must have had an annual certification within the previous 120 days to begin the enrollment process.

ACTION PLAN

SNRHA's FSS Program Action Plan will govern the operation of the FSS Program. This plan shall be updated annually and submitted to HUD each January.

INCREASING NUMBER OF WORKING FAMILIES

In an effort to increase the number of working families within the agency's housing assistance programs, SNRHA will identify, mobilize, and link resources in a manner that will expand the Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) Program to assist as many motivated and interested families as the program resources will accommodate.

SNRHA will implement this process as follows:

- Execute MOUs, if appropriate, with the initially targeted self-sufficiency partners, in order to have adequate services available to meet obligations to the motivated families as the families are selected for participation in the FSS program
- Develop and issue an FSS program booklet listing the basic program objectives, enrollment procedures, and primary service providers to all currently enrolled and interested families
- Coordinators shall identify resources to ensure families have tools to assist them in achieving their goals.

TARGETED SUPPORTIVE SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED

The following forms of supportive services will be provided for the FSS Program participants through collaborative partnerships with area governmental, educational, and/or non-profit service providers:

- Childcare
- Transportation
- Remedial Education
- Secondary and Post-Secondary Education
- Job Readiness Training
- Jobs Referrals
- Homeownership Counseling
- Credit Counseling/Credit Repair
- Referrals to local supportive services; i.e. welfare; LIHEA; SSA and Medicaid

INCENTIVES TO ENCOURAGE PARTICIPATION

SNRHA offers many incentives to encourage FSS Program participation, including the following:

- Individual case management
- Quarterly Meetings
- Links to community resources
  - Career assessment
  - Job skills/training
  - Financial management
  - Credit repair services
- Escrow account credits
- Homeownership opportunities

ASSURANCE OF NON-INTERFERENCE

If a family decides not to participate in the FSS Program, that decision will not affect the family's right to admission in the Public Housing or HCV Programs or the right to occupancy in accordance with the lease.

METHOD FOR IDENTIFICATION OF SUPPORTIVE SERVICE NEEDS:

The FSS Coordinator will provide on-going coordination and encouragement to the FSS Family. A critical factor in the provision of case management services is a regular communication between the Coordinators and their assigned families. All newly enrolled participants are required to meet with their Coordinator monthly, for the first three (3) months and quarterly thereafter. Assessment of the participant's needs and their on-going progress continues throughout the length of the FSS Contract of Participation (COP). Employment and career development plans are made based on the assessment.

CONTRACT OF PARTICIPATION

The COP will be discussed in detail with eligible family members, prior to being signed by the HOH. Other household members, 18 or older, may enroll in the FSS program at any time. These household members will be required to work one-on-one with the FSS Coordinator to develop and sign their own Individual Training and Service Plan (ITSP).

The enrollment process is complete once the HOH and the FSS Coordinator sign the COP.

The COP must include:

1. ITSP
2. A list of interim goals, one of which must be that all family members receiving Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), are off welfare assistance and remain independent for at least 12 consecutive months before the contract expires
3. Finals goals
4. The “seek and maintain suitable employment” clause which includes employment, interviews, and other activities related to job search. A determination of suitable employment shall be made by SNRHA based on the skills, education, and job training of the HOH and based on the available job opportunities within the jurisdiction served by SNRHA
5. Baseline information, annual income, earned income, and Total Tenant Payment (TTP)/30% of monthly adjusted income

After the initial activities have been completed, the FSS head of household will be required to sign an FSS Contract of Participation (HUD Form 52650).

The Contract of Participation will set forth the terms and conditions of participation in the FSS Program. It also includes the rights and responsibilities of the FSS family and SNRHA.

The ITSP will be an attachment to the FSS Contract. If the FSS participants are receiving benefits under the TANF program, SNRHA shall establish a goal that the family will become independent from TANF assistance at least one (1) year before the expiration of the term of the Contract of Participation. The Contract of Participation provides that one of the obligations of the FSS family is to comply with the terms of the HCV and/or PH requirements.

It is the responsibility of the FSS Coordinator to review the FSS Contract of Participation, in its entirety, with the participant. This will include a review of both the contract terms and the ITSP.

During this meeting, the participant will have the opportunity to amend any portion of the ITSP with the concurrence of the FSS Coordinator. Should the proposed changes substantially alter the participant's goals in a manner that does not meet the program objectives and/or the original selection criteria, such change may not be approved. FSS Coordinator determines the participant is no longer committed to the objectives of the FSS program the FSS Coordinator may terminate the FSS participant's enrollment process. Any terminations must be made in writing and the family must be advised of the procedures for obtaining an informal hearing under the public housing or HCV program, as applicable.

The participant and FSS Coordinator will jointly execute the Contract of Participation. The original Contract, and any applicable attachments, will be maintained in the participant folder. At the close of this meeting, the participant will be provided with copies of the:

- Service Provider Referral Letters (original with copies to file)
- Contract of Participation and ITSP (copy)
- Escrow Worksheet (copy)

EMPLOYMENT AND EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

At any time the participant is not enrolled in an approved jobs training or educational program, the participant shall be required under the Contract of Participation to seek and maintain suitable employment of at least 20+ hours per week at minimum federal wages.

Only the head of household of the FSS family will be required to seek and maintain suitable employment. To seek employment means to provide evidence that he or she is actively completing/submitting job applications, participating in job interviews, and/or soliciting job leads through the Nevada Employment Services. The participant must complete and submit the Documentation of Search Form and submit monthly to the FSS Coordinator.

Determination of a participant's employability shall be made by SNRHA based on skills, education, prior work experience and or jobs training, as well as the perceived level of work opportunities based on individual attributes.

Alternatively, a participant may be enrolled in an educational program that is expected to result in the award of a diploma, certificate or degree. For anything other than remedial/basic education, the FSS participant must provide evidence that they are enrolled full-time in accordance with the institution's requirements for full time status for day students. The participant may also be required to periodically provide evidence that they are continually enrolled throughout the calendar year.

In summary, the FSS participant must be employed, in school/jobs training on a full time basis, or evidence a combination of school and work.

Participants must attend a FSS Support Group once every six (6) months.

Reasonable accommodations will be made upon request for FSS applicants with disabilities. SNRHA will work closely with heads of household who are disabled and may require a disability-specific jobs training program.

CONTRACT TERM

The Contract of Participation (COP) shall provide that each FSS participant will be required to fulfill their FSS obligations in not more than five (5) years after the effective date of the contract.

This COP is a binding, five-year agreement between the Head of Household and the Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority. This COP must:

- a. Help develop the Individual Training & Service Plan (ITSP).
- b. List interim and final goals – one of which must be that all family members are off welfare assistance and remain independent for at least one (1) year before contract expires, including any extensions.
- c. Include “seek and maintain suitable employment” clause which includes employment, interviews, and other activities related to job search. (An employment counselor will determine the definition of ‘suitable employment’ for occupations outside the norm.)
- d. Include baseline information – income, rent, and employment status.
- e. Interim goals may not be changed during the last six (6) months of the contract.

The COP will be discussed in detail with interested family members, prior to being signed by the HH; however, the family must be in compliance with all lease terms and conditions.

Other household members, 18 or older, may enroll in FSS at any time during the program. These household members will be required to work one-on-one with the FSS Coordinator to develop and sign their own ITSP.

During, the term of the COP, changes may be made to the ITSP and/or change of the FSS designated HH, by written request. The FSS Coordinator will forward the request as appropriate. Once the decision has been made, the Coordinator will respond in writing.

The participant will have ten (10) calendar days, to appeal the decision to the Director of Supportive Services (DSS) or designee. The participant shall have the opportunity to present written or oral objections.

Case Files

The FSS Coordinator will maintain an individual case file on each FSS participant. The file will contain the following documents:

- Contract of Participation
- ITSP(s)
- Interest Form, FSS Pre-assessment & Assessment Forms
- Escrow Calculation and Tracking Forms
- Documentation of program participation
- Case notes detailing each contact with the participating family
- Extension and other related forms and letters
- Referral letters and other relevant correspondence
- Termination forms

- Extension approvals of approved changes to ITSPs

ESCROW ACCOUNT MANAGEMENT

SNRHA shall maintain all FSS participant escrow accounts in accordance with HUD's regulations for recording program accounts. Escrow accounts are maintained on each participant. The escrow calculation allocates monthly savings amounts for each family, based on increases in their rent due to increased earned income (salary and wages.)

The annual or interim recertification exam determines when and how much change there will be to the Total Tenant Payment (the tenant's portion of the rent and utilities), which will then result in changes to the escrow accruals.

(Special Public Housing and HCV Notice: HUD approved income exclusions {earned income disallowance} will affect the FSS escrow account accruals.)

In an effort to maximize investment earnings, FSS escrow funds are combined and placed in a HUD approved investment instruments. The interest paid on the actual investment will be credited to the individual FSS escrow accounts at least annually.

If the FSS participant has not paid the family's contribution towards rent during the month in which such payment was due, or the other amounts, if any, due under the Public Housing lease and/or amounts due the SNHRA under the HCV program (e.g., repayment agreement), the balance in the account shall be reduced by that amount before prorating/calculating the interest income earned.

The participant will receive an escrow statement annually. This report will include the current monthly escrow credit along with the total escrow and interest accrual to date. These annual escrow reports serve both as a way to measure progress and as a motivator for pursuing self-sufficiency goals.

If the family is a HCV program port-in and SNRHA absorbs the family, the initial PHA must send the funds in the family's escrow account to SNRHA to administer.

A family in the SNRHA HCV program may port-out to the jurisdiction of a receiving PHA as long as the FSS participant has been in SNHRA's program for at least 12 months and as long as the receiving PHA has an FSS program and will accept the family.

If the receiving PHA has an FSS Program and will accept/absorb the family, then the receiving PHA will execute a new contract for the remaining time on the initial Contract. SNRHA will send the family's escrow funds to the receiving PHA and will close the contract at SNRHA.

If the receiving PHA does not have an FSS Program, then the family forfeits their FSS escrow account.

INTERIM ESCROW WITHDRAWALS:

An HOH may be permitted to withdraw escrow funds for program and/or supportive services expenses such as completion of his/her education, job training or start-up expenses for new business, however, the participant must:

- Have exhausted all other resources, and provided written acceptable verification
- Not owe a debt to SNRHA (unless the participant is current with a repayment agreement)
- Be in program compliance with both FSS and SNRHA
- Submit a written request and documentation of the need to the FSS Coordinator
- Have attended one FSS Support Group workshops within the last six months
- Be actively pursuing FSS goals
- Use the escrow funds for purposes of meeting ITSP goals only, otherwise, the participant will be terminated from the FSS program
- Provide receipts(s) verifying expenditure(s) within 30 days.

All written requests for interim disbursement will be submitted to the Director of Supportive Services (DSS), after the FSS Coordinator and the Resident Program Coordinator (RPC) have reviewed the request, to determine the adequacy of documentation and the level of need. The Coordinators must submit proof that other resources have been denied such as transportation cost, childcare, and care repairs if the family is eligible to receive from the Department of Welfare and Social Services (DWSS.) The DSS has final approval.

The FSS Coordinator will inform the participant of the request results.

- If the request is approved, the interim escrow distribution check will be prepared within 10 business days
- Within 10 business days after the escrow funds are received, the participant must provide documentation/receipts(s)
- Failure to provide documentation/receipts, participant will be terminated from the FSS program
- If the request is denied, the FSS Coordinator will mail to the participant, a written notification stating the reasons(s) for denial, or
- There is no appeal process for interim disbursement requests.

CONTRACT EXTENSION FOR GOOD CAUSE:

SNRHA and the FSS participant must mutually agree to modify the Contract of Participation. However, no approvals for change of head of household shall be approved unless it is due to the death of the head of household as identified at the time of signing the COP or as a reasonable accommodation approved by SNRHA's 504 Coordinator.

The COP must be modified in writing with respect to changes to the participant's individual training and supportive service plan, the FSS contract, and/or the designated head of the family.

If an FSS service partner fails to deliver the supportive services pledged pursuant to a participant's ITSP, SNRHA shall make a good faith effort to obtain the same or similar services from another agency. If the absence of certain services will severely impact the participant's ability to achieve their original goals, the FSS Coordinator is authorized to assist the family in modifying the ITSP, removing any contract obligation of the participant to receive unavailable services and revising, as appropriate, the contract terms.

Contract extensions may be approved up to two (2) years, for active FSS participants under the following conditions:

- Goals which have not been met due to circumstance beyond the control of the participant (i.e.: loss of employment, medical issues, death in the family, etc.)

To request a program extension, the FSS participant must submit a written request to the FSS Coordinator. The written request must include the reason(s) for requesting the extension and verification. To determine if an extension is warranted, the FSS Coordinator will review the request, program compliance and progress with the participant.

The FSS Coordinator will submit to the RPC, a written recommendation for review. The RPC will submit same to the DSS for final approval.

There is no grievance process available when an extension is denied.

SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF THE PROGRAM:

Successful completion of the FSS Program occurs at any time during the FSS COP, if the following conditions are met, and the participant:

- Has achieved all of his/her personal goals stated on the FSS COP; and
- SNRHA verifies family members have not received welfare cash assistance during the previous twelve (12) consecutive months; or
- 30% of the family's monthly adjusted income equals or is greater than the Fair Market Rent (FMR) amount for the unit size for which the family qualifies.

All members of the household with an ITSP must complete established goals in order for the family to graduate.

FSS participants may successfully complete the program in less than the five (5)-year COP if all other requirements are met. Successful program graduates are not required to leave subsidized housing.

The full balance of escrow, less any outstanding debt to SNRHA, will be given to the HOH within 30 days after the effective date of program completion.

There are no restrictions on the use of the escrow funds, and the U.S. Internal Revenue Service has ruled these funds are not subject to federal income tax.

Participants who have successfully completed the FSS program are not eligible for re-enrollment.

CONTRACT TERMINATION

Voluntary:

Participation in the FSS Program is voluntary. Participants may withdraw from the program at any time. This request will be honored without penalty regarding the family's housing status.

When SNRHA and family agree the FSS program ceases to meet the needs of the family, the FSS contract may be terminated. This must be indicated in writing and signed by both the head of household and a representative of SNRHA. This request will be honored without penalty regarding the family's housing status.

The family may reapply after one (1) year from the date of prior termination at any time in the future with acceptance being based on availability of space in the program. However, priority for participation will be for those who have not previously participated in FSS. Any amount in the family's FSS escrow account will be returned to SNRHA's appropriate program accounts.

Involuntary:

Reasons for involuntary termination from the FSS program include, but are not limited to:

- Adverse loss of housing assistance
- Failure to fulfill responsibilities under the COP
- Failure to provide documentation/receipts for interim disbursements
- An act occurs that is inconsistent with the purpose of the FSS program.

Failure to Meet Contract Obligations/Involuntary Terminations

The following actions are considered failure of the FSS participant to meet its obligations under the contract of participation without good cause, including the failure of an HCV program participant to comply with the contract requirements because the family has moved outside of the jurisdiction of SNRHA.

- Loss of Housing Choice Voucher or PH assistance
- Failure to complete activities on the ITSP on a repeated basis [more than (2) occurrences, as well as failure to attend appointments with FSS Coordinator]
- Failure to meet requirements for graduation within the five (5)-year term of the program or an approved extension, or
- Failure to complete 12 months of participation prior to porting-out

The family's FSS escrow account will be forfeited, however, the family may re-apply to the FSS Program after a minimum twelve months.

By Other Such Act as Deemed Inconsistent with the Objectives of the FSS Program

This includes, but is not limited to, fraud, illegal activities or any activity that would normally result in eviction from public housing community or termination of the HCV housing assistance payments. Any amount in the family's FSS escrow account will be returned to SNRHA's appropriate funds.

Good Cause shall be defined to mean circumstances beyond the control of the FSS family such as a serious illness or loss of employment by the head of household. These circumstances must be verified by third party methods. The participant must have demonstrated active participation and progress in the FSS program.

Grievance Procedure:

In the event that the FSS Coordinator terminates a participant from the program, a termination letter will be mailed to the participant clearly stating the reason(s) for the decision. The participant will have 10 business days, from the date of the letter, to contact the Resident Program Coordinator (RPC) or designee.

Written decision notification from the RPC or designee shall be issued to the participant within 10 business days. If the participant does not agree with the decision of the RPC, they may request a review of the decision with the DSS.

If the participant does not agree with the decision of the DSS, they may request a hearing with the SNRHA Hearing Officer, according to the guidelines established in the Admissions and Occupancy Policy (ACOP) for Public Housing residents or Administrative Plan for Housing Choice Voucher participants.

CHANGES TO THE ACOP AND ADMINISTRATIVE PLAN:

SNRHA recognizes that the implementation of the FSS Action Plan is a dynamic process, which may need to incorporate changes/revisions to current policies and procedures to be an effective working tool for staff.

SNRHA will review its approved ACOP Policy and Administrative Plan as needed, to ensure the FSS Action Plan is consistent with all program objectives. Any necessary changes will be made to SNRHA policy with prior public notices and Board approval.

BY OPERATION OF LAW

If the FSS program itself is terminated by an act of law, all contracts will automatically expire. Any amount in the family's FSS escrow account will be returned to SNRHA's appropriate fund accounts.

All HCV program participants at their briefing will be provided with an FSS interest form to complete. PH residents shall be advised of the opportunity to participate in the FSS program during their initial leasing meeting.

Additional outreach will be done through newsletters and brochures are available in the lobby and SNRHA website (www.snrha.org).

PROGRAM ACCOUNTABILITY

PENALTIES FOR FAILURE TO MEET OR EXCEED THE CONTRACT TERMS

The FSS Coordinator shall clearly explain violations or non-compliance with the provisions of the Contract of Participation, which may include termination in the FSS program and forfeiture of escrow account.

PROGRAM ACCOUNTABILITY AND REPORTING

Service Partner Follow-Up

Service providers will be asked to complete and return the bottom portion of the FSS Referral Form when the family has completed their initial intake activities with the service partner. The FSS Coordinator must contact any participant who fails to initially utilize the service provider(s) within 60 calendar days of the initial date of referral or within referral timeframe.

Service providers will be encouraged to contact the FSS Coordinator when the participant fails to follow through or encounters obstacles to service or program completing.

FSS participants are required to meet with their assigned case manager on a monthly basis for the first three (3) months of program activity. Thereafter, the case manager and participant will meet on a quarterly basis. If there are problems or if the case manager suspects non-compliance, the participant shall be placed on a monthly basis.

The participant's progress will be charted on their Individual Training and Service Plan (ITSP).

The ITSP will serve as a worksheet for tracking progress in the areas of education, job skills training, jobs placement, transportation, childcare, etc. Any necessary revisions to the ITSP will be made as a result of the progress (or lack thereof) documented through the ITSP. New referrals and or adjustments in interim goals may also occur.

Attendance at the scheduled meetings with the case manager is mandatory. Failure to maintain two (2) or more consecutive appointments is grounds for termination from the program. Only the Director of Supportive Services may grant a waiver as a reasonable accommodation or for other extreme circumstances.

Chapter 4

TENANT SELECTION AND ASSIGNMENT PLAN

(Includes Preferences and Managing the Waiting List)

[24 CFR 960.204]

INTRODUCTION

It is the SNRHA policy that each applicant shall be assigned an appropriate place on a jurisdiction-wide waiting list unless the applicant has applied for a development subject to a site-based waiting list. Applicants will be listed in sequence based upon date and time the application is received, the size and type of unit they require, the site in which they wish to reside for applicable designated communities, and factors of preference or priority. In filling an actual or expected vacancy, the SNRHA will offer the dwelling unit to an applicant in the appropriate sequence, with the goal of accomplishing de-concentration of poverty and income-mixing objectives. The SNRHA will offer the unit until it is accepted. This Chapter describes the SNRHA policies with regard to the number of unit offers that will be made to applicants selected from the waiting list.

SNRHA OBJECTIVES

SNRHA policies will be followed consistently and will affirmatively further HUD's fair housing goals.

It is the SNRHA objective to ensure that families are placed in the proper order on the waiting list so that the offer of a unit is not delayed to any family unnecessarily or made to any family prematurely. This chapter explains the policies for the management of the waiting list.

When appropriate units are available, families will be selected from the waiting list in sequence within their preference category and date and time sequence.

By maintaining an accurate waiting list, the SNRHA will be able to perform the activities which ensure that an adequate pool of qualified applicants will be available to fill unit vacancies in a timely manner. Based on the SNRHA turnover and the availability of appropriate sized units, groups of families will be selected from the waiting list to form a final eligibility "pool." Selection from the pool will be based on completion of verification.

SITE-BASED/DESIGNATED WAITING LISTS

Per the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998, SNRHA uses site-based/designated waiting lists.

A. MANAGEMENT OF THE WAITING LIST

The SNRHA will administer its waiting list as required by 24 CFR Part 5, Subparts E and F, Part 945 and 960.201 through 960.215. The waiting list will be maintained in accordance with the following guidelines:

The application will be a permanent part of the file.

All applicants in the pool will be maintained in order of preference. Applications equal in preference will be maintained by date and time sequence.

All applicants must meet applicable income eligibility requirements as established by HUD.

Opening and Closing the Waiting Lists

The SNRHA, at its discretion, may restrict application intake, suspend application intake, and close waiting lists in whole or in part.

The decision to close the waiting list will be based on the number of applications available for a particular size and type of unit, and the ability of the SNRHA to house an applicant in an appropriate unit within a reasonable period of time.

When the SNRHA opens the waiting list, the SNRHA will advertise the location(s), and program(s) for which applications are being accepted in the following newspapers:

Las Vegas Review Journal/Sun
El Mundo
Las Vegas Asian Journal
Indian Voice
The Challenger Rehabilitation, Disability Newspaper

To reach persons with disabilities, the SNRHA will provide separate notice to local organizations representing the interests and needs of the disabled. This will include notice to the following organizations:

Opportunity Village
Nevada Disability Advocacy and Law Center Nevada
Legal Services
Help Them Walk Again
Nevada Association for the Handicapped

The notice will contain:

- The dates, times, and the locations where families may apply.
- Any designated housing for which site-based waiting lists are applicable
- The programs for which applications will be taken.
- Limitations, if any, on whom may apply.

The notices will be made in an accessible format, if requested. They will provide potential applicants with information that includes the SNRHA address and telephone number, and how to submit an application.

When Application Taking is Suspended

The SNRHA may suspend the acceptance of applications if there are enough applicants to fill anticipated openings for the next 12 to 24 months.

The waiting list may not be closed if it would have a discriminatory effect inconsistent with applicable civil rights laws.

During the period when the waiting list is closed, the SNRHA will not maintain a list of individuals who wish to be notified when the waiting list is open.

Suspension of application taking is announced in the same way as opening the waiting list. SNRHA will give at least five (5) days notice prior to opening or closing the list.

When the period for accepting applications is over, the SNRHA will add the new applicants to the list by:

- Unit size, local preference, and by date and time of application.

The SNRHA will update the waiting list at least annually by removing the names of those families who are no longer interested, no longer qualify for housing, or cannot be reached by mail. At the time of initial intake, the SNRHA will advise families of their responsibility to notify the SNRHA in writing when mailing address changes.

Limits on Who May Apply

When the waiting list is open,

- Any family asking to be placed on the waiting list for Public Housing rental assistance will be given the opportunity to complete an application.

When the application is submitted to the SNRHA, it establishes the family's date and time of application for placement order on the waiting list with preference points determining the final rank.

Multiple Families in Same Household

When families apply that consist of two families living together, (such as a mother and father, and a daughter with her own husband or children), if they apply as a family unit, they will be treated as a family unit.

B. SITE BASED WAITING LISTS

The SNRHA offers a system of site-based waiting lists for HUD-approved designated communities.

The SNRHA maintains separate site-based waiting lists for all current or future mixed financed properties, as well as all current or future RAD conversion Properties.

Applicants may choose which site-based waiting list they wish to be placed on, regardless of the application site. Applicants may designate the community or communities in which they seek to reside.

SNRHA will monitor its site-based wait list annually by comparing data in January to data in October to determine the level of change, if any, in the overall racial, ethnic and disability-related tenant composition at each SNRHA site by analyzing its data.

Every reasonable action will be taken by the SNRHA to assure that applicants can make informed choices regarding the community(s) in which they wish to reside. The SNRHA will disclose information to applicants regarding the location of available sites.

Monitoring Site-Based Waiting Lists

The system of site-based waiting lists will be carefully monitored to assure that civil rights and fair housing are affirmatively furthered.

The SNRHA adoption of site-based waiting lists is not in violation of any court order or settlement agreement, and is not inconsistent with any pending complaint brought by HUD.

The SNRHA will monitor its system of site-based waiting list annually to assure that racial steering does not occur. If the SNRHA annual analysis of its site-based waiting list indicates that a pattern of racial steering is or may be occurring, the SNRHA will take corrective action.

The SNRHA will assess changes in racial, ethnic or disability-related tenant composition at each SNRHA site that has occurred during the implementation of the site-based waiting lists. The SNRHA will make this assessment based on MTCS data.

The SNRHA has established site-based waiting lists for the following properties:

Espinoza Terrace, Designated Elderly Development, Henderson

Hampton Court, Family Development, Henderson

Otto Merida Desert Villas, Family Development, Las Vegas

Landsman Gardens, Family development, Henderson

Vera Johnson B, Family Development, Las Vegas. Vera Johnson B will convert from Mixed Finance to RAD Project Based Voucher after construction.

Biegger Estates, Family Development, Las Vegas

Rose Gardens, Designated Elderly Development, Las Vegas

The SNRHA intends to make available dwelling units, in communities designated for elderly families only, to near-elderly families if there are an insufficient number of elderly families on the waitlist. Near elderly will be defined as families whose members are 55 years of age or older.

C. WAITING LIST PREFERENCES

A preference does not guarantee admission to the program. Preferences are used to establish the order of placement on the waiting list. Every applicant must meet the SNRHA Selection Criteria as defined in this policy.

The SNRHA preference system will work in combination with requirements to match the characteristics for the family to the type of unit available, including units with targeted populations, and further de-concentration of poverty in public housing. When such matching is required or permitted by current law, the SNRHA will give preference to qualified families.

Families who reach the top of the waiting list will be contacted by the SNRHA to verify their preference and, if verified, the SNRHA will complete a full application for occupancy. Applicants must complete the application for occupancy and continue through the application processing and may not retain their place on the waiting list if they refuse to complete their processing when contacted by the SNRHA.

Among applicants with equal preference status, the waiting list will be organized by date and time.

Local Preferences

Local preferences will be used to select among applicants on the waiting list. A public hearing with an opportunity for public comment will be held before the SNRHA adopts any local reference.

The SNRHA uses the following Local Preferences:

Homeless Referral Preference: Families who are homeless (family lacks a fixed regular and adequate night time residence, or has a primary night time residence that is a supervised publicly or privately operated shelter designed to provide temporary living accommodations, such as welfare voucher hotels, congregate shelters or transitional housing designed for homeless persons, or a public or private place not designed for, or ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings) and are participating in case management with an approved referral agency. This preference shall be limited to up to 150 referrals per year ..... 60 points

Unit offers to applicants referred for this preference will be made as follows: for every two applicants from the waiting list receiving a unit offer, one applicant referred under this preference will receive a unit offer.

Homeless Families that live with friends or relatives who are not currently in the transition system, will be encourage to apply to other available SNRHA programs that they may qualify for.

Federally Declared Disasters: Victims who are holders of Section 8 Vouchers or other subsidized programs as defined as eligible units by HUD, in another jurisdiction within 120 days of the President declaring a federal disaster. .... 55 points

Working Preference: Head, spouse or co-head who is employed at least 20 hours per week at the equivalent of minimum wage, or who are active participants in accredited educational and training programs designed to prepare the individual for the job market. This preference is extended equally to elderly families or disabled families, including but not limited to those whose head or spouse is receiving SSI, SSD, or who can be verified to be unable to work, if both the head of household and spouse is either elderly or disabled..... 30 points

Veteran preference for veteran as defined by State. .... 6 points

Residency preferences for head, co-head or spouse, who live, work, have been hired to work, or are enrolled full time in an accredited school in Clark County... 5 points

Disabled veteran or family (defined as dependent son, daughter, and spouse) of a veteran with a service-connected disability. .... .5 points

Family of (defined as spouse) a deceased veteran with a service-connected death. .... .4 points

FINAL VERIFICATION OF PREFERENCES [24 CFR 5.415]

Preference information on applications will be updated as applicants are selected from the waiting list. At that time, the SNRHA will obtain necessary verifications of preference at the interview and by third party verification.

PREFERENCE DENIAL [24 CFR 5.415]

If the SNRHA denies a preference, the SNRHA will notify the applicant in writing of the reasons why the preference was denied and offer the applicant an opportunity for an informal meeting with the Housing Programs Manager or Director of Housing Programs. If the preference denial is upheld as a result of the meeting, or the applicant does not request a meeting, the applicant will be placed on the waiting list without benefit of the preference. Applicants may exercise other rights if they believe they have been discriminated against.

Treatment of Single Applicants

Single applicants will be treated as any other eligible family on the SNRHA waiting list.

Pulling from the Wait List

SNRHA shall utilize income targeting to meet HUD's requirements that 40% of admissions have income of less than 30% of minimum income. Elderly and disabled families are given the working preference as required by HUD regulations. All preferences claimed are verified at final eligibility determination. If preferences claimed cannot be verified, the applicant is returned to the appropriate placement on our waiting list and a written notice explaining this action is sent to the applicant.

D. VERIFICATION OF PREFERENCE QUALIFICATION [24 CFR 5.415] The family may be placed on the waiting list upon their certification that they qualify for a preference. When the family is selected from the waiting list for the final determination of eligibility, the preference will be verified.

If the preference verification indicates that an applicant does not qualify for the preference, the applicant will be returned to the waiting list and ranked without the Local Preference and given an opportunity for a review.

Change in Circumstances

Changes in an applicant's circumstances while on the waiting list may affect the family's entitlement to a preference. Applicants are required to notify the SNRHA in writing when their circumstances change. When an applicant claims an additional preference, s/he will be placed on the waiting list in the proper order of their newly claimed preference.

If the family failed to report income changes during final eligibility and the verified failure would have affected their eligibility for a local preference, the family will be returned to the waiting list.

E. PREFERENCE DENIAL [24 CFR 5.415]

If the SNRHA denies a preference, the SNRHA will notify the applicant in writing of the reasons why the preference was denied and offer the applicant an opportunity for an informal meeting. The applicant will have 10 calendar days to request the meeting in writing. If the preference denial is upheld, as a result of the meeting, or the applicant does not request a meeting, the applicant will be placed on the waiting list without benefit of the preference. Applicants may exercise other rights if they believe they have been discriminated against.

If the applicant falsifies documents or makes false statements in order to qualify for any preference, they will be removed from the waiting list with notification to the family.

E. FACTORS OTHER THAN PREFERENCES THAT AFFECT SELECTION OF APPLICANTS

Before applying its preference system, the SNRHA will first match the characteristics of the available unit to the applicants available on the waiting lists. Factors such as unit size, accessible features, deconcentration or income mixing, income targeting, or units in housing designated for the elderly limit the admission of families to those characteristics that match the characteristics and features of the vacant unit available.

By matching unit and family characteristics, it is possible that families who are lower on the waiting list may receive an offer of housing ahead of families with an earlier date and time of application.

G. INCOME TARGETING

The SNRHA will monitor its admissions to ensure that at least 40 percent of families admitted to public housing in each fiscal year shall have incomes that do not exceed 30% of area median income of the SNRHA jurisdiction.

Hereafter families whose incomes do not exceed 30% of area median income will be referred to as "extremely low income families."

The SNRHA shall have the discretion, at least annually, to exercise the "fungibility" provision of the QHWRRA by admitting less than 40 percent of "extremely low income families" to public housing in a fiscal year, to the extent that the SNRHA has provided more than 75 percent of newly available vouchers to "extremely low income families." This fungibility provision discretion by the SNRHA is also reflected in the SNRHA Administrative Plan.

The fungibility credits will be used to drop the annual requirement below 40 percent of admissions to public housing for extremely low income families by the lowest of the following amounts:

The number of units equal to 10 percent of the number of newly available vouchers in the fiscal year; or

The number of public housing units that 1) are in public housing communities located in census tracts having a poverty rate of 30% or more, and 2) are made available for occupancy by and actually occupied in that year by, families other than extremely low-income families.

The Fungibility Floor: Regardless of the above two amounts, in a fiscal year, at least 30% of the SNRHA admissions to public housing will be to extremely low-income families. The fungibility floor is the number of units that cause the SNRHA overall requirement for housing extremely low-income families to drop to 30% of its newly available units.

Fungibility shall only be utilized if the SNRHA is anticipated to fall short of its 40% goal for new admissions to public housing.

Low Income Family Admissions

Once the SNRHA has met the 40% targeted income requirement for new admissions of extremely low-income families, the SNRHA will fill the remainder of its new admission units with families whose incomes do not exceed 80% of the HUD approved area median income.

H. UNITS DESIGNATED FOR THE ELDERLY

In accordance with the 1996 Housing Act, Head or Spouse must be at least 62 years of age will be selected for admission to such units or buildings covered by a HUD-approved Allocation Plan, except for the units which are accessible, which may be offered to persons with disabilities.

The SNRHA will take the following action when processing families for developments designated for the elderly when there are insufficient elderly families who wish to reside in a development, near-elderly families (head or spouse ages 55-61) will be selected for this type of unit.

I. UNITS DESIGNATED FOR THE DISABLED

SNRHA has no HUD-approved disabled-only designated developments.

J. MIXED POPULATION UNITS

A mixed population community is a public housing community, or portion of a community that was reserved for elderly families and disabled families at its inception (and has retained that character).

In accordance with the 1992 Housing Act, elderly families whose head spouse or sole member is at least 62 years of age, and disabled families whose head, co-head or spouse or sole member is a person with disabilities, will receive equal preference to such units.

No limit will be established on the number of elderly or disabled families that may occupy a mixed population property. All other SNRHA preferences will be applied.

K. GENERAL OCCUPANCY UNITS

General occupancy units are designed to house all populations of eligible families. In accordance with the SNRHA occupancy standards, eligible families not needing units designed with special features or units designed for special populations will be admitted to the SNRHA general occupancy units.

The SNRHA will use its local preference system as stated in this chapter for admission of eligible families to its general occupancy units.

L. DECONCENTRATION OF POVERTY AND INCOME-MIXING

The SNRHA admission policy is designed to provide for de-concentration of poverty and income mixing by bringing higher income tenants into lower income communities and lower income tenants into higher income communities.

Gross annual income is used for income limits at admission and for income-mixing purposes.

Skipping of a family on the waiting list specifically to reach another family with a lower or higher income is not to be considered an adverse action to the family. Such skipping will be uniformly applied until the target threshold is met.

The SNRHA will gather data and analyze, at least annually, the tenant characteristics of its public housing stock, including information regarding tenant incomes, to assist in the SNRHA de-concentration efforts.

The SNRHA will use the gathered tenant income information in its assessment of its public housing developments to determine the appropriate designation to be assigned to the community for the purpose of assisting the SNRHA in its de-concentration goals.

If the SNRHA annual review of tenant incomes indicates that there has been a significant change in the tenant income characteristics of a particular community, the SNRHA will evaluate the changes. The SNRHA will determine whether, based on the SNRHA methodology of choice, the community needs to be re-designated as a higher or lower income community or whether the SNRHA has met the de-concentration goals and the community needs no particular designation.

Deconcentration and Income-Mixing Goals

Admission policies related to the de-concentration efforts of the SNRHA do not impose specific quotas. Therefore, the SNRHA will not set specific quotas, but will strive to achieve de-concentration and income mixing in its developments.

The SNRHA income-mixing goal is a long-range goal and may not be achieved in the first year of implementation. The SNRHA will use its annual analysis of its public housing stock and tenant incomes to provide benchmarks for the SNRHA.

The SNRHA income-mixing goal, in conjunction with the requirement to achieve income targeting, will be achieved via unit offer procedures described in Section P of this chapter.

Community Designation Methodology

Aggregate Average Method

The SNRHA will review the annual resident income of all family sites to develop an average annual income, which will be used as a baseline. Developments with an average annual income above that baseline will be considered higher income developments, and developments with an average annual income below the baseline will be considered lower income developments.

Upon analyzing its findings the SNRHA will apply the policies, measures and incentives listed in Section P of this chapter to bring higher income families into lower income developments.

SNRHA Incentives for Higher Income Families

Covered in Section P of this Chapter.

M. REMOVAL FROM WAITING LIST AND PURGING [24 CFR 960.204(a)]

The waiting list will be purged at least tri-annually by a mailing to all applicants to ensure that the waiting list is current and accurate. The mailing will ask for current information and confirmation of continued interest.

If an applicant fails to respond within 14 calendar days, s/he will be removed from the waiting list. If a letter is returned by the Post Office, the applicant will be removed without further notice and the envelope and letter will be maintained in the file. Failure to respond will result in removal from all waiting lists.

If an applicant is removed from the waiting list for failure to respond, they will not be entitled to reinstatement unless a person with a disability requests a reasonable accommodation for being unable to reply within the prescribed period.

Notices will be made available in accessible format upon the request of a person with a disability. An extension to reply to the purge notification will be considered as an accommodation if requested by a person with a disability.

The SNRHA allows a grace period of 7 calendar days after completion of the purge mailing. Applicants who respond during this grace period will not be withdrawn.

Applicants are notified with confirmation of the SNRHA receipt of their application that they are responsible for notifying the SNRHA within 10 calendar days, if they have a change of address.

N. OFFER OF ACCESSIBLE UNITS

The SNRHA has units designed for persons with mobility, sight and hearing impairments, referred to as accessible units.

No non-mobility-impaired families will be offered these units until all eligible mobility-impaired applicants have been considered.

Before offering a vacant accessible unit to a non-disabled applicant, the SNRHA will offer such units:

First, to a current occupant of another unit of the same development, or other public housing developments under the SNRHA control who has a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit.

Second, to an eligible qualified applicant on the waiting list having a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit.

When offering an accessible/adaptable unit to a non-disabled applicant, the SNRHA will require the applicant to agree to move to an available non-accessible unit within 30 days when either a current resident or an applicant needs the features of the unit and there is another unit available for the applicant. This requirement will be a provision of the lease agreement. SNRHA will pay all reasonable and customary costs associated with the relocation of the non-disabled family.

The Authority will make modifications to the unit in keeping with the Section 504 Transition Plan as the need arises and until the agency determines that an adequate number of units have been rehabilitated in numbers sufficient to evidence compliance with the Plan See Chapter 9.

O. PLAN FOR UNIT OFFERS

The SNRHA plan for selection of applicants and assignment of dwelling units to assure equal opportunity and non-discrimination on grounds of race, color, sex, religion, or national origin is to offer the family at the top of the waiting list for the appropriate bedroom size and unit type the oldest available unit five days prior to target-ready date.

Unit offers to promote income targeting are made in accordance with HUD regulations of the oldest eligible certified family to the appropriate bedroom size of the oldest ready and available unit. Once the SNRHA has met the 40% targeted income requirement for new admissions of extremely low-income families, the SNRHA will fill the remainder of its new admission units with families whose incomes do not exceed 80% of the HUD approved area median income.

Number of Offers - Two Offers

SNRHA will make two offers on an appropriate unit. If the second offer is rejected or the applicant fails to execute a lease within the required timeframes, the applicant will be withdrawn from our waiting list. Exceptions are incorrect unit offers and/or offers to non-disabled families of accessible units, or other “good cause” reason. The applicant shall be informed of this in writing.

SNRHA Incentives for Higher Income Families

The SNRHA will offer certain incentives to higher income families willing to move into lower income communities. If a higher income family agrees to move to an SNRHA-specified lower income development, the SNRHA will agree to approve to transfer the resident family to the next available scattered site home or the development of the family’s choice. The move will be approved, according to the Occupancy Guidelines, only if the family has consistently been in lease compliance for two years following admission.

In addition, the SNRHA will target homeownership opportunities to higher income families moving into lower income communities.

P. CHANGES PRIOR TO UNIT OFFER

Applicants with a Change in Family Size or Status

Applicants must report changes in income, family composition, and address within ten (10) calendar days of the change prior to eligibility and after final eligibility. If the family did not report the change within the required time frame, the family will be withdrawn and determined ineligible and offered an opportunity for informal hearing.

Properly reported changes in family composition, status, or income between the time of the interview and the offer of a unit will be processed. The SNRHA shall not lease a unit to a family whose occupancy will overcrowd or underutilize the unit or if the family is no longer eligible for the program.

The family will take the appropriate place in the selection pool or waiting list according to the preference points on the date they first applied if the appropriate waiting list was open at the time of initial application.

Changes that occur during the period between determination of final eligibility and an offer of a suitable unit may affect the family's eligibility or Total Tenant Payment. The family will be notified in writing of changes in their eligibility or level of benefits and offered their right to an informal hearing when applicable (See Grievance Procedure.)

Income changes properly reported after the unit is offered will be processed following lease-up procedures.

O. APPLICANT STATUS AFTER FINAL UNIT OFFER

When an applicant rejects the final unit offer the SNRHA will remove the applicant's name from the waiting list. Removal from the waiting list means the applicant must reapply. Exceptions may be made in accordance with 504 regulations, for persons whose refusal involved the need for a reasonable accommodation.

R. TIME-LIMIT FOR ACCEPTANCE OF UNIT

Applicants will have three (3) business days to respond to an offer of an available unit. Applicants must accept a unit offered within one (1) business day of the date the unit is shown and execute a lease within two (2) additional business days of the offer acceptance. Extensions can be approved for good cause.

SNRHA staff will attempt to notify applicants by telephone as a courtesy; all offers will be made in writing by first class mail.

Applicants Unable to Take Occupancy

If an applicant is willing to accept the unit offered, but is unable to take occupancy at the time of the offer for "good cause," the applicant will be returned to the waiting list.

Examples of "good cause" reasons for the refusal to take occupancy of a housing unit include, but are not limited to:

- An elderly family who makes the decision not to occupy or accept occupancy in designated housing for which they applied will be withdrawn from the designated housing waiting list, but this action will not affect their standing on any other waiting list. [24 CFR 945.303(d)]
- Inaccessibility to source of employment or education such that an adult household member must quit a job, drop out of an educational or a job training program.
- The family demonstrates to SNRHA's satisfaction that accepting the offer will result in a situation where a family member's life, health or safety will be placed in jeopardy. The family must offer specific and compelling documentation such as restraining orders, other court orders, or risk assessments related to witness protection from a law enforcement agency. The reasons must be specific. Refusals due to the location of the unit alone are not considered to be good cause.
- A qualified, knowledgeable, health professional verifies the temporary hospitalization or recovery from illness of the principal household member, other household member, or a live-in aide necessary to care for the principal household member.
- The family is offered a unit which is handicap accessible, but there is no member of the family that need accessibility features in the unit. The unit is inappropriate for the applicant's disabilities

S. REFUSAL OF OFFER

If the unit offered is inappropriate for the applicant's disabilities or if a non-disabled family is offered an accessible unit, the family will retain their position on the waiting list.

If the unit offered is refused for other reasons, the SNRHA will follow the applicable policy as listed in Section O, Plan for Unit Offers, and Section Q, Applicant Status after Final Offer.

T. SPECIAL PROGRAMS

The SNRHA will administer a HUD, RAD (Rental Assistance Demonstration) program at the following properties:

- o Landsman Gardens, Henderson, Nevada.
- o Vera Johnson B, Las Vegas, Nevada
- o Biegger Estates, Las Vegas, Nevada
- o Rose Gardens, North Las Vegas, Nevada

See Chapter 16 for RAD/PBV information.

Chapter 6

DETERMINATION OF TOTAL TENANT PAYMENT

[24 CFR 5.628, 5.611, 5.613, 5.615]

INTRODUCTION

The accurate calculation of annual income and adjusted income will ensure that families are not paying more or less money for rent than their obligation under the regulations.

This chapter defines the allowable deductions from annual income and how the presence or absence of household members may affect the Total Tenant Payment (TTP). Income and TTP are calculated in accordance with 24 CFR Part 5, Subpart F and further instructions set forth in HUD Notices, Memoranda and Addenda. The formula for the calculation of TTP is specific and not subject to interpretation. The SNRHA's policies in this chapter address those areas which allow the SNRHA discretion to define terms and to develop standards in order to assure consistent application of the various factors that relate to the determination of TTP.

A. MINIMUM RENT (TTP)

The minimum rent (TTP) for the SNRHA is $50.00.

The total tenant payment is the greater of:

30% of the adjusted monthly income

10% of the monthly income

The minimum rent as established by the SNRHA

The minimum rent refers to a minimum total tenant payment and not a minimum tenant rent.

The total tenant payment does not include charges for excess utility consumption or other charges.

The SNRHA recognizes that in some instances even the minimum rent may create a financial hardship for families. The SNRHA will review all relevant circumstances brought to the SNRHA's attention regarding financial hardship as it applies to minimum rent. The following section states that the SNRHA's procedures and policies in regard to minimum rent financial hardship as set forth by the QHWRA.

SNRHA Procedures for Notification to Families of Hardship Exceptions

The SNRHA will notify all participant families subject to a minimum rent of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exception under the law.

The SNRHA will notify all eligible families at time of lease-up of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exception.

The SNRHA will notify all eligible families at the annual and interim recertification appointments of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exception.

The manager or their designee will document in the family's file that the family has been notified of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exception.

The SNRHA notification will advise the family that hardship exception determinations are subject to SNRHA grievance procedures.

The SNRHA will review all tenant requests for exception from the minimum rent due to financial hardships.

All requests for minimum rent exception are required to be in writing.

Requests for minimum rent exception will be accepted by the SNRHA from the family in writing.

Requests for minimum rent exception must state the family circumstances that qualify the family for an exception.

Exceptions to Minimum Rent

The SNRHA will immediately grant the minimum rent exception to all families who request it.

The Minimum Rent will be suspended until the SNRHA determines whether the hardship is:

Covered by statute

Temporary or long term

If the SNRHA determines that the minimum rent is not covered by statute, the SNRHA will impose a minimum rent including payment for minimum rent from the time of suspension.

The SNRHA will use its standard verification procedures to verify circumstances which have resulted in financial hardship, such as loss of employment, death in the family, etc.

HUD Criteria for Hardship Exception

In order for a family to qualify for a hardship exception the family's circumstances must fall into one of the following criteria:

The family has lost eligibility or is awaiting an eligibility determination for Federal, State, or local assistance;

The family would be evicted as a result of the imposition of the minimum rent requirement;

The income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstances, including:

Loss of employment

Death in the family

Other circumstances as determined by the SNRHA or HUD

Temporary Hardship

If the SNRHA determines that the hardship is temporary, a minimum rent will be imposed, including back payment from time of suspension, but the family will not be evicted for nonpayment of rent during the 90 day period commencing on the date of the family's request for exemption.

Repayment Agreements for Temporary Hardship

The SNRHA will offer a repayment agreement to the family for any such rent not paid during the temporary hardship period.

See Chapter 14, Rent and Debt Collection Procedures, for payment terms.

B. INCOME AND ALLOWANCES

Income: Includes all monetary and non-monetary income or benefit amounts that are received on behalf of the family. For purposes of calculating the Total Tenant Payment, HUD defines what is to be calculated and what is to be excluded in the federal regulations. In accordance with this definition, all income that is not specifically excluded in the regulations is counted. (See Income Inclusions and Income Exclusions in the Glossary of Terms of this policy.)

Annual Income is defined as the gross amount of income anticipated to be received by the family during the 12 months after certification or recertification. Gross income is the amount of income prior to any HUD allowable expenses or deductions, and does not include income which has been excluded by HUD. Annual income is used to determine whether or not applicants are within the applicable income limits. (24 CFR 5.607)

The low-income subsidy received to assist low-income persons in paying for their Medicare prescription drug plan costs must be excluded as annual income for the purpose of calculating any rent or assistance.

Adjusted Income is defined as the annual income minus any HUD allowable expenses and deductions.

Allowable Deductions

HUD has 5 allowable deductions from annual income:

1. Dependent allowance: $480 each for family members (other than the head or spouse), who are minors, and for family members who are 18 and older who are full-time students or who are disabled.
2. "Elderly/disabled" allowance: $400 per household for families whose head or spouse are 62 or over or disabled.
3. For any family that is a disabled family, or has a member (other than the head or spouse) who is a person with a disability. A disability assistance expenses for unreimbursed amounts paid for attendant care or auxiliary apparatus expenses for family members with disabilities, including the disabled member, where such expenses are necessary to permit an adult family member to be employed. The allowable expenses must be in excess of 3% of annual income. This allowance may not exceed the employment income received by the family members that is freed to go to work, who is at least 18 years of age.
4. For any elderly or disabled family:
  - a. That has no disability assistance expenses, an allowance for medical expenses equal to the amount by which the medical expenses exceed 3% of annual income;
  - b. That has disability expenses greater than or equal to 3% of annual income, an allowance for disability assistance expenses computed in accordance with paragraph C, plus an allowance for medical expenses that equal the family's medical expenses;

- c. That has disability assistance expenses that are less than 3% of annual income, an allowance for combined disability assistance expenses and medical expenses that are equal to the total of these expenses less 3% of annual income.
5. Amounts anticipated to be paid by the family for the care of children under 13 years of age during the period for which Annual Income is computed, but only where such care is necessary to enable a family member to actively seek employment, be gainfully employed, or to further his or her education and only to the extent such amounts are not reimbursed. The amount deducted shall reflect reasonable charges for childcare. In the case of childcare necessary to permit employment, the amount deducted shall not exceed the amount of employment income that is included in annual income. (24 CFR 5.603(d)).
6. The SNRHA does not provide for any optional deductions or allowances in the public housing program.

C. DISALLOWANCE OF EARNED INCOME FROM RENT DETERMINATIONS
24 CFR 962.255, 24 CFR 5.617, 24 CFR 960.255

The annual income for qualified families may not be increased as a result of increases in earned income of a family member. The family member will be eligible to receive EID for 24 consecutive calendar months to be effective the date of the earned income increase. For calculation purposes, the disallowance shall begin the first of the month after the employment begins. After the family receives 12 consecutive months of the full exclusion, annual income will include a phase-in of half the allowable earned income exclusion from annual income for the remaining 12 consecutive calendar months.

A family eligible for the earned income exclusion is a family that occupies a dwelling unit in a public housing community; and

Whose annual income increases as a result of employment of an adult member of the family who was previously unemployed for one or more years;

Whose earned annual income increases during the participation of a family member in any family self-sufficiency or other job training program; or

Whose annual income increases, as a result of new employment or increased earnings of an adult family member during or within six months after receiving assistance, benefits or services under any State program for TANF provided that the total amount over a six-month period is at least $500. The qualifying TANF assistance may consist of any amount of monthly income maintenance, and/or at least $500 in such TANF benefits and services as one-time payments, wage subsidies and transportation assistance.

The HUD definition of "previously unemployed" includes a person who has earned in the previous 12 months no more than the equivalent earnings for working 10 hours per week for 50 weeks at the minimum wage. Minimum wage is the prevailing minimum wage in the State or locality if it is higher than the federal minimum wage.

The HUD definition of economic self-sufficiency program is any program designed to encourage, assist, train or facilitate economic independence of assisted families or to provide work for such families. Such programs may include job training, employment counseling, work placement, basic skills training, education, English proficiency, workfare, financial or household management, apprenticeship, or any other program necessary to ready a participant to work (such as substance abuse or mental health treatment).

Qualifying increases are any earned income increases of a family member during participation in an economic self-sufficiency or job training program and may include increases that occur after participation provided the training provides assistance, placement, training or mentoring after the training that leads to employment.

The amount that is subject to the disallowance is the amount of incremental increase in income of a family member. The incremental increase in income is calculated by comparing the amount of the family member's income before the beginning of qualifying employment (baseline) to the amount of such income after the employment.

Initial Twelve-Month Exclusion

During the initial 12-month period beginning on the date a member of a qualified family is first employed or the family first experiences an increase in annual income attributable to employment, the SNRHA will exclude from annual income of a qualified family member any increase in income of the family member as a result of employment over the prior income of that family member (baseline).

Second Twelve-Month Exclusion and Phase-in

During the second and final 12-month period after the expiration of the initial 12-month period referred to above, the SNRHA must exclude from Annual Income of a qualified family member, 50 percent of any increase in income of a family member who is a person with disabilities as a result of employment over the income of that family member prior to the beginning of such employment.

Maximum Two Year Disallowance

The earned income disallowance is limited to a lifetime 24 month period for each family member. For each family member, the disallowance only applies for a maximum of 12 months of full exclusion of incremental increase, and a maximum of 12 months of phase-in exclusion during the 24 month period starting from the date of the initial exclusion.

If the family member discontinues the employment that initially qualified the family for the EID, the 24 calendar month period continues.

The EID benefit is limited to a lifetime of 24 months for the qualifying family member. At the end of the 24 months, the EID ends regardless of how many months were “used”.

Families that currently benefit from the EID, or who became eligible prior to the effective date of changes to the ACOP are eligible to receive the EID benefits for the 24 months over a 48-month period, as was in effect prior to the effective date of this provision.

Applicability to Child Care Expense Deductions

The amount deducted for childcare necessary to permit employment shall not exceed the amount of employment income that is included in annual income. Therefore, for families entitled to the earned income disallowance, the amounts of the earned income that is included in the Annual Income after the application of the earned income disallowance will be used in determining the cap for childcare deduction in the case of the deduction that is allowed due to employment.

Applicability to Disability Expense Deductions

The amount deducted for disability expense deduction that is necessary to permit employment shall not exceed the amount of employment income that is included in Annual Income. Therefore, for families entitled to the earned income disallowance, the amounts of the earned income that is included in the Annual Income after the application of the earned income disallowance will be used in determining the cap for the disability expense deduction.

Applicability to Families that Receive both Child Care Expense and Disability Deductions

The amount deducted for both childcare and disability expense deductions necessary to permit employment shall not exceed the amount of employment income that is included in Annual Income. Therefore, for families entitled to the earned income disallowance, the amounts of the earned income that is included in the Annual Income after the application of the earned income disallowance will be used in determining the cap for childcare deduction and disability expenses combined in the case of the deduction that is allowed due to employment.

Tracking the Earned Income Exclusion

The earned income exclusion will be reported on the HUD 50058 form. Documentation will be included in the family’s file to show the reason for the reduced increase in rent.

*Such documentation will include:

- Date the increase in earned income was reported by the family
- Name of the family member whose earned income increased

- Reason (new employment, participation in job training program, within 6 months after receiving TANF) for the increase in earned income
- Amount of the increase in earned income (amount to be excluded)
- Date the increase in income is first excluded from annual income
- Date the family member has received a total of 12 consecutive months of the initial exclusion of 100%
- Date the 12-month phase-in period began
- Date the family member has received a total of 12 consecutive months of the phase-in exclusion of 50%
- Ending date of the maximum 24 month (two year) disallowance period

The SNRHA will maintain a tracking system to ensure correct application of the earned income disallowance.

It is a SNRHA policy decision to conduct an interim reexamination for income increases for the purpose of calculating the earned income disallowance.

Inapplicability to Admission

The earned income disallowance is only applied to determine the Annual Income of families who are participants in the public housing program, and therefore does not apply for purposes of admission to the program (including the determination of income eligibility or any income targeting that may be applicable).

E. INDIVIDUAL SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

The SNRHA chooses not to establish a system of individual savings accounts for families who qualify for the disallowance of earned income.

F. TRAINING PROGRAMS FUNDED BY HUD

All training income from a HUD sponsored or funded training program, whether incremental or not, is excluded from the resident's annual income while the resident is in training. Income from a Resident Services training program, which is funded by HUD, is excluded.

Upon employment with the SNRHA, the full amount of employment income received by the person is counted.

G. AVERAGING INCOME

When annual income cannot be anticipated for a full 12 months, the SNRHA will average known sources of income that vary to compute an annual income.

If there are bonuses or overtime which the employer cannot anticipate for the next twelve months, bonuses and overtime received the previous year will be used.

Income from the previous year may be analyzed to determine the amount to anticipate when third-party or check-stub verification is not available.

If by averaging, an estimate can be made for those families whose income fluctuates from month to month; this estimate will be used so that the housing payment will not change from month to month.

The method used depends on the regularity, source and type of income.

H. MINIMUM INCOME

There is no minimum income requirement. Families who report zero income or extremely low income are required to complete a written certification every 180 calendar days which will be verified with EIV and all federal, state and local agencies and other sources, as appropriate, including credit checks, to verify income sources. If any increases in income are indicated in any of the above information or other verification at any time, then the family will be reviewed for an interim and the rent will be adjusted accordingly.

Families that report zero or extremely low income will be required to provide information in writing regarding their means of basic subsistence, such as food, utilities, transportation, and other subsistence expenses, in writing. SNRHA will require a print out of utility bills for three months to be submitted at interim evaluations for residents claiming zero or extremely low income.

If the family's expenses exceed their known income, the SNRHA will make inquiry of the head of household as to the nature of the family's accessible resources.

Utility bills provided by the family which show that the utilities are in another person's name will require further investigation as to whether there is an unauthorized member of the household.

Where credit reports show credit accounts open and payments current, SNRHA will take action to investigate the possibility of unreported or underreported income, fraud or program abuse.

The SNRHA will terminate the lease of families for fraud or offer a repayment agreement when documented evidence indicates the family has unreported or underreported income, which includes receiving funds from other parties or individuals that has not been reported. Failure to enter into a repayment agreement and pay the required 25% down payment within the established guidelines shall result in the termination of the lease. Repeating this action will result in termination of the lease.

I. INCOME OF PERSON PERMANENTLY/TEMPORARILY CONFINED TO NURSING HOME

If a family member is permanently confined to a hospital or nursing home and there is a family member left in the household, the SNRHA will calculate the income by using the following methodology and use the income figure which would result in a lower payment by the family:

Exclude the income of the person permanently confined to the nursing home and give the family no deductions for medical expenses of the confined family member after 180 days or when doctor certification of length of absence is received, whichever comes first.

If the family member is temporarily confined in a hospital or nursing home, SNRHA will calculate the TTP by:

Including the income of the person temporarily confined to the nursing home and giving the family the medical deductions allowable on behalf of the person in the nursing home, if they are an elderly or disabled family. For the purpose of this section, “temporarily” is defined as no more than 180 days.

J. REGULAR CONTRIBUTIONS AND GIFTS [24 CFR 5.609(a)(7)]

Regular contributions and gifts received from persons outside the household are counted as income for calculation of the tenant share of the rent.

Any contribution or gift received two consecutive months or more frequently will be considered a "regular" contribution or gift, unless the amount is less than $100 per year. This includes rent and utility payments made on behalf of the family and other cash or non-cash contributions provided on a regular basis. It does not include casual contributions or sporadic gifts. (See Chapter 7, Verification Procedures, for further definition.)

If the family's expenses exceed its known income, the SNRHA will question the family about contributions and gifts.

K. ALIMONY AND CHILD SUPPORT [24 CFR 5.609(a)(7)]

Regular alimony and child support payments are counted as income for calculation of the family's share of the rental payment.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will count court-awarded amounts for alimony and child support unless SNRHA verifies that: (1) the payments are not being made, and (2) the family has made reasonable efforts to collect amounts due, including filing with courts or agencies responsible for enforcing payments [HCV GB, pp. 5-23 and 5-47].

Families who do not have court-awarded alimony and child support awards are not required to seek a court award and are not required to take independent legal action to obtain collection.

SNRHA will accept verification that the family is receiving an amount less than the award if:

- SNRHA receives verification from the agency responsible for enforcement or collection.
- The family furnishes documentation of child support or alimony collection action filed through a child support enforcement/collection agency, or has filed an enforcement or collection action through an attorney.

When child support or alimony fluctuates, SNRHA will follow the policy below.

SNRHA Policy

If, by averaging, an estimate can be made for those families whose income fluctuates from month to month; this estimate will be used so as to reduce the number of interim adjustments.

1. SNRHA shall add the total of all payments listed for the past twelve months. The total shall then be considered anticipated income.
2. When verification documents from the DA office indicated no payment for more than 60 days from the date of the printout (upon receipt of verification), no income will be anticipated from child support/alimony. Participants are required to report all changes within 10 calendar days in writing including when child support/alimony is not received and/or starts.

L. LUMP-SUM RECEIPTS [24 CFR 5.609(b)(5), (c)]

Lump-sum additions to Family assets, such as inheritances, insurance payments (including payments under health and accident insurance and worker's compensation), capital gains, and settlement for personal or property losses, are not included in income but may be included in assets, if the amount has been invested in an allowable asset.

Lump-sum payments caused by delays in processing periodic payments such as unemployment or welfare assistance are counted as income. Lump sum payments from

Social Security or SSI are excluded from income, but any amount remaining will be considered an asset. Deferred periodic payments which have accumulated due to a dispute will be treated the same as periodic payments which are deferred due to delays in processing.

In order to determine amount of retroactive tenant rent that the family owes as a result of the lump sum receipt, the SNRHA will calculate retroactively.

Retroactive Calculation Methodology

The SNRHA will go back to the date the lump-sum payment was received, but never further back than the date of admission.

The SNRHA will determine the amount of income for each certification period, including the lump sum, and recalculate the tenant rent for each certification period to determine the amount due the SNRHA.

At the SNRHA's option, the SNRHA may enter into a Payment Agreement with the family.

The amount owed by the family is a collectible debt even if the family becomes unassisted.

The family's attorney fees may be deducted from lump-sum payments when computing annual income if the attorney's efforts have recovered a lump-sum compensation, and the recovery paid to the family does not include an additional amount in full satisfaction of the attorney fees.

M. CONTRIBUTIONS TO RETIREMENT FUNDS - ASSETS

Contributions to company retirement/pension funds are handled as follows:

While an individual is employed, count as assets only amounts the family can withdraw without retiring or terminating employment.

After retirement or termination of employment, count any amount the employee elects to receive as a lump sum.

N. ASSETS DISPOSED OF FOR LESS THAN FAIR MARKET VALUE

The SNRHA must count assets disposed of for less than fair market value during the two years preceding certification or reexamination. In calculating total assets, the SNRHA will count the difference between the market value and the actual payment received.

Assets disposed of as a result of foreclosure or bankruptcy is not considered to be assets disposed of for less than fair market value. Assets disposed of as a result of a divorce or separation is not considered to be assets disposed of for less than fair market value.

The SNRHA's minimum threshold for counting assets disposed of for less than Fair

Market value is $5000. If the total value of assets disposed of within the two-year period is less than $5000, they will not be considered an asset.

O. CHILD CARE EXPENSES

Not reimbursable child care expenses for children under 13 may be deducted from annual income if they enable an adult to work or attend school full time, or to actively seek employment.

In the case of a child attending private school, only after-hours care can be counted as child care expenses.

Child care expenses cannot be allowed as a deduction if there is an adult household member capable of caring for the child who can provide the child care. Examples of those adult members who would be considered unable to care for the child include:

The abuser in a documented child abuse situation, or

A person with disabilities or older person unable to take care of a small child, as verified by a reliable knowledgeable source, or

Can provide proof that the adult member is searching for a job (maximum time allowed for search is 10 hours per week.)

An allowable deduction for child care expenses is based on the following guidelines:

Child care to work: The maximum child care expense allowed must be less than the amount earned by the person enabled to work. The "person enabled to work" will be the adult member of the household who earns the least amount of income from working.

Child care for school: The number of hours claimed for child care may not exceed the number of hours the family member is attending school, including reasonable travel time to and from school.

Amount of Expense: The SNRHA will survey the local care providers in the community and collect data as a guideline. If the hourly rate materially exceeds the guideline, the SNRHA may calculate the allowance using the guideline.

Child Care Verification:

SNRHA will send out via mail to the child care provider a 3rd party verification, which will need to be completed, showing the name, age of children, hours and days watched along with amount charged. Verification is to include provider's license number or tax identification number if they are a licensed agency. Private providers will need to provide a social security number and have the form notarized.

No other form of verification will be accepted but that of the Housing Authority.

Secondary verification after attempting orals will be receipts.

P. MEDICAL EXPENSES [24 CFR 5.603]

When it is unclear in the HUD rules as to whether or not to allow an item as a medical expense, IRS Publication 502 will be used as a guide.

Persons with a Medicare prescription drug plan may be required to pay a premium and this premium will be counted as a medical expense.

Prescriptions not covered by the Medicare prescription drug plan will be counted toward the sum of allowable medical expense.

Nonprescription medicines must be doctor-recommended in order to be considered a medical expense.

Nonprescription medicines will be counted toward medical expenses for families who qualify if the family furnishes legible receipts.

Acupressure, acupuncture and related herbal medicines, and chiropractic services will be considered allowable medical expenses.

O. PRORATION OF ASSISTANCE FOR "MIXED" FAMILIES [24 CFR 5.520]

Applicability

Prorating of assistance must be offered to any "mixed" applicant or participant family. A "mixed" family is one that includes at least one U.S. citizen or eligible immigrant and any number of ineligible members.

Prorated Assistance Calculation

Prorated assistance will be calculated by subtracting the total tenant payment from the applicable maximum rent for the unit the family occupies to determine the Family Maximum Subsidy. The family's TTP will be calculated by:

Dividing the family maximum subsidy by the number of persons in the family to determine Member Maximum Subsidy.

Multiplying the member maximum subsidy by the number of eligible family members to determine Eligible Subsidy.

Subtracting the amount of eligible subsidy from the applicable maximum rent for the unit the family occupies to get the family's revised total tenant payment.

R. INCOME CHANGES RESULTING FROM WELFARE PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

The SNRHA will not reduce the public housing rent for families whose welfare assistance is reduced specifically because of:

fraud; or

failure to participate in an economic self-sufficiency program; or

noncompliance with a work activities requirement

However, the SNRHA will reduce the rent if the welfare assistance reduction is a result of:

The expiration of a lifetime time limit on receiving benefits; or

A situation where the family has complied with welfare program requirements but cannot or has not obtained employment, such as:

The family has complied with welfare program requirements, but the durational time limit, such as a cap on the length of time a family can receive benefits, causes the family to lose their welfare benefits.

Verification Before Denying a Request to Reduce Rent

The SNRHA will obtain written verification from the welfare agency stating that the family's benefits have been reduced for fraud or noncompliance before denying the family's request for rent reduction.

Cooperation Agreements

The SNRHA will attempt to develop a written cooperation agreement in place with the local welfare agency which assists the SNRHA in obtaining the necessary information regarding welfare sanctions.

The SNRHA has taken a proactive approach to culminating an effective working relationship between the SNRHA and the local welfare agency for the purpose of targeting economic self-sufficiency programs throughout the community that are available to public housing residents.

The SNRHA and the local welfare agency have mutually agreed to notify each other of any economic self-sufficiency and/or other appropriate programs or services that would benefit public housing residents.

S. UTILITY ALLOWANCE AND UTILITY REIMBURSEMENT PAYMENTS

If the cost of utilities (excluding telephone) is not included in the tenant rent, a utility allowance will be deducted from the total tenant payment. The utility allowance is intended to help defray the cost of utilities not included in the rent. The allowances are based on the monthly cost of reasonable consumption utilities in an energy conservative household, not on a family's actual consumption.

A survey of utility rate changes applicable to the agency's jurisdiction will be made annually and the Schedule of Tenant-Paid Utility Allowances and related services will be periodically adjusted by the agency in accordance with the results of the survey. Utility allowances may be adjusted upward or downward, or remain the same, dependent upon the most recent data regarding overall consumption and rates for the larger community (not just the public housing community).

When the utility allowance exceeds the family's total tenant payment, the SNRHA will provide a utility reimbursement payment for the family each month. The check will be made out directly to the tenant.

Resident-Paid Utilities

The following requirements apply to residents living in developments with resident-paid utilities or applicants being admitted to such developments:

If a resident or applicant is unable to get utilities connected because of a previous balance owed to the utility company, the resident/applicant will not be permitted to move into a unit with resident paid utilities. This may mean that a current resident cannot transfer or that an applicant cannot be admitted.

Paying the utility bill is the resident's obligation under the lease. Failure to pay utilities is grounds for eviction.

T. EXCESS UTILITY PAYMENTS

Residents in units where the SNRHA pays the utilities may be charged for excess utilities if additional appliances or equipment are used in the unit. This charge shall be applied as specified in the lease. [24CFR 966.4(b)(2)]

The SNRHA expects the resident to take every effort to ensure that utility consumption will be reasonable and in compliance with acceptable standards of usage applicable to unit and family size. If use of utilities is determined to be excessive, SNRHA will require payment for the amount of usage that is deemed to be excessive. Excessive utility usage will be determined if the individually metered utility monthly bill exceeds the approved utility allowance for the unit size by 30%. Payment for excessive utility usage will become due and payable on the first day of the second month following the month in which the charges are incurred, except at termination of lease when all charges are considered due and payable. In the case of water bills, usage will be based on the average unit size consumption.

U. FAMILY CHOICE IN RENTS

Authority for Family to Select

The SNRHA shall provide for each family residing in a public housing unit to elect annually whether the rent paid by such family shall be 1) determined based on family income or 2) the flat rent. The SNRHA may not at any time fail to provide both such rent options for any public housing unit owned, assisted or operated by the SNRHA.

Annual choice: The SNRHA shall provide for families residing in public housing units to elect annually whether to pay income-based or flat rent. Except for financial hardship cases, the family may not be offered the rent choice more than once per year.

SNRHA will provide each family the following written information:

- Policy on switching types of rent in circumstances of hardship.
- The dollar amounts of tenant rent for the family under each option.
- If the family chose a flat rent for the previous year, the SNRHA will provide the amount of income-based rent for the subsequent year.
- Only the year the SNRHA conducts an income reexamination or if the family specifically requests it and submits updated income information. For a family that chooses the flat rent option, the SNRHA must conduct a reexamination of family income at least once every three years.
- The flat rent is based on the fair market rent. The SNRHA records must show how the SNRHA determines flat rents in accordance with its method and document flat rents offered to families.
- The SNRHA will not pay a utility reimbursement for a family that has chosen to pay a flat rent.
- For families paying income-based rent, SNRHA may choose to pay utility reimbursements either to the family, or directly to the utility supplier. If the PHA elects to pay the utility supplier, the SNRHA must first notify the family of the amount of utility reimbursement paid to the supplier.

Allowable Rent Structures

Flat Rents

The SNRHA has established, for each dwelling unit in public housing, a flat rental amount for the dwelling unit, which:

Is based on an amount no less than 80% of the applicable FMR established under 8 ( c ) of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937, in accordance with HUD Notice PIH 2014-07.

The SNRHA shall review the income of families paying flat rent not less than once every three years.

Income-Based Rents

The monthly total tenant payment amount for a family shall be an amount, as verified by the SNRHA that does not exceed the greatest of the following amounts:

30 percent of the family's monthly adjusted income;

10 percent of the family's monthly income; or

The SNRHA's minimum TTP of $50.00.

Switching Rent Determination Methods Because of Hardship Circumstances

In the case of a family that has elected to pay the SNRHA's flat rent, the SNRHA shall immediately provide for the family to pay rent in the amount determined under income-based rent, during the period for which such choice was made, upon a determination that the family is unable to pay the flat rent because of financial hardship, including:

Situations in which the income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstances, loss of or reduction of employment, death in the family, and reduction in or loss of income of other assistance;

An increase, because of changed circumstances, in the family's expenses for medical costs, child care, transportation, education, or similar items; and

Such other situations as may be determined by the SNRHA.

All hardship situations will be verified.

The rental policy developed by the SNRHA encourages and rewards employment and self-sufficiency.

Annual Reexamination

Within 120 days in advance of the annual reexamination, the family will be sent a form from the SNRHA, on which the family will indicate whether they choose flat rent or income-based rent. The SNRHA form will state what the flat rent would be, and an estimate, based on current information, what the family's income-based rent would be.

If the family indicates they choose flat rent, the form will be retained in the tenant file.

If the family indicates they choose income-based rent, a reexamination appointment will be scheduled according to SNRHA policy.

V. SNRHA'S FLAT RENT METHODOLOGY

The SNRHA has set a flat rent for each bedroom size within the SNRHA's public housing inventory, based on an amount no less than 80% of the applicable FMR established under 8 ( c ) of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937, in accordance with HUD Notice PIH 2014-07.

The SNRHA's flat rents have been established using the following methodology:

Chapter 7

VERIFICATION

960.206]

INTRODUCTION

The SNRHA must verify all information that is used to establish the family's eligibility and level of assistance and is required to obtain the family's consent to collect the information. Applicants and program participants must cooperate with the verification process as a condition of receiving assistance. The SNRHA must not pass on the cost of verification to the family.

The SNRHA will follow the verification guidance provided by HUD in PIH Notice 2013-04 Verification Guidance and any subsequent guidance issued by HUD. This chapter summarizes those requirements and provides supplementary SNRHA policies.

Part I describes the general verification process. More detailed requirements related to individual factors are provided in subsequent parts including family information (Part II), income and assets (Part III), and mandatory deductions (Part IV).

Verification policies, rules and procedures will be modified as needed to accommodate persons with disabilities. All information obtained through the verification process will be handled in accordance with the records management policies of the SNRHA.

PART I: GENERAL VERIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

7-I.A. FAMILY CONSENT TO RELEASE OF INFORMATION

The family must supply any information that the SNRHA or HUD determines is necessary to the administration of the program and must consent to SNRHA verification of that information

Consent Forms

It is required that all adult applicants and participants sign form HUD-9886, Authorization for Release of Information. The purpose of form HUD-9886 is to facilitate automated data collection and computer matching from specific sources and provides the family's consent only for the specific purposes listed on the form. HUD and the SNRHA may collect information from State Wage Information Collection Agencies (SWICAs) and current and former employers of adult family members. Only HUD is authorized to collect information directly from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the Social Security Administration (SSA). Adult family members must sign other consent forms as needed to collect information relevant to the family's eligibility and level of assistance.

The family will be required to complete the SNRHA release of information, in addition to the Debts Owed (HUD 52675) and HUD 92006

Penalties for Failing to Consent

If any family member who is required to sign a consent form fails to do so, the SNRHA will deny admission to applicants and terminate assistance of participants. The family may request an informal review (applicants) or informal hearing (participants) in accordance with SNRHA procedures.

7-I.B. OVERVIEW OF VERIFICATION

REQUIREMENTS HUD's Verification Hierarchy

HUD authorizes the SNRHA to use six methods to verify family information and specifies the circumstances in which each method will be used. In general HUD requires the SNRHA to use the most reliable form of verification that is available and to document the reasons when the SNRHA uses a lesser form of verification.

SNRHA Policy

Upfront Income Verification (UIV): The verification of income at admission or before or during a family reexamination, through an independent source that systematically and uniformly maintains income information in computerized form for a large number of individuals. HUD's Enterprise Income Verification System (EIV) is considered to be this method. This is currently not available for applicants.

NOTICE: PIH-2013-04 (HA) Guidance on Verification of Excluded Income.

Purpose:

This notice provides clarification and guidance on the verification requirements of income excluded from the

The SNRHA Public Housing Program in an effort to reduce administrative burden, will utilize the provision in the HUD Notice PIH-2013-04 as follows:

HUD has provided two categories of excluded income: fully excluded and partially excluded. Each category has different verification requirement.

Fully Excluded Income:

Income that is fully excluded means the entire amount qualifies to be excluded from the annual income determination. For fully excluded income, the SNRHA is not required to:

- Verify the income in accordance with the HUD-prescribed verification hierarchy;
- Document in the tenant file why third party verification was not available as required by 24 CFR 960.259(c)(i) and 24 CFR 982.516(a)(2); and
- Report the income in Section 7 of the form HUD-50058.

SNRHA may accept an applicant or participant's self-certification as verification of fully excluded income. The SNRHA's application and reexamination documentation, which is signed by all adult family members, may serve as the self-certification of the fully excluded income. SNRHA has the option of elevating the verification requirements if necessary, to determine if a source of income qualifies for a full exclusion.

Examples of common fully excluded income categories that are verifiable through applicant or participant self-certification are:

- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits, formerly known as food stamps.
- Income from a live-in aide.

For a complete list of income exclusions, see 24 CFR 5.609(c).

5. Partially Excluded Income:

Income that is partially excluded means that only a certain portion of the income reported by the family qualifies to be excluded, while the remainder must be included when determining the family's annual income.

For partially excluded income, SNRHA is required to:

- Comply with HUD-prescribed verification requirements and all applicable regulations pertaining to
- the determination of annual income; and
- Report the income in Section 7 of the form HUD-50058.
- Examples of partially excluded income that are subject to regular verification requirements include:
- The Department of Veterans Affairs "Aid and Attendance" benefits – in accordance with 24 CFR 5.609(c)(4), these benefits may be excluded from income if they are used "specifically for, or in reimbursement of, the cost of medical expenses for any family member." Live-in or periodic medical assistance and services of doctors and health care professionals are among the services that may be counted as medical expenses. The SNRHA must verify the amount provided for aid and attendance medical expenses and the amount actually being used by the veteran for such expenses.

Any portion of the benefit not used for such expenses would continue to be counted as income by the SNRHA when determining the family's annual income.

- Earnings in excess of $480 for full-time students 18 years old or older (24 CFR 5.609(c)(11) – in order to determine the amount of earnings to include in the calculation of the family's annual income, the SNRHA must verify the amount of employment income for these family members.

The Verification Hierarchy. SNRHA shall begin with the highest level of verification Techniques PHAs are required to access the EIV system and obtain an Income Report for each household. The SNRHA shall maintain the Income Report in the tenant file along with the form HUD-50058 and other supporting documentation to support income and rent determinations for all mandatory annual reexaminations of family income and composition.

If the Income Report does not contain any employment and income information for the family, the SNRHA shall attempt the next lower level verification technique, as noted in the below:

| Level | Verification Technique                                                                                                                                  | Ranking                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

Verification Technique Definitions

Third Party Verification Techniques

Upfront Income Verification (UIV) (Level 6/5): The verification of income before or during a family reexamination, through an independent source that systematically and uniformly maintains income information in computerized form for a number of individuals. It should be noted that the EIV system is available to all PHAs as a UIV technique. PHAs are encouraged to continue using other non-HUD UIV tools, such as The Work Number (an automated verification system) and state government databases, to validate tenant-reported income.

Written Third Party Verification (Level 4): An original or authentic document generated by a third party source dated either within the 60-day period preceding the reexamination or PHA request date. Such documentation may be in the possession of the tenant (or applicant), and is commonly referred to as tenant-provided documents. It is the Department's position that such tenant-provided documents are written third party verification since these documents originated from a third party source. The PHA may, at its discretion, reject any tenant-provided documents and follow up directly with the source to obtain necessary verification of information.

Examples of acceptable tenant-provided documentation (generated by a third party source) include, but are not limited to: pay stubs, payroll summary report, employer notice/letter of hire/termination, SSA benefit verification letter, bank statements, child support payment stubs, welfare benefit letters and/or printouts, and unemployment monetary benefit notices. Current acceptable tenant-provided documents must be used for income and rent determinations.

The SNRHA shall require two current and consecutive pay stubs for determining annual income from wages. For new income sources, two pay stubs shall be required that are consecutive or a new hire letter with date of hire, wages and hours. The PHA should project income based on the information from a traditional written third party verification form or the best available information.

Note: Documents older than 60 days (from the PHA interview/determination or request date) is acceptable for confirming effective dates of income.

Written Third Party Verification Form (Level 3): Also, known as traditional third party verification. A standardized form to collect information from a third party source. The form is completed by the third party by hand (in writing or typeset). PHAs send the form directly to the third party source by mail, fax, or email.

It is the Department's position that the administrative burden and risk associated with use of the traditional third party verification form may be reduced by PHAs relying on acceptable documents that are generated by a third party, but in the possession of and provided by the tenant (or applicant). Many documents in the possession of the tenant are derived from third party sources (i.e. employers, federal, state and/or local agencies, banks, etc.).

The Department recognizes that third party verification request forms sent to third party sources often are not returned. In other instances, the person who completes the verification form may provide incomplete information; or some tenants may collude with the third party source to provide false information; or the tenant intercepts the form and provides false information.

The Department requires PHAs to rely on documents that originate from a third party source's computerized system and/or database, as this process reduces the likelihood of incorrect or falsified information being provided on the third party verification request form. The use of acceptable tenant-provided documents, which originate from a third party source, will improve the integrity of information used to determine a family's income and rent and ultimately reduce improper subsidy payments. This verification process will also streamline the income verification process.

Oral Third Party Verification (Level 2): Independent verification of information by contacting the individual income/expense source(s), as identified through the UIV technique or identified by the family, via telephone or in-person visit. PHA staff should document in the tenant file, the date and time of the telephone call (or visit to the third party), the name of the person contacted and telephone number, along with the confirmed information.

This verification method is commonly used in the event that the independent source does not respond to the PHA's faxed, mailed, or e- mailed request for information in a reasonable time frame, i.e., ten (10) business days.

Non-Third Party Verification Technique - Tenant Declaration (Level 1): The tenant submits an affidavit or notarized statement of reported income and/or expenses to the PHA. This verification method should be used as a last resort when the PHA has not been successful in obtaining information via all other verification techniques. When the PHA relies on tenant declaration, the PHA must document in the tenant file why third party verification was not available.

Exceptions to Third Party Verification Requirements

HUD is aware that in some situations, third party verification is not available for a variety of reasons. Oftentimes, the PHA may have made numerous attempts to obtain the required verifications with no success, or it may not be cost effective to obtain third party verification of income, assets, or expenses, when the impact on total tenant payment is minimal. In these cases, the PHA is required to document in the family file the reason(s) why third party verification was not available.

The exception to third party verification can be found at 24 CFR §960.259(c)(1) and §982.516(a)(2), which states, "The PHA must obtain and document in the family file third party verification of the following factors, or must document in the file why third party verification was not available."

Third party verification requirements. In accordance with 24 CFR §960.259(c)(1) and 24 CFR §982.516(a)(2) for the Public Housing and the HCV programs, respectively, the PHA must obtain and document in the tenant file third party verification of the following factors, or must document in the tenant file why third party verification was not available: (i) reported family annual income; (ii) the value of assets; (iii) expenses related to deductions from annual income; and (iv) other factors that affect the determination of adjusted income.

How to comply with and reduce administrative burden of third party verification requirements of family annual income . PHAs can comply with and reduce administrative burden of third party verification requirements for employment, wage, and unemployment compensation and social security benefits, and any other information that is verifiable using EIV by:

- a) Reviewing the EIV Income Report to confirm/validate tenant-reported income; and;
- b) Printing and maintaining an EIV Income Report (or an EIV Individual Control Number (ICN) page for interim reexaminations as prescribed in Section 12 of this Notice) in the tenant file; and
- c) Obtaining current acceptable tenant-provided documentation to supplement EIV information; and
- d) Using current tenant-provided documentation and/or third party verification to calculate annual income.

Note: Social Security benefit information in EIV is updated every three months. If the tenant agrees with the EIV-reported benefit information, PHAs do not need to obtain or request a benefit verification letter from the tenant. See PIH Notice 2010-03 for guidance on verifying Social Security benefit income through the EIV system.

The PHA may also reduce the administrative burden of obtaining third party verification by relying on acceptable documents that are generated by a third party, but provided by the tenant. Many documents in the possession of the tenant are derived from third party sources (i.e. employers, federal, state and/or local agencies, banks, etc.).

When the PHA is required to request written third party verification The PHA must request written third party verification under the following circumstances:

- a. When the tenant disputes the EIV information and is unable to provide acceptable documentation to support his/her dispute
- b. When the PHA requires additional information that is not available in EIV and /or the tenant is unable to provide the PHA with current acceptable tenant-provided documentation. Examples of additional information, includes but is not limited to:
  - i. Effective dates of income (i.e. employment, unemployment compensation, or social security benefits)
  - ii. For new employment: pay rate, number of hours worked per

- week, pay frequency, etc.
- iii. Confirmation of change in circumstances (i.e. reduced hours, reduced rate of pay, temporary leave of absence, etc.)

Note: 24 CFR §5.236(a), prohibits PHAs from taking adverse action based solely on EIV

Requirements for Acceptable Documents

SNRHA Policy

Any documents used for verification must be the original (not photocopies) and generally must be dated within 60 calendar days of the date they are provided to the SNRHA. The documents must not be damaged, altered or in any way illegible. All tenant supplied documents should be dated no more than 60 days before the effective date of the family's reexamination or SNRHA's request date, if the document represents the most recent scheduled report from a source. For example, if the holder of a pension annuity provides semi-annual reports, the SNRHA would accept the most recent report.

Print-outs from web pages are considered original documents.

Pay stubs which must be current and consecutive when used with EIV and must not be older than 60 days from the request date or 60 days prior to the annual recertification effective date. Four consecutive pay stubs will be required when using EIV for annuals and two for new hire verifications..

Examples of acceptable tenant-provided documentation (generated by a third party source) include, but are not limited to: pay stubs, payroll summary reports, child support payment stubs, welfare benefit letters and/or printouts, and unemployment monetary benefit notices, bank statements, and local agencies, employer letter/notices. Current acceptable tenant-provided documents must be used for income and rent determinations. The SNRHA is required to obtain a minimum of two pay stubs for determining annual income from wages. For new income sources or when two pay stubs are not available, the PHA should project income based on the information from a traditional written third party verification form or the best available information.

Note: Documents that are older than 60 days (from the date SNRHA interview/determination or request date) is acceptable for confirming effective dates of income.

The SNRHA staff member who views the original document must make a photocopy. Any family self-certifications must be made in a format acceptable to the SNRHA and must be signed in the presence of a SNRHA representative or SNRHA notary public.

File Documentation

The SNRHA must document in the file how the figures used in income and rent calculations were determined. All verification attempts, information obtained, and decisions reached during the verification process will be recorded in the family's file in sufficient detail to demonstrate that the SNRHA has followed all of the verification policies set forth in this plan. The record should be sufficient to enable a staff member or HUD reviewer to understand the process followed and conclusions reached.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will document, in the family file, the following: Reported family annual income

Value of assets

Expenses related to deductions from annual income

Other factors influencing the adjusted income or income-based rent determination

When the SNRHA is unable to obtain 3rd party verification, the SNRHA will document in the family file the reason that third-party verification was not available (including oral verification attempt) and will place a photocopy of any original document(s) in the family file. [24 CFR 960.259(c)(1); VG, p.15]

Special Verification Processes:

HUD NOTICE PIH 2013-03 (HA):

Purpose: “This Notice establishes temporary guidelines for public housing agencies (SNRHA) in fulfilling certain Public Housing (PH) and Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) program requirements during this period of decreased resources available to SNRHA. These guidelines are intended to facilitate the ability of SNRHA to continue, without interruption and with minimal burden, the delivery of rental assistance to eligible families in their communities. The temporary provisions established by this Notice will be available to SNRHA until March 31, 2014.

The economic downturn that commenced in 2008 and which continues has only increased the need for housing assistance. Increased demand for housing assistance without corresponding increased resources strains the operations of SNRHA, and jeopardizes their ability to assist families at a time when families most need housing assistance. Increasing administrative flexibility should allow SNRHA to deliver rental assistance more efficiently and expeditiously. Reduction of administrative burden is anticipated to allow SNRHA to better manage their programs within current allocated budget authority. The temporary guidelines are also designed to increase efficiencies, minimizing the use of resources for program administration. HUD intends to pursue more permanent changes to increase flexibility and reduce administrative burden and will be informed by SNRHA’ use of the temporary compliance provisions of this Notice.” PIH Notice 2013-3

In accordance with HUD Notice PIH 2013-3, the SNRHA Public Housing Occupancy department shall process tenant income verification as follows:.

SNRHA, PH Ops may choose to use either actual past income or projected future income. Currently, annual income includes income that is anticipated to be received from a source outside the family during the 12-month period following the effective date of admission or annual reexamination. The Notice provides SNRHA with the option of determining annual income based on past actual income received or earned within the last 12 months.

For the purpose of verifying income reported in HUD's Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system, the SNRHA may choose to use actual past income by utilizing the most recent 12 months of income information available in EIV. Because this EIV report will give actual earnings data verified by a third party, the program participant will no longer be required to provide third party documentation (e.g., paystubs, payroll summary report, unemployment monetary benefit notice).

If there has been a change in circumstances for a tenant, or a tenant disputes the EIV reported income information and is unable to provide acceptable documentation to resolve the dispute, the SNRHA must request written third-party verification.

For example, if a program participant lost his/her job, changed jobs, or reduced their hours in the months subsequent to the time period covered in EIV, the SNRHA must use, at the participant's request, the more recent income information verified by participant provided third-party documentation (e.g., paystubs, payroll summary report, unemployment monetary benefit notice) or through written third-party verification, which reflects the new or current work circumstance.

SNRHA must continue to verify income from sources not available in EIV. However, SNRHA must use the same time period for both wage and non-wage income. For example, if SNRHA uses EIV information from July 2011 to June 2012 for the purpose of verifying income from wages, the SNRHA must use the same time period for any non-wage income. This method may only be used if the SNRHA is able to align other non-wage income source dates with EIV.

Allow households to self-certify as to having assets of less than $5,000.

Tenants with assets below $5,000 typically generate minimal income from these assets which results in small changes to tenant rental payments. However, SNRHA spend significant time verifying such assets which strains SNRHA budgets, and leads to increased staff errors. The notice has made provisions intended to simplify the requirements associated with determining a participant's annual income (24 CFR 5.609(b)(3), 982.516(a)(2)(ii), 960.259(c)).

Families with assets are required to report all assets annually. The amount of interest earned on those assets is included as income used to calculate the tenant's rent obligation. Currently, where the family has net family assets in excess of $5,000, annual income includes the greater of the actual income derived from all net family assets or a percentage of the value of such assets based on the current passbook savings rate.

This Notice allows a SNRHA to accept a family's declaration of the amount of assets of less than $5,000, and the amount of income expected to be received from those assets. The SNRHA's application and reexamination documentation, which is signed by all adult family members, can serve as the declaration. Where the family has net family assets equal to or less than $5000, the SNRHA does not need to request supporting documentation (e.g. bank statements) from the family to confirm the assets or the amount of income expected to be received from those assets. Where the family has net family assets in excess of $5000, the SNRHA must obtain supporting documentation (e.g. bank statements) from the family to confirm the assets. Any assets will continue to be reported on HUD Form 50058.

Allow optional streamlined annual reexaminations for elderly families and disabled families on fixed incomes.

SNRHA is statutorily required to verify income and calculate rent annually, including for elderly and disabled families on fixed incomes. The notice states that the requirement to undertake the complete process for income verification and rent determination for families on fixed incomes is not necessary given the infrequency of changes to their incomes. Further, this requirement requires considerable staff time and SNRHA resources. The notice provides simplification of the requirements associated with determining the annual income of participants on fixed incomes (24 CFR 982.516, 960.257).

SNRHA will conduct a streamlined reexamination of income for elderly families and disabled families when 100 percent of the family's income consists of fixed income. In a streamlined reexamination, SNRHA will recalculate family incomes by applying any published cost of living adjustments to the previously verified income amount.

For purposes of this process, the term 'fixed income' includes income from:

1. Social Security payments to include Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and Supplemental Security Disability Insurance (SSDI);
2. Federal, State, local, and private pension plans; and
3. Other periodic payments received from annuities, insurance policies, retirement funds, disability or death benefits, and other similar types of periodic receipts that are of substantially the same amounts from year to year.

7-I.C. UP-FRONT INCOME VERIFICATION (UIV)

HUD strongly recommends the use of up-front income verification (UIV). UIV is "the verification of income, before or during a family reexamination, through an independent source that systematically and uniformly maintains income information in computerized form for a large number of individuals" [VG, p. 7]. UIV includes the HUD EIV system and other upfront verification tools such as the Work Number.

HUD allows SNRHA to use the EIV information in conjunction with family-provided documents to anticipate income.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will inform all applicants and participants of its use of the following UIV resources during the admission and reexamination process:

HUD's Enterprise Income Verification System

(EIV)

The SNRHA must restrict access to and safeguard UIV data in accordance with HUD guidance on security procedures, as issued and made available by HUD.

There may be legitimate differences between the information provided by the family and EIV-generated information. No adverse action can be taken against a family until the SNRHA has independently verified the EIV information and the family has been granted an opportunity to contest any adverse findings through the informal review/hearing process of the SNRHA.

Use of HUD's Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) System

HUD's EIV system contains data showing earned income, unemployment benefits, Social Security and SSI benefits for participant families. HUD requires the SNRHA to use the EIV system when available. The following policies will apply when the SNRHA has access to HUD's EIV system.

The EIV system contains two main components: tenant income data reports and "exceeds threshold" reports.

Tenant Income Data (TID) Reports (EIV)

The data shown on TID reports is updated quarterly. Data may be between 3 and 6 months old at the time reports are generated.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will obtain EIV reports for annual reexaminations on a monthly basis. SNRHA shall also obtain EIV reports for interims. Reports will be generated as part of the regular reexamination process.

EIV reports will be compared to family-provided information as part of the annual reexamination process. EIV reports may also be used to meet the regulatory requirement for third party verification, as described above. Policies for resolving discrepancies between EIV reports and family-provided information will be resolved as described in Chapter 5.I.D. and in this chapter.

EIV reports will be retained in participant's files with the applicable annual or interim reexamination documents.

When the SNRHA determines through EIV reports and third party verification that a family has concealed or under-reported income, corrective action will be taken pursuant to the policies in the Chapter Program Integrity.

Income Discrepancy Resolution

The SNRHA shall reconcile income discrepancies.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA shall proceed as follows:

- SNRHA shall identify underreported income and/or unreported income sources; No adverse action may be taken based solely on EIV data. In order to protect any individual whose records are being used in a matching program, no recipient agency, non-Federal agency, or source agency may suspend, terminate, reduce or make a final denial of any financial assistance or payment under a Federal Benefit program to such individual, as a result of information produced by such matching program, until the agency has independently verified the information;
- Review current and historical 50058s;
- Verify effective dates of new and terminated income sources; Discuss the income discrepancy with the tenant;
- View past and current interim and annual recertification documents in the tenant's file;
- Obtain additional documents from the tenant and/or third party (if necessary);
- Obtain Social Security Earnings Statement (SSA Form 7004) for historical wage earnings (Form available on HUD's website) for retroactive rent calculations.

EIV Identity Verification

The EIV system verifies tenant identities against SSA records. These records are compared to PIC data for a match on Social Security number, name, and date of birth.

When identity verification for a participant fails, a message will be displayed within the EIV system and no income information will be displayed.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will identify participants whose identity verification has failed as part of the annual reexamination process.

The SNRHA will attempt to resolve PIC/SSA discrepancies by reviewing file documents. When the SNRHA determines that discrepancies exist due to SNRHA errors such as spelling errors or incorrect birth dates, the errors will be corrected promptly and correction transmitted to HUD.

7-I.D. THIRD-PARTY WRITTEN AND ORAL VERIFICATION

Reasonable Effort and Timing

Unless third-party verification is not required as described herein, HUD requires the SNRHA to make an attempt to obtain third-party verification before using another form of verification [VG, p. 15].

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will diligently seek third-party verification using the chart above as guideline for order of verifications. If written 3rd party is required and is not received or available by the client, after 10 calendar days, staff will then attempt an oral verification if the written third party is not received. File narratives shall be documented whenever UIV or third party written is not used. Information received orally from third parties may be used either to clarify information provided in writing by the third party or as independent verification when written third-party verification is not received in a timely fashion.

The SNRHA may mail, fax, or e-mail third-party written verification requests and will accept third-party responses using any of these methods. The SNRHA will send a written request for verification to each required source within 5 business days of securing a family's authorization for the release of the information and give the source 10 calendar days to respond in writing. If a response has not been received by the 11th business day, the SNRHA will request third-party oral verification.

The SNRHA will make a minimum of two attempts, (one written and one oral, if needed) to obtain third-party verification. A record of each attempt to contact the third-party source (including no-answer calls) and all contacts with the source will be documented in the file. Regarding third-party oral verification, SNRHA staff will record in the family's file the name and title of the person contacted, the date of the conversation (or attempt), the telephone number used, and the facts provided.

When any source responds verbally to the initial written request for verification the SNRHA will accept the verbal response as oral verification but will also request that the source complete and return any verification forms that were provided.

Third-Party Written Verification

Third-party verification is used to verify information directly with the source. Third-party written verification forms will be sent and returned via first class mail or fax. The family will be required to sign an authorization for the information source to release the specified information.

Verifications received electronically directly from the source as well as items as noted above in the Chart( Including those provided directly from a clients) are considered third party written verifications.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will accept verifications in the form of computerized printouts, showing payments, faxed, mailed or received via upfront verification systems directly from the following agencies:

- Social Security Administration -
- EIV Veterans Administration
- Welfare Assistance
- Unemployment Compensation Board
- City or County Courts
- Other State and Federal Offices, including HUD

The SNRHA will use computer printouts as well as other acceptable forms of third party verification that do not appear as altered and are on a business or other entity's letterhead, received directly from the family for calculation family's income. Staff must attempt third party verification when EIV nor family provided acceptable documentation is not available. If no response, then staff must attempt oral verifications and must document on the file narrative why third party was not used and complete an oral verification form. If the family disputes the information provided by the third party, the staff is to seek further clarification by phone with the third party. The information provided by the 3rd party is to prevail.

Third-Party Oral Verification

SNRHA Policy

Oral third-party verification will be used when written third-party verification is delayed; not returned within 10 calendar days or not possible. When third-party oral verification is used, staff will be required to complete an Oral Verification/Review of Documents form, noting with whom they spoke, the date of the conversation, and the facts provided. If oral third party verification is not available, the SNRHA will document the file narrative and utilize documents provided by the participant. If the oral is provided by telephone, the SNRHA must originate the call.

Review of Documents

SNRHA Policy

In the event that third-party written is not returned within 10 calendar days or oral verification is unavailable, or the information has not been verified by the third party within 10 calendar days, the SNRHA will notate the file narrative accordingly; ensure copies of documents requiring the third party verification are in file. Oral third party verification should be attempted prior to utilizing documents provided by the family as the primary source if the documents provide complete information and the file narrative must be documented.

All such documents, excluding government checks, will be photocopied and retained in the applicant file. In cases where documents are viewed which cannot be photocopied, staff viewing the document(s) will complete an Oral Verification/Review of Documents form.

The SNRHA will accept the following documents from the family provided that the document is such that tampering would be easily noted:

- Printed wage stubs
- Computer printouts from the employer
- Employer's letters and wage printouts
- Bank Statements
- Award Letters
- Pension Letters
- Signed letters (provided that the information is confirmed by phone)
- Other documents noted in this Chapter as acceptable verification

Although these documents will be accepted, the SNRHA will also mail third party verifications to the source; attempt upfront verification and use these documents only after there has been no response to the third party verification method.

The SNRHA will accept faxed documents.

The SNRHA will accept mail from the third party source.

The SNRHA will accept hand carried documents from clients as long as they do not appear as altered and provide required documentation regarding wages.

The SNRHA will not accept photocopies.

If third-party verification is received after documents have been accepted as provisional verification, and there is a discrepancy, the SNRHA will attempt to contact the verification provider by telephone to resolve the discrepancy. If the attempt to resolve the discrepancy by telephone is unsuccessful, the SNRHA will use the third party verification.

The SNRHA will not delay the processing of an application beyond 30 calendar days, except due to screening for criminal history, because a third party information provider does not return the verification in a timely manner. The next steps in the verification process shall be attempted after 10 calendar days, unless the family has been given an extension.

Self-Certification/Self-Declaration

When verification cannot be made by third-party verification, including oral verification or review of documents, families will be required to submit a self-certification.

SNRHA Policy

Self-certification means a statement under penalty of perjury, and the signature must be witnessed by SNRHA staff.

When Third-Party Information is Late

When third-party verification has been requested and the timeframes for submission have been exceeded, the SNRHA will use the information from documents on a provisional basis.

SNRHA Policy

If the SNRHA later receives third-party verification that differs from the amounts used in income and rent determinations and it is past the deadline for processing the reexamination, the SNRHA will conduct an interim reexamination to adjust the figures used for the reexamination, regardless of the SNRHA's interim reexamination policy, if needed.

When Third-Party Verification is not Required

Primary Documents

Third-party verification is not required when legal documents are the primary source, such as a birth certificate or other legal documentation of birth and for verification of checking/saving accounts.

Certain Assets and Expenses

The SNRHA will accept a self-certification from a family as verification of assets disposed of for less than fair market value.

The SNRHA will determine that third-party verification is not available if the asset or expense involves an insignificant amount, making it not cost-effective or reasonable to obtain third-party verification .

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will use review of documents in lieu of requesting third-party verification when the market value of an individual asset or an expense is less than $5,000 annually and the family has original documents that support the declared amount.

Certain Income, Asset and Expense Sources

The SNRHA will determine that third-party verification is not available when it is known that an income source does not have the ability to provide written or oral third-party verification. For example, the SNRHA will rely upon review of documents when the SNRHA determines that a third party's privacy rules prohibit the source from disclosing information.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA also will determine that third-party verification is not available when there is a service charge for verifying an asset or expense and the family has original documents that provide the necessary information.

If the family cannot provide original documents, the SNRHA will pay the service charge required to obtain third-party verification, unless it is not cost effective in which case a self-certification will be acceptable as the only means of verification. The cost of verification will not be passed on to the family.

The cost of postage and envelopes to obtain third-party verification of income, assets, and expenses is not an unreasonable cost.

RELEASE OF INFORMATION

Adult family members (age 18 and older) will be required to sign the HUD 9886 Release of Information/Privacy Act form. In addition, family members will be required to sign specific authorization forms when information is needed that is not covered by the HUD form 9886, Authorization for Release of Information/Privacy Act Notice. Additional release forms as developed by SNRHA are considered required forms that all applicants and participants must sign.

Each member requested to consent to the release of specific information will be provided with appropriate forms for their review and signature.

Family refusal to cooperate with the HUD prescribed verification system will result in denial of admission or termination of assistance because it is a family obligation to supply any information and to sign consent forms requested by the SNRHA or HUD.

COMPUTER MATCHING

Where allowed by HUD and/or other State or local agencies, computer matching will be done for upfront verifications.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will utilize the HUD established computer-based Tenant Eligibility Verification System (EIV) for obtaining Social Security benefits, Supplemental Security Income benefit history and tenant income discrepancy reports from the Social Security Administration. Additionally, to the extent possible, SNRHA will use the UIV systems to obtain upfront verification of wages and Child Support data systems for verification of child support when available.

When computer matching results in a discrepancy with information in the SNRHA records, the SNRHA will follow up with the family and verification sources to resolve this discrepancy. If the family has unreported or underreported income, SNRHA will follow the procedures in the Program Integrity Addendum of the Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy.

ITEMS TO BE VERIFIED

All income not specifically excluded by the regulations.

Full-time student status including High School students who are 18 or over.

Current assets including assets disposed of for less than fair market value in preceding two years. Child care expense where it allows an adult family member to be employed, search for employment, or to further his/her education.

Total un-reimbursed medical expenses of all family members in households whose head or spouse is elderly or disabled.

Un-reimbursed disability assistance expenses to include only those costs associated with attendant care or auxiliary apparatus for a disabled member of the family that allows an adult family member to be employed.

Disability for determination of preferences, allowances or deductions. Eligible immigrant status

Social Security Numbers for all family members who have been issued a social security number.

"Preference" status

Familial/Marital status when needed for head or spouse definition to determine deductions. Need for reasonable accommodations

Verification of sanctions by the Nevada Office of Human Services that TANF benefits have been reduced for either welfare fraud or failure to comply with economic self-sufficiency requirements.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will obtain written verification from the welfare agency stating that the family's benefits have been reduced for fraud or noncompliance with economic self-sufficiency requirements before denying the family's request for rent reduction. The verification will include the amount of the sanction and the duration.

VERIFICATION GUIDANCE [24 CFR 982.516]

This section defines the methods the SNRHA will use to verify various types of income.

Employment Income

SNRHA Policy

Verification forms request the employer to specify

the: Dates of employment

Amount and frequency of pay

Date of the last pay increase

Likelihood of change of employment status and effective date of any known salary increase during the next 12 months

Year to date earnings

Estimated income from overtime, tips, bonus pay expected during next 12 months

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. EIV with a minimum of 2 consecutive paystubs.
2. Third party written verification
Employment verification form completed by the employer
3. Oral third party
4. Review of documents
Check stubs or earning statements, which indicate the employee's gross pay, frequency of pay or year to date earnings. At least three (3) consecutive pay stubs are required when third party verification cannot be obtained.
5. W-2 forms and IRS Form 4506-T release
6. Self-certifications may be used for verifying self-employment income, or income from tips and other gratuities.

In cases where there are questions about the validity of information provided by the family, SNRHA will require the most recent federal income tax statements to be obtained via use of IRS Form 4506-T.

Social Security, Pensions, Supplementary Security Income (SSI), Disability Income

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. EIV
2. Benefit verification form completed by agency providing the benefits.
3. Award or benefit notification letters prepared and signed by the providing agency that is no more than 60 days old.

Unemployment Compensation

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. EIV
2. Verification form completed by the unemployment compensation agency.
3. Computer report electronically obtained or in hard copy, from unemployment office stating payment dates and amounts.
4. Payment stubs

Welfare Payments or General Assistance

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. Written statement from payment provider indicating the amount of grant/payment, start date of payments, family members, and anticipated changes in payment in the next 12 months.
2. Computer-generated Notice of Action.

Alimony or Child Support Payments

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. Print out received via 3rd party verification from the DA's office.
2. Copy of a separation or settlement agreement or a divorce decree stating amount and type of support and payment schedules.
3. A third party verification form completed by the person paying the support.
4. A letter from the person paying the support.
5. Copy of latest check and/or payment stubs from Court Trustee. SNRHA must record the date, amount, and number of the check if not photocopied.
6. Family's self-certification of amount received and of the likelihood of support payments being received in the future, or that support payments are not being received.

If payments are irregular, the family must provide:

A statement from the agency responsible for enforcing payments to show that the family has filed for enforcement.

A self-certification from the family indicating the amount(s) received.

A welfare notice of action showing amounts received by the DA –Child Support Division.

A written statement from an attorney certifying that a collection or enforcement action has been filed.

Net Income from a Business

SNRHA Policy

In order to verify the net income from a business, SNRHA will view IRS and financial documents from prior years and use this information to anticipate the income for the next 12 months.

Acceptable methods of verification include:

1. IRS Form 1040, including: Schedule C
(Small Business) Schedule E

(Rental Property Income)

Schedule F (Farm Income)

If accelerated depreciation was used on the tax return or financial statement, an accountant's calculation of depreciation expense, computed using straight-line depreciation rules.

2. Audited or unaudited financial statement(s) of the business.
3. Credit report or loan application.
4. Documents such as manifests, appointment books, cash books, bank statements, and receipts will be used as a guide for the prior six months (or lesser period if not in business for six months) to project income for the next 12 months. The family will be advised to maintain these documents in the future if they are not available.
5. Family's self-certification as to net income realized from the business during previous years.

Child Care Business

SNRHA Policy

The childcare provider must be 18 years of age or older.

If an applicant/participant is operating a licensed day care business, income will be verified as with any other business.

If the applicant/participant is operating a "cash and carry" operation (which may or may not be licensed), the SNRHA will require that the applicant/participant complete a form for each customer which indicates: name of person(s) whose child (children) is/are being cared for, phone number, number of hours child is being cared for, method of payment (check/cash), amount paid, and signature of person.

If the family has filed a tax return, the family will be required to provide it via Form IRS 4506-T.

If childcare services were terminated, a third-party verification will be sent to the parent whose child was cared for.

Recurring Gifts

SNRHA Policy

The family must furnish a self-certification, which contains the following information: The person who provides the gifts

The value of the gifts

The regularity (dates) of the gifts

The purpose of the gifts

SNRHA shall send out verifications to the donors.

Full-time Student Status

Only the first $480 of the earned income of full time students, other than head, co-head, or spouse, will be counted towards family income.

Financial aid, scholarships and grants received by students is not counted towards family income.

SNRHA Policy

Verification of full time student status includes:

Written verification from the registrar's office or other school official.

School records indicating enrollment for sufficient number of credits to be considered a full-time student by the educational institution. (State of Nevada: 12 credits)

VERIFICATION OF ASSETS

Family Assets

The SNRHA will require the information necessary to determine the current cash value of the family's assets, (the net amount the family would receive if the asset were converted to cash).

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable verification may include any of the following:

Verification forms, letters, or documents from a financial institution or broker. Passbooks, checking account statements, certificates of deposit, bonds, or financial statements completed by a financial institution or broker.

Quotes from a stock broker or realty agent as to net amount family would receive if they liquidated securities or real estate.

Real estate taxes statements if the approximate current market value can be reduced from assessment.

Financial statements for business assets.

Copies of closing documents showing the selling price and the distribution of the sales proceeds.

Appraisals of personal property held as an investment.

Family's self-certification describing assets or cash held at the family's home or in safe deposit boxes.

Assets Disposed of for Less than Fair Market Value (FMV) During Two Years Preceding Effective Date of Certification or Recertification

SNRHA Policy

For all certifications and re-certifications, the SNRHA will obtain the Family's certification as to whether any member has disposed of assets for less than fair market value during the two years preceding the effective date of the certification or recertification.

If the family certifies that they have disposed of assets for less than fair market value, verification is required that shows: (a) all assets disposed of for less than FMV, (b) the date they were disposed of, (c) the amount the family received, and (d) the market value of the assets at the time of disposition. Third party verification will be obtained wherever possible. Family certification will be accepted if no other verification is possible.

VERIFICATION OF ALLOWABLE DEDUCTIONS FROM INCOME [24 CFR 982.516]

Medical Expenses

SNRHA Policy

Eligible families who claim medical expenses will be required to submit a certification as to whether or not any expense payments have been, or will be, reimbursed by an outside source. All expense claims will be verified by one or more of the methods listed below (Credit Card Statements will not be accepted as proof of payment of expenses):

Written verification by an eye doctor, optician, otolaryngologist, hearing aide provider, or other medical practitioner or provider of medical equipment of (a) the anticipated medical costs to be incurred by the family and regular payments due on medical bills; and (b) extent to which those expenses will be reimbursed by insurance or a government agency.

Written verification from a medical lab, provider of oxygen, blood products, or other specialized medical supplies of (a) the anticipated medical costs to be incurred by the family and regular payments will be reimbursed by insurance or a government agency.

Written verification from the provider of medical equipment such as hospital bed, scooter, wheelchair, commode, artificial limbs, etc. of (a) the anticipated medical costs to be incurred by the family and regular payments due on medical bills; and (b) extent to which those expenses will be reimbursed by insurance or a government agency.

Written confirmation from the Social Security Administration of Medicare premiums to be paid by the family over the next 12 months. A computer printout will be accepted.

For attendant care paid to an individual:

A reliable, knowledgeable professional's certification that the assistance of an attendant is necessary as a medical expense and a projection of the number of hours the care is needed for calculation purposes.

Attendant's written confirmation of hours of care provided and amount and frequency of payments received from the family or agency (or copies of canceled checks the family used to make those payments) or stubs from the agency providing the services.

Receipts, canceled checks, or pay stubs that verify medical costs and insurance expenses likely to be incurred in the next 12 months.

Copies of payment agreements or most recent invoice that verify payments made on outstanding attendant care bills that will continue over all or part of the next 12 months.

Receipts or other record of attendant care expenses incurred during the past 12 months that can be used to anticipate future attendant care expenses.

The SNRHA will use mileage at the IRS rate, or cab, bus fare, or other public transportation cost for verification of the cost of transportation directly related to medical treatment.

Assistance to Persons with Disabilities

In All Cases:

SNRHA Policy

Written certification from a reliable, knowledgeable professional that the person with disabilities requires the services of an attendant and/or the use of auxiliary apparatus to permit him/her to be employed or to function sufficiently independently to enable another family member to be employed.

Family's certification as to whether they receive reimbursement for any of the expenses of disability assistance and the amount of any reimbursement received.

Attendant Care:

Attendant's written certification of amount received from the family, frequency of receipt, and hours of care provided.

Certification of family and attendant and/or copies of canceled checks family used to make payments.

Auxiliary Apparatus:

Receipts for purchases or proof of monthly payments and maintenance expenses for auxiliary apparatus.

In the case where the person with disabilities is employed, a statement from the employer that the auxiliary apparatus is necessary for employment.

Live-In Aide

SNRHA Policy

When a participant requires a live-in aide, the SNRHA shall submit their signed reasonable accommodation request form to the medical professional noted on their request for third party verification of the need. Once approved by the 504 officer, the participant shall have 30 days to submit the name of the live-in aide and schedule them to come in for screening. The unit size shall NOT be increased until such time as SNRHA staff has completed their screening of the Live-In Aide in compliance with SNRHA guidance. The participant shall be allowed to submit another name for a live-in aide if the first does not pass the screening process but must submit this name within 14 calendar days of the denial notice.

The approved unit size would be adjusted, if required to accommodate a room for the live –in aide. Each year the SNRHA at annual recertification time shall re-verify the need for a live-in aide.

VERIFYING NON-FINANCIAL FACTORS [24 CFR 982.153(b) (15)]

Verification of Legal Identity

In order to prevent program abuse, the SNRHA will require applicants/residents to furnish verification of legal identity for all adult family members.

SNRHA Policy

The documents listed below will be considered acceptable verification of legal identity for adults, as long as they include a picture of the individual. If a document submitted by a family is illegible or otherwise questionable, more than one of these documents may be required.

Driver's license

U.S. passport

Department of Motor Vehicles Identification Card

Validated Sheriff Card

Military Identification

DMV Instructional ID

Certificate of Birth, naturalization papers

An original Certificate of Birth is required for all minors. Other documents considered acceptable for the verification of legal identity for minors may be one or more of the following:

Adoption papers

Custody agreement

School records

Hospital Birth Certifications

Passport

Health and Human Services ID (foster children; adopted Children) I-94

Verification of Marital Status (for purposes of meeting Spouse definition and determining the eligibility of counting income of absence spouse)

SNRHA Policy

Verification of divorce status will be a certified copy of the divorce decree, signed by a Court Officer.

Verification of a separation may be a copy of court-ordered maintenance or other records. A marriage certificate generally is required to verify that a couple is married. In the case of a common law marriage, the couple must demonstrate that they hold themselves to be married (e.g., by telling the community they are married, calling each other husband and wife, using the same last name, filing joint income tax returns).

Familial Relationships

SNRHA Policy

Verification of guardianship is:

Court-ordered assignment

Verification from social services agency

SNRHA Self-certification of temporary guardianship or appointment

In each case above (except court assignment), SNRHA must receive a court awarded guardianship or custody documents within 365 calendar days or head of household must resign SNRHA's documents and submit required supporting documents. Failure shall result in subsidy standard being decreased; and allowance decreased. Any income still coming into the household on behalf of the child would be counted.

Other family relationships will be verified through birth certificates or other relevant documents.

Verification of Permanent Absence of Family Member

If an adult member who was formerly a member of the household or was never reported and identified by staff as being a spouse and is reported permanently absent by the family, the SNRHA will consider any of the following as verification:

- Husband or wife institutes divorce action
- Husband or wife institutes legal separation.

- Order of protection/restraining order obtained by one family member against another.

Verification of Change in Family Composition

The SNRHA may verify changes in family composition (either reported or unreported) through one or more of the following actions: letters, telephone calls, utility records, inspections, landlords, neighbors, credit data, school or DMV records, and other sources.

Verification of Citizenship/Eligible Immigrant Status [24 CFR 5.508, 5.510, 5.512, 5.514]

To be eligible for assistance, individuals must be U.S. citizens or eligible immigrants.

Individuals who are neither may elect not to contend their status. Eligible immigrants must fall into one of the categories specified by the regulations and must have their status verified by Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS). Each family member must declare their status once. Assistance cannot be delayed, denied, or terminated while verification of status is pending except that assistance to applicants may be delayed while the SNRHA hearing is pending.

Citizens or Nationals of the United States are required to sign a declaration under penalty of perjury, the Declaration 214 Form, noting that they are a citizen or national.

Eligible Immigrants who were Participants and 62 or over on June 19, 1995, are required to sign a declaration of eligible immigration status (Declaration 214 Form) and provide proof of age.

Non-citizens with eligible immigration status must sign a declaration of status (Declaration 214 Form) and verification consent form and provide their original immigration documents which are copied front and back and returned to the family. The SNRHA verifies the status through the INS SAVE system. If this primary verification fails to verify status, the SNRHA must request within ten days that the INS conduct a manual search.

Ineligible family members who do not claim to be citizens or eligible immigrants must be listed on a statement of ineligible family members signed by the head of household or spouse.

Non-citizen students on student visas are ineligible members even though they are in the country lawfully. They must provide their student visa but their status will not be verified and they do not sign a declaration but are listed on the statement of ineligible members.

Failure to Provide. If an applicant or participant family member fails to sign required declarations and consent forms or provide documents, as required, they must be listed as an ineligible member. If the entire family fails to provide and sign as required, the family may be denied or terminated for failure to provide required information.

Additionally, SNRHA must terminate assistance for at least 24 months if it determines that a family has knowingly permitted an ineligible person to live in the assisted unit without informing the SNRHA.

Time of Verification

For applicants, verification of U.S. citizenship/eligible immigrant status occurs at the same time as verification of other factors of eligibility for final eligibility determination.

The SNRHA will not provide assistance to any family prior to the affirmative establishment and verification of the eligibility of the individual or at least one member of the family.

For family members added after other members have been verified, the verification occurs upon approval of additional person by the SNRHA.

Once verification has been completed for any covered program, it shall be verified annually unless their eligibility immigration status changes to permanent resident. In the case of port-in families, if the initial PHA does not supply the documents, the SNRHA must conduct the determination and/or when the SNRHA notes a Resident Alien Card with an expiring date or no date of expiration.

Acceptable Documents of Eligible Immigration

The regulations stipulate that only the following documents are acceptable unless changes are published in the Federal Register.

- Resident Alien Card (I-551)
- Alien Registration Receipt Card (I-151)
- Arrival-Departure Record (I-94)
- Temporary Resident Card (I-688)
- Employment Authorization Card (I-688B)
- Receipt issued by the INS for issuance of replacement of any of the above documents that shows individual's entitlement has been verified

A birth certificate is not acceptable verification of status. All documents in connection with U.S. citizenship/eligible immigrant status must be kept five years.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will recertify eligible immigration status one year prior to expiration date of the following documents:

Resident Alien Card (I-551)

Alien Registration Receipt Card (I-

151) Arrival-Departure Record (I-94)

Temporary Resident Card (I-688)

Medical Need for Larger Unit

SNRHA Policy

A written certification that a larger unit is necessary must be obtained from a reliable, knowledgeable professional as a reasonable accommodation for a disabled family member. At each Annual Inspection, staff will verify that the additional room is still being used for medical equipment. When this is not the case, the unit size be decreased in compliance with SNRHA guidance.

When Third-Party Verification is Not Required

Primary Documents

Third-party verification is not required when legal documents are the primary source, such as a birth certificate or other legal documentation of birth.

Certain Assets and Expenses

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will accept a self-certification from a family as verification of assets disposed of for less than fair market value.

The SNRHA will determine that third-party verification is not available, if the asset or expense involves an insignificant amount, making it not cost-effective or reasonable to obtain third-party verification,

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will use review of documents in lieu of requesting third-party verification when the market value of an individual asset or an expense is less than $5,000 annually and the family has original documents that support the declared amount.

Certain Income, Asset and Expense Sources

The SNRHA will determine that third-party verification is not available when it is known that an income source does not have the ability to provide written or oral third-party verification. For example, the SNRHA will rely upon review of documents when the SNRHA determines that a third party's privacy rules prohibit the source from disclosing information.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA also will determine that third-party verification is not available when there is a service charge for verifying an asset or expense and the family has original documents that provide the necessary information.

The SNRHA will document in the family file the reason that the third-party verification was not available and will place a photocopy of the original document(s) in the family file.

If the family cannot provide original documents, the SNRHA will pay the service charge required to obtain third-party verification, unless it is not cost effective in which case a self-certification will be acceptable as the only means of verification. The cost of verification will not be passed on to the family.

The cost of postage and envelopes to obtain third-party verification of income, assets, and expenses is not an unreasonable cost.

7-I.E. REVIEW OF DOCUMENTS

Using Review of Documents as Verification

SNRHA Policy

If the SNRHA has determined that third-party verification is not available or not required, the SNRHA will use documents provided by the family as verification.

The SNRHA may also review documents when necessary to help clarify information provided by third parties. In such cases the SNRHA will document in the file how the SNRHA arrived at a final conclusion about the income or expense to include in its calculations.

7-I.F. SELF-CERTIFICATION

SNRHA Policy

When information cannot be verified by a third party or by review of documents, family members will be required to submit self-certifications attesting to the accuracy of the information they have provided to the SNRHA.

The SNRHA may require a family to certify that a family member does not receive a particular type of income or benefit.

The self-certification must be made in a format acceptable to the SNRHA and must be signed by the family member whose information or status is being verified. All self-certifications must be signed in the presence of a SNRHA representative or SNRHA notary public. The cost shall not be passed on to the client.

PART II: VERIFYING FAMILY INFORMATION

7-II.A. VERIFICATION OF LEGAL IDENTITY

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will require families to furnish verification of legal identity for each household member.

| Verification of Legal Identity for Adults                                                                                                                                                          | Verification of Legal Identity for Children                                                                                                                                              |

|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|

If a document submitted by a family is illegible or otherwise questionable, more than one of these documents may be required.

7-II.B. SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS [24 CFR 5.216 , 5.218 and 5.233]

Every family member must provide documentation of a valid social security number (SSN) unless they are a non-citizen or non-eligible immigrant.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will request to copy the family member's social security card.

If the social security card is not available, SNRHA will instruct the family to obtain a duplicate card from the local social Security Administration (SSA) office, but will complete the action by accepting the following documents as evidence if the SSN is provided on the document:

- Benefit award letters from a government agency; retirement benefit letters; life insurance policies.
- Any document issued by the Social Security Administration that clearly lists the family member's social security number and name.
- For individuals who are at least 62 years of age and are unable to submit the required documentation of their SSN within the initial 60-day period, the SNRHA will grant an additional 60 calendar days to provide documentation.

Social security numbers must be verified only once during continuously-assisted occupancy. If any family member obtains an SSN after admission to the program, the new SSN must be disclosed within 30 days.

The social security numbers of non-household members, such as live-in aids, must be verified for the purpose of conducting criminal background checks.

Names on verifications of Legal Identity and Social Security Number must match.

7-II.C. FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS

Applicants and program participants are required to identify the relationship of each household member to the head of household. If an applicant list themselves as married and no not list a spouse, they will still be required to submit a separation or divorce degree. Definitions of the primary household relationships are provided in the Eligibility chapter.

SNRHA Policy

Other family relationships will be verified through birth certificates or other relevant documents.

Marriage

SNRHA Policy

A marriage certificate generally is required to verify that a couple is married.

In the case of a common law marriage, the couple must demonstrate that they hold themselves to be married (e.g., by telling the community they are married, calling each other husband and wife, using the same last name, filing joint income tax returns).

Separation or Divorce

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will require the family to document the divorce, or separation.

A certified copy of a divorce decree, signed by a court officer, is required to document that a couple is divorced.

A copy of a court-ordered maintenance or other court record is required to document a separation.

Absence of Adult Member

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will consider any of the following as

verification: Husband or wife institutes divorce action

Husband or wife institutes legal separation.

Order of protection/restraining order obtained by one family member against another.

If an applicant list themselves as married, but does not list a spouse name, they will still be required to provide a separation document or divorce decree.

If no such documentation is available, the applicant may complete SNRHA's Marital Separation form, which will required above documentation to be provided within 365 days of the date the form is submitted.

Foster Children and Foster Adults

SNRHA Policy

Third-party verification from the state or local government agency responsible for the placement of the individual with the family is required.

7-II.D. DOCUMENTATION OF AGE

A birth certificate or other official record of birth is the preferred form of age verification for all family members. For elderly family members an original document that provides evidence of the receipt of social security retirement benefits is acceptable.

SNRHA Policy

If an official record of birth or evidence of social security retirement benefits cannot be provided, the SNRHA will require the family to submit other documents that support the reported age of the family member (e.g., school records, driver's license if birth year is recorded) and to provide a self-certification.

Age must be verified only once during continuously-assisted occupancy.

7-II.E. VERIFICATION OF STUDENT

STATUS General Requirements

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA requires families to provide information about the student status of all students who are 18 years of age or older. This information will be verified only if:

The family reports full-time student status for an adult other than the head, spouse, or co-head.

The family reports child care expenses to enable a family member to further his or her education.

The family includes a student enrolled in an institution of higher education.

The family claims an income exclusion because the student is receiving earned income and only the first $480 is included as income.

Restrictions on Assistance to Students Enrolled in Institutions of Higher Education

This section applies only to students who are seeking assistance on their own, separately from their parents. It does not apply to students residing with parents who are seeking or receiving PH assistance.

SNRHA Policy

In accordance with the verification hierarchy described in Section 6-1.B, the SNRHA will determine whether the student is exempt from the restrictions in 24 CFR 5.612 by verifying any one of the following exemption criteria:

The student is enrolled at an educational institution that does not meet the definition of institution of higher education in the Higher Education Act of 1965 (see Section Exhibit 3-2).

The student is at least 24 years old.

The student is a veteran, as defined in Chapter 2

The student is married.

The student has at least one dependent child, as defined in Section 2.

If the SNRHA cannot verify at least one of these exemption criteria, the SNRHA will conclude that the student is subject to the restrictions on assistance at 24 CFR 5.612.

In addition to verifying the student's income eligibility, the SNRHA will then proceed to verify either the student's parents' income eligibility or the student's independence from his/her parents (see below).

Independent Student

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will verify a student's independence from his/her parents to determine that the student's parents' income is not relevant for determining the student's eligibility by doing all of the following:

Either reviewing and verifying previous address information to determine whether the student has established a household separate from his/her parents for at least one year or reviewing and verifying documentation relevant to determining whether the student meets the U.S. Department of Education's definition of independent student.

Reviewing prior year income tax returns to verify whether a parent has claimed the student as a dependent

Requesting and obtaining written certification directly from the student's parents identifying the amount of support they will be providing to the student, even if the amount of support is $0.

7-II.F. DOCUMENTATION OF DISABILITY

The SNRHA must verify the existence of a disability in order to allow certain income disallowances and deductions from income. The SNRHA is not permitted to inquire about the nature or extent of a person's disability [24 CFR 100.202(c)]. The SNRHA may not inquire about a person's diagnosis or details of treatment for a disability or medical condition. If the SNRHA receives a verification document that provides such information, the PHA will not place this information in the tenant file. Under no circumstances will the PHA request a participant's medical record(s). For more information on health care privacy laws, see the Department of Health and Human Services' website at www.os.dhhs.gov.

The above cited regulation does not prohibit the following inquiries, provided these inquiries are made of all applicants, whether or not they are persons with disabilities:

- Inquiry into an applicant's ability to meet the requirements of ownership or tenancy
- Inquiry to determine whether an applicant is qualified for a dwelling available only to persons with disabilities or to persons with a particular type of disability
- Inquiry to determine whether an applicant for a dwelling is qualified for a priority available to persons with disabilities or to persons with a particular type of disability
- Inquiring whether an applicant for a dwelling is a current illegal abuser or addict of a controlled substance
- Inquiring whether an applicant has been convicted of the illegal manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance

Family Members Receiving SSA Disability Benefits

Verification of the receipt of disability benefits from the Social Security Administration (SSA) is sufficient verification of disability for the purpose of qualifying for waiting list preferences (if applicable) or certain income disallowances and deductions.

SNRHA Policy

For family members claiming disability who receive disability benefits from the SSA, the SNRHA will attempt to obtain information about disability benefits through the HUD Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system when it is available. If documentation from HUD's EIV System is not available, the SNRHA will request a current (dated within the last 60 days) SSA benefit verification letter from each family member claiming disability status. If the family is unable to provide the document(s), the SNRHA will ask the family to request a benefit verification letter by either calling SSA at 1-800-772-1213, or by requesting it from www.ssa.gov. Once the applicant or participant receives the benefit verification letter they will be required to provide it to the SNRHA.

Family Members Not Receiving SSA Disability Benefits

Receipt of veteran's disability benefits, worker's compensation, or other non-SSA benefits based on the individual's claimed disability are not sufficient verification that the individual meets HUD's definition of disability in 24 CFR 5.603.

SNRHA Policy

For family members claiming disability who do not receive disability benefits from the SSA, a knowledgeable professional must provide third-party verification that the family member meets the HUD definition of disability. See the Eligibility chapter for the HUD definition of disability. The knowledgeable professional will verify whether the family member does or does not meet the HUD definition.

PART III: VERIFYING INCOME AND ASSETS

Chapter 5, Part I of this plan describes in detail the types of income that are included and excluded and how assets and income from assets are handled. Any assets and income reported by the family must be verified. This part provides SNRHA policies that supplement the general verification procedures specified in Part I of this chapter.

7-III.A. EARNED

INCOME Wages

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. EIV with two consecutive current paystubs for annuals and for New Hires.
2. Acceptable 3rd Party written verification provided by the resident.

- 3 Third party written verification
Employment verification form completed by the employer
4. Oral third party -must document why other steps above where not available
5. W-2 forms and IRS Form 4506-T release
6. Self-certifications may be used for verifying self-employment income, or income from tips and other gratuities.
7. Current check stubs or earning statements, which indicate the employee's gross pay, frequency of pay or year to date earnings.

In cases where there are questions about the validity of information provided by the family, SNRHA will require the most recent federal income tax statements to be obtained via use of IRS Form 4506-T.

Tips

SNRHA Policy

Unless tip income is included in a family member's W-2 by the employer, persons who work in industries where tips are standard will be required to sign a certified estimate of tips received for the prior year and tips anticipated to be received in the coming year. Interruption of employment due to temporary leave of absence (i.e. maternity leave, short-term disability): upon verification that earnings have stopped, an interim will be conducted to remove the income. The family may be required to complete a Zero Income Questionnaire/Certification.

The family is required to report any other income received in lieu of earnings. The family will be required to report when the income starts again. At that time an interim will be conducted to add the income back into the family budget.

7-III.B. PERIODIC PAYMENTS AND PAYMENTS IN LIEU OF EARNINGS Social Security/SSI Benefits

SNRHA Policy

To verify the SS/SSI benefits of applicants, the SNRHA will request a current (dated within the last 60 days) SSA benefit verification letter from each family member that receives social security benefits. If the family is unable to provide the document(s), the PHA will ask the family to request a benefit verification letter by either calling SSA at 1- 800-772-1213, or by requesting it from www.ssa.gov. Once the applicant has received the benefit verification letter they will be required to provide it to the SNRHA.

To verify the SS/SSI benefits of participants, the SNRHA will obtain information about social security/SSI benefits through the HUD EIV System or the Tenant Assessment Subsystem (TASS). If benefit information is not available in HUD systems, the SNRHA will request a current SSA benefit verification letter from each family member that receives social security benefits. If the family is unable to provide the document(s) the PHA will ask the family to request a benefit verification letter by either calling SSA at 1- 800-772-1213, or by requesting it from www.ssa.gov. Once the participant has received the benefit verification letter they will be required to provide it to the SNRHA.

7-III. C. ASSETS AND INCOME FROM

ASSETS

Assets Disposed of for Less than Fair Market

Value

The family must certify whether any assets have been disposed of for less than fair market value in the preceding two years. The SNRHA needs to verify only those certifications that warrant documentation.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will verify the value of assets disposed of only if:

- The SNRHA does not already have a reasonable estimation of its value from previously collected information, or
- The amount reported by the family in the certification appears obviously in error. Example 1: An elderly participant reported a $10,000 certificate of deposit at the last annual reexamination and the SNRHA verified this amount. Now the person reports that she has given this $10,000 to her son. The SNRHA has a reasonable estimate of the value of the asset; therefore, re-verification of the value of the asset is not necessary.

Example 2: A family member has disposed of its 1/4 share of real property located in a desirable area and has valued her share at approximately $5,000. Based upon market conditions, this declaration does not seem realistic. Therefore, the SNRHA will verify the value of this asset.

7-III.D. NET INCOME FROM RENTAL PROPERTY

SNRHA Policy

The family must provide:

A current executed lease for the property that shows the rental amount or certification from the current tenant.

A self-certification from the family members engaged in the rental of property providing an estimate of expenses for the coming year and the most recent IRS Form 1040 with Schedule E (Rental Income). If schedule E was not prepared, the SNRHA will require the family members involved in the rental of property to provide a self-certification of income and expenses for the previous year and may request documentation to support the statement including: tax statements, insurance invoices, bills for reasonable maintenance and utilities, and bank statements or amortization schedules showing monthly interest expense.

7-III.E. RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

SNRHA Policy

When third-party verification is not available the type of original document that will be accepted depends upon the family member's retirement status.

Before retirement, the SNRHA will accept an original document from the entity holding the account with a date that shows it is the most recently scheduled statement for the account but in no case earlier than 6 months from the effective date of the examination.

Upon retirement, the SNRHA will accept an original document from the entity holding the account that reflects any distributions of the account balance, any lump sums taken and any regular payments.

After retirement, the SNRHA will accept an original document from the entity holding the account dated no earlier than 12 months before that reflects any distributions of the account balance, any lump sums taken and any regular payments.

7-III.F. INCOME FROM EXCLUDED SOURCES

The SNRHA must obtain verification for income exclusions only if, without verification, the SNRHA would not be able to determine whether the income is to be excluded. For example: If a family's 16 year old has a job at a fast food restaurant, the SNRHA will confirm that SNRHA records verify the child's age but will not send a verification request to the restaurant. However, if a family claims the earned income disallowance for a source of income, both the source and the income must be verified.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will reconcile differences in amounts reported by the third party and the family only when the excluded amount is used to calculate the family share (as is the case with the earned income disallowance). In all other cases, including food stamps, the SNRHA will report the amount to be excluded as indicated on documents provided by the family, including the family's written certification.

7-III.G. ZERO/EXTREMELY LOW ANNUAL INCOME STATUS

SNRHA Policy

Families claiming to have no annual income will be required to execute verification forms to determine that certain forms of income such as unemployment benefits, TANF, SSI, etc. are not being received by the household. Zero income households will be interviewed at least once every 180 days.

PART IV: VERIFYING MANDATORY DEDUCTIONS

7-IV.A. DEPENDENT AND ELDERLY/DISABLED HOUSEHOLD DEDUCTIONS

The dependent and elderly/disabled family deductions require only that the PHA verify that the family members identified as dependents or elderly/disabled persons meet the statutory definitions. No further verifications are required.

Dependent Deduction

See Chapter 6 for a full discussion of this deduction. The SNRHA must verify that:

- Any person under the age of 18 for whom the dependent deduction is claimed is not the head, spouse, or co-head of the family and is not a foster child
- Any person age 18 or older for whom the dependent deduction is claimed is not a foster adult or live-in aide, and is a person with a disability or a full time student

Elderly/Disabled Family Deduction

See Eligibility chapter for a definition of elderly and disabled families and Chapter 5 for a discussion of the deduction. The SNRHA must verify that the head, spouse, or co-head is 62 years of age or older or a person with disabilities.

7-IV.B. MEDICAL EXPENSE DEDUCTION

Policies related to medical expenses are found in Chapter 6.

Amount of Expense

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will provide a third-party verification form directly to the medical provider requesting the needed information.

Medical expenses will be verified through:

Third-party verification form signed by the provider, when possible

If third-party is not possible, copies of cancelled checks used to make medical expense payments and/or printouts or receipts from the source will be used. (Credit card statements will not be allowed as verification of payment of medical expenses.) In this case the SNRHA will make a best effort to determine what expenses from the past are likely to continue to occur in the future. The SNRHA will also accept evidence of monthly payments or total payments that will be due for medical expenses during the upcoming 12 months.

In addition, the SNRHA must verify that:

- The household is eligible for the deduction.
- The costs to be deducted are qualified medical expenses.
- The expenses are not paid for or reimbursed by any other source.
- Costs incurred in past years are counted only once.

Eligible Household

The medical expense deduction is permitted only for households in which the head, spouse, or co-head is at least 62, or a person with disabilities. The SNRHA must verify that the family meets the definition of an elderly or disabled family provided in the Eligibility chapter of this plan.

Qualified Expenses

To be eligible for the medical expenses deduction, the costs must qualify as medical expenses.

See Chapter 6 for the SNRHA policy on what counts as a medical expense.

Unreimbursed Expenses

To be eligible for the medical expenses deduction, the costs must not be reimbursed by another source.

SNRHA Policy

The family will be required to certify that the medical expenses are not paid or reimbursed to the family from any source.

Expenses Incurred in Past Years

SNRHA Policy

When anticipated costs are related to on-going payment of medical bills incurred in past years, the SNRHA will verify:

The anticipated repayment schedule

The amounts paid in the past, and

Whether the amounts to be repaid have been deducted from the family's annual income in past years

7-IV.C. DISABILITY ASSISTANCE EXPENSES

Policies related to disability assistance expenses are found in Chapter 6.

Amount of Expense

Attendant Care

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will provide a third-party verification form directly to the care provider requesting the needed information.

Expenses for attendant care will be verified through:

Third-party verification form signed by the provider, when possible.

If third-party is not possible, copies of cancelled checks used to make attendant care payments and/or receipts from care source. (Credit card statements will not be allowed as verification of payment of medical expenses.)

If third-party or document review is not possible, written family certification as to costs anticipated to be incurred for the upcoming 12 months.

Auxiliary Apparatus

SNRHA Policy

Expenses for auxiliary apparatus will be verified through:

Third-party verification of anticipated purchase costs of auxiliary apparatus. If third-party is not possible, billing statements for purchase of auxiliary apparatus, or other evidence of monthly payments or total payments that will be due for the apparatus during the upcoming 12 months.

If third-party or document review is not possible, written family certification of estimated apparatus costs for the upcoming 12 months

In addition, the SNRHA must verify that:

The family member for whom the expense is incurred is a person with disabilities

The expense permits a family member, or members, to work (see Chapter 5). The expense is not reimbursed from another source (see Chapter 5).

The expense does not exceed the amount of the earned income of the individual freed for work.

Family Member is a Person with Disabilities

To be eligible for the disability assistance expense deduction, the costs must be incurred for attendant care or auxiliary apparatus expense associated with a person with disabilities. The SNRHA will verify that the expense is incurred for a person with disabilities.

Family Member(s) Permitted to Work

The SNRHA must verify that the expenses claimed actually enable a family member, or members, (including the person with disabilities) to work.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will seek third-party verification from a Rehabilitation Agency or knowledgeable medical professional indicating that the person with disabilities requires attendant care or an auxiliary apparatus to be employed, or that the attendant care or auxiliary apparatus enables another family member, or members, to work.

If third-party and document review verification has been attempted and is either unavailable or proves unsuccessful, the family must certify that the disability assistance expense frees a family member, or members (possibly including the family member receiving the assistance), to work.

Unreimbursed Expenses

To be eligible for the disability expenses deduction, the costs must not be reimbursed by another source.

SNRHA Policy

An attendant care provider will be asked to certify that, to the best of the provider's knowledge, the expenses are not paid by or reimbursed to the family from any source. The family will be required to certify that attendant care or auxiliary apparatus expenses are not paid by or reimbursed to the family from any source.

7-IV.D. CHILD CARE EXPENSES

The SNRHA must verify that:

- The child is eligible for care.
- The costs claimed are not reimbursed.
- The costs enable a family member to pursue an eligible activity.
- The costs are for an allowable type of childcare.
- The costs are reasonable if seeking employment or furthering education.

Eligible Child

To be eligible for the childcare deduction, the costs must be incurred for the care of a child under the age of 13. The SNRHA will verify that the child being cared for (including foster children) is under the age of 13.

Unreimbursed Expense

To be eligible for the childcare deduction, the costs must not be reimbursed by another source.

SNRHA Policy

The childcare provider will be asked to certify that, to the best of the provider's knowledge, the childcare expenses are not paid by or reimbursed to the family from any source. The family will be required to certify that the childcare expenses are not paid by or reimbursed to the family from any source.

The SNRHA must verify that the family member(s) that the family has identified as being enabled to seek work, pursue education, or be gainfully employed, are actually pursuing those activities.

Information to be Gathered

The SNRHA will verify information about how the schedule for the claimed activity relates to the hours of care provided, the time required for transportation, the time required for study (for students), the relationship of the family member(s) to the child, and any special needs of the child that might help determine which family member is enabled to pursue an eligible activity.

Seeking Work

Whenever possible the SNRHA will use documentation from a state or local agency that monitors work-related requirements (e.g., welfare or unemployment). In such cases the SNRHA will request verification from the agency of the member's job seeking efforts to date and require the family to submit to the SNRHA any reports provided to the other agency.

In the event third-party verification is not available, the SNRHA will provide the family with a form on which the family member must record job search efforts. The SNRHA will review this information at each subsequent reexamination for which this deduction is claimed.

Furthering Education

The SNRHA will ask that the academic or vocational educational institution verify that the person permitted to further his or her education by the childcare is enrolled and provide information about the timing of classes for which the person is registered.

Gainful Employment

The SNRHA will seek verification from the employer of the work schedule of the person who is permitted to work by the childcare. In cases in which two or more family members could be permitted to work, the work schedules for all relevant family members may be verified.

Allowable Type of Child Care

The type of care to be provided is determined by the family.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will verify that the type of childcare selected by the family is allowable, as described in Chapter 6.

The SNRHA will verify that the fees paid to the childcare provider cover only childcare costs (e.g., no housekeeping services or personal services) and are paid only for the care of an eligible child (e.g., prorate costs if some of the care is provided for ineligible family members).

The SNRHA will verify the childcare provider is not a family member residing in the household. Verification will be made through the head of household's declaration of family members who are expected to reside in the unit.

Reasonableness of Expenses

Only reasonable childcare costs can be deducted for seeking employment or furthering education.

SNRHA Policy

To verify that the childcare costs are reasonable, the actual costs the family incurs will be compared with the SNRHA's established standards of reasonableness for the type of care in the locality to ensure that the costs are reasonable.

If the family presents a justification for costs that exceed typical costs in the area, the SNRHA will request additional documentation, as required, to support a determination that the higher cost is appropriate.

SNRHA will send out our childcare verification form when child care expenses are being verified. This form must be completed with all questions answered and returned by mail or fax. This form will be the only verification childcare form acceptable by our agency. Private childcare providers that do not have tax identification numbers must complete the section that requests their social security numbers or their INS number.

Written verification from the person who receives the payments is required. If the child care provider is licensed, the provider is required to provide their Employment Identification Number.

Verifications must specify the child care provider's business or individual name, address, telephone number, the names of the children cared for, the number of hours the child care occurs, the rate of pay, and the typical yearly amount paid, including school and vacation periods.

Family's must certify as to whether any of those payments have been or will be paid or reimbursed by outside sources.

| Wages/Salaries | Use of computer matching agreements with a State Wage Information Collection Agency (SWICA) to obtain wage information electronically, by mail or fax or in person. | The PHA mails, faxes, or e-mails a verification form directly to the independent sources to obtain wage information.                                                                                                | In the event the independent source does not respond to the PHA's written request for information, the PHA may contact the independent source by phone or make an in person visit to obtain the requested information. | When neither form of third party verification can be obtained, the PHA may accept original documents such as consecutive pay stubs (HUD recommends the PHA review at least three months of pay stubs, if employed by the same employer for three months or more), W-2 forms, etc. from the tenant. Note: The PHA must document in the tenant file, the reason third party verification was not available. | The PHA may accept a notarized statement or affidavit from the tenant that declares the family's total annual income from earnings. Note: The PHA must document in the tenant file, the reason third party verification was not available. |
|                | Agreements with private vendor agencies, such as The Work Number or ChoicePoint to obtain wage and salary information.                                              | The PHA may have the tenant sign a Request for Earnings Statement from the SSA to confirm past earnings. The PHA mails the form to SSA and the statement will be sent to the address the PHA specifies on the form. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |

- A receipt issued by the USCIS indicating that an application for issuance of a replacement document in one of the above listed categories has been made and the applicant’s entitlement to the document has been verified; or
- Other acceptable evidence. If other documents are determined by the USCIS to constitute acceptable evidence of eligible immigration status, they will be announced by notice published in the Federal Register.

Chapter 8

TRANSFER POLICY

INTRODUCTION

It is the policy of the SNRHA to permit resident transfers, within and/or between SNRHA public housing communities for the following limited reasons:

- To abate dangerous and/or substandard living conditions;
- To abate emergency life-threatening living conditions caused by third-party criminal activity;
- To accommodate verified physical conditions caused by long-term illness and/or disability;
- To accommodate resident families that are determined to be over- or under-housed by virtue of their family size; and
- To promote homeownership, transfer of families to scattered sites
- To accommodate relocation due to modernization work, community safety

Each transfer request will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration:

- The documentation that substantiates the reason for the request;
- Whether or not the resident is in good standing with the SNRHA
- The availability of suitable alternative units.

SNRHA will not grant a transfer request solely to accommodate neighbors who "cannot get along."

Activities of residents that adversely affect the right of others to the peaceful enjoyment of their community will be treated as lease violations and may be considered cause for lease termination.

A. ELIGIBILITY FOR TRANSFER

In order to be determined eligible to receive a transfer, residents must submit the requested 3rd party documentation to SNRHA, to substantiate their request, and must be in good standing with the SNRHA.

The type of documentation that must be submitted will vary, depending on the nature of the request.

Good Standing

A resident will be considered in good standing if he or she and/or household members have not had:

- A history of delinquent rent payments, or
- A history of community disturbance and/or unit destruction.
- Maintain acceptable housekeeping standards
- Fulfilling community service requirements

Transfer List

Resident families who are determined eligible to receive a transfer will be placed on a transfer waiting list in accordance with the date of transfer approval and reason for their transfer request. SNRHA will implement transfers in the priority order listed in the following table.

Inappropriately housed resident families who are determined eligible to receive a transfer will be placed on the transfer waiting list at the time of annual certification.

Priority of Transfers

Approved transfers shall be accomplished in the following priority order:

| Type of Transfer                         | When executed                                                                | Transfer will be within the housing development:                                           | Ratio                                       | Initiated by                                                     |

B. EMERGENCY TRANSFERS

Emergency transfers will be implemented by the SNRHA to remove a resident family from life-threatening and/or hazardous living conditions caused by third-party criminal activity and/or unit damage. Good standing criteria does not apply in the case of emergency transfers.

Residents will be required to become complaint with all lease provisions upon completion of the Emergency Transfer to the new unit.

Emergency Transfers due to Third Party Criminal Activity

SNRHA will consider transfer requests from resident families who have been victims of life-threatening criminal activity committed by third parties or who have witnessed serious criminal activity and agreed to testify on behalf of the State at a criminal proceeding.

Families who request a unit transfer due to third-party criminal activity may be required to submit verifiable documentation evidencing one or all of the following:

- Police reports and/or police statements detailing the incident in question
- Eyewitness statements describing the incident in question
- Confirmatory letters from the Victim Witness Protection Unit, Rape Crisis Center or similarly recognized entity
- Medical reports from a licensed health care provider
- Subpoena or other written contacts from the Clark County District Attorney or U.S. Attorney

The SNRHA will require residents who are victims of domestic violence to certify their victim status and the names of their abusers. Third-party verification must be provided by victim service providers, medical professionals, or attorney who have counseled the victim and can verify their status as a domestic violence victim.

All documentation submitted shall remain confidential and shall be reviewed and evaluated by the Director of Operations only. Transfer requests due to third-party criminal activity shall be evaluated on a case-by-case basis, by consideration of the following criteria:

- The availability of a suitable alternative unit
- The documentation describing/verifying the incident
- The severity of the incident

Notification: If approved, the family will be notified that:

- A unit has been designated;
- They must execute a new lease and move within five (5 days) of receipt of the notice, and
- If they refuse to accept the unit, they must execute a waiver of their emergency transfer request.

Emergency Transfers Initiated or Confirmed by Law Enforcement

If the emergency transfer request is initiated or confirmed by authorized law enforcement officials, the SNRHA may take the following action to maintain the confidentiality of the request and subsequent transfer:

- By-passing the regular transfer occupancy function and/or staff;
- Maintaining the resident family's file separate from other resident files; and
- Concealing and/or changing the identity of the resident family's file.

Emergency Transfers due to Hazardous Unit Conditions

A transfer due to hazardous unit conditions is mandatory. It may be initiated at any time by the SNRHA or the resident family or both, after detection of a unit condition that poses a threat to the health and safety of the resident family. A hazardous unit condition is one that arises from:

- Substantial fire damage;
- Life-threatening fungus as determined by a Clark County Health District Official and/or a licensed hazardous waste consultant;
- Exposed electrical wiring;
- Defective ventilation;
- Inadequate plumbing, heating and/or cooling that will require long-term repair;
- Other serious conditions identified by the SNRHA Maintenance Department that require long-term repair.

Notification: If at least one of the foregoing conditions is found to exist, the SNRHA shall immediately notify the resident family or families affected and advise them, in writing, as follows:

- A unit has been designated;
- They will be required to move and sign a new lease no later than five (5) days from the date they receive the notice;
- If the hazardous condition was caused by the family, the family shall bear the cost of repair and moving.
  - If the family is unable to move due to financial reasons, SNRHA shall contract with a third party entity to move the family and shall bill the family for said costs, no later than the date on which the repair bills are submitted to them.
  - If the resident family refuses to move or otherwise fails to pay the repair and/or moving costs, SNRHA will initiate eviction proceedings against the family
- If the hazardous condition was not caused by the family, the SNRHA will bear all repairs and documented moving costs incurred by the family.

C. TRANSFERS DUE TO ILLNESS AND/OR DISABILITY

Unit transfers will be implemented by SNRHA to accommodate the accessibility needs of residents and/or their household members, arising from long-term illness or disability. Accessibility needs are those that require one or all of the following:

- A first floor and/or single story dwelling;
- Widened hallways and/or lowered cabinets;
- Roll-in shower facilities
- Flashing-light-censored smoke detectors
- Central air conditioning and heat

Documentation

Families who request a transfer due to illness and/or disability may be required to submit recent verifiable documentation from a health care provider or social service entity that confirms the impairment and the accessibility needs.

Notification

Upon a determination that the family's request for a transfer due to illness or disability has been approved, the SNRHA shall send the resident a thirty (30) day Notice of Transfer. This places the resident family on notice that they have been approved for a transfer and that any time after the thirty (30) day period has passed:

A unit to which the family may transfer will be designated at such time as it becomes available;

They will be required to enter into a new lease for the transfer unit;

That if they refuse to move into the unit, they must sign a waiver of the transfer request.

When the transfer is authorized, the resident family shall be notified of the identity of the transfer unit and that they are required to accept the dwelling unit within three (3) calendar days and lease the unit within two (2) calendar days after accepting the unit.

The resident can receive an extension of up to an additional seven (7) calendar days, at the SNRHA's discretion, subject to documented evidence of an undue hardship on the family.

Examples of undue hardship include but are not limited to:

Death in the immediate family

Jury duty

Hospitalization

Verified medical reasons

A new disability which makes the new unit unsuitable for the family's housing needs

Inability to obtain the resources to execute the move

Any extension must be approved by the Director of Operations or designee.

D. TRANSFERS TO ACCOMMODATE FAMILIES THAT ARE OVER- OR UNDER-HOUSED.

Unit transfers will be implemented by SNRHA to accommodate resident families that are determined to be over-housed or under-housed by virtue of their family size based on the general occupancy standards. These transfers may be initiated by the SNRHA or the resident or both. A family may request an exception to the general occupancy standards. The SNRHA will evaluate the relationship and ages of all family members and the overall size of the unit. If approved, the family must agree to remain in the approved unit for one year.

Notification

Upon a determination that the family is approved to move into a unit of a different size, the SNRHA shall send the resident a thirty- (30) day Notice of Transfer. This places the resident family on notice that they have been approved for a transfer and that any time after the thirty- (30) day period has passed:

A unit to which the family must transfer may be designated;

They will be required to move into that unit in accordance with the terms of their lease;

They will be required to enter into a new lease for the transfer unit;

When the transfer is authorized, the resident family shall be notified of the identity of the transfer unit and that they are required to accept the dwelling unit within three (3) calendar days and lease the unit within two (2) calendar days after accepting the unit.

The resident can receive an extension of up to an additional seven (7) calendar days, at the SNRHA's discretion, subject to documented evidence of an undue hardship on the family.

Examples of undue hardship include but are not limited to:

Death in the immediate family

Jury duty

Hospitalization

Verified medical reasons

A new disability which makes the new unit unsuitable for the family's housing needs

Inability to obtain the resources to execute the move

Any extension must be approved by the Director of Operations or designee.

Resident Refusal of the Transfer Unit

The resident may decline the transfer unit for good and reasonable cause. Such cause shall be considered sufficient if:

The unit does not provide adequate accessibility, or

The unit will not have the required effect of accommodating the family size.

The Director of Operations shall determine if the unit refusal is for good cause. If the resident declines the unit without good cause, the SNRHA shall assign the unit to another family and void the request for transfer if generated by the family.

If the resident refuses the transfer unit when the reason for the transfer is an emergency, under/over housed or abatement, a 30-day notice will be issued. The unit will be reassigned and the transfer will be voided.

Transfer Procedures

The Development Manager and resident will participate in a pre-transfer inspection to determine damages prior to transfer and the charges made part of the new lease.

The resident and SNRHA shall enter into a new lease agreement for the transfer unit.

Security Deposits

1. Families transferring to another development must have paid the security deposit in full at the sending development.
2. SNRHA will charge the families for any damages to the previous unit.
3. Security deposits will be refunded to the resident under the terms of the lease for the

- previous unit. The resident must deposit with the SNRHA a security deposit on the new unit consistent with the security deposit policy in effect at the time of the transfer.
4. Refer to Security Deposit Chapter for additional details.
  5. Move-out charges will be posted to the new unit. The office of the receiving development is responsible for collecting any maintenance charges due SNRHA.

E. GENERAL CONDITIONS GOVERNING TRANSFERS

Discrimination Prohibited

Transfer requests shall be processed, evaluated, initiated and/or determined without regard to race, color, religion, gender, creed or national origin. Transfer requests based on household composition and/or illness disability must consider family size and disability.

Cleaning and/or Repair Charges

All transfers are subject to charges for cleaning or repair work performed by the maintenance staff on the vacated unit. All charges will be assessed after an inspection is completed by the resident and the housing manager. Residents will be required to pay any amounts owed to the past property within 30 days of the move out statement.

Rent Adjustments for Transferred Residents

No rent adjustment will be made, except for utility allowance, until the next scheduled certification.

Reexamination Date

The date of the transfer changes the reexamination date according to the block system of the gaining development, unless the annual reexamination period would exceed twelve months since the family's last annual reexamination.

The losing development will send the family's file to the gaining development once they have been notified that the family has accepted the unit, before the family is leased up. The gaining development will not attempt to lease up a family without possession of the family's file.

SNRHA Incentives for Higher Income Families Transferring Into Lower Income Developments

The SNRHA will offer certain incentives to higher income families (Household Income at or above 60% of AMI) willing to move into lower income projects. If a higher income family agrees to move to a SNRHA-specified lower income development, the SNRHA will agree to approve to transfer the resident family to the next available scattered site home or the development of the family's choice. The move will be approved according to the Occupancy Guidelines only if the family has consistently been in lease compliance for two years following admission.

SNRHA will target homeownership opportunities to higher income families moving into lower income projects.

Processing In and Out of Developments

Gaining Developments

Transfers from other developments will be processed in the same manner as move-ins, including a new lease and applicable security deposit.

The resident transferring between public housing projects does not have to meet the admission requirements pertaining to income or preference.

Residents Failure to Transfer Units

In the event the resident fails to transfer and submit keys within the timeframes as stated in this policy, both managers will serve the tenant with a 30 Day Notice for failure to vacate the unit they are transferring from.

COST OF TRANSFERS

Residents shall bear the cost of transfers to correct occupancy standards, resident requested transfers, incentive transfers, and other voluntary transfers.

SNRHA will bear the reasonable cost of transfers SNRHA requests for demolition, disposition, rehabilitation, building system failures, or emergency conditions due to no fault of the tenant. SNRHA will bear the reasonable cost of transfers needed as a reasonable accommodation for residents with disabilities, in accordance with SNRHA Reasonable Accommodation Policy and Procedures. The reasonable cost of transfers includes not just the cost of packing, moving, and unloading, but also the cost of connecting and reconnecting any existing resident-paid services such as telephone and cable.

Resident Selection Criteria For Otto Merida Family Apartments

The following criteria will be utilized to select from current residents residing in other Public Housing communities for the Project:

1. Must have a favorable rental payment history. A resident will be considered to have a favorable rental payment history if there have been two or less delinquent rent payments in the previous twelve months.
2. Must be in good standing with SNRHA and in compliance with all terms and conditions of the resident's existing Lease.
3. Resident must be currently employed or enrolled in the Family Self Sufficiency Program and must have accomplished one or more established goals within the Program. SNRHA will provide the Manager with a list of residents wishing to transfer to the Project and the Manager will determine and certify the eligibility of the resident, and the resident will be notified of the determination. Transfer requests will be processed on a first come, first serve basis.

Income Tiering

In addition to the above selection criteria, SNRHA will institute an income-tiring system in allocating units within the Project. The units will be divided into three income tiers, which will be distributed equally across the development and by unit types. The income tiers will be as follows:

- Low Tier: Less than 20% of the HUD Area Median Income (AMI) for a Family of Four (or $11,819 in 2005) 20 units;
- Middle Tier: Greater than 20% AMI and Less than 30% AMI for a Family of Four (or $17,730 in 2005) 20 units; and
- High Tier: Greater than 30% AMI and Less than 60% AMI maximum tax credit income Level (or $35,460 in 2005 for a Family of Four) 20 units.

Transfer requests from current SNRHA residents who meet the initial resident selection criteria noted above will be placed in one of the three income tiers, or disqualified by the Manager if the applicants' income is above the 60% AMI tax credit limit or do not meet the LIHTC eligibility.

After the initial inquiry is made of existing public housing residents, public housing residents may apply for transfer to the Project at the time of their annual certification by completing an application for the Honolulu Street Apartments.

Public Housing Waiting List

In the event there are no current public housing residents within the appropriate income tiers as indicated above who wish to transfer to the Project, Project vacancies will be filled from

Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority

SNRHA's Public Housing certified waiting list utilizing current preferences and screening criteria in accordance with SNRHA's ACOP and the screening criteria described above.

Employment income is a current SNRHA waiting list preference.

In the event there are no eligible applicants on the current Public Housing certified waiting list within the three income tiers, outreach will be conducted to the general public as provided in the Marketing Policy.

Chapter 9 LEASING

[24 CFR 966.4]

INTRODUCTION

It is the SNRHA's policy that all units must be occupied pursuant to a dwelling lease agreement that complies with HUD's regulations [24 CFR Part 966]. This chapter describes pre-leasing activities and the SNRHA's policies pertaining to lease execution, security deposits, other charges, and additions to the lease.

A. LEASE ORIENTATION

In conjunction with execution of the lease, all adult family members must attend a new resident orientation within 90 days of move-in.

Residents with disabilities may request a reasonable accommodation.

Orientation Agenda

When families attend the lease orientation, they will be provided with:

- A sample copy of the lease
- A copy of the grievance procedure
- A copy of the house rules
- Supportive services information, including FSS
- Emergency maintenance policy
- Community Service requirements and policy
- Pet policy
- Trespass policy
- Bed Bug Addendum
- Housekeeping Standard
- Other Lease addendums

Topics to be discussed will include, but are not limited to:

- Applicable deposits and other charges
- Maintenance charges
- Provisions of the lease
- Unit maintenance and work orders
- Terms of occupancy
- Rent choice/Flat rent/income based/seasonal employment

SNRHA shall ensure additional efforts are made to ensure full program accessibility to persons with Limited English Proficiency, including notifying organizations that provides services to low-income families whose primary language is Spanish, as outlined in SNRHA's Limited English Proficiency Plan.

B. LEASE REQUIREMENTS

The initial term of the lease will be for 12 months. The lease will renew automatically for 12-month terms with the following exception:

- SNRHA will not renew the lease if the family has violated the community service requirement (24 CFR 966.4).
- Due to the community service requirement, the lease does not automatically renew for terms of 12 months. An annual signing process, the completion of recertification, is required.
- The lease further provides for termination and eviction at the end of any 12-month lease term for non-compliance with the community service requirements at 24 CFR Part 960, Subpart F and Chapter 15 of this Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy.

C. EXECUTION OF LEASE

The lease shall be executed by the head of household, spouse or co-head; and by an authorized representative of SNRHA, prior to admission.

The head or co-head of household is the person who assumes legal and financial responsibility for the household and is listed on the application as head or co-head.

An appointment will be scheduled for the parties to execute the lease. One executed copy of the lease will be given to the tenant, and the SNRHA will retain the original in the tenant's file. The lease is incorporated into this policy by reference. The lease document will reflect current SNRHA policies as well as applicable Federal, State and local law. The following provisions govern lease execution and amendments:

- A lease is executed at the time of admission for all new tenants.
- A new lease is executed at the time of the transfer of a tenant from one SNRHA unit to another
- If, for any reason, the head or co-head of household of the lease cease to be a member of the household, a new lease will be executed with the remaining members, so long as they meet the program requirements.
- Lease signers must be persons legally eligible to execute contracts.
- The names, relationship to head, date of birth, and social security number of all household members are listed on the lease at initial occupancy and on the Application for Continued Occupancy (need to determine name of form to be used) each subsequent year. Only those persons listed on the most recent certification shall be permitted to occupy a dwelling unit.
- Changes to tenant rents are made upon the preparation and execution of an addendum to the lease which reflects any change in household composition or rent. Documentation will be included in the tenant file to support proper notice.

- Households that include a live-in aide are required to execute a live in aide agreement authorizing the arrangement and describing the status of the aide.
- Households that include a live-in aide will contain file documentation that the live-in aide is not a party to the lease and is not entitled to SNRHA assistance, with the exception of occupancy while serving as the aide for the participant family member.

The SNRHA may modify its form of lease from time to time, giving tenants an opportunity to comment on proposed changes and advance notice of the implementation of any changes. A tenant's refusal to accept permissible and reasonable lease modifications, or those modifications required by HUD, is grounds for termination of tenancy.

D. ADDITIONS TO THE LEASE

Only those persons listed on the most recent certification form and lease shall be permitted to occupy a dwelling unit<sup>1</sup>.

All persons listed on the most recent certification form and the lease must use the dwelling unit as their sole residence.

Requests for the addition of a new member of the household must be approved by the SNRHA, prior to the actual move-in by the proposed new member.

Following receipt of a family's request for approval, the SNRHA will conduct a pre-admission screening, including the Criminal History Report, of the proposed new adult member. Only new members approved by the SNRHA will be added to the household.

Family members over the age of 18 who move from the dwelling unit to establish new households shall be removed from the lease. These individuals may not be readmitted to the unit and must apply as a new applicant for placement on the waiting list. Exceptions will be made by the approval of the Director of Operations or designee.

Minors being added to the household by other than birth or legal adoption or court – awarded custody must be verified by court action. Temporary guardianship will be considered as a court action. All temporary guardianship will be renewed and verified every six months.

Factors Determining Household Additions

Household additions subject to screening:

- Resident plans to marry;
- Resident desires to add a new adult family member to the lease or employ a live-in aide.

- A unit is occupied by a remaining family member(s) under age 18 (not an emancipated minor) and an adult who was not a member of the original household requests permission to take over as the head of household. Guardianship and/or custody of the remaining family member(s) under 18 must be obtained by the adult who was not a member of the original household. The family will have 90 days to obtain all documentation. If the adult is unable to provide appropriate documentation regarding the remaining minor, children and/or fails to comply with all screening requirements they are ineligible to occupy the unit at the expiration of the 90 days.

Factors determining household additions that are not subject to screening:

Children born to a family member or whom a family member legally adopts are exempt from the pre-screening process.

Children for whom the family receives court-awarded custody

Persons under the age of 18 years

Foster Children proposed to live in the unit

In cases where the addition of a new member who has not been born, married, awarded legal custody or guardianship, or legally adopted into the family, and the addition will affect the bedroom size required by the family, according to the SNRHA occupancy standards, the SNRHA will not approve the addition. An exception will be granted if the family has submitted a Self-Certification of Physical Custody of Minor Child/Children or an Appointment of Temporary Guardian to the SNRHA. If either of these forms has been submitted, the SNRHA will also require that the family has initiated legal proceedings for guardianship or legal custody.

Residents who fail to notify the SNRHA of additions to the household, or who permit persons to join the household without undergoing screening, are in violation of the lease. Such persons are considered to be unauthorized occupants by the SNRHA, and the entire household will be subject to eviction [24 CFR 966.4(f) (3)].

Family members age 18 and over, other than spouse, who move from the dwelling unit shall be removed from the lease. The tenant must notify the SNRHA of the move-out within 10 calendar days of its occurrence. These individuals may not be readmitted to the unit and must apply as a new applicant for placement on the waiting list.

The SNRHA in making determinations under this paragraph will consider medical hardship or other extenuating circumstances.

Visitors

1. The resident may not allow visitors to stay overnight more than fourteen (14) consecutive days nor more than 30 calendar days in a twelve month period without prior written approval of management.
2. Visitors who remain beyond this period shall be considered unauthorized, and their presence constitutes a breach of the lease.
3. If an individual other than a leaseholder is representing to an outside agency that they are residing in the lessee's unit, the person will be considered an unauthorized member of the household.
4. Roomers and lodgers are not permitted to occupy a dwelling unit, nor are they permitted to move in with any family occupying a dwelling unit. Advertisements for roomers or lodgers shall be considered a violation of the lease by virtue of intent to sub lease portions of the assisted unit.
5. Residents are not permitted to allow a former tenant of the SNRHA who has been evicted to occupy their unit for any period of time.
6. Medical hardship or other extenuating circumstances shall be considered by SNRHA in making determinations under this area. Temporary caretaker request must be provided by the resident and verified by a medical provider. The status must be updated every thirty (30) days. The SNRHA will review the request and verified reasons for the caretaker during an extended medical hardship. Approval of the caretaker to occupy the unit for a period beyond 2 weeks will require prior approval by the Property Manager.

Absences from the Unit

Residents must advise the SNRHA when they will be absent from the unit for more than 30 consecutive days and provide a means for the SNRHA to contact the resident in the event of an emergency. Failure to advise the SNRHA in writing of extended absences is grounds for termination of the lease.

E. LEASING UNITS WITH ACCESSIBLE OR ADAPTABLE FEATURES

[24 CFR 8.27(a) (1) (2) and (b)]

Before offering a vacant accessible unit to a non-disabled applicant or resident, the SNRHA will offer such units:

First, to a current occupant of another unit of the same development, or other public housing developments under the SNRHA's control, who has a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit?

Second, to a current occupant of other public housing developments under the SNRHA's control who has a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit?

Thirdly, to an eligible qualified applicant on the waiting list having a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit.

Accessible units will be offered to and accepted by non-disabled applicants or residents only with the understanding that such applicants/resident must agree to relocate to a non-accessible unit at a later date if a person with a disability requiring the unit applies for housing and is determined eligible or there is an existing resident who require the features of the accessible unit.

The SNRHA will require a non-disabled applicant or resident to agree to move to an available non-accessible unit within 30 days when either a current resident or an applicant needs the features of the unit and there is another unit available for the applicant or resident. This requirement will be a provision of the lease agreement.

F. UTILITY SERVICES

Tenants responsible for direct payment of utilities must abide by any and all regulations of the specific utility company, including regulations pertaining to advance payments of deposits.

If a resident is resident or applicant is unable to establish utility services due to a previous balance owed to the utility company, the resident/applicant will not be permitted to move into a unit with resident paid utilities. This may mean that a current resident cannot transfer or that an applicant cannot be admitted. See page 6-16.

Failure to maintain utility services during tenancy is a lease violation and grounds for eviction. Non-payment of excess utility charge payments to the SNRHA is a violation of the lease and is grounds for eviction.

SNRHA may send utility reimbursement directly to the utility supplier without the consent of the family that is paying an income based rent. SNRHA will notify the family of the amount of any such direct payment to the utility supplier.

The lease will designate the appliances provided by SNRHA (i.e.: stove and refrigerator). The tenant is responsible for proper hook-up, safety and maintenance of any appliances they may provide (i.e.: dryers).

G. SECURITY AND PET DEPOSITS

Security Deposit

Tenant security deposits are required to minimize collection losses and encourage residents to leave their apartments clean and in good condition when they vacate.

Security Deposit Amounts

New tenants must pay a security deposit to the SNRHA at the time of leasing the unit.

The Security Deposits for Public Housing will be based on bedroom size as follows:

- Efficiency Unit: $200.00
- One Bedroom Unit: $200.00
- Two Bedroom Unit $250.00
- Three Bedroom Unit $300.00
- Four Bedroom Unit $350.00
- Five Bedroom Unit $400.00

Scattered Site units will be required to pay an additional $100 deposit for lawn or yard maintenance for which they are responsible for under terms of their lease.

Transfer of Security Deposit

If a resident transfers, the original security deposit may be refunded to the resident. The resident must then pay the required deposit for the new unit. The resident will be responsible for payment of any additional security deposits as outlined in this policy. The tenant will also be further billed for any maintenance or other charges beyond the security deposit.

The SNRHA may permit installment payments of security when a new tenant demonstrates a financial hardship to the satisfaction of the SNRHA. The Authority may allow for one-quarter of the required deposit at the time of admission and the remainder to be paid with additional equal payments for a three month period. The full deposit must be paid within 120 days of initial occupancy.

The Security Deposit will be returned, less any applicable charges, to the tenant after move-out, if the following conditions are met:

- There is no unpaid rent and/or charges for which the resident is liable under the lease or as a result of breaching the lease.
- The dwelling unit and all equipment are left clean, and all trash and debris have been removed by the family.
- There is no breakage or damage beyond that expected from normal wear and use.
- Tenant gave the required 30 calendar days advance written notice of intent to vacate and all keys issued have been returned to the management office when the family vacates the dwelling unit.

The Security Deposit may not be used to pay charges during the tenant's occupancy.

The SNRHA will hold the security deposit for the period the tenant occupies the unit. The SNRHA will refund the Security Deposit less any amounts owed, within 30 calendar days after move out and tenant's notification of new address. If no address is provided, the refund will be mailed to the last known address.

The SNRHA will provide the tenant or designee identified above with a written list of any charges against the security deposits. If the tenant disagrees with the amount charged to the security deposits, the SNRHA will provide a meeting to discuss the charges.

The resident must leave the dwelling unit in a clean and undamaged (beyond normal wear and tear) condition and must furnish a forwarding address to the SNRHA. All keys to the unit must be returned to the Management upon vacating the unit.

The SNRHA will not use the security deposit for payment of rent or other charges while the tenant is living in the unit.

The tenant will be billed for any maintenance or other charges. If the tenant family will be transferred from one public housing dwelling unit to another the SNRHA will conduct the required move-out inspection and determine what charges, if any, should be assessed to tenant's account. SNRHA will establish the security deposit for the new unit based upon the current security deposit policy and the family will be required to pay the balance/new deposit amount in effect at that time.

H. ADDITIONAL SECURITY DEPOSIT COLLECTION PROCEDURES

Security Deposits are governed by the terms of the lease, 24CFR's and Nevada's Statutes. The SNRHA reserves the right to bill a resident's account additional charges if any of the situations below exist or take place within a resident's apartment. This money will be added to the resident's current security deposit. Such deposits may be collected for the following:

- 1) Unauthorized wallpapering.
- 2) Painting walls any color other than the original color upon move-in.
- 3) If the resident fails a housing inspection due to unsanitary housekeeping or excessive damage to the unit that is beyond normal wear and tear.
- 4) Evidence of pet damages (carpet stains, clawing, biting unit components, defecation interior or exterior, fleas, landscaping, lawn or property, fences or other visual damage).

If any of the above items are found within a household the resident will be immediately billed per labor rates established according to the Maintenance Charge List and added into the tenant's security deposit funds. The SNRHA has enacted this change to protect the interest of our housing stock and to reduce the billable charges due by the resident once they have moved out of SNRHA housing.

Pet Deposit

DEPOSIT SCHEDULE:

| Type of Pet                                                | Deposit |
|------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Dog                                                        | $200   |
| Cat                                                        | $200   |
| Fish Aquarium                                              | $50.00 |
| Fish Bowl (Requires no power and no larger than 2 gallons) | $0     |
| Caged pets (birds, gerbils, hamsters)                      | $50.00 |

ALL PET AGREEMENTS SIGNED WITH RESIDENTS OF SNRHA PRIOR TO THE ADOPTION OF THIS POLICY (03/01/2010) ARE NOT SUBJECT TO PAYING ADDITIONAL DEPOSIT AMOUNTS

RESIDENTS SIGNING PET POLICY AGREEMENTS FOLLOWING THE ADOPTION OF THIS POLICY WILL BE SUBJECT TO PAYING DEPOSITS FOR ANY NEW OR ADDITIONAL PETS.

Assistance Animals for persons with a disability are not subject to the pet deposit.

The SNRHA may permit installment payments of when a new tenant demonstrates a financial hardship to the satisfaction of the SNRHA.

The pet security deposit is to cover the cost of damages created by the pet. Tenant will be given a list of all such damages and the applicable charges that will be deducted from the pet deposit at the time the tenant vacates the unit or the pet is removed from the unit, whichever occurs first. Tenant will also be advised of their right to an informal meeting and/or grievance hearing should they dispute the charges. (See Chapter 10 for remainder of pet policy provisions.) The pet deposit will be returned to the tenant or the person designated by the former tenant, upon notification that the pet is no longer in the unit or in the event of the former tenant's incapacitation or death.

Interest

SNRHA will not compute or pay any interest on any deposit.

I. RENT PAYMENTS

See Chapter 13, Rent and Debt Collection Procedures.

J. FEES AND NONPAYMENT PENALTIES

See Chapter 13, Rent and Debt Collection Procedures.

K. SCHEDULES OF SPECIAL CHARGES

Schedules of special charges for services, repairs, utilities and rules and regulations which are required to be incorporated into the lease by reference shall be publicly posted in a conspicuous manner in the community office, and they will be provided to the resident at the time of lease execution.

The SNRHA will assess residents a charge for tenant-caused damage to its Conventional housing facilities (i.e., dwelling unit and/or common areas). Where there is no specific cost listed for an item of work, the charge to the family will be based upon the SNRHA labor rate times (x) the hours of labor charged to the job plus (+) the actual cost of parts and materials that were used on the job. A Schedule of Charges will be maintained by the agency and periodically updated. A copy of this schedule will be posted in all management offices and shall be made available upon request. The SNRHA will not charge for any repairs that are necessitated by normal wear and tear; nor is there a charge for any scheduled periodic work, such as painting or extermination. However, if extermination is required on other than the pre-established scheduled basis and there is a determination that the extra extermination services are due to the negligence of the tenant family, the SNRHA reserves the right to charge for said service.

L. MODIFICATIONS TO THE LEASE

Schedules of special charges and rules and regulations are subject to modification or revision. Tenants will be provided at least thirty days written notice of the reason(s) for any proposed modifications or revisions, and they will be given an opportunity to present written comments. Comments will be taken into consideration before any proposed modifications or revisions become effective.

A copy of such notice shall be posted in the central office, each development office.

Any modifications of the lease must be accomplished by a written addendum to the lease and signed by parties, the resident(s) and the SNRHA.

M. CANCELLATION OF THE LEASE

Cancellation of the tenant's lease is to be in accordance with the provisions contained in the lease agreement and as stated in this policy.

N. SMOKE FREE HOUSING

In order to provide a healthier environment for our residents, the Board of Commissioners has adopted a Smoke Free Housing Policy. The purpose of this policy is to provide a healthier environment for our residents and eliminate the harmful effects of secondhand smoke, fire danger and damage to apartments due to smoke. Secondhand smoke is particularly dangerous to children and people with respiratory disease. It is the third leading cause of preventable death in the United States. In 2006, the US Surgeon General stated that there is no safe level of second hand smoke.

Definition of Smoke/Smoking:

The term “smoke” and “smoking” means inhaling, exhaling, breathing or carrying any lighted cigar, cigarette or other tobacco product on similar lighted product in any manner or in any form.

Smoke-Free Apartments:

The premises listed below have been designated as smoke-free living environments:

- Lubertha Johnson Estates Senior Development

With 45 days written notice and a signed lease addendum for all current residents, future properties may be designated smoke free at the discretion of SNRHA.

Residents, staff and guests are prohibited from smoking on these properties owned and managed by SNRHA, including the apartment rented by the resident, the building in which the dwelling unit is located, and all common areas inside and outside the building up to 15 feet from each building and 50 feet from the buildings entry.

The Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority Not a Guarantor of Smoke-Free Environment

The adoption of a smoke free living environment and the efforts to designate a property as smoke-free does not make SNRHA a guarantor of resident’s health or of the smoke free condition of the resident’s apartment and common areas. However, SNRHA shall take reasonable steps to enforce the smoke-free terms of its leases and to make the property smoke-free. SNRHA will post smoke free properties with “No Smoking” signs inside and outside the buildings and may, at its sole option, consider designating smoking areas at any or all of the properties.

Smoking on the Property as a Lease Violation

If a resident smells tobacco smoke anywhere in the building, they should report this to the office as soon as possible. Management will seek the source of the smoke and take appropriate action. A resident will be in violation of his/her lease if the resident or any guest is determined to be smoking on SNRHA property. Three (3) violations of SNRHA’s Smoke Free Policy may result in eviction. All applicants/residents acknowledge receipt of this Policy and Smoke-Free Lease Addendum in writing at the time of application and/or next rent recertification.

O. INSPECTIONS OF PUBLIC HOUSING UNITS

Initial Inspections

The SNRHA and the family will inspect the premises prior to occupancy of the unit in order to determine the condition of the unit and equipment in the unit. A copy of the initial inspection, signed by the SNRHA and the tenant, will be kept in the unit file and tenant file.

Vacate Inspections

The management staff will perform a move-out inspection when the family vacates the unit, and will encourage the family to participate in the move-out inspection.

The purpose of this inspection is to determine necessary maintenance and whether there are damages that exceed normal wear and tear. The SNRHA will determine if there are tenant caused damages to the unit. Tenant caused damages may affect part or all of the family's security deposit. Documentation, including pictures of tenant caused damages will be maintained in tenant file.

The move-out inspection also assists the SNRHA in determining the time and extent of the preparation and repairs necessary to make the unit ready for the next tenant.

Annual Inspections

The SNRHA will inspect all units annually using HUD-required standards. All inspections will include a check of all smoke alarms to ensure proper working order. Pictures of any damages and/or housekeeping problems may be taken. At each annual inspection, staff will verify that the additional room is still being used for medical equipment or live-in aide.

Residents who "fail" the inspection due to housekeeping or tenant-caused damages will be given 10 calendar days to correct noted items and placed on a schedule of 30, 60, and 90 day inspections conducted to ensure lease compliance. Failure to comply with housekeeping requirements are grounds for lease termination.

Residents may request a copy of the inspection report with required corrections. In cases where units failed inspection for housekeeping or damage, a conference is scheduled with the property management.

If necessary to bring the unit into HUD-required compliance, needed repairs will be completed by the SNRHA.

Required corrections will be repaired by the SNRHA within 30 business days of the inspection date.

Damages beyond "normal wear and tear" will be billed to the tenant.

Residents who repeatedly "fail" the inspection or cause excessive damage to the unit will be in violation of their lease. SNRHA will take appropriate lease enforcement action.

Quality Control Inspections

The housing management staff will conduct periodic quality control inspections to determine the condition of the unit and to identify problems or issues in which the SNRHA can be of service to the family.

The SNRHA management staff will conduct quality control inspections on 5% of the units.

The purpose of these quality control inspections is to assure that repairs were completed at an acceptable level of craftsmanship and within an acceptable time frame.

The property manager may conduct periodic inspections to determine the condition of the unit and to identify problems or issues in which the SNRHA can be of service to the family.

Special Inspections

Housing management staff may conduct a special inspection for housekeeping, unit condition, or suspected lease violation.

HUD representatives or local government officials may review SNRHA operations periodically and as a part of their monitoring may inspect a sampling of the SNRHA's inventory.

Modernized and Scattered Site Inspections: New move inspections will be conducted within 60 days of the resident leasing the unit to ensure the unit and grounds are being maintained.

Unit inspections will be conducted within ten (10) working days from the date SNRHA is notified or receives knowledge of an unsatisfactory condition such as infestation, damages, unsatisfactory housekeeping or complaints of poor exterior conditions.

Other Inspections

The SNRHA management staff will periodically conduct windshield and/or walk-through inspections to determine whether there may be lease violations, adverse conditions or local code violations.

Playground inspections are conducted weekly to determine playground safety.

Building exterior and grounds inspections are conducted at all Public Housing properties to determine hazardous conditions as well as to assist in budget preparation.

Emergency Inspections

Housing management staff may initiate an emergency inspection report to generate a work order if they believe that an emergency exists in the unit or on a Public Housing site. In addition, staff may conduct an emergency inspection without a work order and generate a work order after the inspection has been conducted (see Entry of Premises Notice in this chapter.) Repairs are to be completed within 24 hours from the time the work order is issued.

Emergency Repairs to be Completed in Less than 24 Hours

The following items are to be considered emergency in nature and require immediate (less than 24 hour) repair or abatement:

- Broken window glass that affects unit security, is a cutting hazard, or occurs within inclement weather (to be secured or abated)
- Escaping gas
- Plumbing leaks that have the capacity to create flooding or cause damage to the unit
- Natural gas leaks or smell of fumes
- Backed-up sewage
- Electrical hazard
- Inoperable SNRHA-owned air conditioner/heater (seasonal)
- Inoperable smoke detectors will be treated as a 24-hour emergency and will be made operable by the SNRHA if the smoke detector is in need of repair. Residents who disengage smoke detectors will be charged (see Schedule of Charges posted.)
- Lock-outs – Subject to the resident paying the cost for responding.

Entry of Premises Notices

The SNRHA will give prior written notice for non-emergency inspections. Non-emergency entries to the unit will be made during reasonable hours of the day.

The SNRHA will provide the family with 48 hour notice prior to entering the unit for non-emergency reasons other than the annual inspection.

An inspection may not be conducted if there are minors and no adult (required to show identification) present in the unit during the inspection.

If no person is at home, the staff will enter the unit and conduct the inspection and will leave a written notice to the resident explaining the reason the unit was entered and the date and time.

A written notice specifying the purpose for non-emergency entry into the unit will be delivered to the premises at least 2 days before entry.

Where the SNRHA is conducting regular annual inspection of its housing units, the family will receive reasonable advance notice of the inspection to allow the family to prepare and be able to pass the inspection.

Reasons the SNRHA will enter the unit are:

- Inspections and maintenance
- To make improvements and repairs
- To show the premises for leasing
- In cases of emergency

The family must call the SNRHA at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled date of inspection to reschedule the inspection, if necessary.

The SNRHA will reschedule the inspection no more than once unless the resident has a verifiable medical reason which has hindered the inspection. The SNRHA may request verification.

Repairs requested by the family will not require prior notice to the family. Residents are notified in the lease that resident-requested repairs presume permission for the SNRHA to enter. The resident may specify at the time of request for repair or maintenance that they be present. SNRHA will take reasonable measures to comply with the residents request; however known deficiencies must be corrected.

Non-Inspection Emergency Entry

The SNRHA staff will allow access to the unit to proper authorities when issues of health or safety of the tenant are concerned.

Family Responsibility to Allow Inspection

The SNRHA must be allowed to inspect the unit at reasonable times with reasonable notice. If the resident refuses to allow the inspection, the resident will be in violation of the lease.

PET POLICY

[24 CFR 5.309]

INTRODUCTION

This chapter explains the SNRHA's policies on the keeping of pets and any criteria or standards pertaining to the policy. The rules adopted are reasonably related to the legitimate interest of the SNRHA to provide a decent, safe and sanitary living environment for all tenants, to protecting and preserving the physical condition of the property, and the financial interest of the SNRHA.

The purpose of this policy is to establish the SNRHA's policy and procedures for ownership of pets and to ensure that no applicant or resident is discriminated against regarding admission or continued occupancy because of ownership of pets. It also establishes reasonable rules governing the keeping of common household pets.

Residents will comply with the dwelling lease, which requires that no animals or pets of any kind be permitted on the premises without prior written approval of the SNRHA.

Nothing in this policy or the dwelling lease limits or impairs the right of persons with disabilities to own animals that are used to assist them.

The SNRHA Pet Deposits, Fees, and Restrictions do not apply to Assistance Animals. An Assistance Animal is an animal that is needed as a reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities.

In accordance with Section 526 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 (QHWRA), SNRHA hereby sets forth rules and regulations concerning pet ownership in its public housing units. Only "common household pets" as defined herein will be permitted in SNRHA owned properties.

A common household pet, for the purposes of SNRHA's conventional housing program: A domesticated animal, such as a dog, cat, bird, or fish that is traditionally kept in the home for pleasure rather than for commercial or breeding purposes. Common household pet does not include reptiles. This definition shall not include animals that are used to assist persons with disabilities.

Residents may own up to two pets as defined in this policy. If one of the pets is a dog or cat, the second pet must be contained in a cage or an aquarium for fish. Each bird or other animal, other than fish, shall be counted as one pet.

Animals That Assist Persons with Disabilities

Only rules related to the health of the animal, the responsibility of the animal's owner to clean up after the animal and prevent the animal from disturbing others will be applied to animals that assist persons with disabilities.

To meet these exclusions, the resident/pet owner must provide SNRHA with the means to verify that:

That there is a person with disabilities in the household; and

That if the animal is needed because of the person's disability.

A. MANAGEMENT APPROVAL OF PETS

All pets must be approved in advance by the SNRHA management. The pet owner must enter into a Pet Agreement with the SNRHA; pay the pet deposit as follows:

DEPOSIT SCHEDULE:

| Type of Pet                                                | Deposit |
|------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Dog                                                        | $200   |
| Cat                                                        | $200   |
| Fish Aquarium                                              | $50.00 |
| Fish Bowl (Requires no power and no larger than 2 gallons) | $0     |
| Caged pets (birds, gerbils, hamsters)                      | $50.00 |
|                                                            |         |

See Sections D and E following for other management requirements.

B. STANDARDS FOR PETS

Pet rules as outlined below will not be applied to animals that assist persons with disabilities however rules related to the health of the animal, the responsibility of the animal's owner to clean up after the animal and prevent the animal from disturbing others will be applied to animals that assist persons with disabilities.

Types of Pets Allowed

No pets except the following will be acceptable:

Dogs

Maximum number: 1
Maximum adult weight: 30 pounds
Maximum height: 20" at shoulder at full growth
Must be spayed or neutered and housebroken
Must have all required inoculations
Must be licensed as specified now or in the future by State law and local ordinance

Cats

Maximum number: 1
Must be spayed or neutered
Must have all required inoculations
Must be trained to use a litter box or other waste receptacle. Cardboard boxes are not acceptable and will not be approved. The resident shall not permit refuse from litter boxes to accumulate, become odorous, to become unsightly, or unsanitary.
Must be licensed as specified now or in the future by State law or local ordinance

Birds

Maximum number: 2
Must be enclosed in a cage at all times

Fish

Maximum aquarium size: 50 gallons
Must be maintained on an approved stand

Rodents (guinea pig, hamster, or gerbil ONLY)

Maximum number: 1
Must be enclosed in an acceptable cage at all times

Types of Pets Not Allowed

Common household pets permitted in dwelling units do not include:

Exotic pets or barnyard animals are prohibited. Exception may be made for certain species of pigs utilized as bonafide “service animals”. (Snakes and reptiles are considered exotic pets.)

Animals who would be allowed to produce offspring for sale

Wild animals, feral animals, and any other animals that are not amenable to routine human handling

Animals of species commonly used on farms

Non-human primates (unless as an assistive animal to a person with disabilities)

Animals whose climatological needs cannot be met in the unaltered environment of the individual dwelling unit

Pot-bellied pigs

Snakes, spiders, reptiles, and chickens

The following restrictions apply to pets, based on weight, size and inherent dangerousness, including prohibitions against the keeping of:

Any animal whose weight could exceed 30 pounds by adult hood

Dogs of the pit bull, Rottweiler, chow, or boxer breeds

Ferrets or other animals whose natural protective mechanisms pose a risk to small children of serious bites and lacerations

Hedgehogs or other animals whose protective instincts and natural body armor produce a risk to children of serious puncture injuries.

Chicks, turtles or other animals that pose a significant risk of salmonella infection to those who handle them

Pigeons, doves, mynah birds, psittacine birds, and birds of other species that are hosts to the organisms causing psittacosis in humans

Tenants are not permitted to have more than one type of pet.

C. PETS TEMPORARILY ON THE PREMISES

Pets which are not owned by a tenant will not be allowed; although service animals of persons with disabilities who are visiting the unit are permitted.

Residents are prohibited from feeding or harboring stray animals.

This rule excludes visiting pet programs sponsored by a humane society or other non-profit organization and approved by the SNRHA.

State or local laws governing pets temporarily in dwelling accommodations shall prevail.

D. REGISTRATION, ADMINISTRATION, AND OTHER RESTRICTIONS

Registration of Pets

1. Pets must be registered with the SNRHA before they are brought onto the premises. Registration includes certificate signed by a licensed veterinarian or State/local authority that the pet has received all inoculations required by State or local law, and that the pet has no communicable disease(s) and is pest-free. This provision applies to assistive animals for persons with disabilities.
2. Registration must be renewed and will be coordinated with the annual recertification date and proof of license and inoculation will be submitted at least 30 days prior to annual reexamination. This provision applies to assistive animals for persons with disabilities.
3. Dogs and cats must be spayed or neutered. This provision applies to assistive animals for persons with disabilities.
4. Execution of a Pet Agreement with the SNRHA stating that the tenant acknowledges complete responsibility for the care and cleaning of the pet will be required.
5. Approval for the keeping of a pet shall not be extended pending the completion of these requirements.
6. Registration for each animal is to be accomplished by the filing of the following disclosures and forms:
  - a. A health certificate prepared by a veterinarian (including attestations of no communicable disease and of spaying or neutering or of a medical condition precluding spaying or neutering)
  - b. Documentation of current rabies vaccination for species subject to state or local rabies vaccination requirements

- c. Copy of the license issued by the applicable municipality for “ownership” of each animal for whom licensing is a legal requirement
- d. Name, address and telephone number of a veterinarian who will be providing regular care
- e. Name of the adult household member who will be primarily responsible for animal care

Refusal to Register Pets

1. The SNRHA may not refuse to register a pet based on the determination that the pet owner is financially unable to care for the pet. If the SNRHA refuses to register a pet, a written notification will be sent to the pet owner stating the reason for denial and shall be served in accordance with HUD Notice requirements.
2. The SNRHA will refuse to register a pet if:
  - a. The pet is not a common household pet as defined in this policy;
Keeping the pet would violate any House Pet Rules;
  - b. The pet owner fails to provide complete pet registration information or fails to update the registration annually;
  - c. The SNRHA reasonably determines that the pet owner is unable to keep the pet in compliance with the pet rules and other lease obligations. The pet's temperament and behavior may be considered as a factor in determining the pet owner's ability to comply with provisions of the lease.

A resident who cares for another resident's pet must notify the SNRHA and agree to abide by all of the pet rules in writing.

Pet Agreement

Execution of a Pet Agreement will be required, under which the resident acknowledges:

1. The right of management to enter dwelling unit when there is evidence that an animal left alone is in danger or distress
2. The right of management to seek impoundment and sheltering of any animal found to be maintained in violation of housing rules, pending resolution of any dispute regarding such violation
3. Receipt of a copy of all animal-related requirements and restrictions administered by management

4. In the context of public housing, that failure to abide by any animal-related requirement or restriction constitutes a violation of the “Tenant Obligations” appearing at 24 CFR 966.4(f)(4) and, therefore, grounds for lease termination pursuant to 24 CFR 966.4(k)(2)

Other Restrictions

The following other restrictions also apply:

1. A prohibition on the keeping of animals by any resident convicted of a felony or of a misdemeanor relating to treatment of an animal
2. A prohibition on the keeping of any dog or cat over six months of age who is not spayed or neutered
3. A prohibition against keeping animals in any dwelling unit having no air conditioning in which ambient temperatures may exceed 82 degrees at any time of day or night.
4. A restriction against walking or transporting any animal outside of the dwelling unit without use of a leash no longer than five (5') feet or animal transport enclosure.
5. A prohibition against allowing animals on any premises outside of the dwelling unit unaccompanied by a family member, including homeless animals that are being fed or otherwise supported by residents.
6. A prohibition against the tethering or chaining of animals outside of or within the dwelling unit.
7. A prohibition of feeding any dog and/or cat outside the unit.
8. A restriction against subjecting animals to any surgical procedure, such as de-barking or de-clawing, that is typically performed as a substitute for correcting environmental deficiencies and providing proper supervision, or that can render animals abnormally aggressive
9. A requirement for the prompt removal of animal feces deposited in any common area
10. A requirement for regular removal and replacement of litter used in litter boxes or in animal enclosures maintained within dwelling units
11. A requirement for implementation of effective flea control by measures that produce no toxic hazard to children who may come into contact with treated animals

12. Pets are to be restrained so that maintenance can be performed in the unit. The resident shall, whenever an inspection or maintenance is scheduled, either be at home or shall have all animals restrained or caged. If a maintenance person enters a unit where an animal is not restrained, maintenance shall not be performed, and the resident pet owner shall be charged a fee of $25.00. If the situation occurs again, the pet shall be removed from the premises. The Housing Authority shall not be responsible if any animal escapes from the residence due to its maintenance, inspections, or other activities.

State and local public health and anti-cruelty laws are applicable. All complaints of cruelty and all dog bites will be referred to the relevant animal control or police agency for investigation and enforcement.

E. ADDITIONAL FEES AND DEPOSITS FOR PETS

SNRHA requires a refundable pet deposit of $200 for dogs and cats subject to charges for pet associated damage.

SNRHA requires a non-refundable pet fee for dogs of $50 annually to defray the cost of providing pet waste receptacles and equipment as well as pet waste clean-up costs associated with the overall upkeep of the community. Residents are expected to properly dispose of pet waste.

SNRHA will allow gradual payment of the deposit in accordance with the following:

- An initial payment of $50 on or prior to the date the pet is properly registered and brought into the apartment; and
- Monthly payments in an amount no less than $50 until the specified deposit has been paid.

SNRHA will allow gradual payment of the pet fee in accordance with the following:

- An initial payment of $10.00 due by the effective date of the annual recertification and up to four additional installments of $10.00.

The SNRHA reserves the right to change or increase the required deposit by amendment to these rules.

The SNRHA will refund the pet deposit to the tenant, less any damage caused by the pet to the dwelling unit, upon removal of the pet or the owner from the unit. Pet fees are non-refundable.

The SNRHA will return the pet deposit to the former tenant or to the person designated by the former tenant in the event of the former tenant's incapacitation or death.

The SNRHA will provide the tenant or designee identified above with a written list of any charges against the pet deposit. If the tenant disagrees with the amount charged to the pet deposit, the SNRHA will provide a meeting to discuss the charges.

All reasonable expenses incurred by the SNRHA as a result of damages directly attributable to the presence of the pet in the community will be the responsibility of the resident, including:

- The cost of repairs and replacements to the resident's dwelling unit;
- Fumigation of the dwelling unit;
- Common areas of the community.

Pet deposits are not a part of rent payable by the resident.

F. ALTERATIONS TO UNIT

Residents/pet owners shall not alter their unit, patio, premises or common areas to create an enclosure for any animal. Installation of pet doors is prohibited.

G. PET WASTE REMOVAL CHARGE

A separate pet waste removal charge of $25 per occurrence will be assessed against the resident for violations of the pet policy.

Pet waste removal charges are not part of rent payable by the resident.

All reasonable expenses incurred by the SNRHA, as the result of damages directly attributable to the presence of the pet will be the responsibility of the resident, including:

The cost of repairs and replacements to the dwelling unit;

Fumigation of the dwelling unit.

If the tenant is in occupancy when such costs occur, the tenant shall be billed for such costs as a current charge.

If such expenses occur as the result of a move-out inspection, they will be deducted from the pet deposit. The resident will be billed for any amount, which exceeds the pet deposit.

The pet deposit will be refunded when the resident moves out or no longer have a pet on the premises, whichever occurs first.

The expense of flea disinfestations shall be the responsibility of the resident.

H. PET AREA RESTRICTIONS

Pets must be maintained within the resident's unit. When outside of the unit (within the building or on the grounds) dogs and cats must be kept on a leash and under the control of the resident or other responsible adult individual at all times.

Pets are not permitted in common areas including lobbies, community rooms and laundry areas except for those common areas which are entrances to and exits from the building.

I. NOISE

Pet owners must control the noise of pets so that such noise does not constitute a nuisance to other residents or interrupt their peaceful enjoyment of their housing unit or premises. This includes, but is not limited to loud or continuous barking, howling, whining, biting, scratching, chirping, or other such activities.

J. CLEANLINESS REQUIREMENTS

Litter Box Requirements.

All animal waste or the litter from litter boxes shall be picked up immediately by the pet owner, disposed of in sealed plastic trash bags, and placed in a trash bin.

Litter shall not be disposed of by being flushed through a toilet.

Litter boxes shall be stored inside the resident's dwelling unit.

Removal of Waste from Other Locations.

The Resident/Pet Owner shall be responsible for the removal of waste by placing it in a sealed plastic bag and disposing of it in an outside trash bin.

Any unit occupied by a dog, cat, or rodent will be fumigated at the time the unit is vacated or during regularly scheduled extermination of the unit.

The resident/pet owner shall take adequate precautions to eliminate any pet odors within or around the unit and to maintain the unit in a sanitary condition at all times.

K. PET CARE

No pet (excluding fish) shall be left unattended in any apartment for a period in excess of 10 consecutive hours.

All residents/pet owners shall be responsible for adequate care, nutrition, exercise and medical attention for his/her pet.

Residents/pet owners must recognize that other residents may have chemical sensitivities or allergies related to pets, or may be easily frightened or disoriented by animals. Pet owners must agree to exercise courtesy with respect to other residents.

L. RESPONSIBLE PARTIES

The resident/pet owner will be required to designate a responsible party for the care of the pet if the health or safety of the pet is threatened by the death or incapacity of the pet owner, or by other factors that render the pet owner unable to care for the pet.

M. INSPECTIONS

The SNRHA may, after reasonable notice to the tenant during reasonable hours, enter and inspect the premises, in addition to other inspections allowed.

N. TERMINATION OF TENANCY

The SNRHA may initiate procedures for termination of tenancy based on a pet rule violation if:

The pet owner has failed to remove the pet or correct a pet rule violation within the time period specified; and

The pet rule violation is sufficient to begin procedures to terminate tenancy under terms of the lease.

O. PET REMOVAL

If the death or incapacity of the pet owner threatens the health or safety of the pet, or other factors occur that render the owner unable to care for the pet, the situation will be reported to the Responsible Party designated by the resident/pet owner. This includes pets that are poorly cared for or have been left unattended for over 10 consecutive hours.

If the responsible party is unwilling or unable to care for the pet, or if the SNRHA after reasonable efforts cannot contact the responsible party, the SNRHA may contact the appropriate State or local agency and request the removal of the pet.

If the pet is removed as a result of any aggressive act on the part of the pet, the pet will not be allowed back on the premises.

P. EMERGENCIES

The SNRHA will take all necessary steps to insure that symptoms of severe illness, or demonstrate behavior that constitutes an immediate threat to the health or safety of others, are referred to the appropriate State or local entity authorized to remove such animals.

If it is necessary for the SNRHA to place the pet in a shelter facility, the cost will be the responsibility of the tenant/pet owner. Pets that become vicious, display aggressive behavior are subject to referral to appropriate State or Local agency.

INTRODUCTION

HUD requires that PHA's offer all families the choice of paying income-based rent or flat rent at least annually. Families who choose to pay flat rent or families who receive a verifiable fixed income are required to complete a reexamination of income, deductions and allowances at least once every three years. Flat rent or fixed income families must still report family composition and community service requirements on an annual basis.

To determine the amount of income-based rent, it is necessary for SNRHA to perform a reexamination of the family's income annually. At the annual reexamination, families who choose to pay income-based rent must report their current household composition, income, deductions and allowances. Between regular annual reexaminations, HUD requires that families report all changes in household composition, but SNRHA decides what other changes must be reported and the procedures for reporting them.

This chapter defines SNRHA's policy for conducting annual reexaminations. It also explains the interim reporting requirements for families, and the standards for timely reporting.

A. ELIGIBILITY FOR CONTINUED OCCUPANCY

Residents who meet the following criteria will be eligible for continued occupancy:

Qualify as a family as defined in this policy;

Are in full compliance with the resident obligations and responsibilities described in the dwelling lease;

Have provided Social Security numbers on all family members or have certifications on file indicating they have no Social Security number.

Whose family members have submitted required citizenship/eligible immigration status/non-contending documents. Who meet HUD standards on citizenship or immigration status or are paying a pro-rated rent.

Who are in compliance with the SNRHA's community service requirements.

Whose adult family members have passed an annual criminal screening.

Remaining Family Members and Prior Debt

1. Remaining family members age 18 years or older will be held responsible for arrearages incurred by the former head or spouse. SNRHA will not hold remaining family members (other than the head or spouse) responsible for any portion of the arrearage incurred before the remaining member attained age 18.

Exceptions may be made for extenuating circumstances or hardship.

2. Remaining family members under age 18 shall not be held responsible for the rent arrearages incurred by the former head of household.

B. ANNUAL RECERTIFICATIONS

The terms "annual recertification" and "annual reexamination" are synonymous.

In order to be recertified, families are required to provide current and accurate information on income, assets, allowances and deductions, and family composition. The annual recertification of family income and composition will be conducted the staff.

Families who choose flat rent and families who receive fixed income are to be recertified every three years. SNRHA staff will mail annual information packages to families and may schedule an interview if additional information is needed.

Annual recertifications are scheduled; by the anniversary of their admission date.

Admission Anniversary System:

For families who move in on the first of the month, the annual recertifications will be completed within 12 months of the anniversary of the move-in date. (Example: If family moves in August 1, the annual recertification will be conducted at most 120 days prior to be effective on August 1, the following year.)

For families who move in during the month, the annual recertifications will be completed no later than the first of the month in which the family moved in, the following year.

(Example: If family moves in August 15, the effective date of the next annual recertification is August 1.)

When families move to another dwelling unit, the annual recertification date will not change.

Special Reexaminations: When it is not possible to estimate family income accurately, a temporary determination will be made with respect to income and a special reexamination will be scheduled every 90 days until a reasonably accurate estimate of income can be made.

Special reexaminations shall be conducted when there is a change in the head of household that requires a remaining family member to take on the responsibilities of a leaseholder.

Special Reexamination Following Income Disallowance: When a family qualifies for an earned income disallowance, a special reexamination will occur at the end of the initial 12 month disallowance period and at the end of the second 12 month disallowance period.

Zero/Extremely Low Income Families: Unless the family has income that is excluded from rent computation, families who report zero income or extremely low income will have the income be re-verified through EIV every 90 days for income changes and are further required to complete a written no/low income certification every 180 days and undergo an interim recertification every 180 days. (See Other Interim Reporting Issues below).

Recertification Notice to the Family

All families will be notified of their obligation to recertify by staff delivery or first class mail. The written notification shall be sent at least 120 calendar days in advance of the scheduled annual recertification date specifying the date and time of the appointment and the required documents that the tenant will need to supply.

During this reexamination period, the family will be given the option to choose flat rent or income-based rent. SNRHA will provide a form that states what the flat rent would be and what the family's income-based rent would be. The family will be required to make a choice and sign the form prior to the effective date of their reexamination. The form will be retained in the tenant's file.

If the family chooses flat rent, an annual recertification is required to verify community service requirements and family composition. Recertification of income is only required every three years.

Notification of the flat rent and an approximate amount of the income based rent, based on the last certification, and is sent at least 120 days in advance of the scheduled annual certification.

Families that have paid a flat rent for three years must complete a full certification process to determine accurate information regarding family composition and income. The family may choose to pay a flat rent or the income based rent annually.

Persons with Disabilities

If requested as an accommodation by a person with a disability, the SNRHA will provide the notice in an accessible format. The SNRHA will also mail the notice to a third party, if requested as reasonable accommodation for a person with disabilities. These accommodations will be granted upon verification that they meet the need presented by the disability.

Persons with disabilities, who are unable to come to the SNRHA's office will be granted an accommodation of conducting the interview at the person's home, upon verification that the accommodation requested meets the need presented by the disability.

Collection of Information

The family is required to complete the Application for Continued Occupancy –Personal Declaration. Each adult member who reports no income or very low income will also be required to complete the Personal Declaration Form – No Income Questionnaire. Update form may be used for Interims.

Requirements to Attend

The following family members will be required to attend the recertification interview and sign the personal declaration along with other required forms:

- The head of household, spouse, co-head, and

- All adult household members, age 18 and older.

If the head of household is unable to attend the interview, the appointment will be rescheduled one time at the family's request.

Failure to Respond to Notification to Recertify

The written notification will explain which family members are required to attend the recertification interview. The family may call to request another appointment date up to 2 calendar days prior to the interview.

If the family does not appear for the recertification interview, and has not rescheduled or made prior arrangements with the SNRHA, the SNRHA will reschedule a second appointment.

If the family fails to appear for the second appointment, and has not rescheduled or made prior arrangements, the SNRHA will not schedule a third appointment. If a household fails to complete annual recertification, they will receive a 30 day notice of lease termination for non-compliance with the recertification process.

If the family schedules an appointment and completes annual recertification requirements within thirty days of the effective date of the household's annual recertification, the annual recertification will be completed and the household's rent will be based on the income.

Exceptions to these policies may be made by the Asset Manager if the family is able to document an emergency situation that prevented them from canceling or attending the appointment.

Documents Required From the Family

In the notification letter to the family, the SNRHA will include instructions for the family to bring the following:

- Application for Continued Occupancy form Personal Declaration Form completed by head of household

- Documentation of income for all family members

- Documentation of assets

- Documentation to substantiate any deductions or allowances

- Documentation of family composition

- Picture identification for adults 18 years of age or older

- Other required documents on new family members, such as SSN or citizenship requirements

- Documentation of community service requirements

- Self-Declaration form when adult members 18 and over are declaring no income or very low income. (Except those 62 years and older/or disabled or enrolled in educational or approved training programs.)

SNRHA will require a print out of utility bills for three months to be submitted for residents claiming zero income.

Verification of Information

All information which affects the families continued eligibility for the program, and the family's Total Tenant Payment (TTP) will be verified in accordance with the verification procedures and guidelines described in this Policy. Verifications used for recertification must be less than 120 days old on the effective date of the recertification. All verifications will be placed in the file, which has been established for the family.

When the information has been verified, it will be analyzed to determine:

The continued eligibility of the resident as a family or as the remaining member of a family;

The unit size required by the family;

The amount of rent the family should pay.

Changes in the Tenant Rent

If there is any change in rent, including change in family's choice in rent, the lease will be amended, or a new lease will be executed, or a Notice of Rent Adjustment will be issued [24 CFR 966.4(c) & (o)].

Tenant Rent Increases

If tenant rent increases, a 30-day notice will be mailed to the family prior to the family's annual recertification date.

If less than 30 days are remaining before the family's annual recertification date, the tenant rent increase will be effective on the first of the second month following the thirty day notice.

If there has been a misrepresentation or a material omission by the family, or if the family causes a delay in the recertification processing, there will be a retroactive increase in rent to the family's annual recertification date.

Tenant Rent Decreases

If tenant rent decreases, it will be effective on the family's annual recertification date.

If the family causes a delay so that the processing of the recertification is not complete by the family's annual recertification date, rent change will be effective on the first day of the month following completion of the recertification processing by the SNRHA.

If tenant rent decreases and the change occurred within a month prior to the Recertification appointment, but the family did not report the change as an interim Adjustment, the decrease will be effective on the recertification anniversary date.

C. REPORTING INTERIM CHANGES

Families must report all changes in household composition and increases in income/assets in writing within 10 calendar days to the SNRHA between annual recertifications. This includes additions due to birth, adoption and court-awarded custody. The family must obtain SNRHA approval prior to all other additions to the household.

When there is a change in head of household or a new adult household member is added, the head of household will complete an application for continued occupancy – personal declaration or update form and recertify-revify, using the same procedures the SNRHA staff would use for an annual recertification, except for effective dates of changes. In such case, the Interim Recertification Policy would be used.

The annual recertification date will not change as a result of this action.

The U.S. citizenship/eligible immigrant status of additional family members must be declared and verified prior to the approval by the SNRHA of the family member being added to the lease.

Increases in Income to be Reported and Rent Adjustments

Families paying flat rent are not required to report any increases in income or assets between the recertification periods.

Families paying an income-based rent must report all increases in income/assets of all household members to the SNRHA in writing within 10 calendar days of the occurrence.

Families are required to report the following increases in income:

- Increases in income because a person with income joins the household;
- Increases in household income which comes as a result of a new income source.
- Increases in household income that was not anticipated at the annual recertification period.

Families who receive Social Security, Social Security Disability, pensions or Supplemental Security Income (SSI) are required to report their annual increase when it occurs.

SNRHA will process rent adjustments for all increases in income, which are reported between regularly scheduled recertifications.

Rent increases (except those due to misrepresentation) require 30 days' notice.

Decreases in Income and Rent Adjustments

Residents may report a decrease in income and other changes, such as an increase in allowances or deductions which would reduce the amount of the total tenant payment.

The SNRHA will process the rent adjustment unless the SNRHA confirms that the decrease in income will last less than 30 calendar days.

Decreases in tenant rent will be effective the first day of the month following the month in which the change is reported in writing to the SNRHA. If verification cannot be obtained prior to the end of the month in which the change is reported, the decrease will be made retroactive to the first day of the month following the month in which the change is reported.

D. INCOME CHANGES RESULTING FROM WELFARE PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

The SNRHA will not reduce the public housing rent for families whose welfare assistance is reduced specifically because of:

Fraud; or

Failure to participate in an economic self-sufficiency program; or

Noncompliance with a work activities requirement

However, the SNRHA will reduce the rent if the welfare assistance reduction is a result of:

The expiration of a lifetime time limit on receiving benefits; or

A situation where the family has complied with welfare program requirements but cannot or has not obtained employment, such as:

The family has complied with welfare program requirements, but the durational time limit, such as a cap on the length of time a family can receive benefits, causes the family to lose their welfare benefits.

Verification before Denying a Request to Reduce Rent

The SNRHA will obtain written verification from the welfare agency stating that the family's benefits have been reduced for fraud or noncompliance before denying the family's request for rent reduction.

Cooperation Agreements

The SNRHA has a written cooperation agreement in place with the local welfare agency which assists the SNRHA in obtaining the necessary information regarding welfare sanctions.

The SNRHA has taken a proactive approach to culminating an effective working relationship between the SNRHA and the local welfare agency for the purpose of targeting economic self-sufficiency programs throughout the community that are available to public housing residents.

The SNRHA and the local welfare agency have mutually agreed to notify each other of any economic self-sufficiency and/or other appropriate programs or services that would benefit public housing residents.

E. OTHER INTERIM REPORTING ISSUES

Residents are required to report all changes in family composition or status to SNRHA in writing within 10 calendar days of the occurrence. Failure to report within the 10 calendar days may result in a retroactive rent increase, but not a retroactive credit or rent reduction. In order to qualify for rent reductions, residents must report and verify income decreases promptly.

An interim recertification will be scheduled for families with zero income or extremely low income every 180 days. Once income is reported recertification will cease until annual recertification time.

An interim reexamination will be scheduled for families with zero or extremely low-income every 180 days. Unless the family has income that is excluded from rent computation, families who report zero income or extremely low income will have the income be re-verified through EIV every 90 days for income changes and are further required to complete a written no/low income certification every 180 days and undergo an interim recertification every 180 days, until they have a stable income. If any increases in income are indicated in any of the above information or other verification, then the family will be reviewed for an interim and the rent will be adjusted accordingly.

Monetary or non-monetary contributions from persons not residing in the dwelling unit for any purpose other than the payment or reimbursement of medical expenses shall be considered income. Families that report zero or extremely low income will be required to provide information regarding their means of basic subsistence, such as food, utilities, transportation, etc.

SNRHA Errors

If the SNRHA makes a calculation error at admission to the program or at an annual recertification, an interim recertification will be conducted to correct the error, but the family will not be charged retroactively. Any decrease in rent will be made retroactive.

False or Incomplete Information Supplied by Family

For families whose rent has been based on false or incomplete information supplied by The applicant/resident family, an interim recertification will be conducted upon notice by The SNRHA. Any increase in TTP and tenant rent will be retroactive.

F. TIMELY REPORTING OF CHANGES IN INCOME (AND ASSETS)

Standard for Timely Reporting of Changes

The SNRHA requires that families report interim changes to the SNRHA in writing within ten calendar days of when the change occurs. Any information, document or signature needed from the family which is needed to verify the change must be provided within 3 calendar days of reporting the change.

If the change is not reported within the required time period, or if the family fails to provide signatures, certifications or documentation, (in the time period requested by the SNRHA), it will be considered untimely reporting.

Procedures When the Change is Reported in a Timely Manner

The SNRHA will notify the family of any changes in Tenant Rent to be effective according to the following guidelines:

Increases in the Tenant Rent is effective on the first of the month following at least thirty days' notice.

Decreases in the Tenant Rent are effective the first of the month following the month in which the change is reported.

The change may be implemented based on documentation provided by the family, pending third party written verification.

Procedures when the Change is not Reported by the Tenant in a Timely Manner

If the family does not report the change as described under Timely Reporting, the family will have caused an unreasonable delay in the interim recertification processing and the following guidelines will apply:

Increase in Tenant Rent will be effective retroactive to the date it would have been effective had it been reported on a timely basis. The family will be liable for any underpaid rent, utility reimbursement payment for which they would not have been eligible to receive and may be required to sign a Repayment Agreement in accordance with SNRHA repayment policy.

Decrease in Tenant Rent will be effective on the first of the month following completion of processing by the SNRHA and not retroactively.

Procedures when the Change is not processed by the SNRHA in a Timely Manner

"Processed in a timely manner" means that the change goes into effect on the date it should when the family reports the change in a timely manner. If the change cannot be made effective on that date, the change is not processed by the SNRHA in a timely manner.

Therefore, an increase will be effective after the required 30 days' notice prior to the first of the month after completion of processing by the SNRHA.

If the change resulted in a decrease, the overpayment by the family will be calculated retroactively to the date it should have been effective, and the family will be credited for the amount.

G. REPORTING OF CHANGES IN FAMILY COMPOSITION

All changes in family composition must be reported within 10 business days of the occurrence in writing.

The members of the family residing in the unit must be approved by the SNRHA. The family must inform the SNRHA and request approval of additional family members other than additions due to birth, adoption, or court-awarded custody before the new member occupies the unit.

The proposed new adult family members will be screened by SNRHA, according to the screening criteria in accordance with the criteria for eligibility and admission, prior to approval.

The SNRHA will not approve the addition of family members other than by birth, adoption, marriage or court-awarded custody where the occupancy standards would require a larger size unit.

An exception will be granted if the family has submitted a Self-Certification of Physical Custody of Minor Child/Children or an Appointment of Temporary Guardian to the SNRHA. If either of these forms has been submitted, the SNRHA will also require that the family has initiated legal proceedings for guardianship or legal custody. SNRHA must receive a court awarded guardianship or custody is received within 365 calendar days. Failure shall result in the deduction being removed; and any income still being received shall be counted.

If an adult family member is declared permanently absent by the head of household, the notice must contain a certification by the head or co-head of household or spouse that the member (who may have been the head of household) removed is permanently absent.

The head of household must provide a statement that the head or co-head of household or spouse will notify the SNRHA if the removed member returns to the household for a period longer than the visitor period allowed in the lease.

Increase in Family Size

The SNRHA will consider a unit transfer (if needed under the Occupancy Guidelines) for additions to the family in the following cases:

Addition by marriage/or marital-type relation.

Addition of a minor who is a member of the nuclear family who had been living elsewhere.

Addition of a SNRHA-approved live-in attendant. Addition due to birth, adoption or court-awarded custody.

Families who need a larger sized unit because of voluntary additions identified above will be placed on the Transfer List at their next regularly scheduled recertification; unless it creates a health and safety hazard upon approval of the Director of Operations.

Definition of Temporarily/Permanently Absent

The SNRHA must compute all applicable income of every family member who is on the lease, including those who are temporarily absent.

Income of persons permanently absent will not be counted. If the spouse is temporarily absent and in the military, all military pay and allowances (except hazardous duty pay when exposed to hostile fire and any other exceptions to military pay HUD may define) is counted as income.

It is the responsibility of the head of household to report changes in family composition. The SNRHA will evaluate absences from the unit in accordance with this policy.

Absence of Entire Family

These policy guidelines address situations when the family is absent from the unit, but has not moved out of the unit. In cases where the family has moved out of the unit, the SNRHA will terminate tenancy in accordance with the appropriate lease termination procedures contained in this Policy.

Families are required to notify the SNRHA before they move out of a unit in accordance with the lease and to give the SNRHA information about any family absence from the unit.

Families must notify the SNRHA if they are going to be absent from the unit for more than 14 consecutive days. A person with a disability may request an extension of time as an accommodation.

"Absence" means that no family member is residing in the unit.

In order to determine if the family is absent from the unit, the SNRHA may:

Conduct home visit

Write letters to the family at the unit Post

letters on exterior door Telephone the family at the unit Interview neighbors
Verify if utilities are in service
Check with Post Office for forwarding address
Contact emergency contact

As a reasonable accommodation for a person with a disability, the SNRHA may approve an extension. (See Absence Due to Medical Reasons below for other reasons to approve an extension.) During the period of absence, the rent and other charges must remain current.

If the absence which resulted in termination of tenancy was due to a person's disability, and the SNRHA can verify that the person was unable to notify the SNRHA in accordance with the lease provisions regarding absences, and if a suitable unit is available, the SNRHA may reinstate the family as an accommodation if requested by the family.

If the dwelling unit is deemed abandoned by the tenant, SNRHA shall take possession of the unit and any of the tenant's possessions remaining in the unit, in accordance with the lease. Property abandoned by the tenant may be disposed of by SNRHA in accordance with Nevada State law, NRS 118A and SNRHA procedures.

Absence of Any Member

Any member of the household will be considered permanently absent if s/he is away from the unit for three consecutive months except as otherwise provided in this Chapter.

Absence due to Medical Reasons

If any family member leaves the household to enter a facility such as hospital, nursing home, or rehabilitation center, the SNRHA will seek advice from a reliable qualified source as to the likelihood and timing of their return. If the verification indicates that the family member will be permanently confined to a nursing home, the family member will be considered permanently absent and removed from the lease. If the verification indicates that the family member will return in less than 180 consecutive days, the family member will not be considered permanently absent, as long as rent and other charges remains current.

If the person who is determined to be permanently absent is the sole member of the household, assistance will be terminated in accordance with the SNRHA's "Absence of Entire Family" policy.

Temporary caretaker request must be provided by the resident and verified by a medical provider. The status must be updated every thirty (30) days. The SNRHA will review the request and verified reasons for the caretaker during an extended medical hardship. Approval of the caretaker to occupy the unit for a period beyond 2 weeks will require prior approval by the Asset Manager.

Absence due to Incarceration

If a sole member is incarcerated for more than 30 consecutive days, s/he will be considered permanently absent. Any member of the household, other than the sole member, will be considered permanently absent if s/he is incarcerated for 30 consecutive days. The rent and other charges must remain current during this period.

The SNRHA will determine if the reason for incarceration is for drug-related or criminal activity which would threaten the health, safety and right to peaceful enjoyment of the dwelling unit by other residents. If the offense is drug related or criminal activity that violates the lease and policy, the lease will be terminated.

Foster Care and Absences of Children

If the family includes a child or children temporarily absent from the home due to placement in foster care, the SNRHA will determine from the appropriate agency when the child/children will be returned to the home.

If the time period is to be greater than 3 months 180 days from the date of removal of the child(ren), the family will be required to move to a smaller size unit. If all children are removed from the home permanently, the unit size will be reduced in accordance with the SNRHA's occupancy guidelines.

Absence of Adult

If neither parent remains in the household and the SNRHA and the appropriate agency has determined that another adult is to be brought into the assisted unit to care for the children for an indefinite period, the SNRHA will treat that adult as a visitor for the first 30 calendar days.

If the appropriate agency cannot confirm the guardianship status of the caretaker, the SNRHA will review the status at 30 calendar day intervals.

If the court has not awarded custody or legal guardianship, but the action is in process, SNRHA will secure verification from social services staff or the attorney as to the status. If by the end of that period, court-awarded custody or legal guardianship has been awarded to the guardian, and the guardian qualifies under Tenant Suitability criteria, the lease will be transferred to the guardian.

The caretaker will be allowed to remain in the unit, as a visitor, until a determination of custody is made.

SNRHA will transfer the lease to the guardian, in the absence of a court order, if the guardian qualifies under the Tenant Suitability criteria and has been in the unit for more than 30 days and it is reasonable to expect that custody will be granted.

When the SNRHA approves a person to reside in the unit as caretaker for the child/ren, the income should count pending a final disposition. The SNRHA will work with the appropriate service agencies to provide a smooth transition in these cases.

If a member of the household is subject to a court order that restricts him/her from the home for more than 180 days, the person will be considered permanently absent.

If an adult child goes into the military and leaves the household, they will be considered permanently absent.

Absence of Spouse or Secondary Wage earner

The absence of the spouse or secondary wage earner must be verified by third-party documentation unless so verified per 24CFR 5.609(2) all income must be included.

Full-Time Students

Full time students who attend school away from the home will be treated in the following manner:

A student (other than head of household or spouse) who attends school away from home but lives with the family during school recesses may, at the family's choice, be considered either temporarily or permanently absent. If the family decides that the member is permanently absent, income of that member will not be included in total household income, the member will not be included on the lease, and the member will not be included for determination of unit size.

If the student is considered temporarily absent from the household, applicable income for that person will be counted. Full time students who attend school away from the home and live with the family during school recess will be considered temporarily absent from the household.

Visitors (See Chapter 9, Leasing)

A visitor/guest is defined as a person temporarily staying in the unit with the consent of a tenant or other member of the household who has express or implied authority to so consent on behalf of the tenant.

Any adult not included on the HUD 50058 who has been in the unit more than 14 consecutive days, or more than 30 cumulative days in a 12 month period, will be considered to be living in the unit as an unauthorized.

The lease must provide the tenant has the right to exclusive use and occupancy of the leased unit by the members of the household authorized to reside in the unit in accordance with the lease, including reasonable accommodation of their guests [24 CFR 966.4(d)]. The head of household is responsible for the conduct of visitors and guests, inside the unit as well as anywhere on or near PHA premises [24 CFR 966.4(f)].

A resident family must notify the SNRHA in writing when overnight guests will be staying in the unit for more than 3 days.

A guest can remain in the unit no longer than 14 consecutive days or a total of 30 cumulative calendar days during any 12-month period.

A family may request an exception to this policy for valid reasons (e.g., care of a relative recovering from a medical procedure expected to last 20 consecutive days). An exception will not be made unless the family can identify and provide documentation of the residence to which the guest will return.

Former residents who have been evicted are not permitted as overnight guests. Guests who represent the unit address as their residence address for receipt of benefits or other purposes will be considered unauthorized. In addition, guests who remain in the unit beyond the allowable time limit will be considered unauthorized, and their presence constitutes violation of the lease.

Absence of evidence of any other address will be considered verification that the visitor is an unauthorized household member.

Statements from neighbors and/or SNRHA staff will be considered in making the determination.

The SNRHA will consider:

- Statements from neighbors and/or SNRHA staff

- Vehicle license plate verification

- Post Office records

- Driver's license verification

- Law enforcement reports

- Credit reports

- Verification from other public or private sources

- Other reliable information

Use of the unit address as the visitor's current residence for any purpose that is not explicitly temporary shall be construed as permanent residence.

The burden of proof that the individual is a visitor rests on the family. In the absence of such proof, as stated above, the individual will be considered unauthorized and the SNRHA will terminate the family's lease since prior approval was not requested for the addition.

Minors and college students who were part of the family, but who now live away from home during the school year and are not considered members of the household may visit for up to 90 consecutive days per year without being considered a member of the household under the following conditions:

- The head of household has reported to the SNRHA, in writing, that the minor is a visitor.

- The SNRHA has provided the head of household with written permission for the minor to occupy the unit for more than 14 days.

In a joint custody arrangement, if the minor is in the household less than 184 days per year, the minor will be considered to be an eligible visitor and not a family member. If both parents reside in Public Housing or are a Section 8 Program participant, only one parent would be able to claim the child for deductions and for determination for the occupancy standards.

Children who are subject to a joint custody arrangement or for whom a family has visitation privileges, that are not included as a family member because they live outside of the public housing unit more than 50 percent of the time, are not subject to the time limitations of guests as described above.

Required Family Reporting to Management

The additional person(s), whether a family member or a visitor, must be reported in writing to the manager within 3 calendar days of a stay intended to exceed the visitation period allowed under the lease/ACOP.

H. REMAINING MEMBER OF TENANT FAMILY - RETENTION OF UNIT

To be considered the remaining member of the tenant family, the person must have been previously approved by the SNRHA to be living in the unit.

A live-in attendant, by definition, is not a member of the family and will not be considered a remaining member of the Family.

In order for a minor child to continue to receive assistance as a remaining family member:

The court has to have awarded emancipated minor status to the minor or is legally married; or

The SNRHA has to have verified that social services and/or the Juvenile Court has arranged for another adult to be brought into the unit to care for the child(ren) for an indefinite period.

A reduction in family size may require a transfer to an appropriate unit size per the Occupancy Standards. If the sole eligible member of the household dies, the unit must be returned to the SNRHA within 14 days.

I. CHANGES IN UNIT SIZE

The SNRHA shall grant exceptions from the occupancy standards if the family requests and the SNRHA determines the exceptions are justified according to this policy.

The SNRHA will not assign a larger bedroom size due to additions of family members other than by birth, adoption, marriage or court-awarded custody.

The SNRHA will consider the size of the unit and the size of the bedrooms, as well as the number of bedrooms, when an exception is requested.

When an approvable change in the circumstances in a tenant family requires another unit size, the family will be placed on the Transfer List in accordance with the Transfer policy. (See Chapter 5, Occupancy Guidelines.)

J. CONTINUANCE OF ASSISTANCE FOR "MIXED" FAMILIES

Under the Noncitizens Rule, "Mixed" families are families that include at least one citizen or eligible immigrant and any number of ineligible members. Mixed families are eligible for prorated assistance in accordance with the mixed-family portion of the policy.

K. UNIT TRANSFERS

See Chapter 8, Transfer Policy.

Chapter 14

COMMUNITY SERVICE

[24 CFR 960.603-960.611]

A. REQUIREMENT

Each adult resident of the SNRHA shall:

Contribute 8 hours per month of community service (not including political activities) within the community in which that adult resides; or

Participate in an economic self-sufficiency program (defined below) for 8 hours per month.

An individual may not skip a month and then double up the following month, unless special circumstances warrant it. The Director of Operations or designee will make the determination of whether to permit a deviation from the schedule.

Individuals who have special circumstances which they believe will prevent them from completing the required community service hours for a given month, must notify SNRHA in writing immediately. SNRHA will review the request and notify the individual, in writing, of its determination within 10 calendar days. SNRHA may require those individuals to provide documentation to support their claim.

B. EXEMPTIONS

The SNRHA shall provide an exemption from the community service requirement for any individual who:

Is a family that is currently participating and is in compliance with the Public Housing Family Self-Sufficiency Program. Is 62

years of age or older;

Is a blind or disabled individual, as defined under section 216[i] [I] or 1614 of the Social Security Act, and who is unable to comply with this section, or is a primary caretaker of such individual;

Is engaged in a work activity as defined in section 407[d] of the Social Security Act; SNRHA will consider 20 hours per week as the minimum number of hours needed to qualify for a work activity exemption;

Meets the requirements for being exempted from having to engage in a work activity under the State program funded under part A of title IV of the Social Security Act, or under any other welfare program of the State in which the public housing agency is located, including a State-administered welfare-to-work program; or

Is in a family receiving assistance under a State program funded under part A of title IV of the Social Security Act, or under any other welfare program of the State in which the public housing agency is located, including a State-administered welfare-to-work program, and has not been found by the State or other administering entity to be in noncompliance with such program. HUD has determined that the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) qualifies as a welfare program of the state. Therefore if a tenant is a member of a family receiving assistance under SNAP, and has been found by the administering State to be in compliance with the program requirements, that tenant is exempt from the CSSR. (PIH-2015-12 HA)

The SNRHA will re-verify exemption status annually except in the case of an individual who is 62 years of age or older.

The SNRHA will permit residents to change exemption status during the year if status changes.

C. DEFINITION OF ECONOMIC SELF-SUFFICIENCY PROGRAM

For purposes of satisfying the community service requirement, participating in an economic self-sufficiency program is defined, in addition to the exemption definitions described above, by one of the following:

Participating in the Family Self-Sufficiency Program and being current in the steps outlined in the Individual Training and Services Plan;

Participating in an educational or vocational training program designed to lead to employment, as long as their educational activities total at least 96 hours per year. A student would not need to be enrolled full time to be in compliance with the CSSR.

Activities administered through Help of Southern Nevada (HELP).

D. ANNUAL DETERMINATIONS

Requirement – For each public housing resident subject to the requirement of community service, the SNRHA shall, 90 days before the expiration of each lease term or effective date of recertification, review and determine the compliance of the resident with the community service requirement.

Such determination shall be made in accordance with the principles of due process and on a nondiscriminatory basis.

If SNRHA has reasonable cause to believe that the certification provided by the family is false or fraudulent, SNRHA has the right to require third-party verification.

E. NONCOMPLIANCE

If the SNRHA determines there is a family member who is subject to the community service requirement and has not complied with the requirement, the SNRHA shall notify the resident of such noncompliance, and that:

The determination of noncompliance is subject to the administrative grievance procedure under the SNRHA's Grievance Procedures; and

Unless the resident enters into an agreement to comply with the community service requirement, the resident's lease will not be renewed, and

The SNRHA may not renew or extend the resident's lease upon expiration of the lease term and shall take such action as is necessary to terminate the tenancy of the household, unless the SNRHA enters into an agreement, before the expiration of the lease term, with the resident providing for the resident to cure any noncompliance with the community service requirement, by participating in an economic self-sufficiency program for or contributing to community service as many additional hours as the resident needs to comply in the aggregate with such requirement over the 12-month term of the lease.

If, after the 12 month cure period, the family member is still not compliant, SNRHA must terminate tenancy of the entire family, according to SNRHA's lease, unless the family provides documentation that the non-compliant family member no longer resides in the unit.

If the family reports that a non-compliant family member is no longer residing in the unit, the family must provide documentation that the family member has actually vacated the unit before SNRHA will agree to continued occupancy of the family. Documentation must consist of a certification signed by the head of household as well as evidence of the current address of the non-compliant family member that previously resided with them.

If the family does not request a grievance hearing, or provide such documentation within the required 10 calendar day timeframe, the family's lease and tenancy will automatically terminate at the end of the current lease term without further notice.

Ineligibility for Occupancy for Noncompliance

The SNRHA shall not renew or extend any lease, or provide any new lease, for a dwelling unit for any household that includes an adult member who was subject to the community service requirement and failed to comply with the requirement.

F. SNRHA RESPONSIBILITY

The SNRHA will ensure that all community service programs are accessible for persons with disabilities.

The SNRHA will ensure that:

The conditions under which the work is to be performed are not hazardous;

The work is not labor that would be performed by the SNRHA's employees responsible for essential maintenance and property services; or

The work is not otherwise unacceptable.

G. SNRHA IMPLEMENTATION OF COMMUNITY SERVICE REQUIREMENT

SNRHA will provide the family with a copy of the Community Service Policy found in Exhibit 14-1 of this chapter, at lease-up, lease renewal, when a family member is determined to be subject to the community service requirement during the lease term, and at any time upon the family's request.

H. ELIGIBLE COMMUNITY SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

All community service performed will be verified by acceptable third part verification and may include:

Community Service with a Certified Resident Council, on site resident Service contractor.

Volunteering in community activities, such as clean up, graffiti removal, painting, neighborhood reduction of criminal activity such as resident patrol and neighborhood watch programs.

Community service with faith based organizations

Any other community service organization that is pre-approved by SNRHA

Public educational facility.

Chapter 4

TENANT SELECTION AND ASSIGNMENT PLAN

INTRODUCTION

It is the SNRHA policy that each applicant shall be assigned an appropriate place on a jurisdiction-wide waiting list unless the applicant has applied for a development subject to a site-based waiting list. Applicants will be listed in sequence based upon date and time the application is received, the size and type of unit they require, the site in which they wish to reside for applicable designated communities, and factors of preference or priority. In filling an actual or expected vacancy, the SNRHA will offer the dwelling unit to an applicant in the appropriate sequence, with the goal of accomplishing de-concentration of poverty and income-mixing objectives. The SNRHA will offer the unit until it is accepted. This Chapter describes the SNRHA policies with regard to the number of unit offers that will be made to applicants selected from the waiting list.

SNRHA OBJECTIVES

SNRHA policies will be followed consistently and will affirmatively further HUD's fair housing goals.

It is the SNRHA objective to ensure that families are placed in the proper order on the waiting list so that the offer of a unit is not delayed to any family unnecessarily or made to any family prematurely. This chapter explains the policies for the management of the waiting list.

When appropriate units are available, families will be selected from the waiting list in sequence within their preference category and date and time sequence.

By maintaining an accurate waiting list, the SNRHA will be able to perform the activities which ensure that an adequate pool of qualified applicants will be available to fill unit vacancies in a timely manner. Based on the SNRHA turnover and the availability of appropriate sized units, groups of families will be selected from the waiting list to form a final eligibility "pool." Selection from the pool will be based on completion of verification.

SITE-BASED/DESIGNATED WAITING LISTS

Per the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998, SNRHA uses site-based/designated waiting lists.

A. MANAGEMENT OF THE WAITING LIST

The SNRHA will administer its waiting list as required by 24 CFR Part 5, Subparts E and F, Part 945 and 960.201 through 960.215. The waiting list will be maintained in accordance with the following guidelines:

The application will be a permanent part of the file.

All applicants in the pool will be maintained in order of preference. Applications equal in preference will be maintained by date and time sequence.

All applicants must meet applicable income eligibility requirements as established by HUD.

Opening and Closing the Waiting Lists

The SNRHA, at its discretion, may restrict application intake, suspend application intake, and close waiting lists in whole or in part.

The decision to close the waiting list will be based on the number of applications available for a particular size and type of unit, and the ability of the SNRHA to house an applicant in an appropriate unit within a reasonable period of time.

When the SNRHA opens the waiting list, the SNRHA will advertise the location(s), and program(s) for which applications are being accepted in the following newspapers:

Las Vegas Review Journal/Sun
El Mundo
Las Vegas Asian Journal
Indian Voice
The Challenger Rehabilitation, Disability Newspaper

To reach persons with disabilities, the SNRHA will provide separate notice to local organizations representing the interests and needs of the disabled. This will include notice to the following organizations:

Opportunity Village
Nevada Disability Advocacy and Law Center Nevada
Legal Services
Help Them Walk Again
Nevada Association for the Handicapped

The notice will contain:

- The dates, times, and the locations where families may apply.
- Any designated housing for which site-based waiting lists are applicable
- The programs for which applications will be taken.
- Limitations, if any, on whom may apply.

The notices will be made in an accessible format, if requested. They will provide potential applicants with information that includes the SNRHA address and telephone number, and how to submit an application.

When Application Taking is Suspended

The SNRHA may suspend the acceptance of applications if there are enough applicants to fill anticipated openings for the next 12 to 24 months.

The waiting list may not be closed if it would have a discriminatory effect inconsistent with applicable civil rights laws.

During the period when the waiting list is closed, the SNRHA will not maintain a list of individuals who wish to be notified when the waiting list is open.

Suspension of application taking is announced in the same way as opening the waiting list. SNRHA will give at least five (5) days notice prior to opening or closing the list.

When the period for accepting applications is over, the SNRHA will add the new applicants to the list by:

- Unit size, local preference, and by date and time of application.

The SNRHA will update the waiting list at least annually by removing the names of those families who are no longer interested, no longer qualify for housing, or cannot be reached by mail. At the time of initial intake, the SNRHA will advise families of their responsibility to notify the SNRHA in writing when mailing address changes.

Limits on Who May Apply

When the waiting list is open,

- Any family asking to be placed on the waiting list for Public Housing rental assistance will be given the opportunity to complete an application.

When the application is submitted to the SNRHA, it establishes the family's date and time of application for placement order on the waiting list with preference points determining the final rank.

Multiple Families in Same Household

When families apply that consist of two families living together, (such as a mother and father, and a daughter with her own husband or children), if they apply as a family unit, they will be treated as a family unit.

B. SITE BASED WAITING LISTS

The SNRHA offers a system of site-based waiting lists for HUD-approved designated communities.

The SNRHA maintains separate site-based waiting lists for all current or future mixed financed properties, as well as all current or future RAD conversion Properties.

Applicants may choose which site-based waiting list they wish to be placed on, regardless of the application site. Applicants may designate the community or communities in which they seek to reside.

SNRHA will monitor its site-based wait list annually by comparing data in January to data in October to determine the level of change, if any, in the overall racial, ethnic and disability-related tenant composition at each SNRHA site by analyzing its data.

Every reasonable action will be taken by the SNRHA to assure that applicants can make informed choices regarding the community(s) in which they wish to reside. The SNRHA will disclose information to applicants regarding the location of available sites.

Monitoring Site-Based Waiting Lists

The system of site-based waiting lists will be carefully monitored to assure that civil rights and fair housing are affirmatively furthered.

The SNRHA adoption of site-based waiting lists is not in violation of any court order or settlement agreement, and is not inconsistent with any pending complaint brought by HUD.

The SNRHA will monitor its system of site-based waiting list annually to assure that racial steering does not occur. If the SNRHA annual analysis of its site-based waiting list indicates that a pattern of racial steering is or may be occurring, the SNRHA will take corrective action.

The SNRHA will assess changes in racial, ethnic or disability-related tenant composition at each SNRHA site that has occurred during the implementation of the site-based waiting lists. The SNRHA will make this assessment based on MTCS data.

The SNRHA has established site-based waiting lists for the following properties:

Espinoza Terrace, Designated Elderly Development, Henderson

Hampton Court, Family Development, Henderson

Otto Merida Desert Villas, Family Development, Las Vegas

Landsman Gardens, Family development, Henderson

Vera Johnson B, Family Development, Las Vegas. Vera Johnson B will convert from Mixed Finance to RAD Project Based Voucher after construction.

Biegger Estates, Family Development, Las Vegas

Rose Gardens, Designated Elderly Development, Las Vegas

The SNRHA intends to make available dwelling units, in communities designated for elderly families only, to near-elderly families if there are an insufficient number of elderly families on the waitlist. Near elderly will be defined as families whose members are 55 years of age or older.

C. WAITING LIST PREFERENCES

A preference does not guarantee admission to the program. Preferences are used to establish the order of placement on the waiting list. Every applicant must meet the SNRHA Selection Criteria as defined in this policy.

The SNRHA preference system will work in combination with requirements to match the characteristics for the family to the type of unit available, including units with targeted populations, and further de-concentration of poverty in public housing. When such matching is required or permitted by current law, the SNRHA will give preference to qualified families.

Families who reach the top of the waiting list will be contacted by the SNRHA to verify their preference and, if verified, the SNRHA will complete a full application for occupancy. Applicants must complete the application for occupancy and continue through the application processing and may not retain their place on the waiting list if they refuse to complete their processing when contacted by the SNRHA.

Among applicants with equal preference status, the waiting list will be organized by date and time.

Local Preferences

Local preferences will be used to select among applicants on the waiting list. A public hearing with an opportunity for public comment will be held before the SNRHA adopts any local reference.

The SNRHA uses the following Local Preferences:

Homeless Referral Preference: Families who are homeless (family lacks a fixed regular and adequate night time residence, or has a primary night time residence that is a supervised publicly or privately operated shelter designed to provide temporary living accommodations, such as welfare voucher hotels, congregate shelters or transitional housing designed for homeless persons, or a public or private place not designed for, or ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings) and are participating in case management with an approved referral agency. This preference shall be limited to up to 150 referrals per year ..... 60 points

Unit offers to applicants referred for this preference will be made as follows: for every two applicants from the waiting list receiving a unit offer, one applicant referred under this preference will receive a unit offer.

Homeless Families that live with friends or relatives who are not currently in the transition system, will be encourage to apply to other available SNRHA programs that they may qualify for.

Federally Declared Disasters: Victims who are holders of Section 8 Vouchers or other subsidized programs as defined as eligible units by HUD, in another jurisdiction within 120 days of the President declaring a federal disaster. .... 55 points

Working Preference: Head, spouse or co-head who is employed at least 20 hours per week at the equivalent of minimum wage, or who are active participants in accredited educational and training programs designed to prepare the individual for the job market. This preference is extended equally to elderly families or disabled families, including but not limited to those whose head or spouse is receiving SSI, SSD, or who can be verified to be unable to work, if both the head of household and spouse is either elderly or disabled..... 30 points

Veteran preference for veteran as defined by State. .... 6 points

Residency preferences for head, co-head or spouse, who live, work, have been hired to work, or are enrolled full time in an accredited school in Clark County... 5 points

Disabled veteran or family (defined as dependent son, daughter, and spouse) of a veteran with a service-connected disability. .... .5 points

Family of (defined as spouse) a deceased veteran with a service-connected death. .... .4 points

FINAL VERIFICATION OF PREFERENCES [24 CFR 5.415]

Preference information on applications will be updated as applicants are selected from the waiting list. At that time, the SNRHA will obtain necessary verifications of preference at the interview and by third party verification.

PREFERENCE DENIAL [24 CFR 5.415]

If the SNRHA denies a preference, the SNRHA will notify the applicant in writing of the reasons why the preference was denied and offer the applicant an opportunity for an informal meeting with the Housing Programs Manager or Director of Housing Programs. If the preference denial is upheld as a result of the meeting, or the applicant does not request a meeting, the applicant will be placed on the waiting list without benefit of the preference. Applicants may exercise other rights if they believe they have been discriminated against.

Treatment of Single Applicants

Single applicants will be treated as any other eligible family on the SNRHA waiting list.

Pulling from the Wait List

SNRHA shall utilize income targeting to meet HUD's requirements that 40% of admissions have income of less than 30% of minimum income. Elderly and disabled families are given the working preference as required by HUD regulations. All preferences claimed are verified at final eligibility determination. If preferences claimed cannot be verified, the applicant is returned to the appropriate placement on our waiting list and a written notice explaining this action is sent to the applicant.

D. VERIFICATION OF PREFERENCE QUALIFICATION [24 CFR 5.415] The family may be placed on the waiting list upon their certification that they qualify for a preference. When the family is selected from the waiting list for the final determination of eligibility, the preference will be verified.

If the preference verification indicates that an applicant does not qualify for the preference, the applicant will be returned to the waiting list and ranked without the Local Preference and given an opportunity for a review.

Change in Circumstances

Changes in an applicant's circumstances while on the waiting list may affect the family's entitlement to a preference. Applicants are required to notify the SNRHA in writing when their circumstances change. When an applicant claims an additional preference, s/he will be placed on the waiting list in the proper order of their newly claimed preference.

If the family failed to report income changes during final eligibility and the verified failure would have affected their eligibility for a local preference, the family will be returned to the waiting list.

E. PREFERENCE DENIAL [24 CFR 5.415]

If the SNRHA denies a preference, the SNRHA will notify the applicant in writing of the reasons why the preference was denied and offer the applicant an opportunity for an informal meeting. The applicant will have 10 calendar days to request the meeting in writing. If the preference denial is upheld, as a result of the meeting, or the applicant does not request a meeting, the applicant will be placed on the waiting list without benefit of the preference. Applicants may exercise other rights if they believe they have been discriminated against.

If the applicant falsifies documents or makes false statements in order to qualify for any preference, they will be removed from the waiting list with notification to the family.

F. FACTORS OTHER THAN PREFERENCES THAT AFFECT SELECTION OF APPLICANTS

Before applying its preference system, the SNRHA will first match the characteristics of the available unit to the applicants available on the waiting lists. Factors such as unit size, accessible features, deconcentration or income mixing, income targeting, or units in housing designated for the elderly limit the admission of families to those characteristics that match the characteristics and features of the vacant unit available.

By matching unit and family characteristics, it is possible that families who are lower on the waiting list may receive an offer of housing ahead of families with an earlier date and time of application.

G. INCOME TARGETING

The SNRHA will monitor its admissions to ensure that at least 40 percent of families admitted to public housing in each fiscal year shall have incomes that do not exceed 30% of area median income of the SNRHA jurisdiction.

Hereafter families whose incomes do not exceed 30% of area median income will be referred to as "extremely low income families."

The SNRHA shall have the discretion, at least annually, to exercise the "fungibility" provision of the QHWRRA by admitting less than 40 percent of "extremely low income families" to public housing in a fiscal year, to the extent that the SNRHA has provided more than 75 percent of newly available vouchers to "extremely low income families." This fungibility provision discretion by the SNRHA is also reflected in the SNRHA Administrative Plan.

The fungibility credits will be used to drop the annual requirement below 40 percent of admissions to public housing for extremely low income families by the lowest of the following amounts:

The number of units equal to 10 percent of the number of newly available vouchers in the fiscal year; or

The number of public housing units that 1) are in public housing communities located in census tracts having a poverty rate of 30% or more, and 2) are made available for occupancy by and actually occupied in that year by, families other than extremely low-income families.

The Fungibility Floor: Regardless of the above two amounts, in a fiscal year, at least 30% of the SNRHA admissions to public housing will be to extremely low-income families. The fungibility floor is the number of units that cause the SNRHA overall requirement for housing extremely low-income families to drop to 30% of its newly available units.

Fungibility shall only be utilized if the SNRHA is anticipated to fall short of its 40% goal for new admissions to public housing.

Low Income Family Admissions

Once the SNRHA has met the 40% targeted income requirement for new admissions of extremely low-income families, the SNRHA will fill the remainder of its new admission units with families whose incomes do not exceed 80% of the HUD approved area median income.

H. UNITS DESIGNATED FOR THE ELDERLY

In accordance with the 1996 Housing Act, Head or Spouse must be at least 62 years of age will be selected for admission to such units or buildings covered by a HUD-approved Allocation Plan, except for the units which are accessible, which may be offered to persons with disabilities.

The SNRHA will take the following action when processing families for developments designated for the elderly when there are insufficient elderly families who wish to reside in a development, near-elderly families (head or spouse ages 55-61) will be selected for this type of unit.

I. UNITS DESIGNATED FOR THE DISABLED

SNRHA has no HUD-approved disabled-only designated developments.

J. MIXED POPULATION UNITS

A mixed population community is a public housing community, or portion of a community that was reserved for elderly families and disabled families at its inception (and has retained that character).

In accordance with the 1992 Housing Act, elderly families whose head spouse or sole member is at least 62 years of age, and disabled families whose head, co-head or spouse or sole member is a person with disabilities, will receive equal preference to such units.

No limit will be established on the number of elderly or disabled families that may occupy a mixed population property. All other SNRHA preferences will be applied.

K. GENERAL OCCUPANCY UNITS

General occupancy units are designed to house all populations of eligible families. In accordance with the SNRHA occupancy standards, eligible families not needing units designed with special features or units designed for special populations will be admitted to the SNRHA general occupancy units.

The SNRHA will use its local preference system as stated in this chapter for admission of eligible families to its general occupancy units.

L. DECONCENTRATION OF POVERTY AND INCOME-MIXING

The SNRHA admission policy is designed to provide for de-concentration of poverty and income mixing by bringing higher income tenants into lower income communities and lower income tenants into higher income communities.

Gross annual income is used for income limits at admission and for income-mixing purposes.

Skipping of a family on the waiting list specifically to reach another family with a lower or higher income is not to be considered an adverse action to the family. Such skipping will be uniformly applied until the target threshold is met.

The SNRHA will gather data and analyze, at least annually, the tenant characteristics of its public housing stock, including information regarding tenant incomes, to assist in the SNRHA de-concentration efforts.

The SNRHA will use the gathered tenant income information in its assessment of its public housing developments to determine the appropriate designation to be assigned to the community for the purpose of assisting the SNRHA in its de-concentration goals.

If the SNRHA annual review of tenant incomes indicates that there has been a significant change in the tenant income characteristics of a particular community, the SNRHA will evaluate the changes. The SNRHA will determine whether, based on the SNRHA methodology of choice, the community needs to be re-designated as a higher or lower income community or whether the SNRHA has met the de-concentration goals and the community needs no particular designation.

Deconcentration and Income-Mixing Goals

Admission policies related to the de-concentration efforts of the SNRHA do not impose specific quotas. Therefore, the SNRHA will not set specific quotas, but will strive to achieve de-concentration and income mixing in its developments.

The SNRHA income-mixing goal is a long-range goal and may not be achieved in the first year of implementation. The SNRHA will use its annual analysis of its public housing stock and tenant incomes to provide benchmarks for the SNRHA.

The SNRHA income-mixing goal, in conjunction with the requirement to achieve income targeting, will be achieved via unit offer procedures described in Section P of this chapter.

Community Designation Methodology

Aggregate Average Method

The SNRHA will review the annual resident income of all family sites to develop an average annual income, which will be used as a baseline. Developments with an average annual income above that baseline will be considered higher income developments, and developments with an average annual income below the baseline will be considered lower income developments.

Upon analyzing its findings the SNRHA will apply the policies, measures and incentives listed in Section P of this chapter to bring higher income families into lower income developments.

SNRHA Incentives for Higher Income Families

Covered in Section P of this Chapter.

M. REMOVAL FROM WAITING LIST AND PURGING [24 CFR 960.204(a)]

The waiting list will be purged at least tri-annually by a mailing to all applicants to ensure that the waiting list is current and accurate. The mailing will ask for current information and confirmation of continued interest.

If an applicant fails to respond within 14 calendar days, s/he will be removed from the waiting list. If a letter is returned by the Post Office, the applicant will be removed without further notice and the envelope and letter will be maintained in the file. Failure to respond will result in removal from all waiting lists.

If an applicant is removed from the waiting list for failure to respond, they will not be entitled to reinstatement unless a person with a disability requests a reasonable accommodation for being unable to reply within the prescribed period.

Notices will be made available in accessible format upon the request of a person with a disability. An extension to reply to the purge notification will be considered as an accommodation if requested by a person with a disability.

The SNRHA allows a grace period of 7 calendar days after completion of the purge mailing. Applicants who respond during this grace period will not be withdrawn.

Applicants are notified with confirmation of the SNRHA receipt of their application that they are responsible for notifying the SNRHA within 10 calendar days, if they have a change of address.

N. OFFER OF ACCESSIBLE UNITS

The SNRHA has units designed for persons with mobility, sight and hearing impairments, referred to as accessible units.

No non-mobility-impaired families will be offered these units until all eligible mobility-impaired applicants have been considered.

Before offering a vacant accessible unit to a non-disabled applicant, the SNRHA will offer such units:

First, to a current occupant of another unit of the same development, or other public housing developments under the SNRHA control who has a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit.

Second, to an eligible qualified applicant on the waiting list having a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit.

When offering an accessible/adaptable unit to a non-disabled applicant, the SNRHA will require the applicant to agree to move to an available non-accessible unit within 30 days when either a current resident or an applicant needs the features of the unit and there is another unit available for the applicant. This requirement will be a provision of the lease agreement. SNRHA will pay all reasonable and customary costs associated with the relocation of the non-disabled family.

The Authority will make modifications to the unit in keeping with the Section 504 Transition Plan as the need arises and until the agency determines that an adequate number of units have been rehabilitated in numbers sufficient to evidence compliance with the Plan See Chapter 9.

O. PLAN FOR UNIT OFFERS

The SNRHA plan for selection of applicants and assignment of dwelling units to assure equal opportunity and non-discrimination on grounds of race, color, sex, religion, or national origin is to offer the family at the top of the waiting list for the appropriate bedroom size and unit type the oldest available unit five days prior to target-ready date.

Unit offers to promote income targeting are made in accordance with HUD regulations of the oldest eligible certified family to the appropriate bedroom size of the oldest ready and available unit. Once the SNRHA has met the 40% targeted income requirement for new admissions of extremely low-income families, the SNRHA will fill the remainder of its new admission units with families whose incomes do not exceed 80% of the HUD approved area median income.

Number of Offers - Two Offers

SNRHA will make two offers on an appropriate unit. If the second offer is rejected or the applicant fails to execute a lease within the required timeframes, the applicant will be withdrawn from our waiting list. Exceptions are incorrect unit offers and/or offers to non-disabled families of accessible units, or other “good cause” reason. The applicant shall be informed of this in writing.

SNRHA Incentives for Higher Income Families

The SNRHA will offer certain incentives to higher income families willing to move into lower income communities. If a higher income family agrees to move to an SNRHA-specified lower income development, the SNRHA will agree to approve to transfer the resident family to the next available scattered site home or the development of the family’s choice. The move will be approved, according to the Occupancy Guidelines, only if the family has consistently been in lease compliance for two years following admission.

In addition, the SNRHA will target homeownership opportunities to higher income families moving into lower income communities.

P. CHANGES PRIOR TO UNIT OFFER

Applicants with a Change in Family Size or Status

Applicants must report changes in income, family composition, and address within ten (10) calendar days of the change prior to eligibility and after final eligibility. If the family did not report the change within the required time frame, the family will be withdrawn and determined ineligible and offered an opportunity for informal hearing.

Properly reported changes in family composition, status, or income between the time of the interview and the offer of a unit will be processed. The SNRHA shall not lease a unit to a family whose occupancy will overcrowd or underutilize the unit or if the family is no longer eligible for the program.

The family will take the appropriate place in the selection pool or waiting list according to the preference points on the date they first applied if the appropriate waiting list was open at the time of initial application.

Changes that occur during the period between determination of final eligibility and an offer of a suitable unit may affect the family's eligibility or Total Tenant Payment. The family will be notified in writing of changes in their eligibility or level of benefits and offered their right to an informal hearing when applicable (See Grievance Procedure.)

Income changes properly reported after the unit is offered will be processed following lease-up procedures.

O. APPLICANT STATUS AFTER FINAL UNIT OFFER

When an applicant rejects the final unit offer the SNRHA will remove the applicant's name from the waiting list. Removal from the waiting list means the applicant must reapply. Exceptions may be made in accordance with 504 regulations, for persons whose refusal involved the need for a reasonable accommodation.

R. TIME-LIMIT FOR ACCEPTANCE OF UNIT

Applicants will have three (3) business days to respond to an offer of an available unit. Applicants must accept a unit offered within one (1) business day of the date the unit is shown and execute a lease within two (2) additional business days of the offer acceptance. Extensions can be approved for good cause.

SNRHA staff will attempt to notify applicants by telephone as a courtesy; all offers will be made in writing by first class mail.

Applicants Unable to Take Occupancy

If an applicant is willing to accept the unit offered, but is unable to take occupancy at the time of the offer for "good cause," the applicant will be returned to the waiting list.

Examples of "good cause" reasons for the refusal to take occupancy of a housing unit include, but are not limited to:

- An elderly family who makes the decision not to occupy or accept occupancy in designated housing for which they applied will be withdrawn from the designated housing waiting list, but this action will not affect their standing on any other waiting list. [24 CFR 945.303(d)]
- Inaccessibility to source of employment or education such that an adult household member must quit a job, drop out of an educational or a job training program.
- The family demonstrates to SNRHA's satisfaction that accepting the offer will result in a situation where a family member's life, health or safety will be placed in jeopardy. The family must offer specific and compelling documentation such as restraining orders, other court orders, or risk assessments related to witness protection from a law enforcement agency. The reasons must be specific. Refusals due to the location of the unit alone are not considered to be good cause.
- A qualified, knowledgeable, health professional verifies the temporary hospitalization or recovery from illness of the principal household member, other household member, or a live-in aide necessary to care for the principal household member.
- The family is offered a unit which is handicap accessible, but there is no member of the family that need accessibility features in the unit. The unit is inappropriate for the applicant's disabilities

S. REFUSAL OF OFFER

If the unit offered is inappropriate for the applicant's disabilities or if a non-disabled family is offered an accessible unit, the family will retain their position on the waiting list.

If the unit offered is refused for other reasons, the SNRHA will follow the applicable policy as listed in Section O, Plan for Unit Offers, and Section Q, Applicant Status after Final Offer.

T. SPECIAL PROGRAMS

The SNRHA will administer a HUD, RAD (Rental Assistance Demonstration) program at the following properties:

- o Landsman Gardens, Henderson, Nevada.
- o Vera Johnson B, Las Vegas, Nevada
- o Biegger Estates, Las Vegas, Nevada
- o Rose Gardens, North Las Vegas, Nevada

See Chapter 16 for RAD/PBV information.

Chapter 6

DETERMINATION OF TOTAL TENANT PAYMENT

[24 CFR 5.628, 5.611, 5.613, 5.615]

INTRODUCTION

The accurate calculation of annual income and adjusted income will ensure that families are not paying more or less money for rent than their obligation under the regulations.

This chapter defines the allowable deductions from annual income and how the presence or absence of household members may affect the Total Tenant Payment (TTP). Income and TTP are calculated in accordance with 24 CFR Part 5, Subpart F and further instructions set forth in HUD Notices, Memoranda and Addenda. The formula for the calculation of TTP is specific and not subject to interpretation. The SNRHA's policies in this chapter address those areas which allow the SNRHA discretion to define terms and to develop standards in order to assure consistent application of the various factors that relate to the determination of TTP.

A. MINIMUM RENT (TTP)

The minimum rent (TTP) for the SNRHA is $50.00.

The total tenant payment is the greater of:

30% of the adjusted monthly income

10% of the monthly income

The minimum rent as established by the SNRHA

The minimum rent refers to a minimum total tenant payment and not a minimum tenant rent.

The total tenant payment does not include charges for excess utility consumption or other charges.

The SNRHA recognizes that in some instances even the minimum rent may create a financial hardship for families. The SNRHA will review all relevant circumstances brought to the SNRHA's attention regarding financial hardship as it applies to minimum rent. The following section states that the SNRHA's procedures and policies in regard to minimum rent financial hardship as set forth by the QHWRA.

SNRHA Procedures for Notification to Families of Hardship Exceptions

The SNRHA will notify all participant families subject to a minimum rent of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exception under the law.

The SNRHA will notify all eligible families at time of lease-up of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exception.

The SNRHA will notify all eligible families at the annual and interim recertification appointments of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exception.

The manager or their designee will document in the family's file that the family has been notified of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exception.

The SNRHA notification will advise the family that hardship exception determinations are subject to SNRHA grievance procedures.

The SNRHA will review all tenant requests for exception from the minimum rent due to financial hardships.

All requests for minimum rent exception are required to be in writing.

Requests for minimum rent exception will be accepted by the SNRHA from the family in writing.

Requests for minimum rent exception must state the family circumstances that qualify the family for an exception.

Exceptions to Minimum Rent

The SNRHA will immediately grant the minimum rent exception to all families who request it.

The Minimum Rent will be suspended until the SNRHA determines whether the hardship is:

Covered by statute

Temporary or long term

If the SNRHA determines that the minimum rent is not covered by statute, the SNRHA will impose a minimum rent including payment for minimum rent from the time of suspension.

The SNRHA will use its standard verification procedures to verify circumstances which have resulted in financial hardship, such as loss of employment, death in the family, etc.

HUD Criteria for Hardship Exception

In order for a family to qualify for a hardship exception the family's circumstances must fall into one of the following criteria:

The family has lost eligibility or is awaiting an eligibility determination for Federal, State, or local assistance;

The family would be evicted as a result of the imposition of the minimum rent requirement;

The income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstances, including:

Loss of employment

Death in the family

Other circumstances as determined by the SNRHA or HUD

Temporary Hardship

If the SNRHA determines that the hardship is temporary, a minimum rent will be imposed, including back payment from time of suspension, but the family will not be evicted for nonpayment of rent during the 90 day period commencing on the date of the family's request for exemption.

Repayment Agreements for Temporary Hardship

The SNRHA will offer a repayment agreement to the family for any such rent not paid during the temporary hardship period.

See Chapter 14, Rent and Debt Collection Procedures, for payment terms.

B. INCOME AND ALLOWANCES

Income: Includes all monetary and non-monetary income or benefit amounts that are received on behalf of the family. For purposes of calculating the Total Tenant Payment, HUD defines what is to be calculated and what is to be excluded in the federal regulations. In accordance with this definition, all income that is not specifically excluded in the regulations is counted. (See Income Inclusions and Income Exclusions in the Glossary of Terms of this policy.)

Annual Income is defined as the gross amount of income anticipated to be received by the family during the 12 months after certification or recertification. Gross income is the amount of income prior to any HUD allowable expenses or deductions, and does not include income which has been excluded by HUD. Annual income is used to determine whether or not applicants are within the applicable income limits. (24 CFR 5.607)

The low-income subsidy received to assist low-income persons in paying for their Medicare prescription drug plan costs must be excluded as annual income for the purpose of calculating any rent or assistance.

Adjusted Income is defined as the annual income minus any HUD allowable expenses and deductions.

Allowable Deductions

HUD has 5 allowable deductions from annual income:

1. Dependent allowance: $480 each for family members (other than the head or spouse), who are minors, and for family members who are 18 and older who are full-time students or who are disabled.
2. "Elderly/disabled" allowance: $400 per household for families whose head or spouse are 62 or over or disabled.
3. For any family that is a disabled family, or has a member (other than the head or spouse) who is a person with a disability. A disability assistance expenses for unreimbursed amounts paid for attendant care or auxiliary apparatus expenses for family members with disabilities, including the disabled member, where such expenses are necessary to permit an adult family member to be employed. The allowable expenses must be in excess of 3% of annual income. This allowance may not exceed the employment income received by the family members that is freed to go to work, who is at least 18 years of age.
4. For any elderly or disabled family:
  - a. That has no disability assistance expenses, an allowance for medical expenses equal to the amount by which the medical expenses exceed 3% of annual income;
  - b. That has disability expenses greater than or equal to 3% of annual income, an allowance for disability assistance expenses computed in accordance with paragraph C, plus an allowance for medical expenses that equal the family's medical expenses;

- c. That has disability assistance expenses that are less than 3% of annual income, an allowance for combined disability assistance expenses and medical expenses that are equal to the total of these expenses less 3% of annual income.
5. Amounts anticipated to be paid by the family for the care of children under 13 years of age during the period for which Annual Income is computed, but only where such care is necessary to enable a family member to actively seek employment, be gainfully employed, or to further his or her education and only to the extent such amounts are not reimbursed. The amount deducted shall reflect reasonable charges for childcare. In the case of childcare necessary to permit employment, the amount deducted shall not exceed the amount of employment income that is included in annual income. (24 CFR 5.603(d)).
6. The SNRHA does not provide for any optional deductions or allowances in the public housing program.

C. DISALLOWANCE OF EARNED INCOME FROM RENT DETERMINATIONS
24 CFR 962.255, 24 CFR 5.617, 24 CFR 960.255

The annual income for qualified families may not be increased as a result of increases in earned income of a family member. The family member will be eligible to receive EID for 24 consecutive calendar months to be effective the date of the earned income increase. For calculation purposes, the disallowance shall begin the first of the month after the employment begins. After the family receives 12 consecutive months of the full exclusion, annual income will include a phase-in of half the allowable earned income exclusion from annual income for the remaining 12 consecutive calendar months.

A family eligible for the earned income exclusion is a family that occupies a dwelling unit in a public housing community; and

Whose annual income increases as a result of employment of an adult member of the family who was previously unemployed for one or more years;

Whose earned annual income increases during the participation of a family member in any family self-sufficiency or other job training program; or

Whose annual income increases, as a result of new employment or increased earnings of an adult family member during or within six months after receiving assistance, benefits or services under any State program for TANF provided that the total amount over a six-month period is at least $500. The qualifying TANF assistance may consist of any amount of monthly income maintenance, and/or at least $500 in such TANF benefits and services as one-time payments, wage subsidies and transportation assistance.

The HUD definition of "previously unemployed" includes a person who has earned in the previous 12 months no more than the equivalent earnings for working 10 hours per week for 50 weeks at the minimum wage. Minimum wage is the prevailing minimum wage in the State or locality if it is higher than the federal minimum wage.

The HUD definition of economic self-sufficiency program is any program designed to encourage, assist, train or facilitate economic independence of assisted families or to provide work for such families. Such programs may include job training, employment counseling, work placement, basic skills training, education, English proficiency, workfare, financial or household management, apprenticeship, or any other program necessary to ready a participant to work (such as substance abuse or mental health treatment).

Qualifying increases are any earned income increases of a family member during participation in an economic self-sufficiency or job training program and may include increases that occur after participation provided the training provides assistance, placement, training or mentoring after the training that leads to employment.

The amount that is subject to the disallowance is the amount of incremental increase in income of a family member. The incremental increase in income is calculated by comparing the amount of the family member's income before the beginning of qualifying employment (baseline) to the amount of such income after the employment.

Initial Twelve-Month Exclusion

During the initial 12-month period beginning on the date a member of a qualified family is first employed or the family first experiences an increase in annual income attributable to employment, the SNRHA will exclude from annual income of a qualified family member any increase in income of the family member as a result of employment over the prior income of that family member (baseline).

Second Twelve-Month Exclusion and Phase-in

During the second and final 12-month period after the expiration of the initial 12-month period referred to above, the SNRHA must exclude from Annual Income of a qualified family member, 50 percent of any increase in income of a family member who is a person with disabilities as a result of employment over the income of that family member prior to the beginning of such employment.

Maximum Two Year Disallowance

The earned income disallowance is limited to a lifetime 24 month period for each family member. For each family member, the disallowance only applies for a maximum of 12 months of full exclusion of incremental increase, and a maximum of 12 months of phase-in exclusion during the 24 month period starting from the date of the initial exclusion.

If the family member discontinues the employment that initially qualified the family for the EID, the 24 calendar month period continues.

The EID benefit is limited to a lifetime of 24 months for the qualifying family member. At the end of the 24 months, the EID ends regardless of how many months were “used”.

Families that currently benefit from the EID, or who became eligible prior to the effective date of changes to the ACOP are eligible to receive the EID benefits for the 24 months over a 48-month period, as was in effect prior to the effective date of this provision.

Applicability to Child Care Expense Deductions

The amount deducted for childcare necessary to permit employment shall not exceed the amount of employment income that is included in annual income. Therefore, for families entitled to the earned income disallowance, the amounts of the earned income that is included in the Annual Income after the application of the earned income disallowance will be used in determining the cap for childcare deduction in the case of the deduction that is allowed due to employment.

Applicability to Disability Expense Deductions

The amount deducted for disability expense deduction that is necessary to permit employment shall not exceed the amount of employment income that is included in Annual Income. Therefore, for families entitled to the earned income disallowance, the amounts of the earned income that is included in the Annual Income after the application of the earned income disallowance will be used in determining the cap for the disability expense deduction.

Applicability to Families that Receive both Child Care Expense and Disability Deductions

The amount deducted for both childcare and disability expense deductions necessary to permit employment shall not exceed the amount of employment income that is included in Annual Income. Therefore, for families entitled to the earned income disallowance, the amounts of the earned income that is included in the Annual Income after the application of the earned income disallowance will be used in determining the cap for childcare deduction and disability expenses combined in the case of the deduction that is allowed due to employment.

Tracking the Earned Income Exclusion

The earned income exclusion will be reported on the HUD 50058 form. Documentation will be included in the family’s file to show the reason for the reduced increase in rent.

*Such documentation will include:

- Date the increase in earned income was reported by the family
- Name of the family member whose earned income increased

- Reason (new employment, participation in job training program, within 6 months after receiving TANF) for the increase in earned income
- Amount of the increase in earned income (amount to be excluded)
- Date the increase in income is first excluded from annual income
- Date the family member has received a total of 12 consecutive months of the initial exclusion of 100%
- Date the 12-month phase-in period began
- Date the family member has received a total of 12 consecutive months of the phase-in exclusion of 50%
- Ending date of the maximum 24 month (two year) disallowance period

The SNRHA will maintain a tracking system to ensure correct application of the earned income disallowance.

It is a SNRHA policy decision to conduct an interim reexamination for income increases for the purpose of calculating the earned income disallowance.

Inapplicability to Admission

The earned income disallowance is only applied to determine the Annual Income of families who are participants in the public housing program, and therefore does not apply for purposes of admission to the program (including the determination of income eligibility or any income targeting that may be applicable).

E. INDIVIDUAL SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

The SNRHA chooses not to establish a system of individual savings accounts for families who qualify for the disallowance of earned income.

F. TRAINING PROGRAMS FUNDED BY HUD

All training income from a HUD sponsored or funded training program, whether incremental or not, is excluded from the resident's annual income while the resident is in training. Income from a Resident Services training program, which is funded by HUD, is excluded.

Upon employment with the SNRHA, the full amount of employment income received by the person is counted.

G. AVERAGING INCOME

When annual income cannot be anticipated for a full 12 months, the SNRHA will average known sources of income that vary to compute an annual income.

If there are bonuses or overtime which the employer cannot anticipate for the next twelve months, bonuses and overtime received the previous year will be used.

Income from the previous year may be analyzed to determine the amount to anticipate when third-party or check-stub verification is not available.

If by averaging, an estimate can be made for those families whose income fluctuates from month to month; this estimate will be used so that the housing payment will not change from month to month.

The method used depends on the regularity, source and type of income.

H. MINIMUM INCOME

There is no minimum income requirement. Families who report zero income or extremely low income are required to complete a written certification every 180 calendar days which will be verified with EIV and all federal, state and local agencies and other sources, as appropriate, including credit checks, to verify income sources. If any increases in income are indicated in any of the above information or other verification at any time, then the family will be reviewed for an interim and the rent will be adjusted accordingly.

Families that report zero or extremely low income will be required to provide information in writing regarding their means of basic subsistence, such as food, utilities, transportation, and other subsistence expenses, in writing. SNRHA will require a print out of utility bills for three months to be submitted at interim evaluations for residents claiming zero or extremely low income.

If the family's expenses exceed their known income, the SNRHA will make inquiry of the head of household as to the nature of the family's accessible resources.

Utility bills provided by the family which show that the utilities are in another person's name will require further investigation as to whether there is an unauthorized member of the household.

Where credit reports show credit accounts open and payments current, SNRHA will take action to investigate the possibility of unreported or underreported income, fraud or program abuse.

The SNRHA will terminate the lease of families for fraud or offer a repayment agreement when documented evidence indicates the family has unreported or underreported income, which includes receiving funds from other parties or individuals that has not been reported. Failure to enter into a repayment agreement and pay the required 25% down payment within the established guidelines shall result in the termination of the lease. Repeating this action will result in termination of the lease.

I. INCOME OF PERSON PERMANENTLY/TEMPORARILY CONFINED TO NURSING HOME

If a family member is permanently confined to a hospital or nursing home and there is a family member left in the household, the SNRHA will calculate the income by using the following methodology and use the income figure which would result in a lower payment by the family:

Exclude the income of the person permanently confined to the nursing home and give the family no deductions for medical expenses of the confined family member after 180 days or when doctor certification of length of absence is received, whichever comes first.

If the family member is temporarily confined in a hospital or nursing home, SNRHA will calculate the TTP by:

Including the income of the person temporarily confined to the nursing home and giving the family the medical deductions allowable on behalf of the person in the nursing home, if they are an elderly or disabled family. For the purpose of this section, “temporarily” is defined as no more than 180 days.

J. REGULAR CONTRIBUTIONS AND GIFTS [24 CFR 5.609(a)(7)]

Regular contributions and gifts received from persons outside the household are counted as income for calculation of the tenant share of the rent.

Any contribution or gift received two consecutive months or more frequently will be considered a "regular" contribution or gift, unless the amount is less than $100 per year. This includes rent and utility payments made on behalf of the family and other cash or non-cash contributions provided on a regular basis. It does not include casual contributions or sporadic gifts. (See Chapter 7, Verification Procedures, for further definition.)

If the family's expenses exceed its known income, the SNRHA will question the family about contributions and gifts.

K. ALIMONY AND CHILD SUPPORT [24 CFR 5.609(a)(7)]

Regular alimony and child support payments are counted as income for calculation of the family's share of the rental payment.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will count court-awarded amounts for alimony and child support unless SNRHA verifies that: (1) the payments are not being made, and (2) the family has made reasonable efforts to collect amounts due, including filing with courts or agencies responsible for enforcing payments [HCV GB, pp. 5-23 and 5-47].

Families who do not have court-awarded alimony and child support awards are not required to seek a court award and are not required to take independent legal action to obtain collection.

SNRHA will accept verification that the family is receiving an amount less than the award if:

- SNRHA receives verification from the agency responsible for enforcement or collection.
- The family furnishes documentation of child support or alimony collection action filed through a child support enforcement/collection agency, or has filed an enforcement or collection action through an attorney.

When child support or alimony fluctuates, SNRHA will follow the policy below.

SNRHA Policy

If, by averaging, an estimate can be made for those families whose income fluctuates from month to month; this estimate will be used so as to reduce the number of interim adjustments.

1. SNRHA shall add the total of all payments listed for the past twelve months. The total shall then be considered anticipated income.
2. When verification documents from the DA office indicated no payment for more than 60 days from the date of the printout (upon receipt of verification), no income will be anticipated from child support/alimony. Participants are required to report all changes within 10 calendar days in writing including when child support/alimony is not received and/or starts.

L. LUMP-SUM RECEIPTS [24 CFR 5.609(b)(5), (c)]

Lump-sum additions to Family assets, such as inheritances, insurance payments (including payments under health and accident insurance and worker's compensation), capital gains, and settlement for personal or property losses, are not included in income but may be included in assets, if the amount has been invested in an allowable asset.

Lump-sum payments caused by delays in processing periodic payments such as unemployment or welfare assistance are counted as income. Lump sum payments from

Social Security or SSI are excluded from income, but any amount remaining will be considered an asset. Deferred periodic payments which have accumulated due to a dispute will be treated the same as periodic payments which are deferred due to delays in processing.

In order to determine amount of retroactive tenant rent that the family owes as a result of the lump sum receipt, the SNRHA will calculate retroactively.

Retroactive Calculation Methodology

The SNRHA will go back to the date the lump-sum payment was received, but never further back than the date of admission.

The SNRHA will determine the amount of income for each certification period, including the lump sum, and recalculate the tenant rent for each certification period to determine the amount due the SNRHA.

At the SNRHA's option, the SNRHA may enter into a Payment Agreement with the family.

The amount owed by the family is a collectible debt even if the family becomes unassisted.

The family's attorney fees may be deducted from lump-sum payments when computing annual income if the attorney's efforts have recovered a lump-sum compensation, and the recovery paid to the family does not include an additional amount in full satisfaction of the attorney fees.

M. CONTRIBUTIONS TO RETIREMENT FUNDS - ASSETS

Contributions to company retirement/pension funds are handled as follows:

While an individual is employed, count as assets only amounts the family can withdraw without retiring or terminating employment.

After retirement or termination of employment, count any amount the employee elects to receive as a lump sum.

N. ASSETS DISPOSED OF FOR LESS THAN FAIR MARKET VALUE

The SNRHA must count assets disposed of for less than fair market value during the two years preceding certification or reexamination. In calculating total assets, the SNRHA will count the difference between the market value and the actual payment received.

Assets disposed of as a result of foreclosure or bankruptcy is not considered to be assets disposed of for less than fair market value. Assets disposed of as a result of a divorce or separation is not considered to be assets disposed of for less than fair market value.

The SNRHA's minimum threshold for counting assets disposed of for less than Fair

Market value is $5000. If the total value of assets disposed of within the two-year period is less than $5000, they will not be considered an asset.

O. CHILD CARE EXPENSES

Not reimbursable child care expenses for children under 13 may be deducted from annual income if they enable an adult to work or attend school full time, or to actively seek employment.

In the case of a child attending private school, only after-hours care can be counted as child care expenses.

Child care expenses cannot be allowed as a deduction if there is an adult household member capable of caring for the child who can provide the child care. Examples of those adult members who would be considered unable to care for the child include:

The abuser in a documented child abuse situation, or

A person with disabilities or older person unable to take care of a small child, as verified by a reliable knowledgeable source, or

Can provide proof that the adult member is searching for a job (maximum time allowed for search is 10 hours per week.)

An allowable deduction for child care expenses is based on the following guidelines:

Child care to work: The maximum child care expense allowed must be less than the amount earned by the person enabled to work. The "person enabled to work" will be the adult member of the household who earns the least amount of income from working.

Child care for school: The number of hours claimed for child care may not exceed the number of hours the family member is attending school, including reasonable travel time to and from school.

Amount of Expense: The SNRHA will survey the local care providers in the community and collect data as a guideline. If the hourly rate materially exceeds the guideline, the SNRHA may calculate the allowance using the guideline.

Child Care Verification:

SNRHA will send out via mail to the child care provider a 3rd party verification, which will need to be completed, showing the name, age of children, hours and days watched along with amount charged. Verification is to include provider's license number or tax identification number if they are a licensed agency. Private providers will need to provide a social security number and have the form notarized.

No other form of verification will be accepted but that of the Housing Authority.

Secondary verification after attempting orals will be receipts.

P. MEDICAL EXPENSES [24 CFR 5.603]

When it is unclear in the HUD rules as to whether or not to allow an item as a medical expense, IRS Publication 502 will be used as a guide.

Persons with a Medicare prescription drug plan may be required to pay a premium and this premium will be counted as a medical expense.

Prescriptions not covered by the Medicare prescription drug plan will be counted toward the sum of allowable medical expense.

Nonprescription medicines must be doctor-recommended in order to be considered a medical expense.

Nonprescription medicines will be counted toward medical expenses for families who qualify if the family furnishes legible receipts.

Acupressure, acupuncture and related herbal medicines, and chiropractic services will be considered allowable medical expenses.

O. PRORATION OF ASSISTANCE FOR "MIXED" FAMILIES [24 CFR 5.520]

Applicability

Prorating of assistance must be offered to any "mixed" applicant or participant family. A "mixed" family is one that includes at least one U.S. citizen or eligible immigrant and any number of ineligible members.

Prorated Assistance Calculation

Prorated assistance will be calculated by subtracting the total tenant payment from the applicable maximum rent for the unit the family occupies to determine the Family Maximum Subsidy. The family's TTP will be calculated by:

Dividing the family maximum subsidy by the number of persons in the family to determine Member Maximum Subsidy.

Multiplying the member maximum subsidy by the number of eligible family members to determine Eligible Subsidy.

Subtracting the amount of eligible subsidy from the applicable maximum rent for the unit the family occupies to get the family's revised total tenant payment.

R. INCOME CHANGES RESULTING FROM WELFARE PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

The SNRHA will not reduce the public housing rent for families whose welfare assistance is reduced specifically because of:

fraud; or

failure to participate in an economic self-sufficiency program; or

noncompliance with a work activities requirement

However, the SNRHA will reduce the rent if the welfare assistance reduction is a result of:

The expiration of a lifetime time limit on receiving benefits; or

A situation where the family has complied with welfare program requirements but cannot or has not obtained employment, such as:

The family has complied with welfare program requirements, but the durational time limit, such as a cap on the length of time a family can receive benefits, causes the family to lose their welfare benefits.

Verification Before Denying a Request to Reduce Rent

The SNRHA will obtain written verification from the welfare agency stating that the family's benefits have been reduced for fraud or noncompliance before denying the family's request for rent reduction.

Cooperation Agreements

The SNRHA will attempt to develop a written cooperation agreement in place with the local welfare agency which assists the SNRHA in obtaining the necessary information regarding welfare sanctions.

The SNRHA has taken a proactive approach to culminating an effective working relationship between the SNRHA and the local welfare agency for the purpose of targeting economic self-sufficiency programs throughout the community that are available to public housing residents.

The SNRHA and the local welfare agency have mutually agreed to notify each other of any economic self-sufficiency and/or other appropriate programs or services that would benefit public housing residents.

S. UTILITY ALLOWANCE AND UTILITY REIMBURSEMENT PAYMENTS

If the cost of utilities (excluding telephone) is not included in the tenant rent, a utility allowance will be deducted from the total tenant payment. The utility allowance is intended to help defray the cost of utilities not included in the rent. The allowances are based on the monthly cost of reasonable consumption utilities in an energy conservative household, not on a family's actual consumption.

A survey of utility rate changes applicable to the agency's jurisdiction will be made annually and the Schedule of Tenant-Paid Utility Allowances and related services will be periodically adjusted by the agency in accordance with the results of the survey. Utility allowances may be adjusted upward or downward, or remain the same, dependent upon the most recent data regarding overall consumption and rates for the larger community (not just the public housing community).

When the utility allowance exceeds the family's total tenant payment, the SNRHA will provide a utility reimbursement payment for the family each month. The check will be made out directly to the tenant.

Resident-Paid Utilities

The following requirements apply to residents living in developments with resident-paid utilities or applicants being admitted to such developments:

If a resident or applicant is unable to get utilities connected because of a previous balance owed to the utility company, the resident/applicant will not be permitted to move into a unit with resident paid utilities. This may mean that a current resident cannot transfer or that an applicant cannot be admitted.

Paying the utility bill is the resident's obligation under the lease. Failure to pay utilities is grounds for eviction.

T. EXCESS UTILITY PAYMENTS

Residents in units where the SNRHA pays the utilities may be charged for excess utilities if additional appliances or equipment are used in the unit. This charge shall be applied as specified in the lease. [24CFR 966.4(b)(2)]

The SNRHA expects the resident to take every effort to ensure that utility consumption will be reasonable and in compliance with acceptable standards of usage applicable to unit and family size. If use of utilities is determined to be excessive, SNRHA will require payment for the amount of usage that is deemed to be excessive. Excessive utility usage will be determined if the individually metered utility monthly bill exceeds the approved utility allowance for the unit size by 30%. Payment for excessive utility usage will become due and payable on the first day of the second month following the month in which the charges are incurred, except at termination of lease when all charges are considered due and payable. In the case of water bills, usage will be based on the average unit size consumption.

Authority for Family to Select

The SNRHA shall provide for each family residing in a public housing unit to elect annually whether the rent paid by such family shall be 1) determined based on family income or 2) the flat rent. The SNRHA may not at any time fail to provide both such rent options for any public housing unit owned, assisted or operated by the SNRHA.

Annual choice: The SNRHA shall provide for families residing in public housing units to elect annually whether to pay income-based or flat rent. Except for financial hardship cases, the family may not be offered the rent choice more than once per year.

SNRHA will provide each family the following written information:

- Policy on switching types of rent in circumstances of hardship.
- The dollar amounts of tenant rent for the family under each option.
- If the family chose a flat rent for the previous year, the SNRHA will provide the amount of income-based rent for the subsequent year.
- Only the year the SNRHA conducts an income reexamination or if the family specifically requests it and submits updated income information. For a family that chooses the flat rent option, the SNRHA must conduct a reexamination of family income at least once every three years.
- The flat rent is based on the fair market rent. The SNRHA records must show how the SNRHA determines flat rents in accordance with its method and document flat rents offered to families.
- The SNRHA will not pay a utility reimbursement for a family that has chosen to pay a flat rent.
- For families paying income-based rent, SNRHA may choose to pay utility reimbursements either to the family, or directly to the utility supplier. If the PHA elects to pay the utility supplier, the SNRHA must first notify the family of the amount of utility reimbursement paid to the supplier.

Allowable Rent Structures

Flat Rents

The SNRHA has established, for each dwelling unit in public housing, a flat rental amount for the dwelling unit, which:

Is based on an amount no less than 80% of the applicable FMR established under 8 ( c ) of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937, in accordance with HUD Notice PIH 2014-07.

The SNRHA shall review the income of families paying flat rent not less than once every three years.

Income-Based Rents

The monthly total tenant payment amount for a family shall be an amount, as verified by the SNRHA that does not exceed the greatest of the following amounts:

30 percent of the family's monthly adjusted income;

10 percent of the family's monthly income; or

The SNRHA's minimum TTP of $50.00.

Switching Rent Determination Methods Because of Hardship Circumstances

In the case of a family that has elected to pay the SNRHA's flat rent, the SNRHA shall immediately provide for the family to pay rent in the amount determined under income-based rent, during the period for which such choice was made, upon a determination that the family is unable to pay the flat rent because of financial hardship, including:

Situations in which the income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstances, loss of or reduction of employment, death in the family, and reduction in or loss of income of other assistance;

An increase, because of changed circumstances, in the family's expenses for medical costs, child care, transportation, education, or similar items; and

Such other situations as may be determined by the SNRHA.

All hardship situations will be verified.

The rental policy developed by the SNRHA encourages and rewards employment and self-sufficiency.

Annual Reexamination

Within 120 days in advance of the annual reexamination, the family will be sent a form from the SNRHA, on which the family will indicate whether they choose flat rent or income-based rent. The SNRHA form will state what the flat rent would be, and an estimate, based on current information, what the family's income-based rent would be.

If the family indicates they choose flat rent, the form will be retained in the tenant file.

If the family indicates they choose income-based rent, a reexamination appointment will be scheduled according to SNRHA policy.

V. SNRHA'S FLAT RENT METHODOLOGY

The SNRHA has set a flat rent for each bedroom size within the SNRHA's public housing inventory, based on an amount no less than 80% of the applicable FMR established under 8 ( c ) of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937, in accordance with HUD Notice PIH 2014-07.

The SNRHA's flat rents have been established using the following methodology:

Chapter 7

VERIFICATION

INTRODUCTION

The SNRHA must verify all information that is used to establish the family's eligibility and level of assistance and is required to obtain the family's consent to collect the information. Applicants and program participants must cooperate with the verification process as a condition of receiving assistance. The SNRHA must not pass on the cost of verification to the family.

The SNRHA will follow the verification guidance provided by HUD in PIH Notice 2013-04 Verification Guidance and any subsequent guidance issued by HUD. This chapter summarizes those requirements and provides supplementary SNRHA policies.

Part I describes the general verification process. More detailed requirements related to individual factors are provided in subsequent parts including family information (Part II), income and assets (Part III), and mandatory deductions (Part IV).

Verification policies, rules and procedures will be modified as needed to accommodate persons with disabilities. All information obtained through the verification process will be handled in accordance with the records management policies of the SNRHA.

PART I: GENERAL VERIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

7-I.A. FAMILY CONSENT TO RELEASE OF INFORMATION

The family must supply any information that the SNRHA or HUD determines is necessary to the administration of the program and must consent to SNRHA verification of that information

Consent Forms

It is required that all adult applicants and participants sign form HUD-9886, Authorization for Release of Information. The purpose of form HUD-9886 is to facilitate automated data collection and computer matching from specific sources and provides the family's consent only for the specific purposes listed on the form. HUD and the SNRHA may collect information from State Wage Information Collection Agencies (SWICAs) and current and former employers of adult family members. Only HUD is authorized to collect information directly from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the Social Security Administration (SSA). Adult family members must sign other consent forms as needed to collect information relevant to the family's eligibility and level of assistance.

The family will be required to complete the SNRHA release of information, in addition to the Debts Owed (HUD 52675) and HUD 92006

Penalties for Failing to Consent

If any family member who is required to sign a consent form fails to do so, the SNRHA will deny admission to applicants and terminate assistance of participants. The family may request an informal review (applicants) or informal hearing (participants) in accordance with SNRHA procedures.

7-I.B. OVERVIEW OF VERIFICATION

REQUIREMENTS HUD's Verification Hierarchy

HUD authorizes the SNRHA to use six methods to verify family information and specifies the circumstances in which each method will be used. In general HUD requires the SNRHA to use the most reliable form of verification that is available and to document the reasons when the SNRHA uses a lesser form of verification.

SNRHA Policy

Upfront Income Verification (UIV): The verification of income at admission or before or during a family reexamination, through an independent source that systematically and uniformly maintains income information in computerized form for a large number of individuals. HUD's Enterprise Income Verification System (EIV) is considered to be this method. This is currently not available for applicants.

NOTICE: PIH-2013-04 (HA) Guidance on Verification of Excluded Income.

Purpose:

This notice provides clarification and guidance on the verification requirements of income excluded from the

The SNRHA Public Housing Program in an effort to reduce administrative burden, will utilize the provision in the HUD Notice PIH-2013-04 as follows:

HUD has provided two categories of excluded income: fully excluded and partially excluded. Each category has different verification requirement.

Fully Excluded Income:

Income that is fully excluded means the entire amount qualifies to be excluded from the annual income determination. For fully excluded income, the SNRHA is not required to:

- Verify the income in accordance with the HUD-prescribed verification hierarchy;
- Document in the tenant file why third party verification was not available as required by 24 CFR 960.259(c)(i) and 24 CFR 982.516(a)(2); and
- Report the income in Section 7 of the form HUD-50058.

SNRHA may accept an applicant or participant's self-certification as verification of fully excluded income. The SNRHA's application and reexamination documentation, which is signed by all adult family members, may serve as the self-certification of the fully excluded income. SNRHA has the option of elevating the verification requirements if necessary, to determine if a source of income qualifies for a full exclusion.

Examples of common fully excluded income categories that are verifiable through applicant or participant self-certification are:

- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits, formerly known as food stamps.
- Income from a live-in aide.

For a complete list of income exclusions, see 24 CFR 5.609(c).

5. Partially Excluded Income:

Income that is partially excluded means that only a certain portion of the income reported by the family qualifies to be excluded, while the remainder must be included when determining the family's annual income.

For partially excluded income, SNRHA is required to:

- Comply with HUD-prescribed verification requirements and all applicable regulations pertaining to
- the determination of annual income; and
- Report the income in Section 7 of the form HUD-50058.
- Examples of partially excluded income that are subject to regular verification requirements include:
- The Department of Veterans Affairs "Aid and Attendance" benefits – in accordance with 24 CFR 5.609(c)(4), these benefits may be excluded from income if they are used "specifically for, or in reimbursement of, the cost of medical expenses for any family member." Live-in or periodic medical assistance and services of doctors and health care professionals are among the services that may be counted as medical expenses. The SNRHA must verify the amount provided for aid and attendance medical expenses and the amount actually being used by the veteran for such expenses.

Any portion of the benefit not used for such expenses would continue to be counted as income by the SNRHA when determining the family's annual income.

- Earnings in excess of $480 for full-time students 18 years old or older (24 CFR 5.609(c)(11) – in order to determine the amount of earnings to include in the calculation of the family's annual income, the SNRHA must verify the amount of employment income for these family members.

The Verification Hierarchy. SNRHA shall begin with the highest level of verification Techniques PHAs are required to access the EIV system and obtain an Income Report for each household. The SNRHA shall maintain the Income Report in the tenant file along with the form HUD-50058 and other supporting documentation to support income and rent determinations for all mandatory annual reexaminations of family income and composition.

If the Income Report does not contain any employment and income information for the family, the SNRHA shall attempt the next lower level verification technique, as noted in the below:

| Level | Verification Technique                                                                                                                                  | Ranking                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

Third Party Verification Techniques

Upfront Income Verification (UIV) (Level 6/5): The verification of income before or during a family reexamination, through an independent source that systematically and uniformly maintains income information in computerized form for a number of individuals. It should be noted that the EIV system is available to all PHAs as a UIV technique. PHAs are encouraged to continue using other non-HUD UIV tools, such as The Work Number (an automated verification system) and state government databases, to validate tenant-reported income.

Written Third Party Verification (Level 4): An original or authentic document generated by a third party source dated either within the 60-day period preceding the reexamination or PHA request date. Such documentation may be in the possession of the tenant (or applicant), and is commonly referred to as tenant-provided documents. It is the Department's position that such tenant-provided documents are written third party verification since these documents originated from a third party source. The PHA may, at its discretion, reject any tenant-provided documents and follow up directly with the source to obtain necessary verification of information.

Examples of acceptable tenant-provided documentation (generated by a third party source) include, but are not limited to: pay stubs, payroll summary report, employer notice/letter of hire/termination, SSA benefit verification letter, bank statements, child support payment stubs, welfare benefit letters and/or printouts, and unemployment monetary benefit notices. Current acceptable tenant-provided documents must be used for income and rent determinations.

The SNRHA shall require two current and consecutive pay stubs for determining annual income from wages. For new income sources, two pay stubs shall be required that are consecutive or a new hire letter with date of hire, wages and hours. The PHA should project income based on the information from a traditional written third party verification form or the best available information.

Note: Documents older than 60 days (from the PHA interview/determination or request date) is acceptable for confirming effective dates of income.

Written Third Party Verification Form (Level 3): Also, known as traditional third party verification. A standardized form to collect information from a third party source. The form is completed by the third party by hand (in writing or typeset). PHAs send the form directly to the third party source by mail, fax, or email.

It is the Department's position that the administrative burden and risk associated with use of the traditional third party verification form may be reduced by PHAs relying on acceptable documents that are generated by a third party, but in the possession of and provided by the tenant (or applicant). Many documents in the possession of the tenant are derived from third party sources (i.e. employers, federal, state and/or local agencies, banks, etc.).

The Department recognizes that third party verification request forms sent to third party sources often are not returned. In other instances, the person who completes the verification form may provide incomplete information; or some tenants may collude with the third party source to provide false information; or the tenant intercepts the form and provides false information.

The Department requires PHAs to rely on documents that originate from a third party source's computerized system and/or database, as this process reduces the likelihood of incorrect or falsified information being provided on the third party verification request form. The use of acceptable tenant-provided documents, which originate from a third party source, will improve the integrity of information used to determine a family's income and rent and ultimately reduce improper subsidy payments. This verification process will also streamline the income verification process.

Oral Third Party Verification (Level 2): Independent verification of information by contacting the individual income/expense source(s), as identified through the UIV technique or identified by the family, via telephone or in-person visit. PHA staff should document in the tenant file, the date and time of the telephone call (or visit to the third party), the name of the person contacted and telephone number, along with the confirmed information.

This verification method is commonly used in the event that the independent source does not respond to the PHA's faxed, mailed, or e- mailed request for information in a reasonable time frame, i.e., ten (10) business days.

Non-Third Party Verification Technique - Tenant Declaration (Level 1): The tenant submits an affidavit or notarized statement of reported income and/or expenses to the PHA. This verification method should be used as a last resort when the PHA has not been successful in obtaining information via all other verification techniques. When the PHA relies on tenant declaration, the PHA must document in the tenant file why third party verification was not available.

Exceptions to Third Party Verification Requirements

HUD is aware that in some situations, third party verification is not available for a variety of reasons. Oftentimes, the PHA may have made numerous attempts to obtain the required verifications with no success, or it may not be cost effective to obtain third party verification of income, assets, or expenses, when the impact on total tenant payment is minimal. In these cases, the PHA is required to document in the family file the reason(s) why third party verification was not available.

The exception to third party verification can be found at 24 CFR §960.259(c)(1) and §982.516(a)(2), which states, "The PHA must obtain and document in the family file third party verification of the following factors, or must document in the file why third party verification was not available."

Third party verification requirements. In accordance with 24 CFR §960.259(c)(1) and 24 CFR §982.516(a)(2) for the Public Housing and the HCV programs, respectively, the PHA must obtain and document in the tenant file third party verification of the following factors, or must document in the tenant file why third party verification was not available: (i) reported family annual income; (ii) the value of assets; (iii) expenses related to deductions from annual income; and (iv) other factors that affect the determination of adjusted income.

How to comply with and reduce administrative burden of third party verification requirements of family annual income . PHAs can comply with and reduce administrative burden of third party verification requirements for employment, wage, and unemployment compensation and social security benefits, and any other information that is verifiable using EIV by:

- a) Reviewing the EIV Income Report to confirm/validate tenant-reported income; and;
- b) Printing and maintaining an EIV Income Report (or an EIV Individual Control Number (ICN) page for interim reexaminations as prescribed in Section 12 of this Notice) in the tenant file; and
- c) Obtaining current acceptable tenant-provided documentation to supplement EIV information; and
- d) Using current tenant-provided documentation and/or third party verification to calculate annual income.

Note: Social Security benefit information in EIV is updated every three months. If the tenant agrees with the EIV-reported benefit information, PHAs do not need to obtain or request a benefit verification letter from the tenant. See PIH Notice 2010-03 for guidance on verifying Social Security benefit income through the EIV system.

The PHA may also reduce the administrative burden of obtaining third party verification by relying on acceptable documents that are generated by a third party, but provided by the tenant. Many documents in the possession of the tenant are derived from third party sources (i.e. employers, federal, state and/or local agencies, banks, etc.).

When the PHA is required to request written third party verification The PHA must request written third party verification under the following circumstances:

- a. When the tenant disputes the EIV information and is unable to provide acceptable documentation to support his/her dispute
- b. When the PHA requires additional information that is not available in EIV and /or the tenant is unable to provide the PHA with current acceptable tenant-provided documentation. Examples of additional information, includes but is not limited to:
  - i. Effective dates of income (i.e. employment, unemployment compensation, or social security benefits)
  - ii. For new employment: pay rate, number of hours worked per

- week, pay frequency, etc.
- iii. Confirmation of change in circumstances (i.e. reduced hours, reduced rate of pay, temporary leave of absence, etc.)

Note: 24 CFR §5.236(a), prohibits PHAs from taking adverse action based solely on EIV

Requirements for Acceptable Documents

SNRHA Policy

Any documents used for verification must be the original (not photocopies) and generally must be dated within 60 calendar days of the date they are provided to the SNRHA. The documents must not be damaged, altered or in any way illegible. All tenant supplied documents should be dated no more than 60 days before the effective date of the family's reexamination or SNRHA's request date, if the document represents the most recent scheduled report from a source. For example, if the holder of a pension annuity provides semi-annual reports, the SNRHA would accept the most recent report.

Print-outs from web pages are considered original documents.

Pay stubs which must be current and consecutive when used with EIV and must not be older than 60 days from the request date or 60 days prior to the annual recertification effective date. Four consecutive pay stubs will be required when using EIV for annuals and two for new hire verifications..

Examples of acceptable tenant-provided documentation (generated by a third party source) include, but are not limited to: pay stubs, payroll summary reports, child support payment stubs, welfare benefit letters and/or printouts, and unemployment monetary benefit notices, bank statements, and local agencies, employer letter/notices. Current acceptable tenant-provided documents must be used for income and rent determinations. The SNRHA is required to obtain a minimum of two pay stubs for determining annual income from wages. For new income sources or when two pay stubs are not available, the PHA should project income based on the information from a traditional written third party verification form or the best available information.

Note: Documents that are older than 60 days (from the date SNRHA interview/determination or request date) is acceptable for confirming effective dates of income.

The SNRHA staff member who views the original document must make a photocopy. Any family self-certifications must be made in a format acceptable to the SNRHA and must be signed in the presence of a SNRHA representative or SNRHA notary public.

File Documentation

The SNRHA must document in the file how the figures used in income and rent calculations were determined. All verification attempts, information obtained, and decisions reached during the verification process will be recorded in the family's file in sufficient detail to demonstrate that the SNRHA has followed all of the verification policies set forth in this plan. The record should be sufficient to enable a staff member or HUD reviewer to understand the process followed and conclusions reached.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will document, in the family file, the following: Reported family annual income

Value of assets

Expenses related to deductions from annual income

Other factors influencing the adjusted income or income-based rent determination

When the SNRHA is unable to obtain 3rd party verification, the SNRHA will document in the family file the reason that third-party verification was not available (including oral verification attempt) and will place a photocopy of any original document(s) in the family file. [24 CFR 960.259(c)(1); VG, p.15]

Special Verification Processes:

HUD NOTICE PIH 2013-03 (HA):

Purpose: “This Notice establishes temporary guidelines for public housing agencies (SNRHA) in fulfilling certain Public Housing (PH) and Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) program requirements during this period of decreased resources available to SNRHA. These guidelines are intended to facilitate the ability of SNRHA to continue, without interruption and with minimal burden, the delivery of rental assistance to eligible families in their communities. The temporary provisions established by this Notice will be available to SNRHA until March 31, 2014.

The economic downturn that commenced in 2008 and which continues has only increased the need for housing assistance. Increased demand for housing assistance without corresponding increased resources strains the operations of SNRHA, and jeopardizes their ability to assist families at a time when families most need housing assistance. Increasing administrative flexibility should allow SNRHA to deliver rental assistance more efficiently and expeditiously. Reduction of administrative burden is anticipated to allow SNRHA to better manage their programs within current allocated budget authority. The temporary guidelines are also designed to increase efficiencies, minimizing the use of resources for program administration. HUD intends to pursue more permanent changes to increase flexibility and reduce administrative burden and will be informed by SNRHA’ use of the temporary compliance provisions of this Notice.” PIH Notice 2013-3

In accordance with HUD Notice PIH 2013-3, the SNRHA Public Housing Occupancy department shall process tenant income verification as follows:.

SNRHA, PH Ops may choose to use either actual past income or projected future income. Currently, annual income includes income that is anticipated to be received from a source outside the family during the 12-month period following the effective date of admission or annual reexamination. The Notice provides SNRHA with the option of determining annual income based on past actual income received or earned within the last 12 months.

For the purpose of verifying income reported in HUD's Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system, the SNRHA may choose to use actual past income by utilizing the most recent 12 months of income information available in EIV. Because this EIV report will give actual earnings data verified by a third party, the program participant will no longer be required to provide third party documentation (e.g., paystubs, payroll summary report, unemployment monetary benefit notice).

If there has been a change in circumstances for a tenant, or a tenant disputes the EIV reported income information and is unable to provide acceptable documentation to resolve the dispute, the SNRHA must request written third-party verification.

For example, if a program participant lost his/her job, changed jobs, or reduced their hours in the months subsequent to the time period covered in EIV, the SNRHA must use, at the participant's request, the more recent income information verified by participant provided third-party documentation (e.g., paystubs, payroll summary report, unemployment monetary benefit notice) or through written third-party verification, which reflects the new or current work circumstance.

SNRHA must continue to verify income from sources not available in EIV. However, SNRHA must use the same time period for both wage and non-wage income. For example, if SNRHA uses EIV information from July 2011 to June 2012 for the purpose of verifying income from wages, the SNRHA must use the same time period for any non-wage income. This method may only be used if the SNRHA is able to align other non-wage income source dates with EIV.

Allow households to self-certify as to having assets of less than $5,000.

Tenants with assets below $5,000 typically generate minimal income from these assets which results in small changes to tenant rental payments. However, SNRHA spend significant time verifying such assets which strains SNRHA budgets, and leads to increased staff errors. The notice has made provisions intended to simplify the requirements associated with determining a participant's annual income (24 CFR 5.609(b)(3), 982.516(a)(2)(ii), 960.259(c)).

Families with assets are required to report all assets annually. The amount of interest earned on those assets is included as income used to calculate the tenant's rent obligation. Currently, where the family has net family assets in excess of $5,000, annual income includes the greater of the actual income derived from all net family assets or a percentage of the value of such assets based on the current passbook savings rate.

This Notice allows a SNRHA to accept a family's declaration of the amount of assets of less than $5,000, and the amount of income expected to be received from those assets. The SNRHA's application and reexamination documentation, which is signed by all adult family members, can serve as the declaration. Where the family has net family assets equal to or less than $5000, the SNRHA does not need to request supporting documentation (e.g. bank statements) from the family to confirm the assets or the amount of income expected to be received from those assets. Where the family has net family assets in excess of $5000, the SNRHA must obtain supporting documentation (e.g. bank statements) from the family to confirm the assets. Any assets will continue to be reported on HUD Form 50058.

Allow optional streamlined annual reexaminations for elderly families and disabled families on fixed incomes.

SNRHA is statutorily required to verify income and calculate rent annually, including for elderly and disabled families on fixed incomes. The notice states that the requirement to undertake the complete process for income verification and rent determination for families on fixed incomes is not necessary given the infrequency of changes to their incomes. Further, this requirement requires considerable staff time and SNRHA resources. The notice provides simplification of the requirements associated with determining the annual income of participants on fixed incomes (24 CFR 982.516, 960.257).

SNRHA will conduct a streamlined reexamination of income for elderly families and disabled families when 100 percent of the family's income consists of fixed income. In a streamlined reexamination, SNRHA will recalculate family incomes by applying any published cost of living adjustments to the previously verified income amount.

For purposes of this process, the term 'fixed income' includes income from:

1. Social Security payments to include Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and Supplemental Security Disability Insurance (SSDI);
2. Federal, State, local, and private pension plans; and
3. Other periodic payments received from annuities, insurance policies, retirement funds, disability or death benefits, and other similar types of periodic receipts that are of substantially the same amounts from year to year.

7-I.C. UP-FRONT INCOME VERIFICATION (UIV)

HUD strongly recommends the use of up-front income verification (UIV). UIV is "the verification of income, before or during a family reexamination, through an independent source that systematically and uniformly maintains income information in computerized form for a large number of individuals" [VG, p. 7]. UIV includes the HUD EIV system and other upfront verification tools such as the Work Number.

HUD allows SNRHA to use the EIV information in conjunction with family-provided documents to anticipate income.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will inform all applicants and participants of its use of the following UIV resources during the admission and reexamination process:

HUD's Enterprise Income Verification System

(EIV)

The SNRHA must restrict access to and safeguard UIV data in accordance with HUD guidance on security procedures, as issued and made available by HUD.

There may be legitimate differences between the information provided by the family and EIV-generated information. No adverse action can be taken against a family until the SNRHA has independently verified the EIV information and the family has been granted an opportunity to contest any adverse findings through the informal review/hearing process of the SNRHA.

Use of HUD's Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) System

HUD's EIV system contains data showing earned income, unemployment benefits, Social Security and SSI benefits for participant families. HUD requires the SNRHA to use the EIV system when available. The following policies will apply when the SNRHA has access to HUD's EIV system.

The EIV system contains two main components: tenant income data reports and "exceeds threshold" reports.

Tenant Income Data (TID) Reports (EIV)

The data shown on TID reports is updated quarterly. Data may be between 3 and 6 months old at the time reports are generated.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will obtain EIV reports for annual reexaminations on a monthly basis. SNRHA shall also obtain EIV reports for interims. Reports will be generated as part of the regular reexamination process.

EIV reports will be compared to family-provided information as part of the annual reexamination process. EIV reports may also be used to meet the regulatory requirement for third party verification, as described above. Policies for resolving discrepancies between EIV reports and family-provided information will be resolved as described in Chapter 5.I.D. and in this chapter.

EIV reports will be retained in participant's files with the applicable annual or interim reexamination documents.

When the SNRHA determines through EIV reports and third party verification that a family has concealed or under-reported income, corrective action will be taken pursuant to the policies in the Chapter Program Integrity.

Income Discrepancy Resolution

The SNRHA shall reconcile income discrepancies.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA shall proceed as follows:

- SNRHA shall identify underreported income and/or unreported income sources; No adverse action may be taken based solely on EIV data. In order to protect any individual whose records are being used in a matching program, no recipient agency, non-Federal agency, or source agency may suspend, terminate, reduce or make a final denial of any financial assistance or payment under a Federal Benefit program to such individual, as a result of information produced by such matching program, until the agency has independently verified the information;
- Review current and historical 50058s;
- Verify effective dates of new and terminated income sources; Discuss the income discrepancy with the tenant;
- View past and current interim and annual recertification documents in the tenant's file;
- Obtain additional documents from the tenant and/or third party (if necessary);
- Obtain Social Security Earnings Statement (SSA Form 7004) for historical wage earnings (Form available on HUD's website) for retroactive rent calculations.

EIV Identity Verification

The EIV system verifies tenant identities against SSA records. These records are compared to PIC data for a match on Social Security number, name, and date of birth.

When identity verification for a participant fails, a message will be displayed within the EIV system and no income information will be displayed.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will identify participants whose identity verification has failed as part of the annual reexamination process.

The SNRHA will attempt to resolve PIC/SSA discrepancies by reviewing file documents. When the SNRHA determines that discrepancies exist due to SNRHA errors such as spelling errors or incorrect birth dates, the errors will be corrected promptly and correction transmitted to HUD.

Reasonable Effort and Timing

Unless third-party verification is not required as described herein, HUD requires the SNRHA to make an attempt to obtain third-party verification before using another form of verification [VG, p. 15].

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will diligently seek third-party verification using the chart above as guideline for order of verifications. If written 3rd party is required and is not received or available by the client, after 10 calendar days, staff will then attempt an oral verification if the written third party is not received. File narratives shall be documented whenever UIV or third party written is not used. Information received orally from third parties may be used either to clarify information provided in writing by the third party or as independent verification when written third-party verification is not received in a timely fashion.

The SNRHA may mail, fax, or e-mail third-party written verification requests and will accept third-party responses using any of these methods. The SNRHA will send a written request for verification to each required source within 5 business days of securing a family's authorization for the release of the information and give the source 10 calendar days to respond in writing. If a response has not been received by the 11th business day, the SNRHA will request third-party oral verification.

The SNRHA will make a minimum of two attempts, (one written and one oral, if needed) to obtain third-party verification. A record of each attempt to contact the third-party source (including no-answer calls) and all contacts with the source will be documented in the file. Regarding third-party oral verification, SNRHA staff will record in the family's file the name and title of the person contacted, the date of the conversation (or attempt), the telephone number used, and the facts provided.

When any source responds verbally to the initial written request for verification the SNRHA will accept the verbal response as oral verification but will also request that the source complete and return any verification forms that were provided.

Third-Party Written Verification

Third-party verification is used to verify information directly with the source. Third-party written verification forms will be sent and returned via first class mail or fax. The family will be required to sign an authorization for the information source to release the specified information.

Verifications received electronically directly from the source as well as items as noted above in the Chart( Including those provided directly from a clients) are considered third party written verifications.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will accept verifications in the form of computerized printouts, showing payments, faxed, mailed or received via upfront verification systems

directly from the following agencies:

- Social Security Administration -
- EIV Veterans Administration
- Welfare Assistance
- Unemployment Compensation Board
- City or County Courts
- Other State and Federal Offices, including HUD

The SNRHA will use computer printouts as well as other acceptable forms of third party verification that do not appear as altered and are on a business or other entity's letterhead, received directly from the family for calculation family's income. Staff must attempt third party verification when EIV nor family provided acceptable documentation is not available. If no response, then staff must attempt oral verifications and must document on the file narrative why third party was not used and complete an oral verification form. If the family disputes the information provided by the third party, the staff is to seek further clarification by phone with the third party. The information provided by the 3rd party is to prevail.

Third-Party Oral Verification

SNRHA Policy

Oral third-party verification will be used when written third-party verification is delayed; not returned within 10 calendar days or not possible. When third-party oral verification is used, staff will be required to complete an Oral Verification/Review of Documents form, noting with whom they spoke, the date of the conversation, and the facts provided. If oral third party verification is not available, the SNRHA will document the file narrative and utilize documents provided by the participant. If the oral is provided by telephone, the SNRHA must originate the call.

Review of Documents

SNRHA Policy

In the event that third-party written is not returned within 10 calendar days or oral verification is unavailable, or the information has not been verified by the third party within 10 calendar days, the SNRHA will notate the file narrative accordingly; ensure copies of documents requiring the third party verification are in file. Oral third party verification should be attempted prior to utilizing documents provided by the family as the primary source if the documents provide complete information and the file narrative must be documented.

All such documents, excluding government checks, will be photocopied and retained in the applicant file. In cases where documents are viewed which cannot be photocopied, staff viewing the document(s) will complete an Oral Verification/Review of Documents form.

The SNRHA will accept the following documents from the family provided that the document is such that tampering would be easily noted:

- Printed wage stubs
- Computer printouts from the employer
- Employer's letters and wage printouts
- Bank Statements
- Award Letters
- Pension Letters
- Signed letters (provided that the information is confirmed by phone)
- Other documents noted in this Chapter as acceptable verification

Although these documents will be accepted, the SNRHA will also mail third party verifications to the source; attempt upfront verification and use these documents only after there has been no response to the third party verification method.

The SNRHA will accept faxed documents.

The SNRHA will accept mail from the third party source.

The SNRHA will accept hand carried documents from clients as long as they do not appear as altered and provide required documentation regarding wages.

The SNRHA will not accept photocopies.

If third-party verification is received after documents have been accepted as provisional verification, and there is a discrepancy, the SNRHA will attempt to contact the verification provider by telephone to resolve the discrepancy. If the attempt to resolve the discrepancy by telephone is unsuccessful, the SNRHA will use the third party verification.

The SNRHA will not delay the processing of an application beyond 30 calendar days, except due to screening for criminal history, because a third party information provider does not return the verification in a timely manner. The next steps in the verification process shall be attempted after 10 calendar days, unless the family has been given an extension.

Self-Certification/Self-Declaration

When verification cannot be made by third-party verification, including oral verification or review of documents, families will be required to submit a self-certification.

SNRHA Policy

Self-certification means a statement under penalty of perjury, and the signature must be witnessed by SNRHA staff.

When Third-Party Information is Late

When third-party verification has been requested and the timeframes for submission have been exceeded, the SNRHA will use the information from documents on a provisional basis.

SNRHA Policy

If the SNRHA later receives third-party verification that differs from the amounts used in income and rent determinations and it is past the deadline for processing the reexamination, the SNRHA will conduct an interim reexamination to adjust the figures used for the reexamination, regardless of the SNRHA's interim reexamination policy, if needed.

When Third-Party Verification is not Required

Primary Documents

Third-party verification is not required when legal documents are the primary source, such as a birth certificate or other legal documentation of birth and for verification of checking/saving accounts.

Certain Assets and Expenses

The SNRHA will accept a self-certification from a family as verification of assets disposed of for less than fair market value.

The SNRHA will determine that third-party verification is not available if the asset or expense involves an insignificant amount, making it not cost-effective or reasonable to obtain third-party verification .

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will use review of documents in lieu of requesting third-party verification when the market value of an individual asset or an expense is less than $5,000 annually and the family has original documents that support the declared amount.

Certain Income, Asset and Expense Sources

The SNRHA will determine that third-party verification is not available when it is known that an income source does not have the ability to provide written or oral third-party verification. For example, the SNRHA will rely upon review of documents when the SNRHA determines that a third party's privacy rules prohibit the source from disclosing information.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA also will determine that third-party verification is not available when there is a service charge for verifying an asset or expense and the family has original documents that provide the necessary information.

If the family cannot provide original documents, the SNRHA will pay the service charge required to obtain third-party verification, unless it is not cost effective in which case a self-certification will be acceptable as the only means of verification. The cost of verification will not be passed on to the family.

The cost of postage and envelopes to obtain third-party verification of income, assets, and expenses is not an unreasonable cost.

RELEASE OF INFORMATION

Adult family members (age 18 and older) will be required to sign the HUD 9886 Release of Information/Privacy Act form. In addition, family members will be required to sign specific authorization forms when information is needed that is not covered by the HUD form 9886, Authorization for Release of Information/Privacy Act Notice. Additional release forms as developed by SNRHA are considered required forms that all applicants and participants must sign.

Each member requested to consent to the release of specific information will be provided with appropriate forms for their review and signature.

Family refusal to cooperate with the HUD prescribed verification system will result in denial of admission or termination of assistance because it is a family obligation to supply any information and to sign consent forms requested by the SNRHA or HUD.

COMPUTER MATCHING

Where allowed by HUD and/or other State or local agencies, computer matching will be done for upfront verifications.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will utilize the HUD established computer-based Tenant Eligibility Verification System (EIV) for obtaining Social Security benefits, Supplemental Security Income benefit history and tenant income discrepancy reports from the Social Security Administration. Additionally, to the extent possible, SNRHA will use the UIV systems to obtain upfront verification of wages and Child Support data systems for verification of child support when available.

When computer matching results in a discrepancy with information in the SNRHA records, the SNRHA will follow up with the family and verification sources to resolve this discrepancy. If the family has unreported or underreported income, SNRHA will follow the procedures in the Program Integrity Addendum of the Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy.

ITEMS TO BE VERIFIED

All income not specifically excluded by the regulations.

Full-time student status including High School students who are 18 or over.

Current assets including assets disposed of for less than fair market value in preceding two years. Child care expense where it allows an adult family member to be employed, search for employment, or to further his/her education.

Total un-reimbursed medical expenses of all family members in households whose head or spouse is elderly or disabled.

Un-reimbursed disability assistance expenses to include only those costs associated with attendant care or auxiliary apparatus for a disabled member of the family that allows an adult family member to be employed.

Disability for determination of preferences, allowances or deductions. Eligible immigrant status

Social Security Numbers for all family members who have been issued a social security number.

"Preference" status

Familial/Marital status when needed for head or spouse definition to determine deductions. Need for reasonable accommodations

Verification of sanctions by the Nevada Office of Human Services that TANF benefits have been reduced for either welfare fraud or failure to comply with economic self-sufficiency requirements.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will obtain written verification from the welfare agency stating that the family's benefits have been reduced for fraud or noncompliance with economic self-sufficiency requirements before denying the family's request for rent reduction. The verification will include the amount of the sanction and the duration.

VERIFICATION GUIDANCE [24 CFR 982.516]

This section defines the methods the SNRHA will use to verify various types of income.

Employment Income

SNRHA Policy

Verification forms request the employer to specify

the: Dates of employment

Amount and frequency of pay

Date of the last pay increase

Likelihood of change of employment status and effective date of any known salary increase during the next 12 months

Year to date earnings

Estimated income from overtime, tips, bonus pay expected during next 12 months

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. EIV with a minimum of 2 consecutive paystubs.
2. Third party written verification
Employment verification form completed by the employer
3. Oral third party
4. Review of documents
Check stubs or earning statements, which indicate the employee's gross pay, frequency of pay or year to date earnings. At least three (3) consecutive pay stubs are required when third party verification cannot be obtained.
5. W-2 forms and IRS Form 4506-T release
6. Self-certifications may be used for verifying self-employment income, or income from tips and other gratuities.

In cases where there are questions about the validity of information provided by the family, SNRHA will require the most recent federal income tax statements to be obtained via use of IRS Form 4506-T.

Social Security, Pensions, Supplementary Security Income (SSI), Disability Income

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. EIV
2. Benefit verification form completed by agency providing the benefits.
3. Award or benefit notification letters prepared and signed by the providing agency that is no more than 60 days old.

Unemployment Compensation

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. EIV
2. Verification form completed by the unemployment compensation agency.
3. Computer report electronically obtained or in hard copy, from unemployment office stating payment dates and amounts.
4. Payment stubs

Welfare Payments or General Assistance

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. Written statement from payment provider indicating the amount of grant/payment, start date of payments, family members, and anticipated changes in payment in the next 12 months.
2. Computer-generated Notice of Action.

Alimony or Child Support Payments

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. Print out received via 3rd party verification from the DA's office.
2. Copy of a separation or settlement agreement or a divorce decree stating amount and type of support and payment schedules.
3. A third party verification form completed by the person paying the support.
4. A letter from the person paying the support.
5. Copy of latest check and/or payment stubs from Court Trustee. SNRHA must record the date, amount, and number of the check if not photocopied.
6. Family's self-certification of amount received and of the likelihood of support payments being received in the future, or that support payments are not being received.

If payments are irregular, the family must provide:

A statement from the agency responsible for enforcing payments to show that the family has filed for enforcement.

A self-certification from the family indicating the amount(s) received.

A welfare notice of action showing amounts received by the DA –Child Support Division.

A written statement from an attorney certifying that a collection or enforcement action has been filed.

Net Income from a Business

SNRHA Policy

In order to verify the net income from a business, SNRHA will view IRS and financial documents from prior years and use this information to anticipate the income for the next 12 months.

Acceptable methods of verification include:

1. IRS Form 1040, including: Schedule C
(Small Business) Schedule E

(Rental Property Income)

Schedule F (Farm Income)

If accelerated depreciation was used on the tax return or financial statement, an accountant's calculation of depreciation expense, computed using straight-line depreciation rules.

2. Audited or unaudited financial statement(s) of the business.
3. Credit report or loan application.
4. Documents such as manifests, appointment books, cash books, bank statements, and receipts will be used as a guide for the prior six months (or lesser period if not in business for six months) to project income for the next 12 months. The family will be advised to maintain these documents in the future if they are not available.
5. Family's self-certification as to net income realized from the business during previous years.

Child Care Business

SNRHA Policy

The childcare provider must be 18 years of age or older.

If an applicant/participant is operating a licensed day care business, income will be verified as with any other business.

If the applicant/participant is operating a "cash and carry" operation (which may or may not be licensed), the SNRHA will require that the applicant/participant complete a form for each customer which indicates: name of person(s) whose child (children) is/are being cared for, phone number, number of hours child is being cared for, method of payment (check/cash), amount paid, and signature of person.

If the family has filed a tax return, the family will be required to provide it via Form IRS 4506-T.

If childcare services were terminated, a third-party verification will be sent to the parent whose child was cared for.

Recurring Gifts

SNRHA Policy

The family must furnish a self-certification, which contains the following information: The person who provides the gifts

The value of the gifts

The regularity (dates) of the gifts

The purpose of the gifts

SNRHA shall send out verifications to the donors.

Full-time Student Status

Only the first $480 of the earned income of full time students, other than head, co-head, or spouse, will be counted towards family income.

Financial aid, scholarships and grants received by students is not counted towards family income.

SNRHA Policy

Verification of full time student status includes:

Written verification from the registrar's office or other school official.

School records indicating enrollment for sufficient number of credits to be considered a full-time student by the educational institution. (State of Nevada: 12 credits)

VERIFICATION OF ASSETS

Family Assets

The SNRHA will require the information necessary to determine the current cash value of the family's assets, (the net amount the family would receive if the asset were converted to cash).

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable verification may include any of the following:

Verification forms, letters, or documents from a financial institution or broker. Passbooks, checking account statements, certificates of deposit, bonds, or financial statements completed by a financial institution or broker.

Quotes from a stock broker or realty agent as to net amount family would receive if they liquidated securities or real estate.

Real estate taxes statements if the approximate current market value can be reduced from assessment.

Financial statements for business assets.

Copies of closing documents showing the selling price and the distribution of the sales proceeds.

Appraisals of personal property held as an investment.

Family's self-certification describing assets or cash held at the family's home or in safe deposit boxes.

Assets Disposed of for Less than Fair Market Value (FMV) During Two Years Preceding Effective Date of Certification or Recertification

SNRHA Policy

For all certifications and re-certifications, the SNRHA will obtain the Family's certification as to whether any member has disposed of assets for less than fair market value during the two years preceding the effective date of the certification or recertification.

If the family certifies that they have disposed of assets for less than fair market value, verification is required that shows: (a) all assets disposed of for less than FMV, (b) the date they were disposed of, (c) the amount the family received, and (d) the market value of the assets at the time of disposition. Third party verification will be obtained wherever possible. Family certification will be accepted if no other verification is possible.

VERIFICATION OF ALLOWABLE DEDUCTIONS FROM INCOME [24 CFR 982.516]

Medical Expenses

SNRHA Policy

Eligible families who claim medical expenses will be required to submit a certification as to whether or not any expense payments have been, or will be, reimbursed by an outside source. All expense claims will be verified by one or more of the methods listed below (Credit Card Statements will not be accepted as proof of payment of expenses):

Written verification by an eye doctor, optician, otolaryngologist, hearing aide provider, or other medical practitioner or provider of medical equipment of (a) the anticipated medical costs to be incurred by the family and regular payments due on medical bills; and (b) extent to which those expenses will be reimbursed by insurance or a government agency.

Written verification from a medical lab, provider of oxygen, blood products, or other specialized medical supplies of (a) the anticipated medical costs to be incurred by the family and regular payments will be reimbursed by insurance or a government agency.

Written verification from the provider of medical equipment such as hospital bed, scooter, wheelchair, commode, artificial limbs, etc. of (a) the anticipated medical costs to be incurred by the family and regular payments due on medical bills; and (b) extent to which those expenses will be reimbursed by insurance or a government agency.

Written confirmation from the Social Security Administration of Medicare premiums to be paid by the family over the next 12 months. A computer printout will be accepted.

For attendant care paid to an individual:

A reliable, knowledgeable professional's certification that the assistance of an attendant is necessary as a medical expense and a projection of the number of hours the care is needed for calculation purposes.

Attendant's written confirmation of hours of care provided and amount and frequency of payments received from the family or agency (or copies of canceled checks the family used to make those payments) or stubs from the agency providing the services.

Receipts, canceled checks, or pay stubs that verify medical costs and insurance expenses likely to be incurred in the next 12 months.

Copies of payment agreements or most recent invoice that verify payments made on outstanding attendant care bills that will continue over all or part of the next 12 months.

Receipts or other record of attendant care expenses incurred during the past 12 months that can be used to anticipate future attendant care expenses.

The SNRHA will use mileage at the IRS rate, or cab, bus fare, or other public transportation cost for verification of the cost of transportation directly related to medical treatment.

Assistance to Persons with Disabilities

In All Cases:

SNRHA Policy

Written certification from a reliable, knowledgeable professional that the person with disabilities requires the services of an attendant and/or the use of auxiliary apparatus to permit him/her to be employed or to function sufficiently independently to enable another family member to be employed.

Family's certification as to whether they receive reimbursement for any of the expenses of disability assistance and the amount of any reimbursement received.

Attendant Care:

Attendant's written certification of amount received from the family, frequency of receipt, and hours of care provided.

Certification of family and attendant and/or copies of canceled checks family used to make payments.

Auxiliary Apparatus:

Receipts for purchases or proof of monthly payments and maintenance expenses for auxiliary apparatus.

In the case where the person with disabilities is employed, a statement from the employer that the auxiliary apparatus is necessary for employment.

Live-In Aide

SNRHA Policy

When a participant requires a live-in aide, the SNRHA shall submit their signed reasonable accommodation request form to the medical professional noted on their request for third party verification of the need. Once approved by the 504 officer, the participant shall have 30 days to submit the name of the live-in aide and schedule them to come in for screening. The unit size shall NOT be increased until such time as SNRHA staff has completed their screening of the Live-In Aide in compliance with SNRHA guidance. The participant shall be allowed to submit another name for a live-in aide if the first does not pass the screening process but must submit this name within 14 calendar days of the denial notice.

The approved unit size would be adjusted, if required to accommodate a room for the live –in aide. Each year the SNRHA at annual recertification time shall re-verify the need for a live-in aide.

VERIFYING NON-FINANCIAL FACTORS [24 CFR 982.153(b) (15)]

Verification of Legal Identity

In order to prevent program abuse, the SNRHA will require applicants/residents to furnish verification of legal identity for all adult family members.

SNRHA Policy

The documents listed below will be considered acceptable verification of legal identity for adults, as long as they include a picture of the individual. If a document submitted by a family is illegible or otherwise questionable, more than one of these documents may be required.

Driver's license

U.S. passport

Department of Motor Vehicles Identification Card

Validated Sheriff Card

Military Identification

DMV Instructional ID

Certificate of Birth, naturalization papers

An original Certificate of Birth is required for all minors. Other documents considered acceptable for the verification of legal identity for minors may be one or more of the following:

Adoption papers

Custody agreement

School records

Hospital Birth Certifications

Passport

Health and Human Services ID (foster children; adopted Children) I-94

Verification of Marital Status (for purposes of meeting Spouse definition and determining the eligibility of counting income of absence spouse)

SNRHA Policy

Verification of divorce status will be a certified copy of the divorce decree, signed by a Court Officer.

Verification of a separation may be a copy of court-ordered maintenance or other records. A marriage certificate generally is required to verify that a couple is married. In the case of a common law marriage, the couple must demonstrate that they hold themselves to be married (e.g., by telling the community they are married, calling each other husband and wife, using the same last name, filing joint income tax returns).

Familial Relationships

SNRHA Policy

Verification of guardianship is:

Court-ordered assignment

Verification from social services agency

SNRHA Self-certification of temporary guardianship or appointment

In each case above (except court assignment), SNRHA must receive a court awarded guardianship or custody documents within 365 calendar days or head of household must resign SNRHA's documents and submit required supporting documents. Failure shall result in subsidy standard being decreased; and allowance decreased. Any income still coming into the household on behalf of the child would be counted.

Other family relationships will be verified through birth certificates or other relevant documents.

Verification of Permanent Absence of Family Member

If an adult member who was formerly a member of the household or was never reported and identified by staff as being a spouse and is reported permanently absent by the family, the SNRHA will consider any of the following as verification:

- Husband or wife institutes divorce action
- Husband or wife institutes legal separation.

- Order of protection/restraining order obtained by one family member against another.

Verification of Change in Family Composition

The SNRHA may verify changes in family composition (either reported or unreported) through one or more of the following actions: letters, telephone calls, utility records, inspections, landlords, neighbors, credit data, school or DMV records, and other sources.

Verification of Citizenship/Eligible Immigrant Status [24 CFR 5.508, 5.510, 5.512, 5.514]

To be eligible for assistance, individuals must be U.S. citizens or eligible immigrants.

Individuals who are neither may elect not to contend their status. Eligible immigrants must fall into one of the categories specified by the regulations and must have their status verified by Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS). Each family member must declare their status once. Assistance cannot be delayed, denied, or terminated while verification of status is pending except that assistance to applicants may be delayed while the SNRHA hearing is pending.

Citizens or Nationals of the United States are required to sign a declaration under penalty of perjury, the Declaration 214 Form, noting that they are a citizen or national.

Eligible Immigrants who were Participants and 62 or over on June 19, 1995, are required to sign a declaration of eligible immigration status (Declaration 214 Form) and provide proof of age.

Non-citizens with eligible immigration status must sign a declaration of status (Declaration 214 Form) and verification consent form and provide their original immigration documents which are copied front and back and returned to the family. The SNRHA verifies the status through the INS SAVE system. If this primary verification fails to verify status, the SNRHA must request within ten days that the INS conduct a manual search.

Ineligible family members who do not claim to be citizens or eligible immigrants must be listed on a statement of ineligible family members signed by the head of household or spouse.

Non-citizen students on student visas are ineligible members even though they are in the country lawfully. They must provide their student visa but their status will not be verified and they do not sign a declaration but are listed on the statement of ineligible members.

Failure to Provide. If an applicant or participant family member fails to sign required declarations and consent forms or provide documents, as required, they must be listed as an ineligible member. If the entire family fails to provide and sign as required, the family may be denied or terminated for failure to provide required information.

Additionally, SNRHA must terminate assistance for at least 24 months if it determines that a family has knowingly permitted an ineligible person to live in the assisted unit without informing the SNRHA.

Time of Verification

For applicants, verification of U.S. citizenship/eligible immigrant status occurs at the same time as verification of other factors of eligibility for final eligibility determination.

The SNRHA will not provide assistance to any family prior to the affirmative establishment and verification of the eligibility of the individual or at least one member of the family.

For family members added after other members have been verified, the verification occurs upon approval of additional person by the SNRHA.

Once verification has been completed for any covered program, it shall be verified annually unless their eligibility immigration status changes to permanent resident. In the case of port-in families, if the initial PHA does not supply the documents, the SNRHA must conduct the determination and/or when the SNRHA notes a Resident Alien Card with an expiring date or no date of expiration.

Acceptable Documents of Eligible Immigration

The regulations stipulate that only the following documents are acceptable unless changes are published in the Federal Register.

- Resident Alien Card (I-551)
- Alien Registration Receipt Card (I-151)
- Arrival-Departure Record (I-94)
- Temporary Resident Card (I-688)
- Employment Authorization Card (I-688B)
- Receipt issued by the INS for issuance of replacement of any of the above documents that shows individual's entitlement has been verified

A birth certificate is not acceptable verification of status. All documents in connection with U.S. citizenship/eligible immigrant status must be kept five years.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will recertify eligible immigration status one year prior to expiration date of the following documents:

- Resident Alien Card (I-551)
- Alien Registration Receipt Card (I-151)
- Arrival-Departure Record (I-94)
- Temporary Resident Card (I-688)

Medical Need for Larger Unit

SNRHA Policy

A written certification that a larger unit is necessary must be obtained from a reliable, knowledgeable professional as a reasonable accommodation for a disabled family member. At each Annual Inspection, staff will verify that the additional room is still being used for medical equipment. When this is not the case, the unit size be decreased in compliance with SNRHA guidance.

When Third-Party Verification is Not Required

Primary Documents

Third-party verification is not required when legal documents are the primary source, such as a birth certificate or other legal documentation of birth.

Certain Assets and Expenses

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will accept a self-certification from a family as verification of assets disposed of for less than fair market value.

The SNRHA will determine that third-party verification is not available, if the asset or expense involves an insignificant amount, making it not cost-effective or reasonable to obtain third-party verification,

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will use review of documents in lieu of requesting third-party verification when the market value of an individual asset or an expense is less than $5,000 annually and the family has original documents that support the declared amount.

Certain Income, Asset and Expense Sources

The SNRHA will determine that third-party verification is not available when it is known that an income source does not have the ability to provide written or oral third-party verification. For example, the SNRHA will rely upon review of documents when the SNRHA determines that a third party's privacy rules prohibit the source from disclosing information.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA also will determine that third-party verification is not available when there is a service charge for verifying an asset or expense and the family has original documents that provide the necessary information.

The SNRHA will document in the family file the reason that the third-party verification was not available and will place a photocopy of the original document(s) in the family file.

If the family cannot provide original documents, the SNRHA will pay the service charge required to obtain third-party verification, unless it is not cost effective in which case a self-certification will be acceptable as the only means of verification. The cost of verification will not be passed on to the family.

The cost of postage and envelopes to obtain third-party verification of income, assets, and expenses is not an unreasonable cost.

7-I.E. REVIEW OF DOCUMENTS

Using Review of Documents as Verification

SNRHA Policy

If the SNRHA has determined that third-party verification is not available or not required, the SNRHA will use documents provided by the family as verification.

The SNRHA may also review documents when necessary to help clarify information provided by third parties. In such cases the SNRHA will document in the file how the SNRHA arrived at a final conclusion about the income or expense to include in its calculations.

7-I.F. SELF-CERTIFICATION

SNRHA Policy

When information cannot be verified by a third party or by review of documents, family members will be required to submit self-certifications attesting to the accuracy of the information they have provided to the SNRHA.

The SNRHA may require a family to certify that a family member does not receive a particular type of income or benefit.

The self-certification must be made in a format acceptable to the SNRHA and must be signed by the family member whose information or status is being verified. All self-certifications must be signed in the presence of a SNRHA representative or SNRHA notary public. The cost shall not be passed on to the client.

PART II: VERIFYING FAMILY INFORMATION

7-II.A. VERIFICATION OF LEGAL IDENTITY

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will require families to furnish verification of legal identity for each household member.

| Verification of Legal Identity for Adults                                                                                                                                                          | Verification of Legal Identity for Children                                                                                                                                              |
| Driver's licenseU.S. passport.Department of Motor VehiclesIdentification Card ValidatedSheriff CardMilitary IDDMV Instructional IDClark County Heath Card with valid photo ID | Certificate of birthAdoption papersCustody agreementSchool recordsHospital Birth CertificationsPassportHealth and Human Services ID (foster children; adopted children) |

|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|

If a document submitted by a family is illegible or otherwise questionable, more than one of these documents may be required.

7-II.B. SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS [24 CFR 5.216 , 5.218 and 5.233]

Every family member must provide documentation of a valid social security number (SSN) unless they are a non-citizen or non-eligible immigrant.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will request to copy the family member's social security card.

If the social security card is not available, SNRHA will instruct the family to obtain a duplicate card from the local social Security Administration (SSA) office, but will complete the action by accepting the following documents as evidence if the SSN is provided on the document:

- Benefit award letters from a government agency; retirement benefit letters; life insurance policies.
- Any document issued by the Social Security Administration that clearly lists the family member's social security number and name.
- For individuals who are at least 62 years of age and are unable to submit the required documentation of their SSN within the initial 60-day period, the SNRHA will grant an additional 60 calendar days to provide documentation.

Social security numbers must be verified only once during continuously-assisted occupancy. If any family member obtains an SSN after admission to the program, the new SSN must be disclosed within 30 days.

The social security numbers of non-household members, such as live-in aids, must be verified for the purpose of conducting criminal background checks.

Names on verifications of Legal Identity and Social Security Number must match.

7-II.C. FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS

Applicants and program participants are required to identify the relationship of each household member to the head of household. If an applicant list themselves as married and no not list a spouse, they will still be required to submit a separation or divorce degree. Definitions of the primary household relationships are provided in the Eligibility chapter.

SNRHA Policy

Other family relationships will be verified through birth certificates or other relevant documents.

Marriage

SNRHA Policy

A marriage certificate generally is required to verify that a couple is married.

In the case of a common law marriage, the couple must demonstrate that they hold themselves to be married (e.g., by telling the community they are married, calling each other husband and wife, using the same last name, filing joint income tax returns).

Separation or Divorce

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will require the family to document the divorce, or separation.

A certified copy of a divorce decree, signed by a court officer, is required to document that a couple is divorced.

A copy of a court-ordered maintenance or other court record is required to document a separation.

Absence of Adult Member

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will consider any of the following as

verification: Husband or wife institutes divorce action

Husband or wife institutes legal separation.

Order of protection/restraining order obtained by one family member against another.

If an applicant list themselves as married, but does not list a spouse name, they will still be required to provide a separation document or divorce decree.

If no such documentation is available, the applicant may complete SNRHA's Marital Separation form, which will required above documentation to be provided within 365 days of the date the form is submitted.

Foster Children and Foster Adults

SNRHA Policy

Third-party verification from the state or local government agency responsible for the placement of the individual with the family is required.

7-II.D. DOCUMENTATION OF AGE

A birth certificate or other official record of birth is the preferred form of age verification for all family members. For elderly family members an original document that provides evidence of the receipt of social security retirement benefits is acceptable.

SNRHA Policy

If an official record of birth or evidence of social security retirement benefits cannot be provided, the SNRHA will require the family to submit other documents that support the reported age of the family member (e.g., school records, driver's license if birth year is recorded) and to provide a self-certification.

Age must be verified only once during continuously-assisted occupancy.

7-II.E. VERIFICATION OF STUDENT

STATUS General Requirements

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA requires families to provide information about the student status of all students who are 18 years of age or older. This information will be verified only if:

The family reports full-time student status for an adult other than the head, spouse, or co-head.

The family reports child care expenses to enable a family member to further his or her education.

The family includes a student enrolled in an institution of higher education.

The family claims an income exclusion because the student is receiving earned income and only the first $480 is included as income.

Restrictions on Assistance to Students Enrolled in Institutions of Higher Education

This section applies only to students who are seeking assistance on their own, separately from their parents. It does not apply to students residing with parents who are seeking or receiving PH assistance.

SNRHA Policy

In accordance with the verification hierarchy described in Section 6-1.B, the SNRHA will determine whether the student is exempt from the restrictions in 24 CFR 5.612 by verifying any one of the following exemption criteria:

The student is enrolled at an educational institution that does not meet the definition of institution of higher education in the Higher Education Act of 1965 (see Section Exhibit 3-2).

The student is at least 24 years old.

The student is a veteran, as defined in Chapter 2

The student is married.

The student has at least one dependent child, as defined in Section 2.

If the SNRHA cannot verify at least one of these exemption criteria, the SNRHA will conclude that the student is subject to the restrictions on assistance at 24 CFR 5.612.

In addition to verifying the student's income eligibility, the SNRHA will then proceed to verify either the student's parents' income eligibility or the student's independence from his/her parents (see below).

Independent Student

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will verify a student's independence from his/her parents to determine that the student's parents' income is not relevant for determining the student's eligibility by doing all of the following:

Either reviewing and verifying previous address information to determine whether the student has established a household separate from his/her parents for at least one year or reviewing and verifying documentation relevant to determining whether the student meets the U.S. Department of Education's definition of independent student.

Reviewing prior year income tax returns to verify whether a parent has claimed the student as a dependent

Requesting and obtaining written certification directly from the student's parents identifying the amount of support they will be providing to the student, even if the amount of support is $0.

7-II.F. DOCUMENTATION OF DISABILITY

The SNRHA must verify the existence of a disability in order to allow certain income disallowances and deductions from income. The SNRHA is not permitted to inquire about the nature or extent of a person's disability [24 CFR 100.202(c)]. The SNRHA may not inquire about a person's diagnosis or details of treatment for a disability or medical condition. If the SNRHA receives a verification document that provides such information, the PHA will not place this information in the tenant file. Under no circumstances will the PHA request a participant's medical record(s). For more information on health care privacy laws, see the Department of Health and Human Services' website at www.os.dhhs.gov.

The above cited regulation does not prohibit the following inquiries, provided these inquiries are made of all applicants, whether or not they are persons with disabilities:

- Inquiry into an applicant's ability to meet the requirements of ownership or tenancy
- Inquiry to determine whether an applicant is qualified for a dwelling available only to persons with disabilities or to persons with a particular type of disability
- Inquiry to determine whether an applicant for a dwelling is qualified for a priority available to persons with disabilities or to persons with a particular type of disability
- Inquiring whether an applicant for a dwelling is a current illegal abuser or addict of a controlled substance
- Inquiring whether an applicant has been convicted of the illegal manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance

Family Members Receiving SSA Disability Benefits

Verification of the receipt of disability benefits from the Social Security Administration (SSA) is sufficient verification of disability for the purpose of qualifying for waiting list preferences (if applicable) or certain income disallowances and deductions.

SNRHA Policy

For family members claiming disability who receive disability benefits from the SSA, the SNRHA will attempt to obtain information about disability benefits through the HUD Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system when it is available. If documentation from HUD's EIV System is not available, the SNRHA will request a current (dated within the last 60 days) SSA benefit verification letter from each family member claiming disability status. If the family is unable to provide the document(s), the SNRHA will ask the family to request a benefit verification letter by either calling SSA at 1-800-772-1213, or by requesting it from www.ssa.gov. Once the applicant or participant receives the benefit verification letter they will be required to provide it to the SNRHA.

Family Members Not Receiving SSA Disability Benefits

Receipt of veteran's disability benefits, worker's compensation, or other non-SSA benefits based on the individual's claimed disability are not sufficient verification that the individual meets HUD's definition of disability in 24 CFR 5.603.

SNRHA Policy

For family members claiming disability who do not receive disability benefits from the SSA, a knowledgeable professional must provide third-party verification that the family member meets the HUD definition of disability. See the Eligibility chapter for the HUD definition of disability. The knowledgeable professional will verify whether the family member does or does not meet the HUD definition.

PART III: VERIFYING INCOME AND ASSETS

Chapter 5, Part I of this plan describes in detail the types of income that are included and excluded and how assets and income from assets are handled. Any assets and income reported by the family must be verified. This part provides SNRHA policies that supplement the general verification procedures specified in Part I of this chapter.

7-III.A. EARNED

INCOME Wages

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. EIV with two consecutive current paystubs for annuals and for New Hires.
2. Acceptable 3rd Party written verification provided by the resident.

- 3 Third party written verification
Employment verification form completed by the employer
4. Oral third party -must document why other steps above where not available
5. W-2 forms and IRS Form 4506-T release
6. Self-certifications may be used for verifying self-employment income, or income from tips and other gratuities.
7. Current check stubs or earning statements, which indicate the employee's gross pay, frequency of pay or year to date earnings.

In cases where there are questions about the validity of information provided by the family, SNRHA will require the most recent federal income tax statements to be obtained via use of IRS Form 4506-T.

Tips

SNRHA Policy

Unless tip income is included in a family member's W-2 by the employer, persons who work in industries where tips are standard will be required to sign a certified estimate of tips received for the prior year and tips anticipated to be received in the coming year. Interruption of employment due to temporary leave of absence (i.e. maternity leave, short-term disability): upon verification that earnings have stopped, an interim will be conducted to remove the income. The family may be required to complete a Zero Income Questionnaire/Certification.

The family is required to report any other income received in lieu of earnings. The family will be required to report when the income starts again. At that time an interim will be conducted to add the income back into the family budget.

7-III.B. PERIODIC PAYMENTS AND PAYMENTS IN LIEU OF EARNINGS Social Security/SSI Benefits

SNRHA Policy

To verify the SS/SSI benefits of applicants, the SNRHA will request a current (dated within the last 60 days) SSA benefit verification letter from each family member that receives social security benefits. If the family is unable to provide the document(s), the PHA will ask the family to request a benefit verification letter by either calling SSA at 1- 800-772-1213, or by requesting it from www.ssa.gov. Once the applicant has received the benefit verification letter they will be required to provide it to the SNRHA.

To verify the SS/SSI benefits of participants, the SNRHA will obtain information about social security/SSI benefits through the HUD EIV System or the Tenant Assessment Subsystem (TASS). If benefit information is not available in HUD systems, the SNRHA will request a current SSA benefit verification letter from each family member that receives social security benefits. If the family is unable to provide the document(s) the PHA will ask the family to request a benefit verification letter by either calling SSA at 1- 800-772-1213, or by requesting it from www.ssa.gov. Once the participant has received the benefit verification letter they will be required to provide it to the SNRHA.

7-III. C. ASSETS AND INCOME FROM

ASSETS

Assets Disposed of for Less than Fair Market

Value

The family must certify whether any assets have been disposed of for less than fair market value in the preceding two years. The SNRHA needs to verify only those certifications that warrant documentation.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will verify the value of assets disposed of only if:

- The SNRHA does not already have a reasonable estimation of its value from previously collected information, or
- The amount reported by the family in the certification appears obviously in error. Example 1: An elderly participant reported a $10,000 certificate of deposit at the last annual reexamination and the SNRHA verified this amount. Now the person reports that she has given this $10,000 to her son. The SNRHA has a reasonable estimate of the value of the asset; therefore, re-verification of the value of the asset is not necessary.

Example 2: A family member has disposed of its 1/4 share of real property located in a desirable area and has valued her share at approximately $5,000. Based upon market conditions, this declaration does not seem realistic. Therefore, the SNRHA will verify the value of this asset.

7-III.D. NET INCOME FROM RENTAL PROPERTY

SNRHA Policy

The family must provide:

A current executed lease for the property that shows the rental amount or certification from the current tenant.

A self-certification from the family members engaged in the rental of property providing an estimate of expenses for the coming year and the most recent IRS Form 1040 with Schedule E (Rental Income). If schedule E was not prepared, the SNRHA will require the family members involved in the rental of property to provide a self-certification of income and expenses for the previous year and may request documentation to support the statement including: tax statements, insurance invoices, bills for reasonable maintenance and utilities, and bank statements or amortization schedules showing monthly interest expense.

7-III.E. RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

SNRHA Policy

When third-party verification is not available the type of original document that will be accepted depends upon the family member's retirement status.

Before retirement, the SNRHA will accept an original document from the entity holding the account with a date that shows it is the most recently scheduled statement for the account but in no case earlier than 6 months from the effective date of the examination.

Upon retirement, the SNRHA will accept an original document from the entity holding the account that reflects any distributions of the account balance, any lump sums taken and any regular payments.

After retirement, the SNRHA will accept an original document from the entity holding the account dated no earlier than 12 months before that reflects any distributions of the account balance, any lump sums taken and any regular payments.

7-III.F. INCOME FROM EXCLUDED SOURCES

The SNRHA must obtain verification for income exclusions only if, without verification, the SNRHA would not be able to determine whether the income is to be excluded. For example: If a family's 16 year old has a job at a fast food restaurant, the SNRHA will confirm that SNRHA records verify the child's age but will not send a verification request to the restaurant. However, if a family claims the earned income disallowance for a source of income, both the source and the income must be verified.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will reconcile differences in amounts reported by the third party and the family only when the excluded amount is used to calculate the family share (as is the case with the earned income disallowance). In all other cases, including food stamps, the SNRHA will report the amount to be excluded as indicated on documents provided by the family, including the family's written certification.

7-III.G. ZERO/EXTREMELY LOW ANNUAL INCOME STATUS

SNRHA Policy

Families claiming to have no annual income will be required to execute verification forms to determine that certain forms of income such as unemployment benefits, TANF, SSI, etc. are not being received by the household. Zero income households will be interviewed at least once every 180 days.

PART IV: VERIFYING MANDATORY DEDUCTIONS

7-IV.A. DEPENDENT AND ELDERLY/DISABLED HOUSEHOLD DEDUCTIONS

The dependent and elderly/disabled family deductions require only that the PHA verify that the family members identified as dependents or elderly/disabled persons meet the statutory definitions. No further verifications are required.

Dependent Deduction

See Chapter 6 for a full discussion of this deduction. The SNRHA must verify that:

- Any person under the age of 18 for whom the dependent deduction is claimed is not the head, spouse, or co-head of the family and is not a foster child
- Any person age 18 or older for whom the dependent deduction is claimed is not a foster adult or live-in aide, and is a person with a disability or a full time student

Elderly/Disabled Family Deduction

See Eligibility chapter for a definition of elderly and disabled families and Chapter 5 for a discussion of the deduction. The SNRHA must verify that the head, spouse, or co-head is 62 years of age or older or a person with disabilities.

7-IV.B. MEDICAL EXPENSE DEDUCTION

Policies related to medical expenses are found in Chapter 6.

Amount of Expense

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will provide a third-party verification form directly to the medical provider requesting the needed information.

Medical expenses will be verified through:

Third-party verification form signed by the provider, when possible

If third-party is not possible, copies of cancelled checks used to make medical expense payments and/or printouts or receipts from the source will be used. (Credit card statements will not be allowed as verification of payment of medical expenses.) In this case the SNRHA will make a best effort to determine what expenses from the past are likely to continue to occur in the future. The SNRHA will also accept evidence of monthly payments or total payments that will be due for medical expenses during the upcoming 12 months.

In addition, the SNRHA must verify that:

- The household is eligible for the deduction.
- The costs to be deducted are qualified medical expenses.
- The expenses are not paid for or reimbursed by any other source.
- Costs incurred in past years are counted only once.

Eligible Household

The medical expense deduction is permitted only for households in which the head, spouse, or co-head is at least 62, or a person with disabilities. The SNRHA must verify that the family meets the definition of an elderly or disabled family provided in the Eligibility chapter of this plan.

Qualified Expenses

To be eligible for the medical expenses deduction, the costs must qualify as medical expenses.

See Chapter 6 for the SNRHA policy on what counts as a medical expense.

Unreimbursed Expenses

To be eligible for the medical expenses deduction, the costs must not be reimbursed by another source.

SNRHA Policy

The family will be required to certify that the medical expenses are not paid or reimbursed to the family from any source.

Expenses Incurred in Past Years

SNRHA Policy

When anticipated costs are related to on-going payment of medical bills incurred in past years, the SNRHA will verify:

The anticipated repayment schedule

The amounts paid in the past, and

Whether the amounts to be repaid have been deducted from the family's annual income in past years

7-IV.C. DISABILITY ASSISTANCE EXPENSES

Policies related to disability assistance expenses are found in Chapter 6.

Amount of Expense

Attendant Care

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will provide a third-party verification form directly to the care provider requesting the needed information.

Expenses for attendant care will be verified through:

Third-party verification form signed by the provider, when possible.

If third-party is not possible, copies of cancelled checks used to make attendant care payments and/or receipts from care source. (Credit card statements will not be allowed as verification of payment of medical expenses.)

If third-party or document review is not possible, written family certification as to costs anticipated to be incurred for the upcoming 12 months.

Auxiliary Apparatus

SNRHA Policy

Expenses for auxiliary apparatus will be verified through:

Third-party verification of anticipated purchase costs of auxiliary apparatus. If third-party is not possible, billing statements for purchase of auxiliary apparatus, or other evidence of monthly payments or total payments that will be due for the apparatus during the upcoming 12 months.

If third-party or document review is not possible, written family certification of estimated apparatus costs for the upcoming 12 months

In addition, the SNRHA must verify that:

The family member for whom the expense is incurred is a person with disabilities

The expense permits a family member, or members, to work (see Chapter 5). The expense is not reimbursed from another source (see Chapter 5).

The expense does not exceed the amount of the earned income of the individual freed for work.

Family Member is a Person with Disabilities

To be eligible for the disability assistance expense deduction, the costs must be incurred for attendant care or auxiliary apparatus expense associated with a person with disabilities. The SNRHA will verify that the expense is incurred for a person with disabilities.

Family Member(s) Permitted to Work

The SNRHA must verify that the expenses claimed actually enable a family member, or members, (including the person with disabilities) to work.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will seek third-party verification from a Rehabilitation Agency or knowledgeable medical professional indicating that the person with disabilities requires attendant care or an auxiliary apparatus to be employed, or that the attendant care or auxiliary apparatus enables another family member, or members, to work.

If third-party and document review verification has been attempted and is either unavailable or proves unsuccessful, the family must certify that the disability assistance expense frees a family member, or members (possibly including the family member receiving the assistance), to work.

Unreimbursed Expenses

To be eligible for the disability expenses deduction, the costs must not be reimbursed by another source.

SNRHA Policy

An attendant care provider will be asked to certify that, to the best of the provider's knowledge, the expenses are not paid by or reimbursed to the family from any source. The family will be required to certify that attendant care or auxiliary apparatus expenses are not paid by or reimbursed to the family from any source.

7-IV.D. CHILD CARE EXPENSES

The SNRHA must verify that:

- The child is eligible for care.
- The costs claimed are not reimbursed.
- The costs enable a family member to pursue an eligible activity.
- The costs are for an allowable type of childcare.
- The costs are reasonable if seeking employment or furthering education.

Eligible Child

To be eligible for the childcare deduction, the costs must be incurred for the care of a child under the age of 13. The SNRHA will verify that the child being cared for (including foster children) is under the age of 13.

Unreimbursed Expense

To be eligible for the childcare deduction, the costs must not be reimbursed by another source.

SNRHA Policy

The childcare provider will be asked to certify that, to the best of the provider's knowledge, the childcare expenses are not paid by or reimbursed to the family from any source. The family will be required to certify that the childcare expenses are not paid by or reimbursed to the family from any source.

The SNRHA must verify that the family member(s) that the family has identified as being enabled to seek work, pursue education, or be gainfully employed, are actually pursuing those activities.

Information to be Gathered

The SNRHA will verify information about how the schedule for the claimed activity relates to the hours of care provided, the time required for transportation, the time required for study (for students), the relationship of the family member(s) to the child, and any special needs of the child that might help determine which family member is enabled to pursue an eligible activity.

Seeking Work

Whenever possible the SNRHA will use documentation from a state or local agency that monitors work-related requirements (e.g., welfare or unemployment). In such cases the SNRHA will request verification from the agency of the member's job seeking efforts to date and require the family to submit to the SNRHA any reports provided to the other agency.

In the event third-party verification is not available, the SNRHA will provide the family with a form on which the family member must record job search efforts. The SNRHA will review this information at each subsequent reexamination for which this deduction is claimed.

Furthering Education

The SNRHA will ask that the academic or vocational educational institution verify that the person permitted to further his or her education by the childcare is enrolled and provide information about the timing of classes for which the person is registered.

Gainful Employment

The SNRHA will seek verification from the employer of the work schedule of the person who is permitted to work by the childcare. In cases in which two or more family members could be permitted to work, the work schedules for all relevant family members may be verified.

Allowable Type of Child Care

The type of care to be provided is determined by the family.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will verify that the type of childcare selected by the family is allowable, as described in Chapter 6.

The SNRHA will verify that the fees paid to the childcare provider cover only childcare costs (e.g., no housekeeping services or personal services) and are paid only for the care of an eligible child (e.g., prorated costs if some of the care is provided for ineligible family members).

The SNRHA will verify the childcare provider is not a family member residing in the household. Verification will be made through the head of household's declaration of family members who are expected to reside in the unit.

Reasonableness of Expenses

Only reasonable childcare costs can be deducted for seeking employment or furthering education.

SNRHA Policy

To verify that the childcare costs are reasonable, the actual costs the family incurs will be compared with the SNRHA's established standards of reasonableness for the type of care in the locality to ensure that the costs are reasonable.

If the family presents a justification for costs that exceed typical costs in the area, the SNRHA will request additional documentation, as required, to support a determination that the higher cost is appropriate.

SNRHA will send out our childcare verification form when child care expenses are being verified. This form must be completed with all questions answered and returned by mail or fax. This form will be the only verification childcare form acceptable by our agency. Private childcare providers that do not have tax identification numbers must complete the section that requests their social security numbers or their INS number.

Written verification from the person who receives the payments is required. If the child care provider is licensed, the provider is required to provide their Employment Identification Number.

Verifications must specify the child care provider's business or individual name, address, telephone number, the names of the children cared for, the number of hours the child care occurs, the rate of pay, and the typical yearly amount paid, including school and vacation periods.

Family's must certify as to whether any of those payments have been or will be paid or reimbursed by outside sources.

- A receipt issued by the USCIS indicating that an application for issuance of a replacement document in one of the above listed categories has been made and the applicant’s entitlement to the document has been verified; or
- Other acceptable evidence. If other documents are determined by the USCIS to constitute acceptable evidence of eligible immigration status, they will be announced by notice published in the Federal Register.

Chapter 8

TRANSFER POLICY

INTRODUCTION

It is the policy of the SNRHA to permit resident transfers, within and/or between SNRHA public housing communities for the following limited reasons:

- To abate dangerous and/or substandard living conditions;
- To abate emergency life-threatening living conditions caused by third-party criminal activity;
- To accommodate verified physical conditions caused by long-term illness and/or disability;
- To accommodate resident families that are determined to be over- or under-housed by virtue of their family size; and
- To promote homeownership, transfer of families to scattered sites
- To accommodate relocation due to modernization work, community safety

Each transfer request will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration:

- The documentation that substantiates the reason for the request;
- Whether or not the resident is in good standing with the SNRHA
- The availability of suitable alternative units.

SNRHA will not grant a transfer request solely to accommodate neighbors who "cannot get along."

Activities of residents that adversely affect the right of others to the peaceful enjoyment of their community will be treated as lease violations and may be considered cause for lease termination.

A. ELIGIBILITY FOR TRANSFER

In order to be determined eligible to receive a transfer, residents must submit the requested 3rd party documentation to SNRHA, to substantiate their request, and must be in good standing with the SNRHA.

The type of documentation that must be submitted will vary, depending on the nature of the request.

Good Standing

A resident will be considered in good standing if he or she and/or household members have not had:

- A history of delinquent rent payments, or
- A history of community disturbance and/or unit destruction.
- Maintain acceptable housekeeping standards
- Fulfilling community service requirements

Transfer List

Resident families who are determined eligible to receive a transfer will be placed on a transfer waiting list in accordance with the date of transfer approval and reason for their transfer request. SNRHA will implement transfers in the priority order listed in the following table.

Inappropriately housed resident families who are determined eligible to receive a transfer will be placed on the transfer waiting list at the time of annual certification.

Priority of Transfers

Approved transfers shall be accomplished in the following priority order:

| Type of Transfer                         | When executed                                                                | Transfer will be within the housing development:                                           | Ratio                                       | Initiated by                                                     |

B. EMERGENCY TRANSFERS

Emergency transfers will be implemented by the SNRHA to remove a resident family from life-threatening and/or hazardous living conditions caused by third-party criminal activity and/or unit damage. Good standing criteria does not apply in the case of emergency transfers.

Residents will be required to become complaint with all lease provisions upon completion of the Emergency Transfer to the new unit.

Emergency Transfers due to Third Party Criminal Activity

SNRHA will consider transfer requests from resident families who have been victims of life-threatening criminal activity committed by third parties or who have witnessed serious criminal activity and agreed to testify on behalf of the State at a criminal proceeding.

Families who request a unit transfer due to third-party criminal activity may be required to submit verifiable documentation evidencing one or all of the following:

- Police reports and/or police statements detailing the incident in question
- Eyewitness statements describing the incident in question
- Confirmatory letters from the Victim Witness Protection Unit, Rape Crisis Center or similarly recognized entity
- Medical reports from a licensed health care provider
- Subpoena or other written contacts from the Clark County District Attorney or U.S. Attorney

The SNRHA will require residents who are victims of domestic violence to certify their victim status and the names of their abusers. Third-party verification must be provided by victim service providers, medical professionals, or attorney who have counseled the victim and can verify their status as a domestic violence victim.

All documentation submitted shall remain confidential and shall be reviewed and evaluated by the Director of Operations only. Transfer requests due to third-party criminal activity shall be evaluated on a case-by-case basis, by consideration of the following criteria:

- The availability of a suitable alternative unit
- The documentation describing/verifying the incident
- The severity of the incident

Notification: If approved, the family will be notified that:

- A unit has been designated;
- They must execute a new lease and move within five (5 days) of receipt of the notice, and
- If they refuse to accept the unit, they must execute a waiver of their emergency transfer request.

Emergency Transfers Initiated or Confirmed by Law Enforcement

If the emergency transfer request is initiated or confirmed by authorized law enforcement officials, the SNRHA may take the following action to maintain the confidentiality of the request and subsequent transfer:

- By-passing the regular transfer occupancy function and/or staff;
- Maintaining the resident family's file separate from other resident files; and
- Concealing and/or changing the identity of the resident family's file.

Emergency Transfers due to Hazardous Unit Conditions

A transfer due to hazardous unit conditions is mandatory. It may be initiated at any time by the SNRHA or the resident family or both, after detection of a unit condition that poses a threat to the health and safety of the resident family. A hazardous unit condition is one that arises from:

- Substantial fire damage;
- Life-threatening fungus as determined by a Clark County Health District Official and/or a licensed hazardous waste consultant;
- Exposed electrical wiring;
- Defective ventilation;
- Inadequate plumbing, heating and/or cooling that will require long-term repair;
- Other serious conditions identified by the SNRHA Maintenance Department that require long-term repair.

Notification: If at least one of the foregoing conditions is found to exist, the SNRHA shall immediately notify the resident family or families affected and advise them, in writing, as follows:

- A unit has been designated;
- They will be required to move and sign a new lease no later than five (5) days from the date they receive the notice;
- If the hazardous condition was caused by the family, the family shall bear the cost of repair and moving.
  - If the family is unable to move due to financial reasons, SNRHA shall contract with a third party entity to move the family and shall bill the family for said costs, no later than the date on which the repair bills are submitted to them.
  - If the resident family refuses to move or otherwise fails to pay the repair and/or moving costs, SNRHA will initiate eviction proceedings against the family
- If the hazardous condition was not caused by the family, the SNRHA will bear all repairs and documented moving costs incurred by the family.

C. TRANSFERS DUE TO ILLNESS AND/OR DISABILITY

Unit transfers will be implemented by SNRHA to accommodate the accessibility needs of residents and/or their household members, arising from long-term illness or disability.

Accessibility needs are those that require one or all of the following:

- A first floor and/or single story dwelling;
- Widened hallways and/or lowered cabinets;
- Roll-in shower facilities
- Flashing-light-censored smoke detectors
- Central air conditioning and heat

Documentation

Families who request a transfer due to illness and/or disability may be required to submit recent verifiable documentation from a health care provider or social service entity that confirms the impairment and the accessibility needs.

Notification

Upon a determination that the family's request for a transfer due to illness or disability has been approved, the SNRHA shall send the resident a thirty (30) day Notice of Transfer. This places the resident family on notice that they have been approved for a transfer and that any time after the thirty (30) day period has passed:

A unit to which the family may transfer will be designated at such time as it becomes available;

They will be required to enter into a new lease for the transfer unit;

That if they refuse to move into the unit, they must sign a waiver of the transfer request.

When the transfer is authorized, the resident family shall be notified of the identity of the transfer unit and that they are required to accept the dwelling unit within three (3) calendar days and lease the unit within two (2) calendar days after accepting the unit.

The resident can receive an extension of up to an additional seven (7) calendar days, at the SNRHA's discretion, subject to documented evidence of an undue hardship on the family.

Examples of undue hardship include but are not limited to:

Death in the immediate family

Jury duty

Hospitalization

Verified medical reasons

A new disability which makes the new unit unsuitable for the family's housing needs

Inability to obtain the resources to execute the move

Any extension must be approved by the Director of Operations or designee.

D. TRANSFERS TO ACCOMMODATE FAMILIES THAT ARE OVER- OR UNDER-HOUSED.

Unit transfers will be implemented by SNRHA to accommodate resident families that are determined to be over-housed or under-housed by virtue of their family size based on the general occupancy standards. These transfers may be initiated by the SNRHA or the resident or both. A family may request an exception to the general occupancy standards. The SNRHA will evaluate the relationship and ages of all family members and the overall size of the unit. If approved, the family must agree to remain in the approved unit for one year.

Notification

Upon a determination that the family is approved to move into a unit of a different size, the SNRHA shall send the resident a thirty- (30) day Notice of Transfer. This places the resident family on notice that they have been approved for a transfer and that any time after the thirty- (30) day period has passed:

A unit to which the family must transfer may be designated;

They will be required to move into that unit in accordance with the terms of their lease;

They will be required to enter into a new lease for the transfer unit;

When the transfer is authorized, the resident family shall be notified of the identity of the transfer unit and that they are required to accept the dwelling unit within three (3) calendar days and lease the unit within two (2) calendar days after accepting the unit.

The resident can receive an extension of up to an additional seven (7) calendar days, at the SNRHA's discretion, subject to documented evidence of an undue hardship on the family.

Examples of undue hardship include but are not limited to:

Death in the immediate family

Jury duty

Hospitalization

Verified medical reasons

A new disability which makes the new unit unsuitable for the family's housing needs

Inability to obtain the resources to execute the move

Any extension must be approved by the Director of Operations or designee.

Resident Refusal of the Transfer Unit

The resident may decline the transfer unit for good and reasonable cause. Such cause shall be considered sufficient if:

The unit does not provide adequate accessibility, or

The unit will not have the required effect of accommodating the family size.

The Director of Operations shall determine if the unit refusal is for good cause. If the resident declines the unit without good cause, the SNRHA shall assign the unit to another family and void the request for transfer if generated by the family.

If the resident refuses the transfer unit when the reason for the transfer is an emergency, under/over housed or abatement, a 30-day notice will be issued. The unit will be reassigned and the transfer will be voided.

Transfer Procedures

The Development Manager and resident will participate in a pre-transfer inspection to determine damages prior to transfer and the charges made part of the new lease.

The resident and SNRHA shall enter into a new lease agreement for the transfer unit.

Security Deposits

1. Families transferring to another development must have paid the security deposit in full at the sending development.
2. SNRHA will charge the families for any damages to the previous unit.
3. Security deposits will be refunded to the resident under the terms of the lease for the

- previous unit. The resident must deposit with the SNRHA a security deposit on the new unit consistent with the security deposit policy in effect at the time of the transfer.
4. Refer to Security Deposit Chapter for additional details.
  5. Move-out charges will be posted to the new unit. The office of the receiving development is responsible for collecting any maintenance charges due SNRHA.

E. GENERAL CONDITIONS GOVERNING TRANSFERS

Discrimination Prohibited

Transfer requests shall be processed, evaluated, initiated and/or determined without regard to race, color, religion, gender, creed or national origin. Transfer requests based on household composition and/or illness disability must consider family size and disability.

Cleaning and/or Repair Charges

All transfers are subject to charges for cleaning or repair work performed by the maintenance staff on the vacated unit. All charges will be assessed after an inspection is completed by the resident and the housing manager. Residents will be required to pay any amounts owed to the past property within 30 days of the move out statement.

Rent Adjustments for Transferred Residents

No rent adjustment will be made, except for utility allowance, until the next scheduled certification.

Reexamination Date

The date of the transfer changes the reexamination date according to the block system of the gaining development, unless the annual reexamination period would exceed twelve months since the family's last annual reexamination.

The losing development will send the family's file to the gaining development once they have been notified that the family has accepted the unit, before the family is leased up. The gaining development will not attempt to lease up a family without possession of the family's file.

SNRHA Incentives for Higher Income Families Transferring Into Lower Income Developments

The SNRHA will offer certain incentives to higher income families (Household Income at or above 60% of AMI) willing to move into lower income projects. If a higher income family agrees to move to a SNRHA-specified lower income development, the SNRHA will agree to approve to transfer the resident family to the next available scattered site home or the development of the family's choice. The move will be approved according to the Occupancy Guidelines only if the family has consistently been in lease compliance for two years following admission.

SNRHA will target homeownership opportunities to higher income families moving into lower income projects.

Processing In and Out of Developments

Gaining Developments

Transfers from other developments will be processed in the same manner as move-ins, including a new lease and applicable security deposit.

The resident transferring between public housing projects does not have to meet the admission requirements pertaining to income or preference.

Residents Failure to Transfer Units

In the event the resident fails to transfer and submit keys within the timeframes as stated in this policy, both managers will serve the tenant with a 30 Day Notice for failure to vacate the unit they are transferring from.

COST OF TRANSFERS

Residents shall bear the cost of transfers to correct occupancy standards, resident requested transfers, incentive transfers, and other voluntary transfers.

SNRHA will bear the reasonable cost of transfers SNRHA requests for demolition, disposition, rehabilitation, building system failures, or emergency conditions due to no fault of the tenant. SNRHA will bear the reasonable cost of transfers needed as a reasonable accommodation for residents with disabilities, in accordance with SNRHA Reasonable Accommodation Policy and Procedures. The reasonable cost of transfers includes not just the cost of packing, moving, and unloading, but also the cost of connecting and reconnecting any existing resident-paid services such as telephone and cable.

Resident Selection Criteria For Otto Merida Family Apartments

The following criteria will be utilized to select from current residents residing in other Public Housing communities for the Project:

1. Must have a favorable rental payment history. A resident will be considered to have a favorable rental payment history if there have been two or less delinquent rent payments in the previous twelve months.
2. Must be in good standing with SNRHA and in compliance with all terms and conditions of the resident's existing Lease.
3. Resident must be currently employed or enrolled in the Family Self Sufficiency Program and must have accomplished one or more established goals within the Program. SNRHA will provide the Manager with a list of residents wishing to transfer to the Project and the Manager will determine and certify the eligibility of the resident, and the resident will be notified of the determination. Transfer requests will be processed on a first come, first serve basis.

Income Tiering

In addition to the above selection criteria, SNRHA will institute an income-tiering system in allocating units within the Project. The units will be divided into three income tiers, which will be distributed equally across the development and by unit types. The income tiers will be as follows:

- Low Tier: Less than 20% of the HUD Area Median Income (AMI) for a Family of Four (or $11,819 in 2005) 20 units;
- Middle Tier: Greater than 20% AMI and Less than 30% AMI for a Family of Four (or $17,730 in 2005) 20 units; and
- High Tier: Greater than 30% AMI and Less than 60% AMI maximum tax credit income Level (or $35,460 in 2005 for a Family of Four) 20 units.

Transfer requests from current SNRHA residents who meet the initial resident selection criteria noted above will be placed in one of the three income tiers, or disqualified by the Manager if the applicants' income is above the 60% AMI tax credit limit or do not meet the LIHTC eligibility.

After the initial inquiry is made of existing public housing residents, public housing residents may apply for transfer to the Project at the time of their annual certification by completing an application for the Honolulu Street Apartments.

Public Housing Waiting List

In the event there are no current public housing residents within the appropriate income tiers as indicated above who wish to transfer to the Project, Project vacancies will be filled from

Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority

SNRHA's Public Housing certified waiting list utilizing current preferences and screening criteria in accordance with SNRHA's ACOP and the screening criteria described above.

Employment income is a current SNRHA waiting list preference.

In the event there are no eligible applicants on the current Public Housing certified waiting list within the three income tiers, outreach will be conducted to the general public as provided in the Marketing Policy.

Chapter 9 LEASING

[24 CFR 966.4]

INTRODUCTION

It is the SNRHA's policy that all units must be occupied pursuant to a dwelling lease agreement that complies with HUD's regulations [24 CFR Part 966]. This chapter describes pre-leasing activities and the SNRHA's policies pertaining to lease execution, security deposits, other charges, and additions to the lease.

A. LEASE ORIENTATION

In conjunction with execution of the lease, all adult family members must attend a new resident orientation within 90 days of move-in.

Residents with disabilities may request a reasonable accommodation.

Orientation Agenda

When families attend the lease orientation, they will be provided with:

- A sample copy of the lease
- A copy of the grievance procedure
- A copy of the house rules
- Supportive services information, including FSS
- Emergency maintenance policy
- Community Service requirements and policy
- Pet policy
- Trespass policy
- Bed Bug Addendum
- Housekeeping Standard
- Other Lease addendums

Topics to be discussed will include, but are not limited to:

- Applicable deposits and other charges
- Maintenance charges
- Provisions of the lease
- Unit maintenance and work orders
- Terms of occupancy
- Rent choice/Flat rent/income based/seasonal employment

SNRHA shall ensure additional efforts are made to ensure full program accessibility to persons with Limited English Proficiency, including notifying organizations that provides services to low-income families whose primary language is Spanish, as outlined in SNRHA's Limited English Proficiency Plan.

B. LEASE REQUIREMENTS

The initial term of the lease will be for 12 months. The lease will renew automatically for 12-month terms with the following exception:

- SNRHA will not renew the lease if the family has violated the community service requirement (24 CFR 966.4).
- Due to the community service requirement, the lease does not automatically renew for terms of 12 months. An annual signing process, the completion of recertification, is required.
- The lease further provides for termination and eviction at the end of any 12-month lease term for non-compliance with the community service requirements at 24 CFR Part 960, Subpart F and Chapter 15 of this Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy.

C. EXECUTION OF LEASE

The lease shall be executed by the head of household, spouse or co-head; and by an authorized representative of SNRHA, prior to admission.

The head or co-head of household is the person who assumes legal and financial responsibility for the household and is listed on the application as head or co-head.

An appointment will be scheduled for the parties to execute the lease. One executed copy of the lease will be given to the tenant, and the SNRHA will retain the original in the tenant's file. The lease is incorporated into this policy by reference. The lease document will reflect current SNRHA policies as well as applicable Federal, State and local law. The following provisions govern lease execution and amendments:

- A lease is executed at the time of admission for all new tenants.
- A new lease is executed at the time of the transfer of a tenant from one SNRHA unit to another
- If, for any reason, the head or co-head of household of the lease cease to be a member of the household, a new lease will be executed with the remaining members, so long as they meet the program requirements.
- Lease signers must be persons legally eligible to execute contracts.
- The names, relationship to head, date of birth, and social security number of all household members are listed on the lease at initial occupancy and on the Application for Continued Occupancy (need to determine name of form to be used) each subsequent year. Only those persons listed on the most recent certification shall be permitted to occupy a dwelling unit.
- Changes to tenant rents are made upon the preparation and execution of an addendum to the lease which reflects any change in household composition or rent. Documentation will be included in the tenant file to support proper notice.

- Households that include a live-in aide are required to execute a live in aide agreement authorizing the arrangement and describing the status of the aide.
- Households that include a live-in aide will contain file documentation that the live-in aide is not a party to the lease and is not entitled to SNRHA assistance, with the exception of occupancy while serving as the aide for the participant family member.

The SNRHA may modify its form of lease from time to time, giving tenants an opportunity to comment on proposed changes and advance notice of the implementation of any changes. A tenant's refusal to accept permissible and reasonable lease modifications, or those modifications required by HUD, is grounds for termination of tenancy.

D. ADDITIONS TO THE LEASE

Only those persons listed on the most recent certification form and lease shall be permitted to occupy a dwelling unit<sup>1</sup>.

All persons listed on the most recent certification form and the lease must use the dwelling unit as their sole residence.

Requests for the addition of a new member of the household must be approved by the SNRHA, prior to the actual move-in by the proposed new member.

Following receipt of a family's request for approval, the SNRHA will conduct a pre-admission screening, including the Criminal History Report, of the proposed new adult member. Only new members approved by the SNRHA will be added to the household.

Family members over the age of 18 who move from the dwelling unit to establish new households shall be removed from the lease. These individuals may not be readmitted to the unit and must apply as a new applicant for placement on the waiting list. Exceptions will be made by the approval of the Director of Operations or designee.

Minors being added to the household by other than birth or legal adoption or court – awarded custody must be verified by court action. Temporary guardianship will be considered as a court action. All temporary guardianship will be renewed and verified every six months.

Factors Determining Household Additions

Household additions subject to screening:

- Resident plans to marry;
- Resident desires to add a new adult family member to the lease or employ a live-in aide.

- A unit is occupied by a remaining family member(s) under age 18 (not an emancipated minor) and an adult who was not a member of the original household requests permission to take over as the head of household. Guardianship and/or custody of the remaining family member(s) under 18 must be obtained by the adult who was not a member of the original household. The family will have 90 days to obtain all documentation. If the adult is unable to provide appropriate documentation regarding the remaining minor, children and/or fails to comply with all screening requirements they are ineligible to occupy the unit at the expiration of the 90 days.

Factors determining household additions that are not subject to screening:

Children born to a family member or whom a family member legally adopts are exempt from the pre-screening process.

Children for whom the family receives court-awarded custody

Persons under the age of 18 years

Foster Children proposed to live in the unit

In cases where the addition of a new member who has not been born, married, awarded legal custody or guardianship, or legally adopted into the family, and the addition will affect the bedroom size required by the family, according to the SNRHA occupancy standards, the SNRHA will not approve the addition. An exception will be granted if the family has submitted a Self-Certification of Physical Custody of Minor Child/Children or an Appointment of Temporary Guardian to the SNRHA. If either of these forms has been submitted, the SNRHA will also require that the family has initiated legal proceedings for guardianship or legal custody.

Residents who fail to notify the SNRHA of additions to the household, or who permit persons to join the household without undergoing screening, are in violation of the lease. Such persons are considered to be unauthorized occupants by the SNRHA, and the entire household will be subject to eviction [24 CFR 966.4(f) (3)].

Family members age 18 and over, other than spouse, who move from the dwelling unit shall be removed from the lease. The tenant must notify the SNRHA of the move-out within 10 calendar days of its occurrence. These individuals may not be readmitted to the unit and must apply as a new applicant for placement on the waiting list.

The SNRHA in making determinations under this paragraph will consider medical hardship or other extenuating circumstances.

Visitors

1. The resident may not allow visitors to stay overnight more than fourteen (14) consecutive days nor more than 30 calendar days in a twelve month period without prior written approval of management.
2. Visitors who remain beyond this period shall be considered unauthorized, and their presence constitutes a breach of the lease.
3. If an individual other than a leaseholder is representing to an outside agency that they are residing in the lessee's unit, the person will be considered an unauthorized member of the household.
4. Roomers and lodgers are not permitted to occupy a dwelling unit, nor are they permitted to move in with any family occupying a dwelling unit. Advertisements for roomers or lodgers shall be considered a violation of the lease by virtue of intent to sub lease portions of the assisted unit.
5. Residents are not permitted to allow a former tenant of the SNRHA who has been evicted to occupy their unit for any period of time.
6. Medical hardship or other extenuating circumstances shall be considered by SNRHA in making determinations under this area. Temporary caretaker request must be provided by the resident and verified by a medical provider. The status must be updated every thirty (30) days. The SNRHA will review the request and verified reasons for the caretaker during an extended medical hardship. Approval of the caretaker to occupy the unit for a period beyond 2 weeks will require prior approval by the Property Manager.

Absences from the Unit

Residents must advise the SNRHA when they will be absent from the unit for more than 30 consecutive days and provide a means for the SNRHA to contact the resident in the event of an emergency. Failure to advise the SNRHA in writing of extended absences is grounds for termination of the lease.

E. LEASING UNITS WITH ACCESSIBLE OR ADAPTABLE FEATURES

[24 CFR 8.27(a) (1) (2) and (b)]

Before offering a vacant accessible unit to a non-disabled applicant or resident, the SNRHA will offer such units:

First, to a current occupant of another unit of the same development, or other public housing developments under the SNRHA's control, who has a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit?

Second, to a current occupant of other public housing developments under the SNRHA's control who has a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit?

Thirdly, to an eligible qualified applicant on the waiting list having a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit.

Accessible units will be offered to and accepted by non-disabled applicants or residents only with the understanding that such applicants/resident must agree to relocate to a non-accessible unit at a later date if a person with a disability requiring the unit applies for housing and is determined eligible or there is an existing resident who require the features of the accessible unit.

The SNRHA will require a non-disabled applicant or resident to agree to move to an available non-accessible unit within 30 days when either a current resident or an applicant needs the features of the unit and there is another unit available for the applicant or resident. This requirement will be a provision of the lease agreement.

F. UTILITY SERVICES

Tenants responsible for direct payment of utilities must abide by any and all regulations of the specific utility company, including regulations pertaining to advance payments of deposits.

If a resident is resident or applicant is unable to establish utility services due to a previous balance owed to the utility company, the resident/applicant will not be permitted to move into a unit with resident paid utilities. This may mean that a current resident cannot transfer or that an applicant cannot be admitted. See page 6-16.

Failure to maintain utility services during tenancy is a lease violation and grounds for eviction. Non-payment of excess utility charge payments to the SNRHA is a violation of the lease and is grounds for eviction.

SNRHA may send utility reimbursement directly to the utility supplier without the consent of the family that is paying an income based rent. SNRHA will notify the family of the amount of any such direct payment to the utility supplier.

The lease will designate the appliances provided by SNRHA (i.e.: stove and refrigerator). The tenant is responsible for proper hook-up, safety and maintenance of any appliances they may provide (i.e.: dryers).

G. SECURITY AND PET DEPOSITS

Security Deposit

Tenant security deposits are required to minimize collection losses and encourage residents to leave their apartments clean and in good condition when they vacate.

Security Deposit Amounts

New tenants must pay a security deposit to the SNRHA at the time of leasing the unit.

The Security Deposits for Public Housing will be based on bedroom size as follows:

- Efficiency Unit: $200.00
- One Bedroom Unit: $200.00
- Two Bedroom Unit $250.00
- Three Bedroom Unit $300.00
- Four Bedroom Unit $350.00
- Five Bedroom Unit $400.00

Scattered Site units will be required to pay an additional $100 deposit for lawn or yard maintenance for which they are responsible for under terms of their lease.

Transfer of Security Deposit

If a resident transfers, the original security deposit may be refunded to the resident. The resident must then pay the required deposit for the new unit. The resident will be responsible for payment of any additional security deposits as outlined in this policy. The tenant will also be further billed for any maintenance or other charges beyond the security deposit.

The SNRHA may permit installment payments of security when a new tenant demonstrates a financial hardship to the satisfaction of the SNRHA. The Authority may allow for one-quarter of the required deposit at the time of admission and the remainder to be paid with additional equal payments for a three month period. The full deposit must be paid within 120 days of initial occupancy.

The Security Deposit will be returned, less any applicable charges, to the tenant after move-out, if the following conditions are met:

- There is no unpaid rent and/or charges for which the resident is liable under the lease or as a result of breaching the lease.
- The dwelling unit and all equipment are left clean, and all trash and debris have been removed by the family.
- There is no breakage or damage beyond that expected from normal wear and use.
- Tenant gave the required 30 calendar days advance written notice of intent to vacate and all keys issued have been returned to the management office when the family vacates the dwelling unit.

The Security Deposit may not be used to pay charges during the tenant's occupancy.

The SNRHA will hold the security deposit for the period the tenant occupies the unit. The SNRHA will refund the Security Deposit less any amounts owed, within 30 calendar days after move out and tenant's notification of new address. If no address is provided, the refund will be mailed to the last known address.

The SNRHA will provide the tenant or designee identified above with a written list of any charges against the security deposits. If the tenant disagrees with the amount charged to the security deposits, the SNRHA will provide a meeting to discuss the charges.

The resident must leave the dwelling unit in a clean and undamaged (beyond normal wear and tear) condition and must furnish a forwarding address to the SNRHA. All keys to the unit must be returned to the Management upon vacating the unit.

The SNRHA will not use the security deposit for payment of rent or other charges while the tenant is living in the unit.

The tenant will be billed for any maintenance or other charges. If the tenant family will be transferred from one public housing dwelling unit to another the SNRHA will conduct the required move-out inspection and determine what charges, if any, should be assessed to tenant's account. SNRHA will establish the security deposit for the new unit based upon the current security deposit policy and the family will be required to pay the balance/new deposit amount in effect at that time.

H. ADDITIONAL SECURITY DEPOSIT COLLECTION PROCEDURES

Security Deposits are governed by the terms of the lease, 24CFR's and Nevada's Statutes. The SNRHA reserves the right to bill a resident's account additional charges if any of the situations below exist or take place within a resident's apartment. This money will be added to the resident's current security deposit. Such deposits may be collected for the following:

- 1) Unauthorized wallpapering.
- 2) Painting walls any color other than the original color upon move-in.
- 3) If the resident fails a housing inspection due to unsanitary housekeeping or excessive damage to the unit that is beyond normal wear and tear.
- 4) Evidence of pet damages (carpet stains, clawing, biting unit components, defecation interior or exterior, fleas, landscaping, lawn or property, fences or other visual damage).

If any of the above items are found within a household the resident will be immediately billed per labor rates established according to the Maintenance Charge List and added into the tenant's security deposit funds. The SNRHA has enacted this change to protect the interest of our housing stock and to reduce the billable charges due by the resident once they have moved out of SNRHA housing.

Pet Deposit

DEPOSIT SCHEDULE:

| Type of Pet                                                | Deposit |
|------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Dog                                                        | $200   |
| Cat                                                        | $200   |
| Fish Aquarium                                              | $50.00 |
| Fish Bowl (Requires no power and no larger than 2 gallons) | $0     |
| Caged pets (birds, gerbils, hamsters)                      | $50.00 |

ALL PET AGREEMENTS SIGNED WITH RESIDENTS OF SNRHA PRIOR TO THE ADOPTION OF THIS POLICY (03/01/2010) ARE NOT SUBJECT TO PAYING ADDITIONAL DEPOSIT AMOUNTS

RESIDENTS SIGNING PET POLICY AGREEMENTS FOLLOWING THE ADOPTION OF THIS POLICY WILL BE SUBJECT TO PAYING DEPOSITS FOR ANY NEW OR ADDITIONAL PETS.

Assistance Animals for persons with a disability are not subject to the pet deposit.

The SNRHA may permit installment payments of when a new tenant demonstrates a financial hardship to the satisfaction of the SNRHA.

The pet security deposit is to cover the cost of damages created by the pet. Tenant will be given a list of all such damages and the applicable charges that will be deducted from the pet deposit at the time the tenant vacates the unit or the pet is removed from the unit, whichever occurs first. Tenant will also be advised of their right to an informal meeting and/or grievance hearing should they dispute the charges. (See Chapter 10 for remainder of pet policy provisions.) The pet deposit will be returned to the tenant or the person designated by the former tenant, upon notification that the pet is no longer in the unit or in the event of the former tenant's incapacitation or death.

Interest

SNRHA will not compute or pay any interest on any deposit.

I. RENT PAYMENTS

See Chapter 13, Rent and Debt Collection Procedures.

J. FEES AND NONPAYMENT PENALTIES

See Chapter 13, Rent and Debt Collection Procedures.

K. SCHEDULES OF SPECIAL CHARGES

Schedules of special charges for services, repairs, utilities and rules and regulations which are required to be incorporated into the lease by reference shall be publicly posted in a conspicuous manner in the community office, and they will be provided to the resident at the time of lease execution.

The SNRHA will assess residents a charge for tenant-caused damage to its Conventional housing facilities (i.e., dwelling unit and/or common areas). Where there is no specific cost listed for an item of work, the charge to the family will be based upon the SNRHA labor rate times (x) the hours of labor charged to the job plus (+) the actual cost of parts and materials that were used on the job. A Schedule of Charges will be maintained by the agency and periodically updated. A copy of this schedule will be posted in all management offices and shall be made available upon request. The SNRHA will not charge for any repairs that are necessitated by normal wear and tear; nor is there a charge for any scheduled periodic work, such as painting or extermination. However, if extermination is required on other than the pre-established scheduled basis and there is a determination that the extra extermination services are due to the negligence of the tenant family, the SNRHA reserves the right to charge for said service.

L. MODIFICATIONS TO THE LEASE

Schedules of special charges and rules and regulations are subject to modification or revision. Tenants will be provided at least thirty days written notice of the reason(s) for any proposed modifications or revisions, and they will be given an opportunity to present written comments. Comments will be taken into consideration before any proposed modifications or revisions become effective.

A copy of such notice shall be posted in the central office, each development office.

Any modifications of the lease must be accomplished by a written addendum to the lease and signed by parties, the resident(s) and the SNRHA.

M. CANCELLATION OF THE LEASE

Cancellation of the tenant's lease is to be in accordance with the provisions contained in the lease agreement and as stated in this policy.

N. SMOKE FREE HOUSING

In order to provide a healthier environment for our residents, the Board of Commissioners has adopted a Smoke Free Housing Policy. The purpose of this policy is to provide a healthier environment for our residents and eliminate the harmful effects of secondhand smoke, fire danger and damage to apartments due to smoke. Secondhand smoke is particularly dangerous to children and people with respiratory disease. It is the third leading cause of preventable death in the United States. In 2006, the US Surgeon General stated that there is no safe level of second hand smoke.

Definition of Smoke/Smoking:

The term “smoke” and “smoking” means inhaling, exhaling, breathing or carrying any lighted cigar, cigarette or other tobacco product on similar lighted product in any manner or in any form.

Smoke-Free Apartments:

The premises listed below have been designated as smoke-free living environments:

- Lubertha Johnson Estates Senior Development

With 45 days written notice and a signed lease addendum for all current residents, future properties may be designated smoke free at the discretion of SNRHA.

Residents, staff and guests are prohibited from smoking on these properties owned and managed by SNRHA, including the apartment rented by the resident, the building in which the dwelling unit is located, and all common areas inside and outside the building up to 15 feet from each building and 50 feet from the buildings entry.

The Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority Not a Guarantor of Smoke-Free Environment

The adoption of a smoke free living environment and the efforts to designate a property as smoke-free does not make SNRHA a guarantor of resident’s health or of the smoke free condition of the resident’s apartment and common areas. However, SNRHA shall take reasonable steps to enforce the smoke-free terms of its leases and to make the property smoke-free. SNRHA will post smoke free properties with “No Smoking” signs inside and outside the buildings and may, at its sole option, consider designating smoking areas at any or all of the properties.

Smoking on the Property as a Lease Violation

If a resident smells tobacco smoke anywhere in the building, they should report this to the office as soon as possible. Management will seek the source of the smoke and take appropriate action. A resident will be in violation of his/her lease if the resident or any guest is determined to be smoking on SNRHA property. Three (3) violations of SNRHA’s Smoke Free Policy may result in eviction. All applicants/residents acknowledge receipt of this Policy and Smoke-Free Lease Addendum in writing at the time of application and/or next rent recertification.

O. INSPECTIONS OF PUBLIC HOUSING UNITS

Initial Inspections

The SNRHA and the family will inspect the premises prior to occupancy of the unit in order to determine the condition of the unit and equipment in the unit. A copy of the initial inspection, signed by the SNRHA and the tenant, will be kept in the unit file and tenant file.

Vacate Inspections

The management staff will perform a move-out inspection when the family vacates the unit, and will encourage the family to participate in the move-out inspection.

The purpose of this inspection is to determine necessary maintenance and whether there are damages that exceed normal wear and tear. The SNRHA will determine if there are tenant caused damages to the unit. Tenant caused damages may affect part or all of the family's security deposit. Documentation, including pictures of tenant caused damages will be maintained in tenant file.

The move-out inspection also assists the SNRHA in determining the time and extent of the preparation and repairs necessary to make the unit ready for the next tenant.

Annual Inspections

The SNRHA will inspect all units annually using HUD-required standards. All inspections will include a check of all smoke alarms to ensure proper working order. Pictures of any damages and/or housekeeping problems may be taken. At each annual inspection, staff will verify that the additional room is still being used for medical equipment or live-in aide.

Residents who "fail" the inspection due to housekeeping or tenant-caused damages will be given 10 calendar days to correct noted items and placed on a schedule of 30, 60, and 90 day inspections conducted to ensure lease compliance. Failure to comply with housekeeping requirements are grounds for lease termination.

Residents may request a copy of the inspection report with required corrections. In cases where units failed inspection for housekeeping or damage, a conference is scheduled with the property management.

If necessary to bring the unit into HUD-required compliance, needed repairs will be completed by the SNRHA.

Required corrections will be repaired by the SNRHA within 30 business days of the inspection date.

Damages beyond "normal wear and tear" will be billed to the tenant.

Residents who repeatedly "fail" the inspection or cause excessive damage to the unit will be in violation of their lease. SNRHA will take appropriate lease enforcement action.

Quality Control Inspections

The housing management staff will conduct periodic quality control inspections to determine the condition of the unit and to identify problems or issues in which the SNRHA can be of service to the family.

The SNRHA management staff will conduct quality control inspections on 5% of the units.

The purpose of these quality control inspections is to assure that repairs were completed at an acceptable level of craftsmanship and within an acceptable time frame.

The property manager may conduct periodic inspections to determine the condition of the unit and to identify problems or issues in which the SNRHA can be of service to the family.

Special Inspections

Housing management staff may conduct a special inspection for housekeeping, unit condition, or suspected lease violation.

HUD representatives or local government officials may review SNRHA operations periodically and as a part of their monitoring may inspect a sampling of the SNRHA's inventory.

Modernized and Scattered Site Inspections: New move inspections will be conducted within 60 days of the resident leasing the unit to ensure the unit and grounds are being maintained.

Unit inspections will be conducted within ten (10) working days from the date SNRHA is notified or receives knowledge of an unsatisfactory condition such as infestation, damages, unsatisfactory housekeeping or complaints of poor exterior conditions.

Other Inspections

The SNRHA management staff will periodically conduct windshield and/or walk-through inspections to determine whether there may be lease violations, adverse conditions or local code violations.

Playground inspections are conducted weekly to determine playground safety.

Building exterior and grounds inspections are conducted at all Public Housing properties to determine hazardous conditions as well as to assist in budget preparation.

Emergency Inspections

Housing management staff may initiate an emergency inspection report to generate a work order if they believe that an emergency exists in the unit or on a Public Housing site. In addition, staff may conduct an emergency inspection without a work order and generate a work order after the inspection has been conducted (see Entry of Premises Notice in this chapter.) Repairs are to be completed within 24 hours from the time the work order is issued.

Emergency Repairs to be Completed in Less than 24 Hours

The following items are to be considered emergency in nature and require immediate (less than 24 hour) repair or abatement:

- Broken window glass that affects unit security, is a cutting hazard, or occurs within inclement weather (to be secured or abated)
- Escaping gas
- Plumbing leaks that have the capacity to create flooding or cause damage to the unit
- Natural gas leaks or smell of fumes
- Backed-up sewage
- Electrical hazard
- Inoperable SNRHA-owned air conditioner/heater (seasonal)
- Inoperable smoke detectors will be treated as a 24-hour emergency and will be made operable by the SNRHA if the smoke detector is in need of repair. Residents who disengage smoke detectors will be charged (see Schedule of Charges posted.)
- Lock-outs – Subject to the resident paying the cost for responding.

Entry of Premises Notices

The SNRHA will give prior written notice for non-emergency inspections. Non-emergency entries to the unit will be made during reasonable hours of the day.

The SNRHA will provide the family with 48 hour notice prior to entering the unit for non-emergency reasons other than the annual inspection.

An inspection may not be conducted if there are minors and no adult (required to show identification) present in the unit during the inspection.

If no person is at home, the staff will enter the unit and conduct the inspection and will leave a written notice to the resident explaining the reason the unit was entered and the date and time.

A written notice specifying the purpose for non-emergency entry into the unit will be delivered to the premises at least 2 days before entry.

Where the SNRHA is conducting regular annual inspection of its housing units, the family will receive reasonable advance notice of the inspection to allow the family to prepare and be able to pass the inspection.

Reasons the SNRHA will enter the unit are:

- Inspections and maintenance
- To make improvements and repairs
- To show the premises for leasing
- In cases of emergency

The family must call the SNRHA at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled date of inspection to reschedule the inspection, if necessary.

The SNRHA will reschedule the inspection no more than once unless the resident has a verifiable medical reason which has hindered the inspection. The SNRHA may request verification.

Repairs requested by the family will not require prior notice to the family. Residents are notified in the lease that resident-requested repairs presume permission for the SNRHA to enter. The resident may specify at the time of request for repair or maintenance that they be present. SNRHA will take reasonable measures to comply with the residents request; however known deficiencies must be corrected.

Non-Inspection Emergency Entry

The SNRHA staff will allow access to the unit to proper authorities when issues of health or safety of the tenant are concerned.

Family Responsibility to Allow Inspection

The SNRHA must be allowed to inspect the unit at reasonable times with reasonable notice. If the resident refuses to allow the inspection, the resident will be in violation of the lease.

Chapter 10

PET POLICY

[24 CFR 5.309]

INTRODUCTION

This chapter explains the SNRHA's policies on the keeping of pets and any criteria or standards pertaining to the policy. The rules adopted are reasonably related to the legitimate interest of the SNRHA to provide a decent, safe and sanitary living environment for all tenants, to protecting and preserving the physical condition of the property, and the financial interest of the SNRHA.

The purpose of this policy is to establish the SNRHA's policy and procedures for ownership of pets and to ensure that no applicant or resident is discriminated against regarding admission or continued occupancy because of ownership of pets. It also establishes reasonable rules governing the keeping of common household pets.

Residents will comply with the dwelling lease, which requires that no animals or pets of any kind be permitted on the premises without prior written approval of the SNRHA.

Nothing in this policy or the dwelling lease limits or impairs the right of persons with disabilities to own animals that are used to assist them.

The SNRHA Pet Deposits, Fees, and Restrictions do not apply to Assistance Animals. An Assistance Animal is an animal that is needed as a reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities.

In accordance with Section 526 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 (QHWRA), SNRHA hereby sets forth rules and regulations concerning pet ownership in its public housing units. Only "common household pets" as defined herein will be permitted in SNRHA owned properties.

A common household pet, for the purposes of SNRHA's conventional housing program: A domesticated animal, such as a dog, cat, bird, or fish that is traditionally kept in the home for pleasure rather than for commercial or breeding purposes. Common household pet does not include reptiles. This definition shall not include animals that are used to assist persons with disabilities.

Residents may own up to two pets as defined in this policy. If one of the pets is a dog or cat, the second pet must be contained in a cage or an aquarium for fish. Each bird or other animal, other than fish, shall be counted as one pet.

Animals That Assist Persons with Disabilities

Only rules related to the health of the animal, the responsibility of the animal’s owner to clean up after the animal and prevent the animal from disturbing others will be applied to animals that assist persons with disabilities.

To meet these exclusions, the resident/pet owner must provide SNRHA with the means to verify that:

That there is a person with disabilities in the household; and

That if the animal is needed because of the person’s disability.

A. MANAGEMENT APPROVAL OF PETS

All pets must be approved in advance by the SNRHA management. The pet owner must enter into a Pet Agreement with the SNRHA; pay the pet deposit as follows:

DEPOSIT SCHEDULE:

| Type of Pet                                                | Deposit |
|------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Dog                                                        | $200   |
| Cat                                                        | $200   |
| Fish Aquarium                                              | $50.00 |
| Fish Bowl (Requires no power and no larger than 2 gallons) | $0     |
| Caged pets (birds, gerbils, hamsters)                      | $50.00 |
|                                                            |         |

See Sections D and E following for other management requirements.

B. STANDARDS FOR PETS

Pet rules as outlined below will not be applied to animals that assist persons with disabilities however rules related to the health of the animal, the responsibility of the animal’s owner to clean up after the animal and prevent the animal from disturbing others will be applied to animals that assist persons with disabilities.

Types of Pets Allowed

No pets except the following will be acceptable:

Dogs

Maximum number: 1
Maximum adult weight: 30 pounds
Maximum height: 20" at shoulder at full growth
Must be spayed or neutered and housebroken
Must have all required inoculations
Must be licensed as specified now or in the future by State law and local ordinance

Cats

Maximum number: 1
Must be spayed or neutered
Must have all required inoculations
Must be trained to use a litter box or other waste receptacle. Cardboard boxes are not acceptable and will not be approved. The resident shall not permit refuse from litter boxes to accumulate, become odorous, to become unsightly, or unsanitary.
Must be licensed as specified now or in the future by State law or local ordinance

Birds

Maximum number: 2
Must be enclosed in a cage at all times

Fish

Maximum aquarium size: 50 gallons
Must be maintained on an approved stand

Rodents (guinea pig, hamster, or gerbil ONLY)

Maximum number: 1
Must be enclosed in an acceptable cage at all times

Types of Pets Not Allowed

Common household pets permitted in dwelling units do not include:

Exotic pets or barnyard animals are prohibited. Exception may be made for certain species of pigs utilized as bonafide “service animals”. (Snakes and reptiles are considered exotic pets.)

Animals who would be allowed to produce offspring for sale

Wild animals, feral animals, and any other animals that are not amenable to routine human handling

Animals of species commonly used on farms

Non-human primates (unless as an assistive animal to a person with disabilities)

Animals whose climatological needs cannot be met in the unaltered environment of the individual dwelling unit

Pot-bellied pigs

Snakes, spiders, reptiles, and chickens

The following restrictions apply to pets, based on weight, size and inherent dangerousness, including prohibitions against the keeping of:

Any animal whose weight could exceed 30 pounds by adult hood

Dogs of the pit bull, Rottweiler, chow, or boxer breeds

Ferrets or other animals whose natural protective mechanisms pose a risk to small children of serious bites and lacerations

Hedgehogs or other animals whose protective instincts and natural body armor produce a risk to children of serious puncture injuries.

Chicks, turtles or other animals that pose a significant risk of salmonella infection to those who handle them

Pigeons, doves, mynah birds, psittacine birds, and birds of other species that are hosts to the organisms causing psittacosis in humans

Tenants are not permitted to have more than one type of pet.

C. PETS TEMPORARILY ON THE PREMISES

Pets which are not owned by a tenant will not be allowed; although service animals of persons with disabilities who are visiting the unit are permitted.

Residents are prohibited from feeding or harboring stray animals.

This rule excludes visiting pet programs sponsored by a humane society or other non-profit organization and approved by the SNRHA.

State or local laws governing pets temporarily in dwelling accommodations shall prevail.

D. REGISTRATION, ADMINISTRATION, AND OTHER RESTRICTIONS

Registration of Pets

1. Pets must be registered with the SNRHA before they are brought onto the premises. Registration includes certificate signed by a licensed veterinarian or State/local authority that the pet has received all inoculations required by State or local law, and that the pet has no communicable disease(s) and is pest-free. This provision applies to assistive animals for persons with disabilities.
2. Registration must be renewed and will be coordinated with the annual recertification date and proof of license and inoculation will be submitted at least 30 days prior to annual reexamination. This provision applies to assistive animals for persons with disabilities.
3. Dogs and cats must be spayed or neutered. This provision applies to assistive animals for persons with disabilities.
4. Execution of a Pet Agreement with the SNRHA stating that the tenant acknowledges complete responsibility for the care and cleaning of the pet will be required.
5. Approval for the keeping of a pet shall not be extended pending the completion of these requirements.
6. Registration for each animal is to be accomplished by the filing of the following disclosures and forms:
  - a. A health certificate prepared by a veterinarian (including attestations of no communicable disease and of spaying or neutering or of a medical condition precluding spaying or neutering)
  - b. Documentation of current rabies vaccination for species subject to state or local rabies vaccination requirements

- c. Copy of the license issued by the applicable municipality for “ownership” of each animal for whom licensing is a legal requirement
- d. Name, address and telephone number of a veterinarian who will be providing regular care
- e. Name of the adult household member who will be primarily responsible for animal care

Refusal to Register Pets

1. The SNRHA may not refuse to register a pet based on the determination that the pet owner is financially unable to care for the pet. If the SNRHA refuses to register a pet, a written notification will be sent to the pet owner stating the reason for denial and shall be served in accordance with HUD Notice requirements.
2. The SNRHA will refuse to register a pet if:
  - a. The pet is not a common household pet as defined in this policy;
Keeping the pet would violate any House Pet Rules;
  - b. The pet owner fails to provide complete pet registration information or fails to update the registration annually;
  - c. The SNRHA reasonably determines that the pet owner is unable to keep the pet in compliance with the pet rules and other lease obligations. The pet's temperament and behavior may be considered as a factor in determining the pet owner's ability to comply with provisions of the lease.

A resident who cares for another resident's pet must notify the SNRHA and agree to abide by all of the pet rules in writing.

Pet Agreement

Execution of a Pet Agreement will be required, under which the resident acknowledges:

1. The right of management to enter dwelling unit when there is evidence that an animal left alone is in danger or distress
2. The right of management to seek impoundment and sheltering of any animal found to be maintained in violation of housing rules, pending resolution of any dispute regarding such violation
3. Receipt of a copy of all animal-related requirements and restrictions administered by management

4. In the context of public housing, that failure to abide by any animal-related requirement or restriction constitutes a violation of the “Tenant Obligations” appearing at 24 CFR 966.4(f)(4) and, therefore, grounds for lease termination pursuant to 24 CFR 966.4(k)(2)

Other Restrictions

The following other restrictions also apply:

1. A prohibition on the keeping of animals by any resident convicted of a felony or of a misdemeanor relating to treatment of an animal
2. A prohibition on the keeping of any dog or cat over six months of age who is not spayed or neutered
3. A prohibition against keeping animals in any dwelling unit having no air conditioning in which ambient temperatures may exceed 82 degrees at any time of day or night.
4. A restriction against walking or transporting any animal outside of the dwelling unit without use of a leash no longer than five (5') feet or animal transport enclosure.
5. A prohibition against allowing animals on any premises outside of the dwelling unit unaccompanied by a family member, including homeless animals that are being fed or otherwise supported by residents.
6. A prohibition against the tethering or chaining of animals outside of or within the dwelling unit.
7. A prohibition of feeding any dog and/or cat outside the unit.
8. A restriction against subjecting animals to any surgical procedure, such as de-barking or de-clawing, that is typically performed as a substitute for correcting environmental deficiencies and providing proper supervision, or that can render animals abnormally aggressive
9. A requirement for the prompt removal of animal feces deposited in any common area
10. A requirement for regular removal and replacement of litter used in litter boxes or in animal enclosures maintained within dwelling units
11. A requirement for implementation of effective flea control by measures that produce no toxic hazard to children who may come into contact with treated animals

12. Pets are to be restrained so that maintenance can be performed in the unit. The resident shall, whenever an inspection or maintenance is scheduled, either be at home or shall have all animals restrained or caged. If a maintenance person enters a unit where an animal is not restrained, maintenance shall not be performed, and the resident pet owner shall be charged a fee of $25.00. If the situation occurs again, the pet shall be removed from the premises. The Housing Authority shall not be responsible if any animal escapes from the residence due to its maintenance, inspections, or other activities.

State and local public health and anti-cruelty laws are applicable. All complaints of cruelty and all dog bites will be referred to the relevant animal control or police agency for investigation and enforcement.

E. ADDITIONAL FEES AND DEPOSITS FOR PETS

SNRHA requires a refundable pet deposit of $200 for dogs and cats subject to charges for pet associated damage.

SNRHA requires a non-refundable pet fee for dogs of $50 annually to defray the cost of providing pet waste receptacles and equipment as well as pet waste clean-up costs associated with the overall upkeep of the community. Residents are expected to properly dispose of pet waste.

SNRHA will allow gradual payment of the deposit in accordance with the following:

- An initial payment of $50 on or prior to the date the pet is properly registered and brought into the apartment; and
- Monthly payments in an amount no less than $50 until the specified deposit has been paid.

SNRHA will allow gradual payment of the pet fee in accordance with the following:

- An initial payment of $10.00 due by the effective date of the annual recertification and up to four additional installments of $10.00.

The SNRHA reserves the right to change or increase the required deposit by amendment to these rules.

The SNRHA will refund the pet deposit to the tenant, less any damage caused by the pet to the dwelling unit, upon removal of the pet or the owner from the unit. Pet fees are non-refundable.

The SNRHA will return the pet deposit to the former tenant or to the person designated by the former tenant in the event of the former tenant's incapacitation or death.

The SNRHA will provide the tenant or designee identified above with a written list of any charges against the pet deposit. If the tenant disagrees with the amount charged to the pet deposit, the SNRHA will provide a meeting to discuss the charges.

All reasonable expenses incurred by the SNRHA as a result of damages directly attributable to the presence of the pet in the community will be the responsibility of the resident, including:

- The cost of repairs and replacements to the resident's dwelling unit;
- Fumigation of the dwelling unit;
- Common areas of the community.

Pet deposits are not a part of rent payable by the resident.

F. ALTERATIONS TO UNIT

Residents/pet owners shall not alter their unit, patio, premises or common areas to create an enclosure for any animal. Installation of pet doors is prohibited.

G. PET WASTE REMOVAL CHARGE

A separate pet waste removal charge of $25 per occurrence will be assessed against the resident for violations of the pet policy.

Pet waste removal charges are not part of rent payable by the resident.

All reasonable expenses incurred by the SNRHA, as the result of damages directly attributable to the presence of the pet will be the responsibility of the resident, including:

The cost of repairs and replacements to the dwelling unit;

Fumigation of the dwelling unit.

If the tenant is in occupancy when such costs occur, the tenant shall be billed for such costs as a current charge.

If such expenses occur as the result of a move-out inspection, they will be deducted from the pet deposit. The resident will be billed for any amount, which exceeds the pet deposit.

The pet deposit will be refunded when the resident moves out or no longer have a pet on the premises, whichever occurs first.

The expense of flea disinfestations shall be the responsibility of the resident.

H. PET AREA RESTRICTIONS

Pets must be maintained within the resident's unit. When outside of the unit (within the building or on the grounds) dogs and cats must be kept on a leash and under the control of the resident or other responsible adult individual at all times.

Pets are not permitted in common areas including lobbies, community rooms and laundry areas except for those common areas which are entrances to and exits from the building.

I. NOISE

Pet owners must control the noise of pets so that such noise does not constitute a nuisance to other residents or interrupt their peaceful enjoyment of their housing unit or premises. This includes, but is not limited to loud or continuous barking, howling, whining, biting, scratching, chirping, or other such activities.

J. CLEANLINESS REQUIREMENTS

Litter Box Requirements.

All animal waste or the litter from litter boxes shall be picked up immediately by the pet owner, disposed of in sealed plastic trash bags, and placed in a trash bin.

Litter shall not be disposed of by being flushed through a toilet.

Litter boxes shall be stored inside the resident's dwelling unit.

Removal of Waste from Other Locations.

The Resident/Pet Owner shall be responsible for the removal of waste by placing it in a sealed plastic bag and disposing of it in an outside trash bin.

Any unit occupied by a dog, cat, or rodent will be fumigated at the time the unit is vacated or during regularly scheduled extermination of the unit.

The resident/pet owner shall take adequate precautions to eliminate any pet odors within or around the unit and to maintain the unit in a sanitary condition at all times.

K. PET CARE

No pet (excluding fish) shall be left unattended in any apartment for a period in excess of 10 consecutive hours.

All residents/pet owners shall be responsible for adequate care, nutrition, exercise and medical attention for his/her pet.

Residents/pet owners must recognize that other residents may have chemical sensitivities or allergies related to pets, or may be easily frightened or disoriented by animals. Pet owners must agree to exercise courtesy with respect to other residents.

L. RESPONSIBLE PARTIES

The resident/pet owner will be required to designate a responsible party for the care of the pet if the health or safety of the pet is threatened by the death or incapacity of the pet owner, or by other factors that render the pet owner unable to care for the pet.

M. INSPECTIONS

The SNRHA may, after reasonable notice to the tenant during reasonable hours, enter and inspect the premises, in addition to other inspections allowed.

N. TERMINATION OF TENANCY

The SNRHA may initiate procedures for termination of tenancy based on a pet rule violation if:

The pet owner has failed to remove the pet or correct a pet rule violation within the time period specified; and

The pet rule violation is sufficient to begin procedures to terminate tenancy under terms of the lease.

O. PET REMOVAL

If the death or incapacity of the pet owner threatens the health or safety of the pet, or other factors occur that render the owner unable to care for the pet, the situation will be reported to the Responsible Party designated by the resident/pet owner. This includes pets that are poorly cared for or have been left unattended for over 10 consecutive hours.

If the responsible party is unwilling or unable to care for the pet, or if the SNRHA after reasonable efforts cannot contact the responsible party, the SNRHA may contact the appropriate State or local agency and request the removal of the pet.

If the pet is removed as a result of any aggressive act on the part of the pet, the pet will not be allowed back on the premises.

P. EMERGENCIES

The SNRHA will take all necessary steps to insure that symptoms of severe illness, or demonstrate behavior that constitutes an immediate threat to the health or safety of others, are referred to the appropriate State or local entity authorized to remove such animals.

If it is necessary for the SNRHA to place the pet in a shelter facility, the cost will be the responsibility of the tenant/pet owner. Pets that become vicious, display aggressive behavior are subject to referral to appropriate State or Local agency.

RECERTIFICATIONS

[24 CFR 5.613, 24 CFR 5.61524 CFR Part 960 Subpart C,
5.657, 880.603, 884.218, 886.124, 886.324, 891.410, 891.610,
891.750, 960.257, 982.516]

INTRODUCTION

HUD requires that PHA's offer all families the choice of paying income-based rent or flat rent at least annually. Families who choose to pay flat rent or families who receive a verifiable fixed income are required to complete a reexamination of income, deductions and allowances at least once every three years. Flat rent or fixed income families must still report family composition and community service requirements on an annual basis.

To determine the amount of income-based rent, it is necessary for SNRHA to perform a reexamination of the family's income annually. At the annual reexamination, families who choose to pay income-based rent must report their current household composition, income, deductions and allowances. Between regular annual reexaminations, HUD requires that families report all changes in household composition, but SNRHA decides what other changes must be reported and the procedures for reporting them.

This chapter defines SNRHA's policy for conducting annual reexaminations. It also explains the interim reporting requirements for families, and the standards for timely reporting.

A. ELIGIBILITY FOR CONTINUED OCCUPANCY

Residents who meet the following criteria will be eligible for continued occupancy:

Qualify as a family as defined in this policy;

Are in full compliance with the resident obligations and responsibilities described in the dwelling lease;

Have provided Social Security numbers on all family members or have certifications on file indicating they have no Social Security number.

Whose family members have submitted required citizenship/eligible immigration status/non-contending documents. Who meet HUD standards on citizenship or immigration status or are paying a pro-rated rent.

Who are in compliance with the SNRHA's community service requirements.

Whose adult family members have passed an annual criminal screening.

Remaining Family Members and Prior Debt

1. Remaining family members age 18 years or older will be held responsible for arrearages incurred by the former head or spouse. SNRHA will not hold remaining family members (other than the head or spouse) responsible for any portion of the arrearage incurred before the remaining member attained age 18.

Exceptions may be made for extenuating circumstances or hardship.

2. Remaining family members under age 18 shall not be held responsible for the rent arrearages incurred by the former head of household.

B. ANNUAL RECERTIFICATIONS

The terms "annual recertification" and "annual reexamination" are synonymous.

In order to be recertified, families are required to provide current and accurate information on income, assets, allowances and deductions, and family composition. The annual recertification of family income and composition will be conducted the staff.

Families who choose flat rent and families who receive fixed income are to be recertified every three years. SNRHA staff will mail annual information packages to families and may schedule an interview if additional information is needed.

Annual recertifications are scheduled; by the anniversary of their admission date.

Admission Anniversary System:

For families who move in on the first of the month, the annual recertifications will be completed within 12 months of the anniversary of the move-in date. (Example: If family moves in August 1, the annual recertification will be conducted at most 120 days prior to be effective on August 1, the following year.)

For families who move in during the month, the annual recertifications will be completed no later than the first of the month in which the family moved in, the following year.

(Example: If family moves in August 15, the effective date of the next annual recertification is August 1.)

When families move to another dwelling unit, the annual recertification date will not change.

Special Reexaminations: When it is not possible to estimate family income accurately, a temporary determination will be made with respect to income and a special reexamination will be scheduled every 90 days until a reasonably accurate estimate of income can be made.

Special reexaminations shall be conducted when there is a change in the head of household that requires a remaining family member to take on the responsibilities of a leaseholder.

Special Reexamination Following Income Disallowance: When a family qualifies for an earned income disallowance, a special reexamination will occur at the end of the initial 12 month disallowance period and at the end of the second 12 month disallowance period.

Zero/Extremely Low Income Families: Unless the family has income that is excluded from rent computation, families who report zero income or extremely low income will have the income be re-verified through EIV every 90 days for income changes and are further required to complete a written no/low income certification every 180 days and undergo an interim recertification every 180 days. (See Other Interim Reporting Issues below).

Recertification Notice to the Family

All families will be notified of their obligation to recertify by staff delivery or first class mail. The written notification shall be sent at least 120 calendar days in advance of the scheduled annual recertification date specifying the date and time of the appointment and the required documents that the tenant will need to supply.

During this reexamination period, the family will be given the option to choose flat rent or income-based rent. SNRHA will provide a form that states what the flat rent would be and what the family's income-based rent would be. The family will be required to make a choice and sign the form prior to the effective date of their reexamination. The form will be retained in the tenant's file.

If the family chooses flat rent, an annual recertification is required to verify community service requirements and family composition. Recertification of income is only required every three years.

Notification of the flat rent and an approximate amount of the income based rent, based on the last certification, and is sent at least 120 days in advance of the scheduled annual certification.

Families that have paid a flat rent for three years must complete a full certification process to determine accurate information regarding family composition and income. The family may choose to pay a flat rent or the income based rent annually.

Persons with Disabilities

If requested as an accommodation by a person with a disability, the SNRHA will provide the notice in an accessible format. The SNRHA will also mail the notice to a third party, if requested as reasonable accommodation for a person with disabilities. These accommodations will be granted upon verification that they meet the need presented by the disability.

Persons with disabilities, who are unable to come to the SNRHA's office will be granted an accommodation of conducting the interview at the person's home, upon verification that the accommodation requested meets the need presented by the disability.

Collection of Information

The family is required to complete the Application for Continued Occupancy –Personal Declaration. Each adult member who reports no income or very low income will also be required to complete the Personal Declaration Form – No Income Questionnaire. Update form may be used for Interims.

Requirements to Attend

The following family members will be required to attend the recertification interview and sign the personal declaration along with other required forms:

- The head of household, spouse, co-head, and

- All adult household members, age 18 and older.

If the head of household is unable to attend the interview, the appointment will be rescheduled one time at the family's request.

Failure to Respond to Notification to Recertify

The written notification will explain which family members are required to attend the recertification interview. The family may call to request another appointment date up to 2 calendar days prior to the interview.

If the family does not appear for the recertification interview, and has not rescheduled or made prior arrangements with the SNRHA, the SNRHA will reschedule a second appointment.

If the family fails to appear for the second appointment, and has not rescheduled or made prior arrangements, the SNRHA will not schedule a third appointment. If a household fails to complete annual recertification, they will receive a 30 day notice of lease termination for non-compliance with the recertification process.

If the family schedules an appointment and completes annual recertification requirements within thirty days of the effective date of the household's annual recertification, the annual recertification will be completed and the household's rent will be based on the income.

Exceptions to these policies may be made by the Asset Manager if the family is able to document an emergency situation that prevented them from canceling or attending the appointment.

Documents Required From the Family

In the notification letter to the family, the SNRHA will include instructions for the family to bring the following:

- Application for Continued Occupancy form Personal Declaration Form completed by head of household

- Documentation of income for all family members

- Documentation of assets

- Documentation to substantiate any deductions or allowances

- Documentation of family composition

- Picture identification for adults 18 years of age or older

- Other required documents on new family members, such as SSN or citizenship requirements

- Documentation of community service requirements

- Self-Declaration form when adult members 18 and over are declaring no income or very low income. (Except those 62 years and older/or disabled or enrolled in educational or approved training programs.)

SNRHA will require a print out of utility bills for three months to be submitted for residents claiming zero income.

Verification of Information

All information which affects the families continued eligibility for the program, and the family's Total Tenant Payment (TTP) will be verified in accordance with the verification procedures and guidelines described in this Policy. Verifications used for recertification must be less than 120 days old on the effective date of the recertification. All verifications will be placed in the file, which has been established for the family.

When the information has been verified, it will be analyzed to determine:

The continued eligibility of the resident as a family or as the remaining member of a family;

The unit size required by the family;

The amount of rent the family should pay.

Changes in the Tenant Rent

If there is any change in rent, including change in family's choice in rent, the lease will be amended, or a new lease will be executed, or a Notice of Rent Adjustment will be issued [24 CFR 966.4(c) & (o)].

Tenant Rent Increases

If tenant rent increases, a 30-day notice will be mailed to the family prior to the family's annual recertification date.

If less than 30 days are remaining before the family's annual recertification date, the tenant rent increase will be effective on the first of the second month following the thirty day notice.

If there has been a misrepresentation or a material omission by the family, or if the family causes a delay in the recertification processing, there will be a retroactive increase in rent to the family's annual recertification date.

Tenant Rent Decreases

If tenant rent decreases, it will be effective on the family's annual recertification date.

If the family causes a delay so that the processing of the recertification is not complete by the family's annual recertification date, rent change will be effective on the first day of the month following completion of the recertification processing by the SNRHA.

If tenant rent decreases and the change occurred within a month prior to the Recertification appointment, but the family did not report the change as an interim Adjustment, the decrease will be effective on the recertification anniversary date.

C. REPORTING INTERIM CHANGES

Families must report all changes in household composition and increases in income/assets in writing within 10 calendar days to the SNRHA between annual recertifications. This includes additions due to birth, adoption and court-awarded custody. The family must obtain SNRHA approval prior to all other additions to the household.

When there is a change in head of household or a new adult household member is added, the head of household will complete an application for continued occupancy – personal declaration or update form and recertify-revify, using the same procedures the SNRHA staff would use for an annual recertification, except for effective dates of changes. In such case, the Interim Recertification Policy would be used.

The annual recertification date will not change as a result of this action.

The U.S. citizenship/eligible immigrant status of additional family members must be declared and verified prior to the approval by the SNRHA of the family member being added to the lease.

Increases in Income to be Reported and Rent Adjustments

Families paying flat rent are not required to report any increases in income or assets between the recertification periods.

Families paying an income-based rent must report all increases in income/assets of all household members to the SNRHA in writing within 10 calendar days of the occurrence.

Families are required to report the following increases in income:

- Increases in income because a person with income joins the household;
- Increases in household income which comes as a result of a new income source.
- Increases in household income that was not anticipated at the annual recertification period.

Families who receive Social Security, Social Security Disability, pensions or Supplemental Security Income (SSI) are required to report their annual increase when it occurs.

SNRHA will process rent adjustments for all increases in income, which are reported between regularly scheduled recertifications.

Rent increases (except those due to misrepresentation) require 30 days' notice.

Decreases in Income and Rent Adjustments

Residents may report a decrease in income and other changes, such as an increase in allowances or deductions which would reduce the amount of the total tenant payment.

The SNRHA will process the rent adjustment unless the SNRHA confirms that the decrease in income will last less than 30 calendar days.

Decreases in tenant rent will be effective the first day of the month following the month in which the change is reported in writing to the SNRHA. If verification cannot be obtained prior to the end of the month in which the change is reported, the decrease will be made retroactive to the first day of the month following the month in which the change is reported.

D. INCOME CHANGES RESULTING FROM WELFARE PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

The SNRHA will not reduce the public housing rent for families whose welfare assistance is reduced specifically because of:

Fraud; or

Failure to participate in an economic self-sufficiency program; or

Noncompliance with a work activities requirement

However, the SNRHA will reduce the rent if the welfare assistance reduction is a result of:

The expiration of a lifetime time limit on receiving benefits; or

A situation where the family has complied with welfare program requirements but cannot or has not obtained employment, such as:

The family has complied with welfare program requirements, but the durational time limit, such as a cap on the length of time a family can receive benefits, causes the family to lose their welfare benefits.

Verification before Denying a Request to Reduce Rent

The SNRHA will obtain written verification from the welfare agency stating that the family's benefits have been reduced for fraud or noncompliance before denying the family's request for rent reduction.

Cooperation Agreements

The SNRHA has a written cooperation agreement in place with the local welfare agency which assists the SNRHA in obtaining the necessary information regarding welfare sanctions.

The SNRHA has taken a proactive approach to culminating an effective working relationship between the SNRHA and the local welfare agency for the purpose of targeting economic self-sufficiency programs throughout the community that are available to public housing residents.

The SNRHA and the local welfare agency have mutually agreed to notify each other of any economic self-sufficiency and/or other appropriate programs or services that would benefit public housing residents.

E. OTHER INTERIM REPORTING ISSUES

Residents are required to report all changes in family composition or status to SNRHA in writing within 10 calendar days of the occurrence. Failure to report within the 10 calendar days may result in a retroactive rent increase, but not a retroactive credit or rent reduction. In order to qualify for rent reductions, residents must report and verify income decreases promptly.

An interim recertification will be scheduled for families with zero income or extremely low income every 180 days. Once income is reported recertification will cease until annual recertification time.

An interim reexamination will be scheduled for families with zero or extremely low-income every 180 days. Unless the family has income that is excluded from rent computation, families who report zero income or extremely low income will have the income be re-verified through EIV every 90 days for income changes and are further required to complete a written no/low income certification every 180 days and undergo an interim recertification every 180 days, until they have a stable income. If any increases in income are indicated in any of the above information or other verification, then the family will be reviewed for an interim and the rent will be adjusted accordingly.

Monetary or non-monetary contributions from persons not residing in the dwelling unit for any purpose other than the payment or reimbursement of medical expenses shall be considered income. Families that report zero or extremely low income will be required to provide information regarding their means of basic subsistence, such as food, utilities, transportation, etc.

SNRHA Errors

If the SNRHA makes a calculation error at admission to the program or at an annual recertification, an interim recertification will be conducted to correct the error, but the family will not be charged retroactively. Any decrease in rent will be made retroactive.

False or Incomplete Information Supplied by Family

For families whose rent has been based on false or incomplete information supplied by The applicant/resident family, an interim recertification will be conducted upon notice by The SNRHA. Any increase in TTP and tenant rent will be retroactive.

F. TIMELY REPORTING OF CHANGES IN INCOME (AND ASSETS)

Standard for Timely Reporting of Changes

The SNRHA requires that families report interim changes to the SNRHA in writing within ten calendar days of when the change occurs. Any information, document or signature needed from the family which is needed to verify the change must be provided within 3 calendar days of reporting the change.

If the change is not reported within the required time period, or if the family fails to provide signatures, certifications or documentation, (in the time period requested by the SNRHA), it will be considered untimely reporting.

Procedures When the Change is Reported in a Timely Manner

The SNRHA will notify the family of any changes in Tenant Rent to be effective according to the following guidelines:

Increases in the Tenant Rent is effective on the first of the month following at least thirty days' notice.

Decreases in the Tenant Rent are effective the first of the month following the month in which the change is reported.

The change may be implemented based on documentation provided by the family, pending third party written verification.

Procedures when the Change is not Reported by the Tenant in a Timely Manner

If the family does not report the change as described under Timely Reporting, the family will have caused an unreasonable delay in the interim recertification processing and the following guidelines will apply:

Increase in Tenant Rent will be effective retroactive to the date it would have been effective had it been reported on a timely basis. The family will be liable for any underpaid rent, utility reimbursement payment for which they would not have been eligible to receive and may be required to sign a Repayment Agreement in accordance with SNRHA repayment policy.

Decrease in Tenant Rent will be effective on the first of the month following completion of processing by the SNRHA and not retroactively.

Procedures when the Change is not processed by the SNRHA in a Timely Manner

"Processed in a timely manner" means that the change goes into effect on the date it should when the family reports the change in a timely manner. If the change cannot be made effective on that date, the change is not processed by the SNRHA in a timely manner.

Therefore, an increase will be effective after the required 30 days' notice prior to the first of the month after completion of processing by the SNRHA.

If the change resulted in a decrease, the overpayment by the family will be calculated retroactively to the date it should have been effective, and the family will be credited for the amount.

G. REPORTING OF CHANGES IN FAMILY COMPOSITION

All changes in family composition must be reported within 10 business days of the occurrence in writing.

The members of the family residing in the unit must be approved by the SNRHA. The family must inform the SNRHA and request approval of additional family members other than additions due to birth, adoption, or court-awarded custody before the new member occupies the unit.

The proposed new adult family members will be screened by SNRHA, according to the screening criteria in accordance with the criteria for eligibility and admission, prior to approval.

The SNRHA will not approve the addition of family members other than by birth, adoption, marriage or court-awarded custody where the occupancy standards would require a larger size unit.

An exception will be granted if the family has submitted a Self-Certification of Physical Custody of Minor Child/Children or an Appointment of Temporary Guardian to the SNRHA. If either of these forms has been submitted, the SNRHA will also require that the family has initiated legal proceedings for guardianship or legal custody. SNRHA must receive a court awarded guardianship or custody is received within 365 calendar days. Failure shall result in the deduction being removed; and any income still being received shall be counted.

If an adult family member is declared permanently absent by the head of household, the notice must contain a certification by the head or co-head of household or spouse that the member (who may have been the head of household) removed is permanently absent.

The head of household must provide a statement that the head or co-head of household or spouse will notify the SNRHA if the removed member returns to the household for a period longer than the visitor period allowed in the lease.

Increase in Family Size

The SNRHA will consider a unit transfer (if needed under the Occupancy Guidelines) for additions to the family in the following cases:

Addition by marriage/or marital-type relation.

Addition of a minor who is a member of the nuclear family who had been living elsewhere.

Addition of a SNRHA-approved live-in attendant. Addition due to birth, adoption or court-awarded custody.

Families who need a larger sized unit because of voluntary additions identified above will be placed on the Transfer List at their next regularly scheduled recertification; unless it creates a health and safety hazard upon approval of the Director of Operations.

Definition of Temporarily/Permanently Absent

The SNRHA must compute all applicable income of every family member who is on the lease, including those who are temporarily absent.

Income of persons permanently absent will not be counted. If the spouse is temporarily absent and in the military, all military pay and allowances (except hazardous duty pay when exposed to hostile fire and any other exceptions to military pay HUD may define) is counted as income.

It is the responsibility of the head of household to report changes in family composition. The SNRHA will evaluate absences from the unit in accordance with this policy.

Absence of Entire Family

These policy guidelines address situations when the family is absent from the unit, but has not moved out of the unit. In cases where the family has moved out of the unit, the SNRHA will terminate tenancy in accordance with the appropriate lease termination procedures contained in this Policy.

Families are required to notify the SNRHA before they move out of a unit in accordance with the lease and to give the SNRHA information about any family absence from the unit.

Families must notify the SNRHA if they are going to be absent from the unit for more than 14 consecutive days. A person with a disability may request an extension of time as an accommodation.

"Absence" means that no family member is residing in the unit.

In order to determine if the family is absent from the unit, the SNRHA may:

Conduct home visit

Write letters to the family at the unit Post

letters on exterior door Telephone the family at the unit Interview neighbors
Verify if utilities are in service
Check with Post Office for forwarding address
Contact emergency contact

As a reasonable accommodation for a person with a disability, the SNRHA may approve an extension. (See Absence Due to Medical Reasons below for other reasons to approve an extension.) During the period of absence, the rent and other charges must remain current.

If the absence which resulted in termination of tenancy was due to a person's disability, and the SNRHA can verify that the person was unable to notify the SNRHA in accordance with the lease provisions regarding absences, and if a suitable unit is available, the SNRHA may reinstate the family as an accommodation if requested by the family.

If the dwelling unit is deemed abandoned by the tenant, SNRHA shall take possession of the unit and any of the tenant's possessions remaining in the unit, in accordance with the lease. Property abandoned by the tenant may be disposed of by SNRHA in accordance with Nevada State law, NRS 118A and SNRHA procedures.

Absence of Any Member

Any member of the household will be considered permanently absent if s/he is away from the unit for three consecutive months except as otherwise provided in this Chapter.

Absence due to Medical Reasons

If any family member leaves the household to enter a facility such as hospital, nursing home, or rehabilitation center, the SNRHA will seek advice from a reliable qualified source as to the likelihood and timing of their return. If the verification indicates that the family member will be permanently confined to a nursing home, the family member will be considered permanently absent and removed from the lease. If the verification indicates that the family member will return in less than 180 consecutive days, the family member will not be considered permanently absent, as long as rent and other charges remains current.

If the person who is determined to be permanently absent is the sole member of the household, assistance will be terminated in accordance with the SNRHA's "Absence of Entire Family" policy.

Temporary caretaker request must be provided by the resident and verified by a medical provider. The status must be updated every thirty (30) days. The SNRHA will review the request and verified reasons for the caretaker during an extended medical hardship. Approval of the caretaker to occupy the unit for a period beyond 2 weeks will require prior approval by the Asset Manager.

Absence due to Incarceration

If a sole member is incarcerated for more than 30 consecutive days, s/he will be considered permanently absent. Any member of the household, other than the sole member, will be considered permanently absent if s/he is incarcerated for 30 consecutive days. The rent and other charges must remain current during this period.

The SNRHA will determine if the reason for incarceration is for drug-related or criminal activity which would threaten the health, safety and right to peaceful enjoyment of the dwelling unit by other residents. If the offense is drug related or criminal activity that violates the lease and policy, the lease will be terminated.

Foster Care and Absences of Children

If the family includes a child or children temporarily absent from the home due to placement in foster care, the SNRHA will determine from the appropriate agency when the child/children will be returned to the home.

If the time period is to be greater than 3 months 180 days from the date of removal of the child(ren), the family will be required to move to a smaller size unit. If all children are removed from the home permanently, the unit size will be reduced in accordance with the SNRHA's occupancy guidelines.

Absence of Adult

If neither parent remains in the household and the SNRHA and the appropriate agency has determined that another adult is to be brought into the assisted unit to care for the children for an indefinite period, the SNRHA will treat that adult as a visitor for the first 30 calendar days.

If the appropriate agency cannot confirm the guardianship status of the caretaker, the SNRHA will review the status at 30 calendar day intervals.

If the court has not awarded custody or legal guardianship, but the action is in process, SNRHA will secure verification from social services staff or the attorney as to the status. If by the end of that period, court-awarded custody or legal guardianship has been awarded to the guardian, and the guardian qualifies under Tenant Suitability criteria, the lease will be transferred to the guardian.

The caretaker will be allowed to remain in the unit, as a visitor, until a determination of custody is made.

SNRHA will transfer the lease to the guardian, in the absence of a court order, if the guardian qualifies under the Tenant Suitability criteria and has been in the unit for more than 30 days and it is reasonable to expect that custody will be granted.

When the SNRHA approves a person to reside in the unit as caretaker for the child/ren, the income should count pending a final disposition. The SNRHA will work with the appropriate service agencies to provide a smooth transition in these cases.

If a member of the household is subject to a court order that restricts him/her from the home for more than 180 days, the person will be considered permanently absent.

If an adult child goes into the military and leaves the household, they will be considered permanently absent.

Absence of Spouse or Secondary Wage earner

The absence of the spouse or secondary wage earner must be verified by third-party documentation unless so verified per 24CFR 5.609(2) all income must be included.

Full-Time Students

Full time students who attend school away from the home will be treated in the following manner:

A student (other than head of household or spouse) who attends school away from home but lives with the family during school recesses may, at the family's choice, be considered either temporarily or permanently absent. If the family decides that the member is permanently absent, income of that member will not be included in total household income, the member will not be included on the lease, and the member will not be included for determination of unit size.

If the student is considered temporarily absent from the household, applicable income for that person will be counted. Full time students who attend school away from the home and live with the family during school recess will be considered temporarily absent from the household.

Visitors (See Chapter 9, Leasing)

A visitor/guest is defined as a person temporarily staying in the unit with the consent of a tenant or other member of the household who has express or implied authority to so consent on behalf of the tenant.

Any adult not included on the HUD 50058 who has been in the unit more than 14 consecutive days, or more than 30 cumulative days in a 12 month period, will be considered to be living in the unit as an unauthorized.

The lease must provide the tenant has the right to exclusive use and occupancy of the leased unit by the members of the household authorized to reside in the unit in accordance with the lease, including reasonable accommodation of their guests [24 CFR 966.4(d)]. The head of household is responsible for the conduct of visitors and guests, inside the unit as well as anywhere on or near PHA premises [24 CFR 966.4(f)].

A resident family must notify the SNRHA in writing when overnight guests will be staying in the unit for more than 3 days.

A guest can remain in the unit no longer than 14 consecutive days or a total of 30 cumulative calendar days during any 12-month period.

A family may request an exception to this policy for valid reasons (e.g., care of a relative recovering from a medical procedure expected to last 20 consecutive days). An exception will not be made unless the family can identify and provide documentation of the residence to which the guest will return.

Former residents who have been evicted are not permitted as overnight guests. Guests who represent the unit address as their residence address for receipt of benefits or other purposes will be considered unauthorized. In addition, guests who remain in the unit beyond the allowable time limit will be considered unauthorized, and their presence constitutes violation of the lease.

Absence of evidence of any other address will be considered verification that the visitor is an unauthorized household member.

Statements from neighbors and/or SNRHA staff will be considered in making the determination.

The SNRHA will consider:

Statements from neighbors and/or SNRHA staff

Vehicle license plate verification

Post Office records

Driver's license verification

Law enforcement reports

Credit reports

Verification from other public or private sources

Other reliable information

Use of the unit address as the visitor's current residence for any purpose that is not explicitly temporary shall be construed as permanent residence.

The burden of proof that the individual is a visitor rests on the family. In the absence of such proof, as stated above, the individual will be considered unauthorized and the SNRHA will terminate the family's lease since prior approval was not requested for the addition.

Minors and college students who were part of the family, but who now live away from home during the school year and are not considered members of the household may visit for up to 90 consecutive days per year without being considered a member of the household under the following conditions:

The head of household has reported to the SNRHA, in writing, that the minor is a visitor.

The SNRHA has provided the head of household with written permission for the minor to occupy the unit for more than 14 days.

In a joint custody arrangement, if the minor is in the household less than 184 days per year, the minor will be considered to be an eligible visitor and not a family member. If both parents reside in Public Housing or are a Section 8 Program participant, only one parent would be able to claim the child for deductions and for determination for the occupancy standards.

Children who are subject to a joint custody arrangement or for whom a family has visitation privileges, that are not included as a family member because they live outside of the public housing unit more than 50 percent of the time, are not subject to the time limitations of guests as described above.

Required Family Reporting to Management

The additional person(s), whether a family member or a visitor, must be reported in writing to the manager within 3 calendar days of a stay intended to exceed the visitation period allowed under the lease/ACOP.

H. REMAINING MEMBER OF TENANT FAMILY - RETENTION OF UNIT

To be considered the remaining member of the tenant family, the person must have been previously approved by the SNRHA to be living in the unit.

A live-in attendant, by definition, is not a member of the family and will not be considered a remaining member of the Family.

In order for a minor child to continue to receive assistance as a remaining family member:

The court has to have awarded emancipated minor status to the minor or is legally married; or

The SNRHA has to have verified that social services and/or the Juvenile Court has arranged for another adult to be brought into the unit to care for the child(ren) for an indefinite period.

A reduction in family size may require a transfer to an appropriate unit size per the Occupancy Standards. If the sole eligible member of the household dies, the unit must be returned to the SNRHA within 14 days.

I. CHANGES IN UNIT SIZE

The SNRHA shall grant exceptions from the occupancy standards if the family requests and the SNRHA determines the exceptions are justified according to this policy.

The SNRHA will not assign a larger bedroom size due to additions of family members other than by birth, adoption, marriage or court-awarded custody.

The SNRHA will consider the size of the unit and the size of the bedrooms, as well as the number of bedrooms, when an exception is requested.

When an approvable change in the circumstances in a tenant family requires another unit size, the family will be placed on the Transfer List in accordance with the Transfer policy. (See Chapter 5, Occupancy Guidelines.)

J. CONTINUANCE OF ASSISTANCE FOR "MIXED" FAMILIES

Under the Noncitizens Rule, "Mixed" families are families that include at least one citizen or eligible immigrant and any number of ineligible members. Mixed families are eligible for prorated assistance in accordance with the mixed-family portion of the policy.

K. UNIT TRANSFERS

See Chapter 8, Transfer Policy.

Chapter 14

COMMUNITY SERVICE

[24 CFR 960.603-960.611]

A. REQUIREMENT

Each adult resident of the SNRHA shall:

Contribute 8 hours per month of community service (not including political activities) within the community in which that adult resides; or

Participate in an economic self-sufficiency program (defined below) for 8 hours per month.

An individual may not skip a month and then double up the following month, unless special circumstances warrant it. The Director of Operations or designee will make the determination of whether to permit a deviation from the schedule.

Individuals who have special circumstances which they believe will prevent them from completing the required community service hours for a given month, must notify SNRHA in writing immediately. SNRHA will review the request and notify the individual, in writing, of its determination within 10 calendar days. SNRHA may require those individuals to provide documentation to support their claim.

B. EXEMPTIONS

The SNRHA shall provide an exemption from the community service requirement for any individual who:

Is a family that is currently participating and is in compliance with the Public Housing Family Self-Sufficiency Program. Is 62

years of age or older;

Is a blind or disabled individual, as defined under section 216[i] [I] or 1614 of the Social Security Act, and who is unable to comply with this section, or is a primary caretaker of such individual;

Is engaged in a work activity as defined in section 407[d] of the Social Security Act; SNRHA will consider 20 hours per week as the minimum number of hours needed to qualify for a work activity exemption;

Meets the requirements for being exempted from having to engage in a work activity under the State program funded under part A of title IV of the Social Security Act, or under any other welfare program of the State in which the public housing agency is located, including a State-administered welfare-to-work program; or

Is in a family receiving assistance under a State program funded under part A of title IV of the Social Security Act, or under any other welfare program of the State in which the public housing agency is located, including a State-administered welfare-to-work program, and has not been found by the State or other administering entity to be in noncompliance with such program. HUD has determined that the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) qualifies as a welfare program of the state. Therefore if a tenant is a member of a family receiving assistance under SNAP, and has been found by the administering State to be in compliance with the program requirements, that tenant is exempt from the CSSR. (PIH-2015-12 HA)

The SNRHA will re-verify exemption status annually except in the case of an individual who is 62 years of age or older.

The SNRHA will permit residents to change exemption status during the year if status changes.

C. DEFINITION OF ECONOMIC SELF-SUFFICIENCY PROGRAM

For purposes of satisfying the community service requirement, participating in an economic self-sufficiency program is defined, in addition to the exemption definitions described above, by one of the following:

Participating in the Family Self-Sufficiency Program and being current in the steps outlined in the Individual Training and Services Plan;

Participating in an educational or vocational training program designed to lead to employment, as long as their educational activities total at least 96 hours per year. A student would not need to be enrolled full time to be in compliance with the CSSR.

Activities administered through Help of Southern Nevada (HELP).

D. ANNUAL DETERMINATIONS

Requirement – For each public housing resident subject to the requirement of community service, the SNRHA shall, 90 days before the expiration of each lease term or effective date of recertification, review and determine the compliance of the resident with the community service requirement.

Such determination shall be made in accordance with the principles of due process and on a nondiscriminatory basis.

If SNRHA has reasonable cause to believe that the certification provided by the family is false or fraudulent, SNRHA has the right to require third-party verification.

E. NONCOMPLIANCE

If the SNRHA determines there is a family member who is subject to the community service requirement and has not complied with the requirement, the SNRHA shall notify the resident of such noncompliance, and that:

The determination of noncompliance is subject to the administrative grievance procedure under the SNRHA's Grievance Procedures; and

Unless the resident enters into an agreement to comply with the community service requirement, the resident's lease will not be renewed, and

The SNRHA may not renew or extend the resident's lease upon expiration of the lease term and shall take such action as is necessary to terminate the tenancy of the household, unless the SNRHA enters into an agreement, before the expiration of the lease term, with the resident providing for the resident to cure any noncompliance with the community service requirement, by participating in an economic self-sufficiency program for or contributing to community service as many additional hours as the resident needs to comply in the aggregate with such requirement over the 12-month term of the lease.

If, after the 12 month cure period, the family member is still not compliant, SNRHA must terminate tenancy of the entire family, according to SNRHA's lease, unless the family provides documentation that the non-compliant family member no longer resides in the unit.

If the family reports that a non-compliant family member is no longer residing in the unit, the family must provide documentation that the family member has actually vacated the unit before SNRHA will agree to continued occupancy of the family. Documentation must consist of a certification signed by the head of household as well as evidence of the current address of the non-compliant family member that previously resided with them.

If the family does not request a grievance hearing, or provide such documentation within the required 10 calendar day timeframe, the family's lease and tenancy will automatically terminate at the end of the current lease term without further notice.

Ineligibility for Occupancy for Noncompliance

The SNRHA shall not renew or extend any lease, or provide any new lease, for a dwelling unit for any household that includes an adult member who was subject to the community service requirement and failed to comply with the requirement.

F. SNRHA RESPONSIBILITY

The SNRHA will ensure that all community service programs are accessible for persons with disabilities.

The SNRHA will ensure that:

The conditions under which the work is to be performed are not hazardous;

The work is not labor that would be performed by the SNRHA's employees responsible for essential maintenance and property services; or

The work is not otherwise unacceptable.

G. SNRHA IMPLEMENTATION OF COMMUNITY SERVICE REQUIREMENT

SNRHA will provide the family with a copy of the Community Service Policy found in Exhibit 14-1 of this chapter, at lease-up, lease renewal, when a family member is determined to be subject to the community service requirement during the lease term, and at any time upon the family's request.

H. ELIGIBLE COMMUNITY SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

All community service performed will be verified by acceptable third part verification and may include:

Community Service with a Certified Resident Council, on site resident Service contractor.

Volunteering in community activities, such as clean up, graffiti removal, painting, neighborhood reduction of criminal activity such as resident patrol and neighborhood watch programs.

Community service with faith based organizations

Any other community service organization that is pre-approved by SNRHA

Public educational facility.

Chapter 4

TENANT SELECTION AND ASSIGNMENT PLAN

(Includes Preferences and Managing the Waiting List)

[24 CFR 960.204]

INTRODUCTION

It is the SNRHA policy that each applicant shall be assigned an appropriate place on a jurisdiction-wide waiting list unless the applicant has applied for a development subject to a site-based waiting list. Applicants will be listed in sequence based upon date and time the application is received, the size and type of unit they require, the site in which they wish to reside for applicable designated communities, and factors of preference or priority. In filling an actual or expected vacancy, the SNRHA will offer the dwelling unit to an applicant in the appropriate sequence, with the goal of accomplishing de-concentration of poverty and income-mixing objectives. The SNRHA will offer the unit until it is accepted. This Chapter describes the SNRHA policies with regard to the number of unit offers that will be made to applicants selected from the waiting list.

SNRHA OBJECTIVES

SNRHA policies will be followed consistently and will affirmatively further HUD's fair housing goals.

It is the SNRHA objective to ensure that families are placed in the proper order on the waiting list so that the offer of a unit is not delayed to any family unnecessarily or made to any family prematurely. This chapter explains the policies for the management of the waiting list.

When appropriate units are available, families will be selected from the waiting list in sequence within their preference category and date and time sequence.

By maintaining an accurate waiting list, the SNRHA will be able to perform the activities which ensure that an adequate pool of qualified applicants will be available to fill unit vacancies in a timely manner. Based on the SNRHA turnover and the availability of appropriate sized units, groups of families will be selected from the waiting list to form a final eligibility "pool." Selection from the pool will be based on completion of verification.

SITE-BASED/DESIGNATED WAITING LISTS

Per the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998, SNRHA uses site-based/designated waiting lists.

A. MANAGEMENT OF THE WAITING LIST

The SNRHA will administer its waiting list as required by 24 CFR Part 5, Subparts E and F, Part 945 and 960.201 through 960.215. The waiting list will be maintained in accordance with the following guidelines:

The application will be a permanent part of the file.

All applicants in the pool will be maintained in order of preference. Applications equal in preference will be maintained by date and time sequence.

All applicants must meet applicable income eligibility requirements as established by HUD.

Opening and Closing the Waiting Lists

The SNRHA, at its discretion, may restrict application intake, suspend application intake, and close waiting lists in whole or in part.

The decision to close the waiting list will be based on the number of applications available for a particular size and type of unit, and the ability of the SNRHA to house an applicant in an appropriate unit within a reasonable period of time.

When the SNRHA opens the waiting list, the SNRHA will advertise the location(s), and program(s) for which applications are being accepted in the following newspapers:

Las Vegas Review Journal/Sun
El Mundo
Las Vegas Asian Journal
Indian Voice
The Challenger Rehabilitation, Disability Newspaper

To reach persons with disabilities, the SNRHA will provide separate notice to local organizations representing the interests and needs of the disabled. This will include notice to the following organizations:

Opportunity Village
Nevada Disability Advocacy and Law Center Nevada
Legal Services
Help Them Walk Again
Nevada Association for the Handicapped

The notice will contain:

- The dates, times, and the locations where families may apply.
- Any designated housing for which site-based waiting lists are applicable
- The programs for which applications will be taken.
- Limitations, if any, on whom may apply.

The notices will be made in an accessible format, if requested. They will provide potential applicants with information that includes the SNRHA address and telephone number, and how to submit an application.

When Application Taking is Suspended

The SNRHA may suspend the acceptance of applications if there are enough applicants to fill anticipated openings for the next 12 to 24 months.

The waiting list may not be closed if it would have a discriminatory effect inconsistent with applicable civil rights laws.

During the period when the waiting list is closed, the SNRHA will not maintain a list of individuals who wish to be notified when the waiting list is open.

Suspension of application taking is announced in the same way as opening the waiting list. SNRHA will give at least five (5) days notice prior to opening or closing the list.

When the period for accepting applications is over, the SNRHA will add the new applicants to the list by:

- Unit size, local preference, and by date and time of application.

The SNRHA will update the waiting list at least annually by removing the names of those families who are no longer interested, no longer qualify for housing, or cannot be reached by mail. At the time of initial intake, the SNRHA will advise families of their responsibility to notify the SNRHA in writing when mailing address changes.

Limits on Who May Apply

When the waiting list is open,

- Any family asking to be placed on the waiting list for Public Housing rental assistance will be given the opportunity to complete an application.

When the application is submitted to the SNRHA, it establishes the family's date and time of application for placement order on the waiting list with preference points determining the final rank.

Multiple Families in Same Household

When families apply that consist of two families living together, (such as a mother and father, and a daughter with her own husband or children), if they apply as a family unit, they will be treated as a family unit.

B. SITE BASED WAITING LISTS

The SNRHA offers a system of site-based waiting lists for HUD-approved designated communities.

The SNRHA maintains separate site-based waiting lists for all current or future mixed financed properties, as well as all current or future RAD conversion Properties.

Applicants may choose which site-based waiting list they wish to be placed on, regardless of the application site. Applicants may designate the community or communities in which they seek to reside.

SNRHA will monitor its site-based wait list annually by comparing data in January to data in October to determine the level of change, if any, in the overall racial, ethnic and disability-related tenant composition at each SNRHA site by analyzing its data.

Every reasonable action will be taken by the SNRHA to assure that applicants can make informed choices regarding the community(s) in which they wish to reside. The SNRHA will disclose information to applicants regarding the location of available sites.

Monitoring Site-Based Waiting Lists

The system of site-based waiting lists will be carefully monitored to assure that civil rights and fair housing are affirmatively furthered.

The SNRHA adoption of site-based waiting lists is not in violation of any court order or settlement agreement, and is not inconsistent with any pending complaint brought by HUD.

The SNRHA will monitor its system of site-based waiting list annually to assure that racial steering does not occur. If the SNRHA annual analysis of its site-based waiting list indicates that a pattern of racial steering is or may be occurring, the SNRHA will take corrective action.

The SNRHA will assess changes in racial, ethnic or disability-related tenant composition at each SNRHA site that has occurred during the implementation of the site-based waiting lists. The SNRHA will make this assessment based on MTCS data.

The SNRHA has established site-based waiting lists for the following properties:

Espinoza Terrace, Designated Elderly Development, Henderson

Hampton Court, Family Development, Henderson

Otto Merida Desert Villas, Family Development, Las Vegas

Landsman Gardens, Family development, Henderson

Vera Johnson B, Family Development, Las Vegas. Vera Johnson B will convert from Mixed Finance to RAD Project Based Voucher after construction.

Biegger Estates, Family Development, Las Vegas

Rose Gardens, Designated Elderly Development, Las Vegas

The SNRHA intends to make available dwelling units, in communities designated for elderly families only, to near-elderly families if there are an insufficient number of elderly families on the waitlist. Near elderly will be defined as families whose members are 55 years of age or older.

C. WAITING LIST PREFERENCES

A preference does not guarantee admission to the program. Preferences are used to establish the order of placement on the waiting list. Every applicant must meet the SNRHA Selection Criteria as defined in this policy.

The SNRHA preference system will work in combination with requirements to match the characteristics for the family to the type of unit available, including units with targeted populations, and further de-concentration of poverty in public housing. When such matching is required or permitted by current law, the SNRHA will give preference to qualified families.

Families who reach the top of the waiting list will be contacted by the SNRHA to verify their preference and, if verified, the SNRHA will complete a full application for occupancy. Applicants must complete the application for occupancy and continue through the application processing and may not retain their place on the waiting list if they refuse to complete their processing when contacted by the SNRHA.

Among applicants with equal preference status, the waiting list will be organized by date and time.

Local Preferences

Local preferences will be used to select among applicants on the waiting list. A public hearing with an opportunity for public comment will be held before the SNRHA adopts any local reference.

The SNRHA uses the following Local Preferences:

Homeless Referral Preference: Families who are homeless (family lacks a fixed regular and adequate night time residence, or has a primary night time residence that is a supervised publicly or privately operated shelter designed to provide temporary living accommodations, such as welfare voucher hotels, congregate shelters or transitional housing designed for homeless persons, or a public or private place not designed for, or ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings) and are participating in case management with an approved referral agency. This preference shall be limited to up to 150 referrals per year ..... 60 points

Unit offers to applicants referred for this preference will be made as follows: for every two applicants from the waiting list receiving a unit offer, one applicant referred under this preference will receive a unit offer.

Homeless Families that live with friends or relatives who are not currently in the transition system, will be encourage to apply to other available SNRHA programs that they may qualify for.

Federally Declared Disasters: Victims who are holders of Section 8 Vouchers or other subsidized programs as defined as eligible units by HUD, in another jurisdiction within 120 days of the President declaring a federal disaster. .... 55 points

Working Preference: Head, spouse or co-head who is employed at least 20 hours per week at the equivalent of minimum wage, or who are active participants in accredited educational and training programs designed to prepare the individual for the job market. This preference is extended equally to elderly families or disabled families, including but not limited to those whose head or spouse is receiving SSI, SSD, or who can be verified to be unable to work, if both the head of household and spouse is either elderly or disabled..... 30 points

Veteran preference for veteran as defined by State. .... 6 points

Residency preferences for head, co-head or spouse, who live, work, have been hired to work, or are enrolled full time in an accredited school in Clark County... 5 points

Disabled veteran or family (defined as dependent son, daughter, and spouse) of a veteran with a service-connected disability. .... .5 points

Family of (defined as spouse) a deceased veteran with a service-connected death. .... .4 points

FINAL VERIFICATION OF PREFERENCES [24 CFR 5.415]

Preference information on applications will be updated as applicants are selected from the waiting list. At that time, the SNRHA will obtain necessary verifications of preference at the interview and by third party verification.

PREFERENCE DENIAL [24 CFR 5.415]

If the SNRHA denies a preference, the SNRHA will notify the applicant in writing of the reasons why the preference was denied and offer the applicant an opportunity for an informal meeting with the Housing Programs Manager or Director of Housing Programs. If the preference denial is upheld as a result of the meeting, or the applicant does not request a meeting, the applicant will be placed on the waiting list without benefit of the preference. Applicants may exercise other rights if they believe they have been discriminated against.

Treatment of Single Applicants

Single applicants will be treated as any other eligible family on the SNRHA waiting list.

Pulling from the Wait List

SNRHA shall utilize income targeting to meet HUD's requirements that 40% of admissions have income of less than 30% of minimum income. Elderly and disabled families are given the working preference as required by HUD regulations. All preferences claimed are verified at final eligibility determination. If preferences claimed cannot be verified, the applicant is returned to the appropriate placement on our waiting list and a written notice explaining this action is sent to the applicant.

D. VERIFICATION OF PREFERENCE QUALIFICATION [24 CFR 5.415] The family may be placed on the waiting list upon their certification that they qualify for a preference. When the family is selected from the waiting list for the final determination of eligibility, the preference will be verified.

If the preference verification indicates that an applicant does not qualify for the preference, the applicant will be returned to the waiting list and ranked without the Local Preference and given an opportunity for a review.

Change in Circumstances

Changes in an applicant's circumstances while on the waiting list may affect the family's entitlement to a preference. Applicants are required to notify the SNRHA in writing when their circumstances change. When an applicant claims an additional preference, s/he will be placed on the waiting list in the proper order of their newly claimed preference.

If the family failed to report income changes during final eligibility and the verified failure would have affected their eligibility for a local preference, the family will be returned to the waiting list.

E. PREFERENCE DENIAL [24 CFR 5.415]

If the SNRHA denies a preference, the SNRHA will notify the applicant in writing of the reasons why the preference was denied and offer the applicant an opportunity for an informal meeting. The applicant will have 10 calendar days to request the meeting in writing. If the preference denial is upheld, as a result of the meeting, or the applicant does not request a meeting, the applicant will be placed on the waiting list without benefit of the preference. Applicants may exercise other rights if they believe they have been discriminated against.

If the applicant falsifies documents or makes false statements in order to qualify for any preference, they will be removed from the waiting list with notification to the family.

F. FACTORS OTHER THAN PREFERENCES THAT AFFECT SELECTION OF APPLICANTS

Before applying its preference system, the SNRHA will first match the characteristics of the available unit to the applicants available on the waiting lists. Factors such as unit size, accessible features, deconcentration or income mixing, income targeting, or units in housing designated for the elderly limit the admission of families to those characteristics that match the characteristics and features of the vacant unit available.

By matching unit and family characteristics, it is possible that families who are lower on the waiting list may receive an offer of housing ahead of families with an earlier date and time of application.

G. INCOME TARGETING

The SNRHA will monitor its admissions to ensure that at least 40 percent of families admitted to public housing in each fiscal year shall have incomes that do not exceed 30% of area median income of the SNRHA jurisdiction.

Hereafter families whose incomes do not exceed 30% of area median income will be referred to as "extremely low income families."

The SNRHA shall have the discretion, at least annually, to exercise the "fungibility" provision of the QHWRRA by admitting less than 40 percent of "extremely low income families" to public housing in a fiscal year, to the extent that the SNRHA has provided more than 75 percent of newly available vouchers to "extremely low income families." This fungibility provision discretion by the SNRHA is also reflected in the SNRHA Administrative Plan.

The fungibility credits will be used to drop the annual requirement below 40 percent of admissions to public housing for extremely low income families by the lowest of the following amounts:

The number of units equal to 10 percent of the number of newly available vouchers in the fiscal year; or

The number of public housing units that 1) are in public housing communities located in census tracts having a poverty rate of 30% or more, and 2) are made available for occupancy by and actually occupied in that year by, families other than extremely low-income families.

The Fungibility Floor: Regardless of the above two amounts, in a fiscal year, at least 30% of the SNRHA admissions to public housing will be to extremely low-income families. The fungibility floor is the number of units that cause the SNRHA overall requirement for housing extremely low-income families to drop to 30% of its newly available units.

Fungibility shall only be utilized if the SNRHA is anticipated to fall short of its 40% goal for new admissions to public housing.

Low Income Family Admissions

Once the SNRHA has met the 40% targeted income requirement for new admissions of extremely low-income families, the SNRHA will fill the remainder of its new admission units with families whose incomes do not exceed 80% of the HUD approved area median income.

H. UNITS DESIGNATED FOR THE ELDERLY

In accordance with the 1996 Housing Act, Head or Spouse must be at least 62 years of age will be selected for admission to such units or buildings covered by a HUD-approved Allocation Plan, except for the units which are accessible, which may be offered to persons with disabilities.

The SNRHA will take the following action when processing families for developments designated for the elderly when there are insufficient elderly families who wish to reside in a development, near-elderly families (head or spouse ages 55-61) will be selected for this type of unit.

I. UNITS DESIGNATED FOR THE DISABLED

SNRHA has no HUD-approved disabled-only designated developments.

J. MIXED POPULATION UNITS

A mixed population community is a public housing community, or portion of a community that was reserved for elderly families and disabled families at its inception (and has retained that character).

In accordance with the 1992 Housing Act, elderly families whose head spouse or sole member is at least 62 years of age, and disabled families whose head, co-head or spouse or sole member is a person with disabilities, will receive equal preference to such units.

No limit will be established on the number of elderly or disabled families that may occupy a mixed population property. All other SNRHA preferences will be applied.

K. GENERAL OCCUPANCY UNITS

General occupancy units are designed to house all populations of eligible families. In accordance with the SNRHA occupancy standards, eligible families not needing units designed with special features or units designed for special populations will be admitted to the SNRHA general occupancy units.

The SNRHA will use its local preference system as stated in this chapter for admission of eligible families to its general occupancy units.

L. DECONCENTRATION OF POVERTY AND INCOME-MIXING

The SNRHA admission policy is designed to provide for de-concentration of poverty and income mixing by bringing higher income tenants into lower income communities and lower income tenants into higher income communities.

Gross annual income is used for income limits at admission and for income-mixing purposes.

Skipping of a family on the waiting list specifically to reach another family with a lower or higher income is not to be considered an adverse action to the family. Such skipping will be uniformly applied until the target threshold is met.

The SNRHA will gather data and analyze, at least annually, the tenant characteristics of its public housing stock, including information regarding tenant incomes, to assist in the SNRHA de-concentration efforts.

The SNRHA will use the gathered tenant income information in its assessment of its public housing developments to determine the appropriate designation to be assigned to the community for the purpose of assisting the SNRHA in its de-concentration goals.

If the SNRHA annual review of tenant incomes indicates that there has been a significant change in the tenant income characteristics of a particular community, the SNRHA will evaluate the changes. The SNRHA will determine whether, based on the SNRHA methodology of choice, the community needs to be re-designated as a higher or lower income community or whether the SNRHA has met the de-concentration goals and the community needs no particular designation.

Deconcentration and Income-Mixing Goals

Admission policies related to the de-concentration efforts of the SNRHA do not impose specific quotas. Therefore, the SNRHA will not set specific quotas, but will strive to achieve de-concentration and income mixing in its developments.

The SNRHA income-mixing goal is a long-range goal and may not be achieved in the first year of implementation. The SNRHA will use its annual analysis of its public housing stock and tenant incomes to provide benchmarks for the SNRHA.

The SNRHA income-mixing goal, in conjunction with the requirement to achieve income targeting, will be achieved via unit offer procedures described in Section P of this chapter.

Community Designation Methodology

Aggregate Average Method

The SNRHA will review the annual resident income of all family sites to develop an average annual income, which will be used as a baseline. Developments with an average annual income above that baseline will be considered higher income developments, and developments with an average annual income below the baseline will be considered lower income developments.

Upon analyzing its findings the SNRHA will apply the policies, measures and incentives listed in Section P of this chapter to bring higher income families into lower income developments.

SNRHA Incentives for Higher Income Families

Covered in Section P of this Chapter.

M. REMOVAL FROM WAITING LIST AND PURGING [24 CFR 960.204(a)]

The waiting list will be purged at least tri-annually by a mailing to all applicants to ensure that the waiting list is current and accurate. The mailing will ask for current information and confirmation of continued interest.

If an applicant fails to respond within 14 calendar days, s/he will be removed from the waiting list. If a letter is returned by the Post Office, the applicant will be removed without further notice and the envelope and letter will be maintained in the file. Failure to respond will result in removal from all waiting lists.

If an applicant is removed from the waiting list for failure to respond, they will not be entitled to reinstatement unless a person with a disability requests a reasonable accommodation for being unable to reply within the prescribed period.

Notices will be made available in accessible format upon the request of a person with a disability. An extension to reply to the purge notification will be considered as an accommodation if requested by a person with a disability.

The SNRHA allows a grace period of 7 calendar days after completion of the purge mailing. Applicants who respond during this grace period will not be withdrawn.

Applicants are notified with confirmation of the SNRHA receipt of their application that they are responsible for notifying the SNRHA within 10 calendar days, if they have a change of address.

N. OFFER OF ACCESSIBLE UNITS

The SNRHA has units designed for persons with mobility, sight and hearing impairments, referred to as accessible units.

No non-mobility-impaired families will be offered these units until all eligible mobility-impaired applicants have been considered.

Before offering a vacant accessible unit to a non-disabled applicant, the SNRHA will offer such units:

First, to a current occupant of another unit of the same development, or other public housing developments under the SNRHA control who has a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit.

Second, to an eligible qualified applicant on the waiting list having a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit.

When offering an accessible/adaptable unit to a non-disabled applicant, the SNRHA will require the applicant to agree to move to an available non-accessible unit within 30 days when either a current resident or an applicant needs the features of the unit and there is another unit available for the applicant. This requirement will be a provision of the lease agreement. SNRHA will pay all reasonable and customary costs associated with the relocation of the non-disabled family.

The Authority will make modifications to the unit in keeping with the Section 504 Transition Plan as the need arises and until the agency determines that an adequate number of units have been rehabilitated in numbers sufficient to evidence compliance with the Plan See Chapter 9.

O. PLAN FOR UNIT OFFERS

The SNRHA plan for selection of applicants and assignment of dwelling units to assure equal opportunity and non-discrimination on grounds of race, color, sex, religion, or national origin is to offer the family at the top of the waiting list for the appropriate bedroom size and unit type the oldest available unit five days prior to target-ready date.

Unit offers to promote income targeting are made in accordance with HUD regulations of the oldest eligible certified family to the appropriate bedroom size of the oldest ready and available unit. Once the SNRHA has met the 40% targeted income requirement for new admissions of extremely low-income families, the SNRHA will fill the remainder of its new admission units with families whose incomes do not exceed 80% of the HUD approved area median income.

Number of Offers - Two Offers

SNRHA will make two offers on an appropriate unit. If the second offer is rejected or the applicant fails to execute a lease within the required timeframes, the applicant will be withdrawn from our waiting list. Exceptions are incorrect unit offers and/or offers to non-disabled families of accessible units, or other “good cause” reason. The applicant shall be informed of this in writing.

SNRHA Incentives for Higher Income Families

The SNRHA will offer certain incentives to higher income families willing to move into lower income communities. If a higher income family agrees to move to an SNRHA-specified lower income development, the SNRHA will agree to approve to transfer the resident family to the next available scattered site home or the development of the family’s choice. The move will be approved, according to the Occupancy Guidelines, only if the family has consistently been in lease compliance for two years following admission.

In addition, the SNRHA will target homeownership opportunities to higher income families moving into lower income communities.

P. CHANGES PRIOR TO UNIT OFFER

Applicants with a Change in Family Size or Status

Applicants must report changes in income, family composition, and address within ten (10) calendar days of the change prior to eligibility and after final eligibility. If the family did not report the change within the required time frame, the family will be withdrawn and determined ineligible and offered an opportunity for informal hearing.

Properly reported changes in family composition, status, or income between the time of the interview and the offer of a unit will be processed. The SNRHA shall not lease a unit to a family whose occupancy will overcrowd or underutilize the unit or if the family is no longer eligible for the program.

The family will take the appropriate place in the selection pool or waiting list according to the preference points on the date they first applied if the appropriate waiting list was open at the time of initial application.

Changes that occur during the period between determination of final eligibility and an offer of a suitable unit may affect the family's eligibility or Total Tenant Payment. The family will be notified in writing of changes in their eligibility or level of benefits and offered their right to an informal hearing when applicable (See Grievance Procedure.)

Income changes properly reported after the unit is offered will be processed following lease-up procedures.

O. APPLICANT STATUS AFTER FINAL UNIT OFFER

When an applicant rejects the final unit offer the SNRHA will remove the applicant's name from the waiting list. Removal from the waiting list means the applicant must reapply. Exceptions may be made in accordance with 504 regulations, for persons whose refusal involved the need for a reasonable accommodation.

R. TIME-LIMIT FOR ACCEPTANCE OF UNIT

Applicants will have three (3) business days to respond to an offer of an available unit. Applicants must accept a unit offered within one (1) business day of the date the unit is shown and execute a lease within two (2) additional business days of the offer acceptance. Extensions can be approved for good cause.

SNRHA staff will attempt to notify applicants by telephone as a courtesy; all offers will be made in writing by first class mail.

Applicants Unable to Take Occupancy

If an applicant is willing to accept the unit offered, but is unable to take occupancy at the time of the offer for "good cause," the applicant will be returned to the waiting list.

Examples of "good cause" reasons for the refusal to take occupancy of a housing unit include, but are not limited to:

- An elderly family who makes the decision not to occupy or accept occupancy in designated housing for which they applied will be withdrawn from the designated housing waiting list, but this action will not affect their standing on any other waiting list. [24 CFR 945.303(d)]
- Inaccessibility to source of employment or education such that an adult household member must quit a job, drop out of an educational or a job training program.
- The family demonstrates to SNRHA's satisfaction that accepting the offer will result in a situation where a family member's life, health or safety will be placed in jeopardy. The family must offer specific and compelling documentation such as restraining orders, other court orders, or risk assessments related to witness protection from a law enforcement agency. The reasons must be specific. Refusals due to the location of the unit alone are not considered to be good cause.
- A qualified, knowledgeable, health professional verifies the temporary hospitalization or recovery from illness of the principal household member, other household member, or a live-in aide necessary to care for the principal household member.
- The family is offered a unit which is handicap accessible, but there is no member of the family that need accessibility features in the unit. The unit is inappropriate for the applicant's disabilities

S. REFUSAL OF OFFER

If the unit offered is inappropriate for the applicant's disabilities or if a non-disabled family is offered an accessible unit, the family will retain their position on the waiting list.

If the unit offered is refused for other reasons, the SNRHA will follow the applicable policy as listed in Section O, Plan for Unit Offers, and Section Q, Applicant Status after Final Offer.

T. SPECIAL PROGRAMS

The SNRHA will administer a HUD, RAD (Rental Assistance Demonstration) program at the following properties:

- o Landsman Gardens, Henderson, Nevada.
- o Vera Johnson B, Las Vegas, Nevada
- o Biegger Estates, Las Vegas, Nevada
- o Rose Gardens, North Las Vegas, Nevada

See Chapter 16 for RAD/PBV information.

Chapter 6

DETERMINATION OF TOTAL TENANT PAYMENT

[24 CFR 5.628, 5.611, 5.613, 5.615]

INTRODUCTION

The accurate calculation of annual income and adjusted income will ensure that families are not paying more or less money for rent than their obligation under the regulations.

This chapter defines the allowable deductions from annual income and how the presence or absence of household members may affect the Total Tenant Payment (TTP). Income and TTP are calculated in accordance with 24 CFR Part 5, Subpart F and further instructions set forth in HUD Notices, Memoranda and Addenda. The formula for the calculation of TTP is specific and not subject to interpretation. The SNRHA's policies in this chapter address those areas which allow the SNRHA discretion to define terms and to develop standards in order to assure consistent application of the various factors that relate to the determination of TTP.

A. MINIMUM RENT (TTP)

The minimum rent (TTP) for the SNRHA is $50.00.

The total tenant payment is the greater of:

30% of the adjusted monthly income

10% of the monthly income

The minimum rent as established by the SNRHA

The minimum rent refers to a minimum total tenant payment and not a minimum tenant rent.

The total tenant payment does not include charges for excess utility consumption or other charges.

The SNRHA recognizes that in some instances even the minimum rent may create a financial hardship for families. The SNRHA will review all relevant circumstances brought to the SNRHA's attention regarding financial hardship as it applies to minimum rent. The following section states that the SNRHA's procedures and policies in regard to minimum rent financial hardship as set forth by the QHWRA.

SNRHA Procedures for Notification to Families of Hardship Exceptions

The SNRHA will notify all participant families subject to a minimum rent of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exception under the law.

The SNRHA will notify all eligible families at time of lease-up of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exception.

The SNRHA will notify all eligible families at the annual and interim recertification appointments of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exception.

The manager or their designee will document in the family's file that the family has been notified of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exception.

The SNRHA notification will advise the family that hardship exception determinations are subject to SNRHA grievance procedures.

The SNRHA will review all tenant requests for exception from the minimum rent due to financial hardships.

All requests for minimum rent exception are required to be in writing.

Requests for minimum rent exception will be accepted by the SNRHA from the family in writing.

Requests for minimum rent exception must state the family circumstances that qualify the family for an exception.

Exceptions to Minimum Rent

The SNRHA will immediately grant the minimum rent exception to all families who request it.

The Minimum Rent will be suspended until the SNRHA determines whether the hardship is:

Covered by statute

Temporary or long term

If the SNRHA determines that the minimum rent is not covered by statute, the SNRHA will impose a minimum rent including payment for minimum rent from the time of suspension.

The SNRHA will use its standard verification procedures to verify circumstances which have resulted in financial hardship, such as loss of employment, death in the family, etc.

HUD Criteria for Hardship Exception

In order for a family to qualify for a hardship exception the family's circumstances must fall into one of the following criteria:

The family has lost eligibility or is awaiting an eligibility determination for Federal, State, or local assistance;

The family would be evicted as a result of the imposition of the minimum rent requirement;

The income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstances, including:

Loss of employment

Death in the family

Other circumstances as determined by the SNRHA or HUD

Temporary Hardship

If the SNRHA determines that the hardship is temporary, a minimum rent will be imposed, including back payment from time of suspension, but the family will not be evicted for nonpayment of rent during the 90 day period commencing on the date of the family's request for exemption.

Repayment Agreements for Temporary Hardship

The SNRHA will offer a repayment agreement to the family for any such rent not paid during the temporary hardship period.

See Chapter 14, Rent and Debt Collection Procedures, for payment terms.

B. INCOME AND ALLOWANCES

Income: Includes all monetary and non-monetary income or benefit amounts that are received on behalf of the family. For purposes of calculating the Total Tenant Payment, HUD defines what is to be calculated and what is to be excluded in the federal regulations. In accordance with this definition, all income that is not specifically excluded in the regulations is counted. (See Income Inclusions and Income Exclusions in the Glossary of Terms of this policy.)

Annual Income is defined as the gross amount of income anticipated to be received by the family during the 12 months after certification or recertification. Gross income is the amount of income prior to any HUD allowable expenses or deductions, and does not include income which has been excluded by HUD. Annual income is used to determine whether or not applicants are within the applicable income limits. (24 CFR 5.607)

The low-income subsidy received to assist low-income persons in paying for their Medicare prescription drug plan costs must be excluded as annual income for the purpose of calculating any rent or assistance.

Adjusted Income is defined as the annual income minus any HUD allowable expenses and deductions.

Allowable Deductions

HUD has 5 allowable deductions from annual income:

1. Dependent allowance: $480 each for family members (other than the head or spouse), who are minors, and for family members who are 18 and older who are full-time students or who are disabled.
2. "Elderly/disabled" allowance: $400 per household for families whose head or spouse are 62 or over or disabled.
3. For any family that is a disabled family, or has a member (other than the head or spouse) who is a person with a disability. A disability assistance expenses for unreimbursed amounts paid for attendant care or auxiliary apparatus expenses for family members with disabilities, including the disabled member, where such expenses are necessary to permit an adult family member to be employed. The allowable expenses must be in excess of 3% of annual income. This allowance may not exceed the employment income received by the family members that is freed to go to work, who is at least 18 years of age.
4. For any elderly or disabled family:
  - a. That has no disability assistance expenses, an allowance for medical expenses equal to the amount by which the medical expenses exceed 3% of annual income;
  - b. That has disability expenses greater than or equal to 3% of annual income, an allowance for disability assistance expenses computed in accordance with paragraph C, plus an allowance for medical expenses that equal the family's medical expenses;

- c. That has disability assistance expenses that are less than 3% of annual income, an allowance for combined disability assistance expenses and medical expenses that are equal to the total of these expenses less 3% of annual income.
5. Amounts anticipated to be paid by the family for the care of children under 13 years of age during the period for which Annual Income is computed, but only where such care is necessary to enable a family member to actively seek employment, be gainfully employed, or to further his or her education and only to the extent such amounts are not reimbursed. The amount deducted shall reflect reasonable charges for childcare. In the case of childcare necessary to permit employment, the amount deducted shall not exceed the amount of employment income that is included in annual income. (24 CFR 5.603(d)).
6. The SNRHA does not provide for any optional deductions or allowances in the public housing program.

C. DISALLOWANCE OF EARNED INCOME FROM RENT DETERMINATIONS
24 CFR 962.255, 24 CFR 5.617, 24 CFR 960.255

The annual income for qualified families may not be increased as a result of increases in earned income of a family member. The family member will be eligible to receive EID for 24 consecutive calendar months to be effective the date of the earned income increase. For calculation purposes, the disallowance shall begin the first of the month after the employment begins. After the family receives 12 consecutive months of the full exclusion, annual income will include a phase-in of half the allowable earned income exclusion from annual income for the remaining 12 consecutive calendar months.

A family eligible for the earned income exclusion is a family that occupies a dwelling unit in a public housing community; and

Whose annual income increases as a result of employment of an adult member of the family who was previously unemployed for one or more years;

Whose earned annual income increases during the participation of a family member in any family self-sufficiency or other job training program; or

Whose annual income increases, as a result of new employment or increased earnings of an adult family member during or within six months after receiving assistance, benefits or services under any State program for TANF provided that the total amount over a six-month period is at least $500. The qualifying TANF assistance may consist of any amount of monthly income maintenance, and/or at least $500 in such TANF benefits and services as one-time payments, wage subsidies and transportation assistance.

The HUD definition of "previously unemployed" includes a person who has earned in the previous 12 months no more than the equivalent earnings for working 10 hours per week for 50 weeks at the minimum wage. Minimum wage is the prevailing minimum wage in the State or locality if it is higher than the federal minimum wage.

The HUD definition of economic self-sufficiency program is any program designed to encourage, assist, train or facilitate economic independence of assisted families or to provide work for such families. Such programs may include job training, employment counseling, work placement, basic skills training, education, English proficiency, workfare, financial or household management, apprenticeship, or any other program necessary to ready a participant to work (such as substance abuse or mental health treatment).

Qualifying increases are any earned income increases of a family member during participation in an economic self-sufficiency or job training program and may include increases that occur after participation provided the training provides assistance, placement, training or mentoring after the training that leads to employment.

The amount that is subject to the disallowance is the amount of incremental increase in income of a family member. The incremental increase in income is calculated by comparing the amount of the family member's income before the beginning of qualifying employment (baseline) to the amount of such income after the employment.

Initial Twelve-Month Exclusion

During the initial 12-month period beginning on the date a member of a qualified family is first employed or the family first experiences an increase in annual income attributable to employment, the SNRHA will exclude from annual income of a qualified family member any increase in income of the family member as a result of employment over the prior income of that family member (baseline).

Second Twelve-Month Exclusion and Phase-in

During the second and final 12-month period after the expiration of the initial 12-month period referred to above, the SNRHA must exclude from Annual Income of a qualified family member, 50 percent of any increase in income of a family member who is a person with disabilities as a result of employment over the income of that family member prior to the beginning of such employment.

Maximum Two Year Disallowance

The earned income disallowance is limited to a lifetime 24 month period for each family member. For each family member, the disallowance only applies for a maximum of 12 months of full exclusion of incremental increase, and a maximum of 12 months of phase-in exclusion during the 24 month period starting from the date of the initial exclusion.

If the family member discontinues the employment that initially qualified the family for the EID, the 24 calendar month period continues.

The EID benefit is limited to a lifetime of 24 months for the qualifying family member. At the end of the 24 months, the EID ends regardless of how many months were “used”.

Families that currently benefit from the EID, or who became eligible prior to the effective date of changes to the ACOP are eligible to receive the EID benefits for the 24 months over a 48-month period, as was in effect prior to the effective date of this provision.

Applicability to Child Care Expense Deductions

The amount deducted for childcare necessary to permit employment shall not exceed the amount of employment income that is included in annual income. Therefore, for families entitled to the earned income disallowance, the amounts of the earned income that is included in the Annual Income after the application of the earned income disallowance will be used in determining the cap for childcare deduction in the case of the deduction that is allowed due to employment.

Applicability to Disability Expense Deductions

The amount deducted for disability expense deduction that is necessary to permit employment shall not exceed the amount of employment income that is included in Annual Income. Therefore, for families entitled to the earned income disallowance, the amounts of the earned income that is included in the Annual Income after the application of the earned income disallowance will be used in determining the cap for the disability expense deduction.

Applicability to Families that Receive both Child Care Expense and Disability Deductions

The amount deducted for both childcare and disability expense deductions necessary to permit employment shall not exceed the amount of employment income that is included in Annual Income. Therefore, for families entitled to the earned income disallowance, the amounts of the earned income that is included in the Annual Income after the application of the earned income disallowance will be used in determining the cap for childcare deduction and disability expenses combined in the case of the deduction that is allowed due to employment.

Tracking the Earned Income Exclusion

The earned income exclusion will be reported on the HUD 50058 form. Documentation will be included in the family’s file to show the reason for the reduced increase in rent.

*Such documentation will include:

- Date the increase in earned income was reported by the family
- Name of the family member whose earned income increased

- Reason (new employment, participation in job training program, within 6 months after receiving TANF) for the increase in earned income
- Amount of the increase in earned income (amount to be excluded)
- Date the increase in income is first excluded from annual income
- Date the family member has received a total of 12 consecutive months of the initial exclusion of 100%
- Date the 12-month phase-in period began
- Date the family member has received a total of 12 consecutive months of the phase-in exclusion of 50%
- Ending date of the maximum 24 month (two year) disallowance period

The SNRHA will maintain a tracking system to ensure correct application of the earned income disallowance.

It is a SNRHA policy decision to conduct an interim reexamination for income increases for the purpose of calculating the earned income disallowance.

Inapplicability to Admission

The earned income disallowance is only applied to determine the Annual Income of families who are participants in the public housing program, and therefore does not apply for purposes of admission to the program (including the determination of income eligibility or any income targeting that may be applicable).

E. INDIVIDUAL SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

The SNRHA chooses not to establish a system of individual savings accounts for families who qualify for the disallowance of earned income.

F. TRAINING PROGRAMS FUNDED BY HUD

All training income from a HUD sponsored or funded training program, whether incremental or not, is excluded from the resident's annual income while the resident is in training. Income from a Resident Services training program, which is funded by HUD, is excluded.

Upon employment with the SNRHA, the full amount of employment income received by the person is counted.

G. AVERAGING INCOME

When annual income cannot be anticipated for a full 12 months, the SNRHA will average known sources of income that vary to compute an annual income.

If there are bonuses or overtime which the employer cannot anticipate for the next twelve months, bonuses and overtime received the previous year will be used.

Income from the previous year may be analyzed to determine the amount to anticipate when third-party or check-stub verification is not available.

If by averaging, an estimate can be made for those families whose income fluctuates from month to month; this estimate will be used so that the housing payment will not change from month to month.

The method used depends on the regularity, source and type of income.

H. MINIMUM INCOME

There is no minimum income requirement. Families who report zero income or extremely low income are required to complete a written certification every 180 calendar days which will be verified with EIV and all federal, state and local agencies and other sources, as appropriate, including credit checks, to verify income sources. If any increases in income are indicated in any of the above information or other verification at any time, then the family will be reviewed for an interim and the rent will be adjusted accordingly.

Families that report zero or extremely low income will be required to provide information in writing regarding their means of basic subsistence, such as food, utilities, transportation, and other subsistence expenses, in writing. SNRHA will require a print out of utility bills for three months to be submitted at interim evaluations for residents claiming zero or extremely low income.

If the family's expenses exceed their known income, the SNRHA will make inquiry of the head of household as to the nature of the family's accessible resources.

Utility bills provided by the family which show that the utilities are in another person's name will require further investigation as to whether there is an unauthorized member of the household.

Where credit reports show credit accounts open and payments current, SNRHA will take action to investigate the possibility of unreported or underreported income, fraud or program abuse.

The SNRHA will terminate the lease of families for fraud or offer a repayment agreement when documented evidence indicates the family has unreported or underreported income, which includes receiving funds from other parties or individuals that has not been reported. Failure to enter into a repayment agreement and pay the required 25% down payment within the established guidelines shall result in the termination of the lease. Repeating this action will result in termination of the lease.

I. INCOME OF PERSON PERMANENTLY/TEMPORARILY CONFINED TO NURSING HOME

If a family member is permanently confined to a hospital or nursing home and there is a family member left in the household, the SNRHA will calculate the income by using the following methodology and use the income figure which would result in a lower payment by the family:

Exclude the income of the person permanently confined to the nursing home and give the family no deductions for medical expenses of the confined family member after 180 days or when doctor certification of length of absence is received, whichever comes first.

If the family member is temporarily confined in a hospital or nursing home, SNRHA will calculate the TTP by:

Including the income of the person temporarily confined to the nursing home and giving the family the medical deductions allowable on behalf of the person in the nursing home, if they are an elderly or disabled family. For the purpose of this section, “temporarily” is defined as no more than 180 days.

J. REGULAR CONTRIBUTIONS AND GIFTS [24 CFR 5.609(a)(7)]

Regular contributions and gifts received from persons outside the household are counted as income for calculation of the tenant share of the rent.

Any contribution or gift received two consecutive months or more frequently will be considered a "regular" contribution or gift, unless the amount is less than $100 per year. This includes rent and utility payments made on behalf of the family and other cash or non-cash contributions provided on a regular basis. It does not include casual contributions or sporadic gifts. (See Chapter 7, Verification Procedures, for further definition.)

If the family's expenses exceed its known income, the SNRHA will question the family about contributions and gifts.

K. ALIMONY AND CHILD SUPPORT [24 CFR 5.609(a)(7)]

Regular alimony and child support payments are counted as income for calculation of the family's share of the rental payment.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will count court-awarded amounts for alimony and child support unless SNRHA verifies that: (1) the payments are not being made, and (2) the family has made reasonable efforts to collect amounts due, including filing with courts or agencies responsible for enforcing payments [HCV GB, pp. 5-23 and 5-47].

Families who do not have court-awarded alimony and child support awards are not required to seek a court award and are not required to take independent legal action to obtain collection.

SNRHA will accept verification that the family is receiving an amount less than the award if:

- SNRHA receives verification from the agency responsible for enforcement or collection.
- The family furnishes documentation of child support or alimony collection action filed through a child support enforcement/collection agency, or has filed an enforcement or collection action through an attorney.

When child support or alimony fluctuates, SNRHA will follow the policy below.

SNRHA Policy

If, by averaging, an estimate can be made for those families whose income fluctuates from month to month; this estimate will be used so as to reduce the number of interim adjustments.

1. SNRHA shall add the total of all payments listed for the past twelve months. The total shall then be considered anticipated income.
2. When verification documents from the DA office indicated no payment for more than 60 days from the date of the printout (upon receipt of verification), no income will be anticipated from child support/alimony. Participants are required to report all changes within 10 calendar days in writing including when child support/alimony is not received and/or starts.

L. LUMP-SUM RECEIPTS [24 CFR 5.609(b)(5), (c)]

Lump-sum additions to Family assets, such as inheritances, insurance payments (including payments under health and accident insurance and worker's compensation), capital gains, and settlement for personal or property losses, are not included in income but may be included in assets, if the amount has been invested in an allowable asset.

Lump-sum payments caused by delays in processing periodic payments such as unemployment or welfare assistance are counted as income. Lump sum payments from

Social Security or SSI are excluded from income, but any amount remaining will be considered an asset. Deferred periodic payments which have accumulated due to a dispute will be treated the same as periodic payments which are deferred due to delays in processing.

In order to determine amount of retroactive tenant rent that the family owes as a result of the lump sum receipt, the SNRHA will calculate retroactively.

Retroactive Calculation Methodology

The SNRHA will go back to the date the lump-sum payment was received, but never further back than the date of admission.

The SNRHA will determine the amount of income for each certification period, including the lump sum, and recalculate the tenant rent for each certification period to determine the amount due the SNRHA.

At the SNRHA's option, the SNRHA may enter into a Payment Agreement with the family.

The amount owed by the family is a collectible debt even if the family becomes unassisted.

The family's attorney fees may be deducted from lump-sum payments when computing annual income if the attorney's efforts have recovered a lump-sum compensation, and the recovery paid to the family does not include an additional amount in full satisfaction of the attorney fees.

M. CONTRIBUTIONS TO RETIREMENT FUNDS - ASSETS

Contributions to company retirement/pension funds are handled as follows:

While an individual is employed, count as assets only amounts the family can withdraw without retiring or terminating employment.

After retirement or termination of employment, count any amount the employee elects to receive as a lump sum.

N. ASSETS DISPOSED OF FOR LESS THAN FAIR MARKET VALUE

The SNRHA must count assets disposed of for less than fair market value during the two years preceding certification or reexamination. In calculating total assets, the SNRHA will count the difference between the market value and the actual payment received.

Assets disposed of as a result of foreclosure or bankruptcy is not considered to be assets disposed of for less than fair market value. Assets disposed of as a result of a divorce or separation is not considered to be assets disposed of for less than fair market value.

The SNRHA's minimum threshold for counting assets disposed of for less than Fair

Market value is $5000. If the total value of assets disposed of within the two-year period is less than $5000, they will not be considered an asset.

O. CHILD CARE EXPENSES

Not reimbursable child care expenses for children under 13 may be deducted from annual income if they enable an adult to work or attend school full time, or to actively seek employment.

In the case of a child attending private school, only after-hours care can be counted as child care expenses.

Child care expenses cannot be allowed as a deduction if there is an adult household member capable of caring for the child who can provide the child care. Examples of those adult members who would be considered unable to care for the child include:

The abuser in a documented child abuse situation, or

A person with disabilities or older person unable to take care of a small child, as verified by a reliable knowledgeable source, or

Can provide proof that the adult member is searching for a job (maximum time allowed for search is 10 hours per week.)

An allowable deduction for child care expenses is based on the following guidelines:

Child care to work: The maximum child care expense allowed must be less than the amount earned by the person enabled to work. The "person enabled to work" will be the adult member of the household who earns the least amount of income from working.

Child care for school: The number of hours claimed for child care may not exceed the number of hours the family member is attending school, including reasonable travel time to and from school.

Amount of Expense: The SNRHA will survey the local care providers in the community and collect data as a guideline. If the hourly rate materially exceeds the guideline, the SNRHA may calculate the allowance using the guideline.

Child Care Verification:

SNRHA will send out via mail to the child care provider a 3rd party verification, which will need to be completed, showing the name, age of children, hours and days watched along with amount charged. Verification is to include provider's license number or tax identification number if they are a licensed agency. Private providers will need to provide a social security number and have the form notarized.

No other form of verification will be accepted but that of the Housing Authority.

Secondary verification after attempting orals will be receipts.

P. MEDICAL EXPENSES [24 CFR 5.603]

When it is unclear in the HUD rules as to whether or not to allow an item as a medical expense, IRS Publication 502 will be used as a guide.

Persons with a Medicare prescription drug plan may be required to pay a premium and this premium will be counted as a medical expense.

Prescriptions not covered by the Medicare prescription drug plan will be counted toward the sum of allowable medical expense.

Nonprescription medicines must be doctor-recommended in order to be considered a medical expense.

Nonprescription medicines will be counted toward medical expenses for families who qualify if the family furnishes legible receipts.

Acupressure, acupuncture and related herbal medicines, and chiropractic services will be considered allowable medical expenses.

O. PRORATION OF ASSISTANCE FOR "MIXED" FAMILIES [24 CFR 5.520]

Applicability

Prorating of assistance must be offered to any "mixed" applicant or participant family. A "mixed" family is one that includes at least one U.S. citizen or eligible immigrant and any number of ineligible members.

Prorated Assistance Calculation

Prorated assistance will be calculated by subtracting the total tenant payment from the applicable maximum rent for the unit the family occupies to determine the Family Maximum Subsidy. The family's TTP will be calculated by:

Dividing the family maximum subsidy by the number of persons in the family to determine Member Maximum Subsidy.

Multiplying the member maximum subsidy by the number of eligible family members to determine Eligible Subsidy.

Subtracting the amount of eligible subsidy from the applicable maximum rent for the unit the family occupies to get the family's revised total tenant payment.

R. INCOME CHANGES RESULTING FROM WELFARE PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

The SNRHA will not reduce the public housing rent for families whose welfare assistance is reduced specifically because of:

fraud; or

failure to participate in an economic self-sufficiency program; or

noncompliance with a work activities requirement

However, the SNRHA will reduce the rent if the welfare assistance reduction is a result of:

The expiration of a lifetime time limit on receiving benefits; or

A situation where the family has complied with welfare program requirements but cannot or has not obtained employment, such as:

The family has complied with welfare program requirements, but the durational time limit, such as a cap on the length of time a family can receive benefits, causes the family to lose their welfare benefits.

Verification Before Denying a Request to Reduce Rent

The SNRHA will obtain written verification from the welfare agency stating that the family's benefits have been reduced for fraud or noncompliance before denying the family's request for rent reduction.

Cooperation Agreements

The SNRHA will attempt to develop a written cooperation agreement in place with the local welfare agency which assists the SNRHA in obtaining the necessary information regarding welfare sanctions.

The SNRHA has taken a proactive approach to culminating an effective working relationship between the SNRHA and the local welfare agency for the purpose of targeting economic self-sufficiency programs throughout the community that are available to public housing residents.

The SNRHA and the local welfare agency have mutually agreed to notify each other of any economic self-sufficiency and/or other appropriate programs or services that would benefit public housing residents.

S. UTILITY ALLOWANCE AND UTILITY REIMBURSEMENT PAYMENTS

If the cost of utilities (excluding telephone) is not included in the tenant rent, a utility allowance will be deducted from the total tenant payment. The utility allowance is intended to help defray the cost of utilities not included in the rent. The allowances are based on the monthly cost of reasonable consumption utilities in an energy conservative household, not on a family's actual consumption.

A survey of utility rate changes applicable to the agency's jurisdiction will be made annually and the Schedule of Tenant-Paid Utility Allowances and related services will be periodically adjusted by the agency in accordance with the results of the survey. Utility allowances may be adjusted upward or downward, or remain the same, dependent upon the most recent data regarding overall consumption and rates for the larger community (not just the public housing community).

When the utility allowance exceeds the family's total tenant payment, the SNRHA will provide a utility reimbursement payment for the family each month. The check will be made out directly to the tenant.

Resident-Paid Utilities

The following requirements apply to residents living in developments with resident-paid utilities or applicants being admitted to such developments:

If a resident or applicant is unable to get utilities connected because of a previous balance owed to the utility company, the resident/applicant will not be permitted to move into a unit with resident paid utilities. This may mean that a current resident cannot transfer or that an applicant cannot be admitted.

Paying the utility bill is the resident's obligation under the lease. Failure to pay utilities is grounds for eviction.

T. EXCESS UTILITY PAYMENTS

Residents in units where the SNRHA pays the utilities may be charged for excess utilities if additional appliances or equipment are used in the unit. This charge shall be applied as specified in the lease. [24CFR 966.4(b)(2)]

The SNRHA expects the resident to take every effort to ensure that utility consumption will be reasonable and in compliance with acceptable standards of usage applicable to unit and family size. If use of utilities is determined to be excessive, SNRHA will require payment for the amount of usage that is deemed to be excessive. Excessive utility usage will be determined if the individually metered utility monthly bill exceeds the approved utility allowance for the unit size by 30%. Payment for excessive utility usage will become due and payable on the first day of the second month following the month in which the charges are incurred, except at termination of lease when all charges are considered due and payable. In the case of water bills, usage will be based on the average unit size consumption.

Authority for Family to Select

The SNRHA shall provide for each family residing in a public housing unit to elect annually whether the rent paid by such family shall be 1) determined based on family income or 2) the flat rent. The SNRHA may not at any time fail to provide both such rent options for any public housing unit owned, assisted or operated by the SNRHA.

Annual choice: The SNRHA shall provide for families residing in public housing units to elect annually whether to pay income-based or flat rent. Except for financial hardship cases, the family may not be offered the rent choice more than once per year.

SNRHA will provide each family the following written information:

- Policy on switching types of rent in circumstances of hardship.
- The dollar amounts of tenant rent for the family under each option.
- If the family chose a flat rent for the previous year, the SNRHA will provide the amount of income-based rent for the subsequent year.
- Only the year the SNRHA conducts an income reexamination or if the family specifically requests it and submits updated income information. For a family that chooses the flat rent option, the SNRHA must conduct a reexamination of family income at least once every three years.
- The flat rent is based on the fair market rent. The SNRHA records must show how the SNRHA determines flat rents in accordance with its method and document flat rents offered to families.
- The SNRHA will not pay a utility reimbursement for a family that has chosen to pay a flat rent.
- For families paying income-based rent, SNRHA may choose to pay utility reimbursements either to the family, or directly to the utility supplier. If the PHA elects to pay the utility supplier, the SNRHA must first notify the family of the amount of utility reimbursement paid to the supplier.

Allowable Rent Structures

Flat Rents

The SNRHA has established, for each dwelling unit in public housing, a flat rental amount for the dwelling unit, which:

Is based on an amount no less than 80% of the applicable FMR established under 8 ( c ) of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937, in accordance with HUD Notice PIH 2014-07.

The SNRHA shall review the income of families paying flat rent not less than once every three years.

Income-Based Rents

The monthly total tenant payment amount for a family shall be an amount, as verified by the SNRHA that does not exceed the greatest of the following amounts:

30 percent of the family's monthly adjusted income;

10 percent of the family's monthly income; or

The SNRHA's minimum TTP of $50.00.

Switching Rent Determination Methods Because of Hardship Circumstances

In the case of a family that has elected to pay the SNRHA's flat rent, the SNRHA shall immediately provide for the family to pay rent in the amount determined under income-based rent, during the period for which such choice was made, upon a determination that the family is unable to pay the flat rent because of financial hardship, including:

Situations in which the income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstances, loss of or reduction of employment, death in the family, and reduction in or loss of income of other assistance;

An increase, because of changed circumstances, in the family's expenses for medical costs, child care, transportation, education, or similar items; and

Such other situations as may be determined by the SNRHA.

All hardship situations will be verified.

The rental policy developed by the SNRHA encourages and rewards employment and self-sufficiency.

Annual Reexamination

Within 120 days in advance of the annual reexamination, the family will be sent a form from the SNRHA, on which the family will indicate whether they choose flat rent or income-based rent. The SNRHA form will state what the flat rent would be, and an estimate, based on current information, what the family's income-based rent would be.

If the family indicates they choose flat rent, the form will be retained in the tenant file.

If the family indicates they choose income-based rent, a reexamination appointment will be scheduled according to SNRHA policy.

V. SNRHA'S FLAT RENT METHODOLOGY

The SNRHA has set a flat rent for each bedroom size within the SNRHA's public housing inventory, based on an amount no less than 80% of the applicable FMR established under 8 ( c ) of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937, in accordance with HUD Notice PIH 2014-07.

The SNRHA's flat rents have been established using the following methodology:

An amount no less than 80% of the applicable FMR established under 8 ( c ) of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937, in accordance with HUD Notice PIH 2014-07.

Chapter 7

VERIFICATION

[24 CFR Parts 5.617, CFR
960.206]

INTRODUCTION

The SNRHA must verify all information that is used to establish the family's eligibility and level of assistance and is required to obtain the family's consent to collect the information. Applicants and program participants must cooperate with the verification process as a condition of receiving assistance. The SNRHA must not pass on the cost of verification to the family.

The SNRHA will follow the verification guidance provided by HUD in PIH Notice 2013-04 Verification Guidance and any subsequent guidance issued by HUD. This chapter summarizes those requirements and provides supplementary SNRHA policies.

Part I describes the general verification process. More detailed requirements related to individual factors are provided in subsequent parts including family information (Part II), income and assets (Part III), and mandatory deductions (Part IV).

Verification policies, rules and procedures will be modified as needed to accommodate persons with disabilities. All information obtained through the verification process will be handled in accordance with the records management policies of the SNRHA.

PART I: GENERAL VERIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

7-I.A. FAMILY CONSENT TO RELEASE OF INFORMATION

The family must supply any information that the SNRHA or HUD determines is necessary to the administration of the program and must consent to SNRHA verification of that information

Consent Forms

It is required that all adult applicants and participants sign form HUD-9886, Authorization for Release of Information. The purpose of form HUD-9886 is to facilitate automated data collection and computer matching from specific sources and provides the family's consent only for the specific purposes listed on the form. HUD and the SNRHA may collect information from State Wage Information Collection Agencies (SWICAs) and current and former employers of adult family members. Only HUD is authorized to collect information directly from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the Social Security Administration (SSA). Adult family members must sign other consent forms as needed to collect information relevant to the family's eligibility and level of assistance.

The family will be required to complete the SNRHA release of information, in addition to the Debts Owed (HUD 52675) and HUD 92006

Penalties for Failing to Consent

If any family member who is required to sign a consent form fails to do so, the SNRHA will deny admission to applicants and terminate assistance of participants. The family may request an informal review (applicants) or informal hearing (participants) in accordance with SNRHA procedures.

7-I.B. OVERVIEW OF VERIFICATION

REQUIREMENTS HUD's Verification Hierarchy

HUD authorizes the SNRHA to use six methods to verify family information and specifies the circumstances in which each method will be used. In general HUD requires the SNRHA to use the most reliable form of verification that is available and to document the reasons when the SNRHA uses a lesser form of verification.

SNRHA Policy

Upfront Income Verification (UIV): The verification of income at admission or before or during a family reexamination, through an independent source that systematically and uniformly maintains income information in computerized form for a large number of individuals. HUD's Enterprise Income Verification System (EIV) is considered to be this method. This is currently not available for applicants.

NOTICE: PIH-2013-04 (HA) Guidance on Verification of Excluded Income.

Purpose:

This notice provides clarification and guidance on the verification requirements of income excluded from the

The SNRHA Public Housing Program in an effort to reduce administrative burden, will utilize the provision in the HUD Notice PIH-2013-04 as follows:

HUD has provided two categories of excluded income: fully excluded and partially excluded. Each category has different verification requirement.

Fully Excluded Income:

Income that is fully excluded means the entire amount qualifies to be excluded from the annual income determination. For fully excluded income, the SNRHA is not required to:

- Verify the income in accordance with the HUD-prescribed verification hierarchy;
- Document in the tenant file why third party verification was not available as required by 24 CFR 960.259(c)(i) and 24 CFR 982.516(a)(2); and
- Report the income in Section 7 of the form HUD-50058.

SNRHA may accept an applicant or participant's self-certification as verification of fully excluded income. The SNRHA's application and reexamination documentation, which is signed by all adult family members, may serve as the self-certification of the fully excluded income. SNRHA has the option of elevating the verification requirements if necessary, to determine if a source of income qualifies for a full exclusion.

Examples of common fully excluded income categories that are verifiable through applicant or participant self-certification are:

- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits, formerly known as food stamps.
- Income from a live-in aide.

For a complete list of income exclusions, see 24 CFR 5.609(c).

5. Partially Excluded Income:

Income that is partially excluded means that only a certain portion of the income reported by the family qualifies to be excluded, while the remainder must be included when determining the family's annual income.

For partially excluded income, SNRHA is required to:

- Comply with HUD-prescribed verification requirements and all applicable regulations pertaining to
- the determination of annual income; and
- Report the income in Section 7 of the form HUD-50058.
- Examples of partially excluded income that are subject to regular verification requirements include:
- The Department of Veterans Affairs "Aid and Attendance" benefits – in accordance with 24 CFR 5.609(c)(4), these benefits may be excluded from income if they are used "specifically for, or in reimbursement of, the cost of medical expenses for any family member." Live-in or periodic medical assistance and services of doctors and health care professionals are among the services that may be counted as medical expenses. The SNRHA must verify the amount provided for aid and attendance medical expenses and the amount actually being used by the veteran for such expenses.

Any portion of the benefit not used for such expenses would continue to be counted as income by the SNRHA when determining the family's annual income.

- Earnings in excess of $480 for full-time students 18 years old or older (24 CFR 5.609(c)(11) – in order to determine the amount of earnings to include in the calculation of the family's annual income, the SNRHA must verify the amount of employment income for these family members.

The Verification Hierarchy. SNRHA shall begin with the highest level of verification Techniques PHAs are required to access the EIV system and obtain an Income Report for each household. The SNRHA shall maintain the Income Report in the tenant file along with the form HUD-50058 and other supporting documentation to support income and rent determinations for all mandatory annual reexaminations of family income and composition.

If the Income Report does not contain any employment and income information for the family, the SNRHA shall attempt the next lower level verification technique, as noted in the below:

| Level | Verification Technique                                                                                                                                  | Ranking                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

Verification Technique Definitions

Third Party Verification Techniques

Upfront Income Verification (UIV) (Level 6/5): The verification of income before or during a family reexamination, through an independent source that systematically and uniformly maintains income information in computerized form for a number of individuals. It should be noted that the EIV system is available to all PHAs as a UIV technique. PHAs are encouraged to continue using other non-HUD UIV tools, such as The Work Number (an automated verification system) and state government databases, to validate tenant-reported income.

Written Third Party Verification (Level 4): An original or authentic document generated by a third party source dated either within the 60-day period preceding the reexamination or PHA request date. Such documentation may be in the possession of the tenant (or applicant), and is commonly referred to as tenant-provided documents. It is the Department's position that such tenant-provided documents are written third party verification since these documents originated from a third party source. The PHA may, at its discretion, reject any tenant-provided documents and follow up directly with the source to obtain necessary verification of information.

Examples of acceptable tenant-provided documentation (generated by a third party source) include, but are not limited to: pay stubs, payroll summary report, employer notice/letter of hire/termination, SSA benefit verification letter, bank statements, child support payment stubs, welfare benefit letters and/or printouts, and unemployment monetary benefit notices. Current acceptable tenant-provided documents must be used for income and rent determinations.

The SNRHA shall require two current and consecutive pay stubs for determining annual income from wages. For new income sources, two pay stubs shall be required that are consecutive or a new hire letter with date of hire, wages and hours. The PHA should project income based on the information from a traditional written third party verification form or the best available information.

Note: Documents older than 60 days (from the PHA interview/determination or request date) is acceptable for confirming effective dates of income.

Written Third Party Verification Form (Level 3): Also, known as traditional third party verification. A standardized form to collect information from a third party source. The form is completed by the third party by hand (in writing or typeset). PHAs send the form directly to the third party source by mail, fax, or email.

It is the Department's position that the administrative burden and risk associated with use of the traditional third party verification form may be reduced by PHAs relying on acceptable documents that are generated by a third party, but in the possession of and provided by the tenant (or applicant). Many documents in the possession of the tenant are derived from third party sources (i.e. employers, federal, state and/or local agencies, banks, etc.).

The Department recognizes that third party verification request forms sent to third party sources often are not returned. In other instances, the person who completes the verification form may provide incomplete information; or some tenants may collude with the third party source to provide false information; or the tenant intercepts the form and provides false information.

The Department requires PHAs to rely on documents that originate from a third party source's computerized system and/or database, as this process reduces the likelihood of incorrect or falsified information being provided on the third party verification request form. The use of acceptable tenant-provided documents, which originate from a third party source, will improve the integrity of information used to determine a family's income and rent and ultimately reduce improper subsidy payments. This verification process will also streamline the income verification process.

Oral Third Party Verification (Level 2): Independent verification of information by contacting the individual income/expense source(s), as identified through the UIV technique or identified by the family, via telephone or in-person visit. PHA staff should document in the tenant file, the date and time of the telephone call (or visit to the third party), the name of the person contacted and telephone number, along with the confirmed information.

This verification method is commonly used in the event that the independent source does not respond to the PHA's faxed, mailed, or e- mailed request for information in a reasonable time frame, i.e., ten (10) business days.

Non-Third Party Verification Technique - Tenant Declaration (Level 1): The tenant submits an affidavit or notarized statement of reported income and/or expenses to the PHA. This verification method should be used as a last resort when the PHA has not been successful in obtaining information via all other verification techniques. When the PHA relies on tenant declaration, the PHA must document in the tenant file why third party verification was not available.

Exceptions to Third Party Verification Requirements

HUD is aware that in some situations, third party verification is not available for a variety of reasons. Oftentimes, the PHA may have made numerous attempts to obtain the required verifications with no success, or it may not be cost effective to obtain third party verification of income, assets, or expenses, when the impact on total tenant payment is minimal. In these cases, the PHA is required to document in the family file the reason(s) why third party verification was not available.

The exception to third party verification can be found at 24 CFR §960.259(c)(1) and §982.516(a)(2), which states, "The PHA must obtain and document in the family file third party verification of the following factors, or must document in the file why third party verification was not available."

Third party verification requirements. In accordance with 24 CFR §960.259(c)(1) and 24 CFR §982.516(a)(2) for the Public Housing and the HCV programs, respectively, the PHA must obtain and document in the tenant file third party verification of the following factors, or must document in the tenant file why third party verification was not available: (i) reported family annual income; (ii) the value of assets; (iii) expenses related to deductions from annual income; and (iv) other factors that affect the determination of adjusted income.

How to comply with and reduce administrative burden of third party verification requirements of family annual income . PHAs can comply with and reduce administrative burden of third party verification requirements for employment, wage, and unemployment compensation and social security benefits, and any other information that is verifiable using EIV by:

- a) Reviewing the EIV Income Report to confirm/validate tenant-reported income; and;
- b) Printing and maintaining an EIV Income Report (or an EIV Individual Control Number (ICN) page for interim reexaminations as prescribed in Section 12 of this Notice) in the tenant file; and
- c) Obtaining current acceptable tenant-provided documentation to supplement EIV information; and
- d) Using current tenant-provided documentation and/or third party verification to calculate annual income.

Note: Social Security benefit information in EIV is updated every three months. If the tenant agrees with the EIV-reported benefit information, PHAs do not need to obtain or request a benefit verification letter from the tenant. See PIH Notice 2010-03 for guidance on verifying Social Security benefit income through the EIV system.

The PHA may also reduce the administrative burden of obtaining third party verification by relying on acceptable documents that are generated by a third party, but provided by the tenant. Many documents in the possession of the tenant are derived from third party sources (i.e. employers, federal, state and/or local agencies, banks, etc.).

When the PHA is required to request written third party verification The PHA must request written third party verification under the following circumstances:

- a. When the tenant disputes the EIV information and is unable to provide acceptable documentation to support his/her dispute
- b. When the PHA requires additional information that is not available in EIV and /or the tenant is unable to provide the PHA with current acceptable tenant-provided documentation. Examples of additional information, includes but is not limited to:
  - i. Effective dates of income (i.e. employment, unemployment compensation, or social security benefits)
  - ii. For new employment: pay rate, number of hours worked per

- week, pay frequency, etc.
- iii. Confirmation of change in circumstances (i.e. reduced hours, reduced rate of pay, temporary leave of absence, etc.)

Note: 24 CFR §5.236(a), prohibits PHAs from taking adverse action based solely on EIV

Requirements for Acceptable Documents

SNRHA Policy

Any documents used for verification must be the original (not photocopies) and generally must be dated within 60 calendar days of the date they are provided to the SNRHA. The documents must not be damaged, altered or in any way illegible. All tenant supplied documents should be dated no more than 60 days before the effective date of the family's reexamination or SNRHA's request date, if the document represents the most recent scheduled report from a source. For example, if the holder of a pension annuity provides semi-annual reports, the SNRHA would accept the most recent report.

Print-outs from web pages are considered original documents.

Pay stubs which must be current and consecutive when used with EIV and must not be older than 60 days from the request date or 60 days prior to the annual recertification effective date. Four consecutive pay stubs will be required when using EIV for annuals and two for new hire verifications..

Examples of acceptable tenant-provided documentation (generated by a third party source) include, but are not limited to: pay stubs, payroll summary reports, child support payment stubs, welfare benefit letters and/or printouts, and unemployment monetary benefit notices, bank statements, and local agencies, employer letter/notices. Current acceptable tenant-provided documents must be used for income and rent determinations. The SNRHA is required to obtain a minimum of two pay stubs for determining annual income from wages. For new income sources or when two pay stubs are not available, the PHA should project income based on the information from a traditional written third party verification form or the best available information.

Note: Documents that are older than 60 days (from the date SNRHA interview/determination or request date) is acceptable for confirming effective dates of income.

The SNRHA staff member who views the original document must make a photocopy. Any family self-certifications must be made in a format acceptable to the SNRHA and must be signed in the presence of a SNRHA representative or SNRHA notary public.

File Documentation

The SNRHA must document in the file how the figures used in income and rent calculations were determined. All verification attempts, information obtained, and decisions reached during the verification process will be recorded in the family's file in sufficient detail to demonstrate that the SNRHA has followed all of the verification policies set forth in this plan. The record should be sufficient to enable a staff member or HUD reviewer to understand the process followed and conclusions reached.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will document, in the family file, the following: Reported family annual income

Value of assets

Expenses related to deductions from annual income

Other factors influencing the adjusted income or income-based rent determination

When the SNRHA is unable to obtain 3rd party verification, the SNRHA will document in the family file the reason that third-party verification was not available (including oral verification attempt) and will place a photocopy of any original document(s) in the family file. [24 CFR 960.259(c)(1); VG, p.15]

Special Verification Processes:

HUD NOTICE PIH 2013-03 (HA):

Purpose: “This Notice establishes temporary guidelines for public housing agencies (SNRHA) in fulfilling certain Public Housing (PH) and Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) program requirements during this period of decreased resources available to SNRHA. These guidelines are intended to facilitate the ability of SNRHA to continue, without interruption and with minimal burden, the delivery of rental assistance to eligible families in their communities. The temporary provisions established by this Notice will be available to SNRHA until March 31, 2014.

The economic downturn that commenced in 2008 and which continues has only increased the need for housing assistance. Increased demand for housing assistance without corresponding increased resources strains the operations of SNRHA, and jeopardizes their ability to assist families at a time when families most need housing assistance. Increasing administrative flexibility should allow SNRHA to deliver rental assistance more efficiently and expeditiously. Reduction of administrative burden is anticipated to allow SNRHA to better manage their programs within current allocated budget authority. The temporary guidelines are also designed to increase efficiencies, minimizing the use of resources for program administration. HUD intends to pursue more permanent changes to increase flexibility and reduce administrative burden and will be informed by SNRHA’ use of the temporary compliance provisions of this Notice.” PIH Notice 2013-3

In accordance with HUD Notice PIH 2013-3, the SNRHA Public Housing Occupancy department shall process tenant income verification as follows:.

SNRHA, PH Ops may choose to use either actual past income or projected future income. Currently, annual income includes income that is anticipated to be received from a source outside the family during the 12-month period following the effective date of admission or annual reexamination. The Notice provides SNRHA with the option of determining annual income based on past actual income received or earned within the last 12 months.

For the purpose of verifying income reported in HUD's Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system, the SNRHA may choose to use actual past income by utilizing the most recent 12 months of income information available in EIV. Because this EIV report will give actual earnings data verified by a third party, the program participant will no longer be required to provide third party documentation (e.g., paystubs, payroll summary report, unemployment monetary benefit notice).

If there has been a change in circumstances for a tenant, or a tenant disputes the EIV reported income information and is unable to provide acceptable documentation to resolve the dispute, the SNRHA must request written third-party verification.

For example, if a program participant lost his/her job, changed jobs, or reduced their hours in the months subsequent to the time period covered in EIV, the SNRHA must use, at the participant's request, the more recent income information verified by participant provided third-party documentation (e.g., paystubs, payroll summary report, unemployment monetary benefit notice) or through written third-party verification, which reflects the new or current work circumstance.

SNRHA must continue to verify income from sources not available in EIV. However, SNRHA must use the same time period for both wage and non-wage income. For example, if SNRHA uses EIV information from July 2011 to June 2012 for the purpose of verifying income from wages, the SNRHA must use the same time period for any non-wage income. This method may only be used if the SNRHA is able to align other non-wage income source dates with EIV.

Allow households to self-certify as to having assets of less than $5,000.

Tenants with assets below $5,000 typically generate minimal income from these assets which results in small changes to tenant rental payments. However, SNRHA spend significant time verifying such assets which strains SNRHA budgets, and leads to increased staff errors. The notice has made provisions intended to simplify the requirements associated with determining a participant's annual income (24 CFR 5.609(b)(3), 982.516(a)(2)(ii), 960.259(c)).

Families with assets are required to report all assets annually. The amount of interest earned on those assets is included as income used to calculate the tenant's rent obligation. Currently, where the family has net family assets in excess of $5,000, annual income includes the greater of the actual income derived from all net family assets or a percentage of the value of such assets based on the current passbook savings rate.

This Notice allows a SNRHA to accept a family's declaration of the amount of assets of less than $5,000, and the amount of income expected to be received from those assets. The SNRHA's application and reexamination documentation, which is signed by all adult family members, can serve as the declaration. Where the family has net family assets equal to or less than $5000, the SNRHA does not need to request supporting documentation (e.g. bank statements) from the family to confirm the assets or the amount of income expected to be received from those assets. Where the family has net family assets in excess of $5000, the SNRHA must obtain supporting documentation (e.g. bank statements) from the family to confirm the assets. Any assets will continue to be reported on HUD Form 50058.

Allow optional streamlined annual reexaminations for elderly families and disabled families on fixed incomes.

SNRHA is statutorily required to verify income and calculate rent annually, including for elderly and disabled families on fixed incomes. The notice states that the requirement to undertake the complete process for income verification and rent determination for families on fixed incomes is not necessary given the infrequency of changes to their incomes. Further, this requirement requires considerable staff time and SNRHA resources. The notice provides simplification of the requirements associated with determining the annual income of participants on fixed incomes (24 CFR 982.516, 960.257).

SNRHA will conduct a streamlined reexamination of income for elderly families and disabled families when 100 percent of the family's income consists of fixed income. In a streamlined reexamination, SNRHA will recalculate family incomes by applying any published cost of living adjustments to the previously verified income amount.

For purposes of this process, the term 'fixed income' includes income from:

1. Social Security payments to include Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and Supplemental Security Disability Insurance (SSDI);
2. Federal, State, local, and private pension plans; and
3. Other periodic payments received from annuities, insurance policies, retirement funds, disability or death benefits, and other similar types of periodic receipts that are of substantially the same amounts from year to year.

7-I.C. UP-FRONT INCOME VERIFICATION (UIV)

HUD strongly recommends the use of up-front income verification (UIV). UIV is "the verification of income, before or during a family reexamination, through an independent source that systematically and uniformly maintains income information in computerized form for a large number of individuals" [VG, p. 7]. UIV includes the HUD EIV system and other upfront verification tools such as the Work Number.

HUD allows SNRHA to use the EIV information in conjunction with family-provided documents to anticipate income.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will inform all applicants and participants of its use of the following UIV resources during the admission and reexamination process:

HUD's Enterprise Income Verification System

(EIV)

The SNRHA must restrict access to and safeguard UIV data in accordance with HUD guidance on security procedures, as issued and made available by HUD.

There may be legitimate differences between the information provided by the family and EIV-generated information. No adverse action can be taken against a family until the SNRHA has independently verified the EIV information and the family has been granted an opportunity to contest any adverse findings through the informal review/hearing process of the SNRHA.

Use of HUD's Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) System

HUD's EIV system contains data showing earned income, unemployment benefits, Social Security and SSI benefits for participant families. HUD requires the SNRHA to use the EIV system when available. The following policies will apply when the SNRHA has access to HUD's EIV system.

The EIV system contains two main components: tenant income data reports and "exceeds threshold" reports.

Tenant Income Data (TID) Reports (EIV)

The data shown on TID reports is updated quarterly. Data may be between 3 and 6 months old at the time reports are generated.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will obtain EIV reports for annual reexaminations on a monthly basis. SNRHA shall also obtain EIV reports for interims. Reports will be generated as part of the regular reexamination process.

EIV reports will be compared to family-provided information as part of the annual reexamination process. EIV reports may also be used to meet the regulatory requirement for third party verification, as described above. Policies for resolving discrepancies between EIV reports and family-provided information will be resolved as described in Chapter 5.I.D. and in this chapter.

EIV reports will be retained in participant's files with the applicable annual or interim reexamination documents.

When the SNRHA determines through EIV reports and third party verification that a family has concealed or under-reported income, corrective action will be taken pursuant to the policies in the Chapter Program Integrity.

Income Discrepancy Resolution

The SNRHA shall reconcile income discrepancies.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA shall proceed as follows:

- SNRHA shall identify underreported income and/or unreported income sources; No adverse action may be taken based solely on EIV data. In order to protect any individual whose records are being used in a matching program, no recipient agency, non-Federal agency, or source agency may suspend, terminate, reduce or make a final denial of any financial assistance or payment under a Federal Benefit program to such individual, as a result of information produced by such matching program, until the agency has independently verified the information;
- Review current and historical 50058s;
- Verify effective dates of new and terminated income sources; Discuss the income discrepancy with the tenant;
- View past and current interim and annual recertification documents in the tenant's file;
- Obtain additional documents from the tenant and/or third party (if necessary);
- Obtain Social Security Earnings Statement (SSA Form 7004) for historical wage earnings (Form available on HUD's website) for retroactive rent calculations.

EIV Identity Verification

The EIV system verifies tenant identities against SSA records. These records are compared to PIC data for a match on Social Security number, name, and date of birth.

When identity verification for a participant fails, a message will be displayed within the EIV system and no income information will be displayed.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will identify participants whose identity verification has failed as part of the annual reexamination process.

The SNRHA will attempt to resolve PIC/SSA discrepancies by reviewing file documents. When the SNRHA determines that discrepancies exist due to SNRHA errors such as spelling errors or incorrect birth dates, the errors will be corrected promptly and correction transmitted to HUD.

7-I.D. THIRD-PARTY WRITTEN AND ORAL VERIFICATION

Reasonable Effort and Timing

Unless third-party verification is not required as described herein, HUD requires the SNRHA to make an attempt to obtain third-party verification before using another form of verification [VG, p. 15].

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will diligently seek third-party verification using the chart above as guideline for order of verifications. If written 3rd party is required and is not received or available by the client, after 10 calendar days, staff will then attempt an oral verification if the written third party is not received. File narratives shall be documented whenever UIV or third party written is not used. Information received orally from third parties may be used either to clarify information provided in writing by the third party or as independent verification when written third-party verification is not received in a timely fashion.

The SNRHA may mail, fax, or e-mail third-party written verification requests and will accept third-party responses using any of these methods. The SNRHA will send a written request for verification to each required source within 5 business days of securing a family's authorization for the release of the information and give the source 10 calendar days to respond in writing. If a response has not been received by the 11th business day, the SNRHA will request third-party oral verification.

The SNRHA will make a minimum of two attempts, (one written and one oral, if needed) to obtain third-party verification. A record of each attempt to contact the third-party source (including no-answer calls) and all contacts with the source will be documented in the file. Regarding third-party oral verification, SNRHA staff will record in the family's file the name and title of the person contacted, the date of the conversation (or attempt), the telephone number used, and the facts provided.

When any source responds verbally to the initial written request for verification the SNRHA will accept the verbal response as oral verification but will also request that the source complete and return any verification forms that were provided.

Third-Party Written Verification

Third-party verification is used to verify information directly with the source. Third-party written verification forms will be sent and returned via first class mail or fax. The family will be required to sign an authorization for the information source to release the specified information.

Verifications received electronically directly from the source as well as items as noted above in the Chart( Including those provided directly from a clients) are considered third party written verifications.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will accept verifications in the form of computerized printouts, showing payments, faxed, mailed or received via upfront verification systems

directly from the following agencies:

- Social Security Administration -
- EIV Veterans Administration
- Welfare Assistance
- Unemployment Compensation Board
- City or County Courts
- Other State and Federal Offices, including HUD

The SNRHA will use computer printouts as well as other acceptable forms of third party verification that do not appear as altered and are on a business or other entity's letterhead, received directly from the family for calculation family's income. Staff must attempt third party verification when EIV nor family provided acceptable documentation is not available. If no response, then staff must attempt oral verifications and must document on the file narrative why third party was not used and complete an oral verification form. If the family disputes the information provided by the third party, the staff is to seek further clarification by phone with the third party. The information provided by the 3rd party is to prevail.

Third-Party Oral Verification

SNRHA Policy

Oral third-party verification will be used when written third-party verification is delayed; not returned within 10 calendar days or not possible. When third-party oral verification is used, staff will be required to complete an Oral Verification/Review of Documents form, noting with whom they spoke, the date of the conversation, and the facts provided. If oral third party verification is not available, the SNRHA will document the file narrative and utilize documents provided by the participant. If the oral is provided by telephone, the SNRHA must originate the call.

Review of Documents

SNRHA Policy

In the event that third-party written is not returned within 10 calendar days or oral verification is unavailable, or the information has not been verified by the third party within 10 calendar days, the SNRHA will notate the file narrative accordingly; ensure copies of documents requiring the third party verification are in file. Oral third party verification should be attempted prior to utilizing documents provided by the family as the primary source if the documents provide complete information and the file narrative must be documented.

All such documents, excluding government checks, will be photocopied and retained in the applicant file. In cases where documents are viewed which cannot be photocopied, staff viewing the document(s) will complete an Oral Verification/Review of Documents form.

The SNRHA will accept the following documents from the family provided that the document is such that tampering would be easily noted:

- Printed wage stubs
- Computer printouts from the employer
- Employer's letters and wage printouts
- Bank Statements
- Award Letters
- Pension Letters
- Signed letters (provided that the information is confirmed by phone)
- Other documents noted in this Chapter as acceptable verification

Although these documents will be accepted, the SNRHA will also mail third party verifications to the source; attempt upfront verification and use these documents only after there has been no response to the third party verification method.

The SNRHA will accept faxed documents.

The SNRHA will accept mail from the third party source.

The SNRHA will accept hand carried documents from clients as long as they do not appear as altered and provide required documentation regarding wages.

The SNRHA will not accept photocopies.

If third-party verification is received after documents have been accepted as provisional verification, and there is a discrepancy, the SNRHA will attempt to contact the verification provider by telephone to resolve the discrepancy. If the attempt to resolve the discrepancy by telephone is unsuccessful, the SNRHA will use the third party verification.

The SNRHA will not delay the processing of an application beyond 30 calendar days, except due to screening for criminal history, because a third party information provider does not return the verification in a timely manner. The next steps in the verification process shall be attempted after 10 calendar days, unless the family has been given an extension.

Self-Certification/Self-Declaration

When verification cannot be made by third-party verification, including oral verification or review of documents, families will be required to submit a self-certification.

SNRHA Policy

Self-certification means a statement under penalty of perjury, and the signature must be witnessed by SNRHA staff.

When Third-Party Information is Late

When third-party verification has been requested and the timeframes for submission have been exceeded, the SNRHA will use the information from documents on a provisional basis.

SNRHA Policy

If the SNRHA later receives third-party verification that differs from the amounts used in income and rent determinations and it is past the deadline for processing the reexamination, the SNRHA will conduct an interim reexamination to adjust the figures used for the reexamination, regardless of the SNRHA's interim reexamination policy, if needed.

When Third-Party Verification is not Required

Primary Documents

Third-party verification is not required when legal documents are the primary source, such as a birth certificate or other legal documentation of birth and for verification of checking/saving accounts.

Certain Assets and Expenses

The SNRHA will accept a self-certification from a family as verification of assets disposed of for less than fair market value.

The SNRHA will determine that third-party verification is not available if the asset or expense involves an insignificant amount, making it not cost-effective or reasonable to obtain third-party verification .

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will use review of documents in lieu of requesting third-party verification when the market value of an individual asset or an expense is less than $5,000 annually and the family has original documents that support the declared amount.

Certain Income, Asset and Expense Sources

The SNRHA will determine that third-party verification is not available when it is known that an income source does not have the ability to provide written or oral third-party verification. For example, the SNRHA will rely upon review of documents when the SNRHA determines that a third party's privacy rules prohibit the source from disclosing information.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA also will determine that third-party verification is not available when there is a service charge for verifying an asset or expense and the family has original documents that provide the necessary information.

If the family cannot provide original documents, the SNRHA will pay the service charge required to obtain third-party verification, unless it is not cost effective in which case a self-certification will be acceptable as the only means of verification. The cost of verification will not be passed on to the family.

The cost of postage and envelopes to obtain third-party verification of income, assets, and expenses is not an unreasonable cost.

RELEASE OF INFORMATION

Adult family members (age 18 and older) will be required to sign the HUD 9886 Release of Information/Privacy Act form. In addition, family members will be required to sign specific authorization forms when information is needed that is not covered by the HUD form 9886, Authorization for Release of Information/Privacy Act Notice. Additional release forms as developed by SNRHA are considered required forms that all applicants and participants must sign.

Each member requested to consent to the release of specific information will be provided with appropriate forms for their review and signature.

Family refusal to cooperate with the HUD prescribed verification system will result in denial of admission or termination of assistance because it is a family obligation to supply any information and to sign consent forms requested by the SNRHA or HUD.

COMPUTER MATCHING

Where allowed by HUD and/or other State or local agencies, computer matching will be done for upfront verifications.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will utilize the HUD established computer-based Tenant Eligibility Verification System (EIV) for obtaining Social Security benefits, Supplemental Security Income benefit history and tenant income discrepancy reports from the Social Security Administration. Additionally, to the extent possible, SNRHA will use the UIV systems to obtain upfront verification of wages and Child Support data systems for verification of child support when available.

When computer matching results in a discrepancy with information in the SNRHA records, the SNRHA will follow up with the family and verification sources to resolve this discrepancy. If the family has unreported or underreported income, SNRHA will follow the procedures in the Program Integrity Addendum of the Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy.

ITEMS TO BE VERIFIED

All income not specifically excluded by the regulations.

Full-time student status including High School students who are 18 or over.

Current assets including assets disposed of for less than fair market value in preceding two years. Child care expense where it allows an adult family member to be employed, search for employment, or to further his/her education.

Total un-reimbursed medical expenses of all family members in households whose head or spouse is elderly or disabled.

Un-reimbursed disability assistance expenses to include only those costs associated with attendant care or auxiliary apparatus for a disabled member of the family that allows an adult family member to be employed.

Disability for determination of preferences, allowances or deductions. Eligible immigrant status

Social Security Numbers for all family members who have been issued a social security number.

"Preference" status

Familial/Marital status when needed for head or spouse definition to determine deductions. Need for reasonable accommodations

Verification of sanctions by the Nevada Office of Human Services that TANF benefits have been reduced for either welfare fraud or failure to comply with economic self-sufficiency requirements.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will obtain written verification from the welfare agency stating that the family's benefits have been reduced for fraud or noncompliance with economic self-sufficiency requirements before denying the family's request for rent reduction. The verification will include the amount of the sanction and the duration.

VERIFICATION GUIDANCE [24 CFR 982.516]

This section defines the methods the SNRHA will use to verify various types of income.

Employment Income

SNRHA Policy

Verification forms request the employer to specify

the: Dates of employment

Amount and frequency of pay

Date of the last pay increase

Likelihood of change of employment status and effective date of any known salary increase during the next 12 months

Year to date earnings

Estimated income from overtime, tips, bonus pay expected during next 12 months

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. EIV with a minimum of 2 consecutive paystubs.
2. Third party written verification
Employment verification form completed by the employer
3. Oral third party
4. Review of documents
Check stubs or earning statements, which indicate the employee's gross pay, frequency of pay or year to date earnings. At least three (3) consecutive pay stubs are required when third party verification cannot be obtained.
5. W-2 forms and IRS Form 4506-T release
6. Self-certifications may be used for verifying self-employment income, or income from tips and other gratuities.

In cases where there are questions about the validity of information provided by the family, SNRHA will require the most recent federal income tax statements to be obtained via use of IRS Form 4506-T.

Social Security, Pensions, Supplementary Security Income (SSI), Disability Income

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. EIV
2. Benefit verification form completed by agency providing the benefits.
3. Award or benefit notification letters prepared and signed by the providing agency that is no more than 60 days old.

Unemployment Compensation

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. EIV
2. Verification form completed by the unemployment compensation agency.
3. Computer report electronically obtained or in hard copy, from unemployment office stating payment dates and amounts.
4. Payment stubs

Welfare Payments or General Assistance

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. Written statement from payment provider indicating the amount of grant/payment, start date of payments, family members, and anticipated changes in payment in the next 12 months.
2. Computer-generated Notice of Action.

Alimony or Child Support Payments

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. Print out received via 3rd party verification from the DA's office.
2. Copy of a separation or settlement agreement or a divorce decree stating amount and type of support and payment schedules.
3. A third party verification form completed by the person paying the support.
4. A letter from the person paying the support.
5. Copy of latest check and/or payment stubs from Court Trustee. SNRHA must record the date, amount, and number of the check if not photocopied.
6. Family's self-certification of amount received and of the likelihood of support payments being received in the future, or that support payments are not being received.

If payments are irregular, the family must provide:

A statement from the agency responsible for enforcing payments to show that the family has filed for enforcement.

A self-certification from the family indicating the amount(s) received.

A welfare notice of action showing amounts received by the DA –Child Support Division.

A written statement from an attorney certifying that a collection or enforcement action has been filed.

Net Income from a Business

SNRHA Policy

In order to verify the net income from a business, SNRHA will view IRS and financial documents from prior years and use this information to anticipate the income for the next 12 months.

Acceptable methods of verification include:

1. IRS Form 1040, including: Schedule C
(Small Business) Schedule E

(Rental Property Income)

Schedule F (Farm Income)

If accelerated depreciation was used on the tax return or financial statement, an accountant's calculation of depreciation expense, computed using straight-line depreciation rules.

2. Audited or unaudited financial statement(s) of the business.
3. Credit report or loan application.
4. Documents such as manifests, appointment books, cash books, bank statements, and receipts will be used as a guide for the prior six months (or lesser period if not in business for six months) to project income for the next 12 months. The family will be advised to maintain these documents in the future if they are not available.
5. Family's self-certification as to net income realized from the business during previous years.

Child Care Business

SNRHA Policy

The childcare provider must be 18 years of age or older.

If an applicant/participant is operating a licensed day care business, income will be verified as with any other business.

If the applicant/participant is operating a "cash and carry" operation (which may or may not be licensed), the SNRHA will require that the applicant/participant complete a form for each customer which indicates: name of person(s) whose child (children) is/are being cared for, phone number, number of hours child is being cared for, method of payment (check/cash), amount paid, and signature of person.

If the family has filed a tax return, the family will be required to provide it via Form IRS 4506-T.

If childcare services were terminated, a third-party verification will be sent to the parent whose child was cared for.

Recurring Gifts

SNRHA Policy

The family must furnish a self-certification, which contains the following information: The person who provides the gifts

The value of the gifts

The regularity (dates) of the gifts

The purpose of the gifts

SNRHA shall send out verifications to the donors.

Full-time Student Status

Only the first $480 of the earned income of full time students, other than head, co-head, or spouse, will be counted towards family income.

Financial aid, scholarships and grants received by students is not counted towards family income.

SNRHA Policy

Verification of full time student status includes:

Written verification from the registrar's office or other school official.

School records indicating enrollment for sufficient number of credits to be considered a full-time student by the educational institution. (State of Nevada: 12 credits)

VERIFICATION OF ASSETS

Family Assets

The SNRHA will require the information necessary to determine the current cash value of the family's assets, (the net amount the family would receive if the asset were converted to cash).

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable verification may include any of the following:

Verification forms, letters, or documents from a financial institution or broker. Passbooks, checking account statements, certificates of deposit, bonds, or financial statements completed by a financial institution or broker.

Quotes from a stock broker or realty agent as to net amount family would receive if they liquidated securities or real estate.

Real estate taxes statements if the approximate current market value can be reduced from assessment.

Financial statements for business assets.

Copies of closing documents showing the selling price and the distribution of the sales proceeds.

Appraisals of personal property held as an investment.

Family's self-certification describing assets or cash held at the family's home or in safe deposit boxes.

Assets Disposed of for Less than Fair Market Value (FMV) During Two Years Preceding Effective Date of Certification or Recertification

SNRHA Policy

For all certifications and re-certifications, the SNRHA will obtain the Family's certification as to whether any member has disposed of assets for less than fair market value during the two years preceding the effective date of the certification or recertification.

If the family certifies that they have disposed of assets for less than fair market value, verification is required that shows: (a) all assets disposed of for less than FMV, (b) the date they were disposed of, (c) the amount the family received, and (d) the market value of the assets at the time of disposition. Third party verification will be obtained wherever possible. Family certification will be accepted if no other verification is possible.

VERIFICATION OF ALLOWABLE DEDUCTIONS FROM INCOME [24 CFR 982.516]

Medical Expenses

SNRHA Policy

Eligible families who claim medical expenses will be required to submit a certification as to whether or not any expense payments have been, or will be, reimbursed by an outside source. All expense claims will be verified by one or more of the methods listed below (Credit Card Statements will not be accepted as proof of payment of expenses):

Written verification by an eye doctor, optician, otolaryngologist, hearing aide provider, or other medical practitioner or provider of medical equipment of (a) the anticipated medical costs to be incurred by the family and regular payments due on medical bills; and (b) extent to which those expenses will be reimbursed by insurance or a government agency.

Written verification from a medical lab, provider of oxygen, blood products, or other specialized medical supplies of (a) the anticipated medical costs to be incurred by the family and regular payments will be reimbursed by insurance or a government agency.

Written verification from the provider of medical equipment such as hospital bed, scooter, wheelchair, commode, artificial limbs, etc. of (a) the anticipated medical costs to be incurred by the family and regular payments due on medical bills; and (b) extent to which those expenses will be reimbursed by insurance or a government agency.

Written confirmation from the Social Security Administration of Medicare premiums to be paid by the family over the next 12 months. A computer printout will be accepted.

For attendant care paid to an individual:

A reliable, knowledgeable professional's certification that the assistance of an attendant is necessary as a medical expense and a projection of the number of hours the care is needed for calculation purposes.

Attendant's written confirmation of hours of care provided and amount and frequency of payments received from the family or agency (or copies of canceled checks the family used to make those payments) or stubs from the agency providing the services.

Receipts, canceled checks, or pay stubs that verify medical costs and insurance expenses likely to be incurred in the next 12 months.

Copies of payment agreements or most recent invoice that verify payments made on outstanding attendant care bills that will continue over all or part of the next 12 months.

Receipts or other record of attendant care expenses incurred during the past 12 months that can be used to anticipate future attendant care expenses.

The SNRHA will use mileage at the IRS rate, or cab, bus fare, or other public transportation cost for verification of the cost of transportation directly related to medical treatment.

Assistance to Persons with Disabilities

In All Cases:

SNRHA Policy

Written certification from a reliable, knowledgeable professional that the person with disabilities requires the services of an attendant and/or the use of auxiliary apparatus to permit him/her to be employed or to function sufficiently independently to enable another family member to be employed.

Family's certification as to whether they receive reimbursement for any of the expenses of disability assistance and the amount of any reimbursement received.

Attendant Care:

Attendant's written certification of amount received from the family, frequency of receipt, and hours of care provided.

Certification of family and attendant and/or copies of canceled checks family used to make payments.

Auxiliary Apparatus:

Receipts for purchases or proof of monthly payments and maintenance expenses for auxiliary apparatus.

In the case where the person with disabilities is employed, a statement from the employer that the auxiliary apparatus is necessary for employment.

Live-In Aide

SNRHA Policy

When a participant requires a live-in aide, the SNRHA shall submit their signed reasonable accommodation request form to the medical professional noted on their request for third party verification of the need. Once approved by the 504 officer, the participant shall have 30 days to submit the name of the live-in aide and schedule them to come in for screening. The unit size shall NOT be increased until such time as SNRHA staff has completed their screening of the Live-In Aide in compliance with SNRHA guidance. The participant shall be allowed to submit another name for a live-in aide if the first does not pass the screening process but must submit this name within 14 calendar days of the denial notice.

The approved unit size would be adjusted, if required to accommodate a room for the live –in aide. Each year the SNRHA at annual recertification time shall re-verify the need for a live-in aide.

VERIFYING NON-FINANCIAL FACTORS [24 CFR 982.153(b) (15)]

Verification of Legal Identity

In order to prevent program abuse, the SNRHA will require applicants/residents to furnish verification of legal identity for all adult family members.

SNRHA Policy

The documents listed below will be considered acceptable verification of legal identity for adults, as long as they include a picture of the individual. If a document submitted by a family is illegible or otherwise questionable, more than one of these documents may be required.

Driver's license

U.S. passport

Department of Motor Vehicles Identification Card

Validated Sheriff Card

Military Identification

DMV Instructional ID

Certificate of Birth, naturalization papers

An original Certificate of Birth is required for all minors. Other documents considered acceptable for the verification of legal identity for minors may be one or more of the following:

Adoption papers

Custody agreement

School records

Hospital Birth Certifications

Passport

Health and Human Services ID (foster children; adopted Children) I-94

Verification of Marital Status (for purposes of meeting Spouse definition and determining the eligibility of counting income of absence spouse)

SNRHA Policy

Verification of divorce status will be a certified copy of the divorce decree, signed by a Court Officer.

Verification of a separation may be a copy of court-ordered maintenance or other records. A marriage certificate generally is required to verify that a couple is married. In the case of a common law marriage, the couple must demonstrate that they hold themselves to be married (e.g., by telling the community they are married, calling each other husband and wife, using the same last name, filing joint income tax returns).

Familial Relationships

SNRHA Policy

Verification of guardianship is:

Court-ordered assignment

Verification from social services agency

SNRHA Self-certification of temporary guardianship or appointment

In each case above (except court assignment), SNRHA must receive a court awarded guardianship or custody documents within 365 calendar days or head of household must resign SNRHA's documents and submit required supporting documents. Failure shall result in subsidy standard being decreased; and allowance decreased. Any income still coming into the household on behalf of the child would be counted.

Other family relationships will be verified through birth certificates or other relevant documents.

Verification of Permanent Absence of Family Member

If an adult member who was formerly a member of the household or was never reported and identified by staff as being a spouse and is reported permanently absent by the family, the SNRHA will consider any of the following as verification:

- Husband or wife institutes divorce action
- Husband or wife institutes legal separation.

- Order of protection/restraining order obtained by one family member against another.

Verification of Change in Family Composition

The SNRHA may verify changes in family composition (either reported or unreported) through one or more of the following actions: letters, telephone calls, utility records, inspections, landlords, neighbors, credit data, school or DMV records, and other sources.

Verification of Citizenship/Eligible Immigrant Status [24 CFR 5.508, 5.510, 5.512, 5.514]

To be eligible for assistance, individuals must be U.S. citizens or eligible immigrants.

Individuals who are neither may elect not to contend their status. Eligible immigrants must fall into one of the categories specified by the regulations and must have their status verified by Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS). Each family member must declare their status once. Assistance cannot be delayed, denied, or terminated while verification of status is pending except that assistance to applicants may be delayed while the SNRHA hearing is pending.

Citizens or Nationals of the United States are required to sign a declaration under penalty of perjury, the Declaration 214 Form, noting that they are a citizen or national.

Eligible Immigrants who were Participants and 62 or over on June 19, 1995, are required to sign a declaration of eligible immigration status (Declaration 214 Form) and provide proof of age.

Non-citizens with eligible immigration status must sign a declaration of status (Declaration 214 Form) and verification consent form and provide their original immigration documents which are copied front and back and returned to the family. The SNRHA verifies the status through the INS SAVE system. If this primary verification fails to verify status, the SNRHA must request within ten days that the INS conduct a manual search.

Ineligible family members who do not claim to be citizens or eligible immigrants must be listed on a statement of ineligible family members signed by the head of household or spouse.

Non-citizen students on student visas are ineligible members even though they are in the country lawfully. They must provide their student visa but their status will not be verified and they do not sign a declaration but are listed on the statement of ineligible members.

Failure to Provide. If an applicant or participant family member fails to sign required declarations and consent forms or provide documents, as required, they must be listed as an ineligible member. If the entire family fails to provide and sign as required, the family may be denied or terminated for failure to provide required information.

Additionally, SNRHA must terminate assistance for at least 24 months if it determines that a family has knowingly permitted an ineligible person to live in the assisted unit without informing the SNRHA.

Time of Verification

For applicants, verification of U.S. citizenship/eligible immigrant status occurs at the same time as verification of other factors of eligibility for final eligibility determination.

The SNRHA will not provide assistance to any family prior to the affirmative establishment and verification of the eligibility of the individual or at least one member of the family.

For family members added after other members have been verified, the verification occurs upon approval of additional person by the SNRHA.

Once verification has been completed for any covered program, it shall be verified annually unless their eligibility immigration status changes to permanent resident. In the case of port-in families, if the initial PHA does not supply the documents, the SNRHA must conduct the determination and/or when the SNRHA notes a Resident Alien Card with an expiring date or no date of expiration.

Acceptable Documents of Eligible Immigration

The regulations stipulate that only the following documents are acceptable unless changes are published in the Federal Register.

- Resident Alien Card (I-551)
- Alien Registration Receipt Card (I-151)
- Arrival-Departure Record (I-94)
- Temporary Resident Card (I-688)
- Employment Authorization Card (I-688B)
- Receipt issued by the INS for issuance of replacement of any of the above documents that shows individual's entitlement has been verified

A birth certificate is not acceptable verification of status. All documents in connection with U.S. citizenship/eligible immigrant status must be kept five years.

SNRHA Policy

SNRHA will recertify eligible immigration status one year prior to expiration date of the following documents:

- Resident Alien Card (I-551)
- Alien Registration Receipt Card (I-151)
- Arrival-Departure Record (I-94)
- Temporary Resident Card (I-688)

Medical Need for Larger Unit

SNRHA Policy

A written certification that a larger unit is necessary must be obtained from a reliable, knowledgeable professional as a reasonable accommodation for a disabled family member. At each Annual Inspection, staff will verify that the additional room is still being used for medical equipment. When this is not the case, the unit size be decreased in compliance with SNRHA guidance.

When Third-Party Verification is Not Required

Primary Documents

Third-party verification is not required when legal documents are the primary source, such as a birth certificate or other legal documentation of birth.

Certain Assets and Expenses

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will accept a self-certification from a family as verification of assets disposed of for less than fair market value.

The SNRHA will determine that third-party verification is not available, if the asset or expense involves an insignificant amount, making it not cost-effective or reasonable to obtain third-party verification,

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will use review of documents in lieu of requesting third-party verification when the market value of an individual asset or an expense is less than $5,000 annually and the family has original documents that support the declared amount.

Certain Income, Asset and Expense Sources

The SNRHA will determine that third-party verification is not available when it is known that an income source does not have the ability to provide written or oral third-party verification. For example, the SNRHA will rely upon review of documents when the SNRHA determines that a third party's privacy rules prohibit the source from disclosing information.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA also will determine that third-party verification is not available when there is a service charge for verifying an asset or expense and the family has original documents that provide the necessary information.

The SNRHA will document in the family file the reason that the third-party verification was not available and will place a photocopy of the original document(s) in the family file.

If the family cannot provide original documents, the SNRHA will pay the service charge required to obtain third-party verification, unless it is not cost effective in which case a self-certification will be acceptable as the only means of verification. The cost of verification will not be passed on to the family.

The cost of postage and envelopes to obtain third-party verification of income, assets, and expenses is not an unreasonable cost.

7-I.E. REVIEW OF DOCUMENTS

Using Review of Documents as Verification

SNRHA Policy

If the SNRHA has determined that third-party verification is not available or not required, the SNRHA will use documents provided by the family as verification.

The SNRHA may also review documents when necessary to help clarify information provided by third parties. In such cases the SNRHA will document in the file how the SNRHA arrived at a final conclusion about the income or expense to include in its calculations.

7-I.F. SELF-CERTIFICATION

SNRHA Policy

When information cannot be verified by a third party or by review of documents, family members will be required to submit self-certifications attesting to the accuracy of the information they have provided to the SNRHA.

The SNRHA may require a family to certify that a family member does not receive a particular type of income or benefit.

The self-certification must be made in a format acceptable to the SNRHA and must be signed by the family member whose information or status is being verified. All self-certifications must be signed in the presence of a SNRHA representative or SNRHA notary public. The cost shall not be passed on to the client.

PART II: VERIFYING FAMILY INFORMATION

7-II.A. VERIFICATION OF LEGAL IDENTITY

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will require families to furnish verification of legal identity for each household member.

| Verification of Legal Identity for Adults                                                                                                                                                          | Verification of Legal Identity for Children                                                                                                                                              |

|                                                                          |      |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|

If a document submitted by a family is illegible or otherwise questionable, more than one of these documents may be required.

7-II.B. SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS [24 CFR 5.216 , 5.218 and 5.233]

Every family member must provide documentation of a valid social security number (SSN) unless they are a non-citizen or non-eligible immigrant.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will request to copy the family member's social security card.

If the social security card is not available, SNRHA will instruct the family to obtain a duplicate card from the local social Security Administration (SSA) office, but will complete the action by accepting the following documents as evidence if the SSN is provided on the document:

- Benefit award letters from a government agency; retirement benefit letters; life insurance policies.
- Any document issued by the Social Security Administration that clearly lists the family member's social security number and name.
- For individuals who are at least 62 years of age and are unable to submit the required documentation of their SSN within the initial 60-day period, the SNRHA will grant an additional 60 calendar days to provide documentation.

Social security numbers must be verified only once during continuously-assisted occupancy. If any family member obtains an SSN after admission to the program, the new SSN must be disclosed within 30 days.

The social security numbers of non-household members, such as live-in aids, must be verified for the purpose of conducting criminal background checks.

Names on verifications of Legal Identity and Social Security Number must match.

7-II.C. FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS

Applicants and program participants are required to identify the relationship of each household member to the head of household. If an applicant list themselves as married and no not list a spouse, they will still be required to submit a separation or divorce degree. Definitions of the primary household relationships are provided in the Eligibility chapter.

SNRHA Policy

Other family relationships will be verified through birth certificates or other relevant documents.

Marriage

SNRHA Policy

A marriage certificate generally is required to verify that a couple is married.

In the case of a common law marriage, the couple must demonstrate that they hold themselves to be married (e.g., by telling the community they are married, calling each other husband and wife, using the same last name, filing joint income tax returns).

Separation or Divorce

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will require the family to document the divorce, or separation.

A certified copy of a divorce decree, signed by a court officer, is required to document that a couple is divorced.

A copy of a court-ordered maintenance or other court record is required to document a separation.

Absence of Adult Member

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will consider any of the following as

verification: Husband or wife institutes divorce action

Husband or wife institutes legal separation.

Order of protection/restraining order obtained by one family member against another.

If an applicant list themselves as married, but does not list a spouse name, they will still be required to provide a separation document or divorce decree.

If no such documentation is available, the applicant may complete SNRHA's Marital Separation form, which will required above documentation to be provided within 365 days of the date the form is submitted.

Foster Children and Foster Adults

SNRHA Policy

Third-party verification from the state or local government agency responsible for the placement of the individual with the family is required.

7-II.D. DOCUMENTATION OF AGE

A birth certificate or other official record of birth is the preferred form of age verification for all family members. For elderly family members an original document that provides evidence of the receipt of social security retirement benefits is acceptable.

SNRHA Policy

If an official record of birth or evidence of social security retirement benefits cannot be provided, the SNRHA will require the family to submit other documents that support the reported age of the family member (e.g., school records, driver's license if birth year is recorded) and to provide a self-certification.

Age must be verified only once during continuously-assisted occupancy.

7-II.E. VERIFICATION OF STUDENT

STATUS General Requirements

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA requires families to provide information about the student status of all students who are 18 years of age or older. This information will be verified only if:

The family reports full-time student status for an adult other than the head, spouse, or co-head.

The family reports child care expenses to enable a family member to further his or her education.

The family includes a student enrolled in an institution of higher education.

The family claims an income exclusion because the student is receiving earned income and only the first $480 is included as income.

Restrictions on Assistance to Students Enrolled in Institutions of Higher Education

This section applies only to students who are seeking assistance on their own, separately from their parents. It does not apply to students residing with parents who are seeking or receiving PH assistance.

SNRHA Policy

In accordance with the verification hierarchy described in Section 6-1.B, the SNRHA will determine whether the student is exempt from the restrictions in 24 CFR 5.612 by verifying any one of the following exemption criteria:

The student is enrolled at an educational institution that does not meet the definition of institution of higher education in the Higher Education Act of 1965 (see Section Exhibit 3-2).

The student is at least 24 years old.

The student is a veteran, as defined in Chapter 2

The student is married.

The student has at least one dependent child, as defined in Section 2.

If the SNRHA cannot verify at least one of these exemption criteria, the SNRHA will conclude that the student is subject to the restrictions on assistance at 24 CFR 5.612.

In addition to verifying the student's income eligibility, the SNRHA will then proceed to verify either the student's parents' income eligibility or the student's independence from his/her parents (see below).

Independent Student

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will verify a student's independence from his/her parents to determine that the student's parents' income is not relevant for determining the student's eligibility by doing all of the following:

Either reviewing and verifying previous address information to determine whether the student has established a household separate from his/her parents for at least one year or reviewing and verifying documentation relevant to determining whether the student meets the U.S. Department of Education's definition of independent student.

Reviewing prior year income tax returns to verify whether a parent has claimed the student as a dependent

Requesting and obtaining written certification directly from the student's parents identifying the amount of support they will be providing to the student, even if the amount of support is $0.

7-II.F. DOCUMENTATION OF DISABILITY

The SNRHA must verify the existence of a disability in order to allow certain income disallowances and deductions from income. The SNRHA is not permitted to inquire about the nature or extent of a person's disability [24 CFR 100.202(c)]. The SNRHA may not inquire about a person's diagnosis or details of treatment for a disability or medical condition. If the SNRHA receives a verification document that provides such information, the PHA will not place this information in the tenant file. Under no circumstances will the PHA request a participant's medical record(s). For more information on health care privacy laws, see the Department of Health and Human Services' website at www.os.dhhs.gov.

The above cited regulation does not prohibit the following inquiries, provided these inquiries are made of all applicants, whether or not they are persons with disabilities:

- Inquiry into an applicant's ability to meet the requirements of ownership or tenancy
- Inquiry to determine whether an applicant is qualified for a dwelling available only to persons with disabilities or to persons with a particular type of disability
- Inquiry to determine whether an applicant for a dwelling is qualified for a priority available to persons with disabilities or to persons with a particular type of disability
- Inquiring whether an applicant for a dwelling is a current illegal abuser or addict of a controlled substance
- Inquiring whether an applicant has been convicted of the illegal manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance

Family Members Receiving SSA Disability Benefits

Verification of the receipt of disability benefits from the Social Security Administration (SSA) is sufficient verification of disability for the purpose of qualifying for waiting list preferences (if applicable) or certain income disallowances and deductions.

SNRHA Policy

For family members claiming disability who receive disability benefits from the SSA, the SNRHA will attempt to obtain information about disability benefits through the HUD Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system when it is available. If documentation from HUD's EIV System is not available, the SNRHA will request a current (dated within the last 60 days) SSA benefit verification letter from each family member claiming disability status. If the family is unable to provide the document(s), the SNRHA will ask the family to request a benefit verification letter by either calling SSA at 1-800-772-1213, or by requesting it from www.ssa.gov. Once the applicant or participant receives the benefit verification letter they will be required to provide it to the SNRHA.

Family Members Not Receiving SSA Disability Benefits

Receipt of veteran's disability benefits, worker's compensation, or other non-SSA benefits based on the individual's claimed disability are not sufficient verification that the individual meets HUD's definition of disability in 24 CFR 5.603.

SNRHA Policy

For family members claiming disability who do not receive disability benefits from the SSA, a knowledgeable professional must provide third-party verification that the family member meets the HUD definition of disability. See the Eligibility chapter for the HUD definition of disability. The knowledgeable professional will verify whether the family member does or does not meet the HUD definition.

PART III: VERIFYING INCOME AND ASSETS

Chapter 5, Part I of this plan describes in detail the types of income that are included and excluded and how assets and income from assets are handled. Any assets and income reported by the family must be verified. This part provides SNRHA policies that supplement the general verification procedures specified in Part I of this chapter.

7-III.A. EARNED

INCOME Wages

SNRHA Policy

Acceptable methods of verification include, in this order:

1. EIV with two consecutive current paystubs for annuals and for New Hires.
2. Acceptable 3rd Party written verification provided by the resident.

3. Third party written verification
Employment verification form completed by the employer
4. Oral third party -must document why other steps above where not available
5. W-2 forms and IRS Form 4506-T release
6. Self-certifications may be used for verifying self-employment income, or income from tips and other gratuities.
7. Current check stubs or earning statements, which indicate the employee's gross pay, frequency of pay or year to date earnings.

In cases where there are questions about the validity of information provided by the family, SNRHA will require the most recent federal income tax statements to be obtained via use of IRS Form 4506-T.

Tips

SNRHA Policy

Unless tip income is included in a family member's W-2 by the employer, persons who work in industries where tips are standard will be required to sign a certified estimate of tips received for the prior year and tips anticipated to be received in the coming year. Interruption of employment due to temporary leave of absence (i.e. maternity leave, short-term disability): upon verification that earnings have stopped, an interim will be conducted to remove the income. The family may be required to complete a Zero Income Questionnaire/Certification.

The family is required to report any other income received in lieu of earnings. The family will be required to report when the income starts again. At that time an interim will be conducted to add the income back into the family budget.

7-III.B. PERIODIC PAYMENTS AND PAYMENTS IN LIEU OF EARNINGS Social Security/SSI Benefits

SNRHA Policy

To verify the SS/SSI benefits of applicants, the SNRHA will request a current (dated within the last 60 days) SSA benefit verification letter from each family member that receives social security benefits. If the family is unable to provide the document(s), the PHA will ask the family to request a benefit verification letter by either calling SSA at 1- 800-772-1213, or by requesting it from www.ssa.gov. Once the applicant has received the benefit verification letter they will be required to provide it to the SNRHA.

To verify the SS/SSI benefits of participants, the SNRHA will obtain information about social security/SSI benefits through the HUD EIV System or the Tenant Assessment Subsystem (TASS). If benefit information is not available in HUD systems, the SNRHA will request a current SSA benefit verification letter from each family member that receives social security benefits. If the family is unable to provide the document(s) the PHA will ask the family to request a benefit verification letter by either calling SSA at 1- 800-772-1213, or by requesting it from www.ssa.gov. Once the participant has received the benefit verification letter they will be required to provide it to the SNRHA.

7-III. C. ASSETS AND INCOME FROM

ASSETS

Assets Disposed of for Less than Fair Market

Value

The family must certify whether any assets have been disposed of for less than fair market value in the preceding two years. The SNRHA needs to verify only those certifications that warrant documentation.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will verify the value of assets disposed of only if:

- The SNRHA does not already have a reasonable estimation of its value from previously collected information, or
- The amount reported by the family in the certification appears obviously in error. Example 1: An elderly participant reported a $10,000 certificate of deposit at the last annual reexamination and the SNRHA verified this amount. Now the person reports that she has given this $10,000 to her son. The SNRHA has a reasonable estimate of the value of the asset; therefore, re-verification of the value of the asset is not necessary.

Example 2: A family member has disposed of its 1/4 share of real property located in a desirable area and has valued her share at approximately $5,000. Based upon market conditions, this declaration does not seem realistic. Therefore, the SNRHA will verify the value of this asset.

7-III.D. NET INCOME FROM RENTAL PROPERTY

SNRHA Policy

The family must provide:

A current executed lease for the property that shows the rental amount or certification from the current tenant.

A self-certification from the family members engaged in the rental of property providing an estimate of expenses for the coming year and the most recent IRS Form 1040 with Schedule E (Rental Income). If schedule E was not prepared, the SNRHA will require the family members involved in the rental of property to provide a self-certification of income and expenses for the previous year and may request documentation to support the statement including: tax statements, insurance invoices, bills for reasonable maintenance and utilities, and bank statements or amortization schedules showing monthly interest expense.

7-III.E. RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

SNRHA Policy

When third-party verification is not available the type of original document that will be accepted depends upon the family member's retirement status.

Before retirement, the SNRHA will accept an original document from the entity holding the account with a date that shows it is the most recently scheduled statement for the account but in no case earlier than 6 months from the effective date of the examination.

Upon retirement, the SNRHA will accept an original document from the entity holding the account that reflects any distributions of the account balance, any lump sums taken and any regular payments.

After retirement, the SNRHA will accept an original document from the entity holding the account dated no earlier than 12 months before that reflects any distributions of the account balance, any lump sums taken and any regular payments.

7-III.F. INCOME FROM EXCLUDED SOURCES

The SNRHA must obtain verification for income exclusions only if, without verification, the SNRHA would not be able to determine whether the income is to be excluded. For example: If a family's 16 year old has a job at a fast food restaurant, the SNRHA will confirm that SNRHA records verify the child's age but will not send a verification request to the restaurant. However, if a family claims the earned income disallowance for a source of income, both the source and the income must be verified.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will reconcile differences in amounts reported by the third party and the family only when the excluded amount is used to calculate the family share (as is the case with the earned income disallowance). In all other cases, including food stamps, the SNRHA will report the amount to be excluded as indicated on documents provided by the family, including the family's written certification.

7-III.G. ZERO/EXTREMELY LOW ANNUAL INCOME STATUS

SNRHA Policy

Families claiming to have no annual income will be required to execute verification forms to determine that certain forms of income such as unemployment benefits, TANF, SSI, etc. are not being received by the household. Zero income households will be interviewed at least once every 180 days.

PART IV: VERIFYING MANDATORY DEDUCTIONS

7-IV.A. DEPENDENT AND ELDERLY/DISABLED HOUSEHOLD DEDUCTIONS

The dependent and elderly/disabled family deductions require only that the PHA verify that the family members identified as dependents or elderly/disabled persons meet the statutory definitions. No further verifications are required.

Dependent Deduction

See Chapter 6 for a full discussion of this deduction. The SNRHA must verify that:

- Any person under the age of 18 for whom the dependent deduction is claimed is not the head, spouse, or co-head of the family and is not a foster child
- Any person age 18 or older for whom the dependent deduction is claimed is not a foster adult or live-in aide, and is a person with a disability or a full time student

Elderly/Disabled Family Deduction

See Eligibility chapter for a definition of elderly and disabled families and Chapter 5 for a discussion of the deduction. The SNRHA must verify that the head, spouse, or co-head is 62 years of age or older or a person with disabilities.

7-IV.B. MEDICAL EXPENSE DEDUCTION

Policies related to medical expenses are found in Chapter 6.

Amount of Expense

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will provide a third-party verification form directly to the medical provider requesting the needed information.

Medical expenses will be verified through:

Third-party verification form signed by the provider, when possible

If third-party is not possible, copies of cancelled checks used to make medical expense payments and/or printouts or receipts from the source will be used. (Credit card statements will not be allowed as verification of payment of medical expenses.) In this case the SNRHA will make a best effort to determine what expenses from the past are likely to continue to occur in the future. The SNRHA will also accept evidence of monthly payments or total payments that will be due for medical expenses during the upcoming 12 months.

In addition, the SNRHA must verify that:

- The household is eligible for the deduction.
- The costs to be deducted are qualified medical expenses.
- The expenses are not paid for or reimbursed by any other source.
- Costs incurred in past years are counted only once.

Eligible Household

The medical expense deduction is permitted only for households in which the head, spouse, or co-head is at least 62, or a person with disabilities. The SNRHA must verify that the family meets the definition of an elderly or disabled family provided in the Eligibility chapter of this plan.

Qualified Expenses

To be eligible for the medical expenses deduction, the costs must qualify as medical expenses.

See Chapter 6 for the SNRHA policy on what counts as a medical expense.

Unreimbursed Expenses

To be eligible for the medical expenses deduction, the costs must not be reimbursed by another source.

SNRHA Policy

The family will be required to certify that the medical expenses are not paid or reimbursed to the family from any source.

Expenses Incurred in Past Years

SNRHA Policy

When anticipated costs are related to on-going payment of medical bills incurred in past years, the SNRHA will verify:

The anticipated repayment schedule

The amounts paid in the past, and

Whether the amounts to be repaid have been deducted from the family's annual income in past years

7-IV.C. DISABILITY ASSISTANCE EXPENSES

Policies related to disability assistance expenses are found in Chapter 6.

Amount of Expense

Attendant Care

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will provide a third-party verification form directly to the care provider requesting the needed information.

Expenses for attendant care will be verified through:

Third-party verification form signed by the provider, when possible.

If third-party is not possible, copies of cancelled checks used to make attendant care payments and/or receipts from care source. (Credit card statements will not be allowed as verification of payment of medical expenses.)

If third-party or document review is not possible, written family certification as to costs anticipated to be incurred for the upcoming 12 months.

Auxiliary Apparatus

SNRHA Policy

Expenses for auxiliary apparatus will be verified through:

Third-party verification of anticipated purchase costs of auxiliary apparatus. If third-party is not possible, billing statements for purchase of auxiliary apparatus, or other evidence of monthly payments or total payments that will be due for the apparatus during the upcoming 12 months.

If third-party or document review is not possible, written family certification of estimated apparatus costs for the upcoming 12 months

In addition, the SNRHA must verify that:

The family member for whom the expense is incurred is a person with disabilities

The expense permits a family member, or members, to work (see Chapter 5). The expense is not reimbursed from another source (see Chapter 5).

The expense does not exceed the amount of the earned income of the individual freed for work.

Family Member is a Person with Disabilities

To be eligible for the disability assistance expense deduction, the costs must be incurred for attendant care or auxiliary apparatus expense associated with a person with disabilities. The SNRHA will verify that the expense is incurred for a person with disabilities.

Family Member(s) Permitted to Work

The SNRHA must verify that the expenses claimed actually enable a family member, or members, (including the person with disabilities) to work.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will seek third-party verification from a Rehabilitation Agency or knowledgeable medical professional indicating that the person with disabilities requires attendant care or an auxiliary apparatus to be employed, or that the attendant care or auxiliary apparatus enables another family member, or members, to work.

If third-party and document review verification has been attempted and is either unavailable or proves unsuccessful, the family must certify that the disability assistance expense frees a family member, or members (possibly including the family member receiving the assistance), to work.

Unreimbursed Expenses

To be eligible for the disability expenses deduction, the costs must not be reimbursed by another source.

SNRHA Policy

An attendant care provider will be asked to certify that, to the best of the provider's knowledge, the expenses are not paid by or reimbursed to the family from any source. The family will be required to certify that attendant care or auxiliary apparatus expenses are not paid by or reimbursed to the family from any source.

7-IV.D. CHILD CARE EXPENSES

The SNRHA must verify that:

- The child is eligible for care.
- The costs claimed are not reimbursed.
- The costs enable a family member to pursue an eligible activity.
- The costs are for an allowable type of childcare.
- The costs are reasonable if seeking employment or furthering education.

Eligible Child

To be eligible for the childcare deduction, the costs must be incurred for the care of a child under the age of 13. The SNRHA will verify that the child being cared for (including foster children) is under the age of 13.

Unreimbursed Expense

To be eligible for the childcare deduction, the costs must not be reimbursed by another source.

SNRHA Policy

The childcare provider will be asked to certify that, to the best of the provider's knowledge, the childcare expenses are not paid by or reimbursed to the family from any source. The family will be required to certify that the childcare expenses are not paid by or reimbursed to the family from any source.

The SNRHA must verify that the family member(s) that the family has identified as being enabled to seek work, pursue education, or be gainfully employed, are actually pursuing those activities.

Information to be Gathered

The SNRHA will verify information about how the schedule for the claimed activity relates to the hours of care provided, the time required for transportation, the time required for study (for students), the relationship of the family member(s) to the child, and any special needs of the child that might help determine which family member is enabled to pursue an eligible activity.

Seeking Work

Whenever possible the SNRHA will use documentation from a state or local agency that monitors work-related requirements (e.g., welfare or unemployment). In such cases the SNRHA will request verification from the agency of the member's job seeking efforts to date and require the family to submit to the SNRHA any reports provided to the other agency.

In the event third-party verification is not available, the SNRHA will provide the family with a form on which the family member must record job search efforts. The SNRHA will review this information at each subsequent reexamination for which this deduction is claimed.

Furthering Education

The SNRHA will ask that the academic or vocational educational institution verify that the person permitted to further his or her education by the childcare is enrolled and provide information about the timing of classes for which the person is registered.

Gainful Employment

The SNRHA will seek verification from the employer of the work schedule of the person who is permitted to work by the childcare. In cases in which two or more family members could be permitted to work, the work schedules for all relevant family members may be verified.

Allowable Type of Child Care

The type of care to be provided is determined by the family.

SNRHA Policy

The SNRHA will verify that the type of childcare selected by the family is allowable, as described in Chapter 6.

The SNRHA will verify that the fees paid to the childcare provider cover only childcare costs (e.g., no housekeeping services or personal services) and are paid only for the care of an eligible child (e.g., prorated costs if some of the care is provided for ineligible family members).

The SNRHA will verify the childcare provider is not a family member residing in the household. Verification will be made through the head of household's declaration of family members who are expected to reside in the unit.

Reasonableness of Expenses

Only reasonable childcare costs can be deducted for seeking employment or furthering education.

SNRHA Policy

To verify that the childcare costs are reasonable, the actual costs the family incurs will be compared with the SNRHA's established standards of reasonableness for the type of care in the locality to ensure that the costs are reasonable.

If the family presents a justification for costs that exceed typical costs in the area, the SNRHA will request additional documentation, as required, to support a determination that the higher cost is appropriate.

SNRHA will send out our childcare verification form when child care expenses are being verified. This form must be completed with all questions answered and returned by mail or fax. This form will be the only verification childcare form acceptable by our agency. Private childcare providers that do not have tax identification numbers must complete the section that requests their social security numbers or their INS number.

Written verification from the person who receives the payments is required. If the child care provider is licensed, the provider is required to provide their Employment Identification Number.

Verifications must specify the child care provider's business or individual name, address, telephone number, the names of the children cared for, the number of hours the child care occurs, the rate of pay, and the typical yearly amount paid, including school and vacation periods.

Family's must certify as to whether any of those payments have been or will be paid or reimbursed by outside sources.

- A receipt issued by the USCIS indicating that an application for issuance of a replacement document in one of the above listed categories has been made and the applicant’s entitlement to the document has been verified; or

- Other acceptable evidence. If other documents are determined by the USCIS to constitute acceptable evidence of eligible immigration status, they will be announced by notice published in the Federal Register.

Chapter 8

TRANSFER POLICY

INTRODUCTION

It is the policy of the SNRHA to permit resident transfers, within and/or between SNRHA public housing communities for the following limited reasons:

- To abate dangerous and/or substandard living conditions;
- To abate emergency life-threatening living conditions caused by third-party criminal activity;
- To accommodate verified physical conditions caused by long-term illness and/or disability;
- To accommodate resident families that are determined to be over- or under-housed by virtue of their family size; and
- To promote homeownership, transfer of families to scattered sites
- To accommodate relocation due to modernization work, community safety

Each transfer request will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration:

- The documentation that substantiates the reason for the request;
- Whether or not the resident is in good standing with the SNRHA
- The availability of suitable alternative units.

SNRHA will not grant a transfer request solely to accommodate neighbors who "cannot get along."

Activities of residents that adversely affect the right of others to the peaceful enjoyment of their community will be treated as lease violations and may be considered cause for lease termination.

A. ELIGIBILITY FOR TRANSFER

In order to be determined eligible to receive a transfer, residents must submit the requested 3rd party documentation to SNRHA, to substantiate their request, and must be in good standing with the SNRHA.

The type of documentation that must be submitted will vary, depending on the nature of the request.

Good Standing

A resident will be considered in good standing if he or she and/or household members have not had:

- A history of delinquent rent payments, or
- A history of community disturbance and/or unit destruction.
- Maintain acceptable housekeeping standards
- Fulfilling community service requirements

Transfer List

Resident families who are determined eligible to receive a transfer will be placed on a transfer waiting list in accordance with the date of transfer approval and reason for their transfer request. SNRHA will implement transfers in the priority order listed in the following table.

Inappropriately housed resident families who are determined eligible to receive a transfer will be placed on the transfer waiting list at the time of annual certification.

Priority of Transfers

Approved transfers shall be accomplished in the following priority order:

| Type of Transfer                         | When executed                                                                | Transfer will be within the housing development:                                           | Ratio                                       | Initiated by                                                     |

B. EMERGENCY TRANSFERS

Emergency transfers will be implemented by the SNRHA to remove a resident family from life-threatening and/or hazardous living conditions caused by third-party criminal activity and/or unit damage. Good standing criteria does not apply in the case of emergency transfers.

Residents will be required to become complaint with all lease provisions upon completion of the Emergency Transfer to the new unit.

Emergency Transfers due to Third Party Criminal Activity

SNRHA will consider transfer requests from resident families who have been victims of life-threatening criminal activity committed by third parties or who have witnessed serious criminal activity and agreed to testify on behalf of the State at a criminal proceeding.

Families who request a unit transfer due to third-party criminal activity may be required to submit verifiable documentation evidencing one or all of the following:

- Police reports and/or police statements detailing the incident in question
- Eyewitness statements describing the incident in question
- Confirmatory letters from the Victim Witness Protection Unit, Rape Crisis Center or similarly recognized entity
- Medical reports from a licensed health care provider
- Subpoena or other written contacts from the Clark County District Attorney or U.S. Attorney

The SNRHA will require residents who are victims of domestic violence to certify their victim status and the names of their abusers. Third-party verification must be provided by victim service providers, medical professionals, or attorney who have counseled the victim and can verify their status as a domestic violence victim.

All documentation submitted shall remain confidential and shall be reviewed and evaluated by the Director of Operations only. Transfer requests due to third-party criminal activity shall be evaluated on a case-by-case basis, by consideration of the following criteria:

- The availability of a suitable alternative unit
- The documentation describing/verifying the incident
- The severity of the incident

Notification: If approved, the family will be notified that:

- A unit has been designated;
- They must execute a new lease and move within five (5 days) of receipt of the notice, and
- If they refuse to accept the unit, they must execute a waiver of their emergency transfer request.

Emergency Transfers Initiated or Confirmed by Law Enforcement

If the emergency transfer request is initiated or confirmed by authorized law enforcement officials, the SNRHA may take the following action to maintain the confidentiality of the request and subsequent transfer:

- By-passing the regular transfer occupancy function and/or staff;
- Maintaining the resident family's file separate from other resident files; and
- Concealing and/or changing the identity of the resident family's file.

Emergency Transfers due to Hazardous Unit Conditions

A transfer due to hazardous unit conditions is mandatory. It may be initiated at any time by the SNRHA or the resident family or both, after detection of a unit condition that poses a threat to the health and safety of the resident family. A hazardous unit condition is one that arises from:

- Substantial fire damage;
- Life-threatening fungus as determined by a Clark County Health District Official and/or a licensed hazardous waste consultant;
- Exposed electrical wiring;
- Defective ventilation;
- Inadequate plumbing, heating and/or cooling that will require long-term repair;
- Other serious conditions identified by the SNRHA Maintenance Department that require long-term repair.

Notification: If at least one of the foregoing conditions is found to exist, the SNRHA shall immediately notify the resident family or families affected and advise them, in writing, as follows:

- A unit has been designated;
- They will be required to move and sign a new lease no later than five (5) days from the date they receive the notice;
- If the hazardous condition was caused by the family, the family shall bear the cost of repair and moving.
  - If the family is unable to move due to financial reasons, SNRHA shall contract with a third party entity to move the family and shall bill the family for said costs, no later than the date on which the repair bills are submitted to them.
  - If the resident family refuses to move or otherwise fails to pay the repair and/or moving costs, SNRHA will initiate eviction proceedings against the family
- If the hazardous condition was not caused by the family, the SNRHA will bear all repairs and documented moving costs incurred by the family.

C. TRANSFERS DUE TO ILLNESS AND/OR DISABILITY

Unit transfers will be implemented by SNRHA to accommodate the accessibility needs of residents and/or their household members, arising from long-term illness or disability. Accessibility needs are those that require one or all of the following:

- A first floor and/or single story dwelling;
- Widened hallways and/or lowered cabinets;
- Roll-in shower facilities
- Flashing-light-censored smoke detectors
- Central air conditioning and heat

Documentation

Families who request a transfer due to illness and/or disability may be required to submit recent verifiable documentation from a health care provider or social service entity that confirms the impairment and the accessibility needs.

Notification

Upon a determination that the family's request for a transfer due to illness or disability has been approved, the SNRHA shall send the resident a thirty (30) day Notice of Transfer. This places the resident family on notice that they have been approved for a transfer and that any time after the thirty (30) day period has passed:

A unit to which the family may transfer will be designated at such time as it becomes available;

They will be required to enter into a new lease for the transfer unit;

That if they refuse to move into the unit, they must sign a waiver of the transfer request.

When the transfer is authorized, the resident family shall be notified of the identity of the transfer unit and that they are required to accept the dwelling unit within three (3) calendar days and lease the unit within two (2) calendar days after accepting the unit.

The resident can receive an extension of up to an additional seven (7) calendar days, at the SNRHA's discretion, subject to documented evidence of an undue hardship on the family.

Examples of undue hardship include but are not limited to:

Death in the immediate family

Jury duty

Hospitalization

Verified medical reasons

A new disability which makes the new unit unsuitable for the family's housing needs

Inability to obtain the resources to execute the move

Any extension must be approved by the Director of Operations or designee.

D. TRANSFERS TO ACCOMMODATE FAMILIES THAT ARE OVER- OR UNDER-HOUSED.

Unit transfers will be implemented by SNRHA to accommodate resident families that are determined to be over-housed or under-housed by virtue of their family size based on the general occupancy standards. These transfers may be initiated by the SNRHA or the resident or both. A family may request an exception to the general occupancy standards. The SNRHA will evaluate the relationship and ages of all family members and the overall size of the unit. If approved, the family must agree to remain in the approved unit for one year.

Notification

Upon a determination that the family is approved to move into a unit of a different size, the SNRHA shall send the resident a thirty- (30) day Notice of Transfer. This places the resident family on notice that they have been approved for a transfer and that any time after the thirty- (30) day period has passed:

A unit to which the family must transfer may be designated;

They will be required to move into that unit in accordance with the terms of their lease;

They will be required to enter into a new lease for the transfer unit;

When the transfer is authorized, the resident family shall be notified of the identity of the transfer unit and that they are required to accept the dwelling unit within three (3) calendar days and lease the unit within two (2) calendar days after accepting the unit.

The resident can receive an extension of up to an additional seven (7) calendar days, at the SNRHA's discretion, subject to documented evidence of an undue hardship on the family.

Examples of undue hardship include but are not limited to:

Death in the immediate family

Jury duty

Hospitalization

Verified medical reasons

A new disability which makes the new unit unsuitable for the family's housing needs

Inability to obtain the resources to execute the move

Any extension must be approved by the Director of Operations or designee.

Resident Refusal of the Transfer Unit

The resident may decline the transfer unit for good and reasonable cause. Such cause shall be considered sufficient if:

The unit does not provide adequate accessibility, or

The unit will not have the required effect of accommodating the family size.

The Director of Operations shall determine if the unit refusal is for good cause. If the resident declines the unit without good cause, the SNRHA shall assign the unit to another family and void the request for transfer if generated by the family.

If the resident refuses the transfer unit when the reason for the transfer is an emergency, under/over housed or abatement, a 30-day notice will be issued. The unit will be reassigned and the transfer will be voided.

Transfer Procedures

The Development Manager and resident will participate in a pre-transfer inspection to determine damages prior to transfer and the charges made part of the new lease.

The resident and SNRHA shall enter into a new lease agreement for the transfer unit.

Security Deposits

1. Families transferring to another development must have paid the security deposit in full at the sending development.
2. SNRHA will charge the families for any damages to the previous unit.
3. Security deposits will be refunded to the resident under the terms of the lease for the

- previous unit. The resident must deposit with the SNRHA a security deposit on the new unit consistent with the security deposit policy in effect at the time of the transfer.
4. Refer to Security Deposit Chapter for additional details.
  5. Move-out charges will be posted to the new unit. The office of the receiving development is responsible for collecting any maintenance charges due SNRHA.

E. GENERAL CONDITIONS GOVERNING TRANSFERS

Discrimination Prohibited

Transfer requests shall be processed, evaluated, initiated and/or determined without regard to race, color, religion, gender, creed or national origin. Transfer requests based on household composition and/or illness disability must consider family size and disability.

Cleaning and/or Repair Charges

All transfers are subject to charges for cleaning or repair work performed by the maintenance staff on the vacated unit. All charges will be assessed after an inspection is completed by the resident and the housing manager. Residents will be required to pay any amounts owed to the past property within 30 days of the move out statement.

Rent Adjustments for Transferred Residents

No rent adjustment will be made, except for utility allowance, until the next scheduled certification.

Reexamination Date

The date of the transfer changes the reexamination date according to the block system of the gaining development, unless the annual reexamination period would exceed twelve months since the family's last annual reexamination.

The losing development will send the family's file to the gaining development once they have been notified that the family has accepted the unit, before the family is leased up. The gaining development will not attempt to lease up a family without possession of the family's file.

SNRHA Incentives for Higher Income Families Transferring Into Lower Income Developments

The SNRHA will offer certain incentives to higher income families (Household Income at or above 60% of AMI) willing to move into lower income projects. If a higher income family agrees to move to a SNRHA-specified lower income development, the SNRHA will agree to approve to transfer the resident family to the next available scattered site home or the development of the family's choice. The move will be approved according to the Occupancy Guidelines only if the family has consistently been in lease compliance for two years following admission.

SNRHA will target homeownership opportunities to higher income families moving into lower income projects.

Processing In and Out of Developments

Gaining Developments

Transfers from other developments will be processed in the same manner as move-ins, including a new lease and applicable security deposit.

The resident transferring between public housing projects does not have to meet the admission requirements pertaining to income or preference.

Residents Failure to Transfer Units

In the event the resident fails to transfer and submit keys within the timeframes as stated in this policy, both managers will serve the tenant with a 30 Day Notice for failure to vacate the unit they are transferring from.

COST OF TRANSFERS

Residents shall bear the cost of transfers to correct occupancy standards, resident requested transfers, incentive transfers, and other voluntary transfers.

SNRHA will bear the reasonable cost of transfers SNRHA requests for demolition, disposition, rehabilitation, building system failures, or emergency conditions due to no fault of the tenant. SNRHA will bear the reasonable cost of transfers needed as a reasonable accommodation for residents with disabilities, in accordance with SNRHA Reasonable Accommodation Policy and Procedures. The reasonable cost of transfers includes not just the cost of packing, moving, and unloading, but also the cost of connecting and reconnecting any existing resident-paid services such as telephone and cable.

Resident Selection Criteria For Otto Merida Family Apartments

The following criteria will be utilized to select from current residents residing in other Public Housing communities for the Project:

1. Must have a favorable rental payment history. A resident will be considered to have a favorable rental payment history if there have been two or less delinquent rent payments in the previous twelve months.
2. Must be in good standing with SNRHA and in compliance with all terms and conditions of the resident's existing Lease.
3. Resident must be currently employed or enrolled in the Family Self Sufficiency Program and must have accomplished one or more established goals within the Program. SNRHA will provide the Manager with a list of residents wishing to transfer to the Project and the Manager will determine and certify the eligibility of the resident, and the resident will be notified of the determination. Transfer requests will be processed on a first come, first serve basis.

Income Tiering

In addition to the above selection criteria, SNRHA will institute an income-tiring system in allocating units within the Project. The units will be divided into three income tiers, which will be distributed equally across the development and by unit types. The income tiers will be as follows:

- Low Tier: Less than 20% of the HUD Area Median Income (AMI) for a Family of Four (or $11,819 in 2005) 20 units;
- Middle Tier: Greater than 20% AMI and Less than 30% AMI for a Family of Four (or $17,730 in 2005) 20 units; and
- High Tier: Greater than 30% AMI and Less than 60% AMI maximum tax credit income Level (or $35,460 in 2005 for a Family of Four) 20 units.

Transfer requests from current SNRHA residents who meet the initial resident selection criteria noted above will be placed in one of the three income tiers, or disqualified by the Manager if the applicants' income is above the 60% AMI tax credit limit or do not meet the LIHTC eligibility.

After the initial inquiry is made of existing public housing residents, public housing residents may apply for transfer to the Project at the time of their annual certification by completing an application for the Honolulu Street Apartments.

Public Housing Waiting List

In the event there are no current public housing residents within the appropriate income tiers as indicated above who wish to transfer to the Project, Project vacancies will be filled from

Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority

SNRHA's Public Housing certified waiting list utilizing current preferences and screening criteria in accordance with SNRHA's ACOP and the screening criteria described above.

Employment income is a current SNRHA waiting list preference.

In the event there are no eligible applicants on the current Public Housing certified waiting list within the three income tiers, outreach will be conducted to the general public as provided in the Marketing Policy.

Chapter 9 LEASING [24 CFR 966.4]

INTRODUCTION

It is the SNRHA's policy that all units must be occupied pursuant to a dwelling lease agreement that complies with HUD's regulations [24 CFR Part 966]. This chapter describes pre-leasing activities and the SNRHA's policies pertaining to lease execution, security deposits, other charges, and additions to the lease.

A. LEASE ORIENTATION

In conjunction with execution of the lease, all adult family members must attend a new resident orientation within 90 days of move-in.

Residents with disabilities may request a reasonable accommodation.

Orientation Agenda

When families attend the lease orientation, they will be provided with:

- A sample copy of the lease
- A copy of the grievance procedure
- A copy of the house rules
- Supportive services information, including FSS
- Emergency maintenance policy
- Community Service requirements and policy
- Pet policy
- Trespass policy
- Bed Bug Addendum
- Housekeeping Standard
- Other Lease addendums

Topics to be discussed will include, but are not limited to:

- Applicable deposits and other charges
- Maintenance charges
- Provisions of the lease
- Unit maintenance and work orders
- Terms of occupancy
- Rent choice/Flat rent/income based/seasonal employment

SNRHA shall ensure additional efforts are made to ensure full program accessibility to persons with Limited English Proficiency, including notifying organizations that provides services to low-income families whose primary language is Spanish, as outlined in SNRHA's Limited English Proficiency Plan.

B. LEASE REQUIREMENTS

The initial term of the lease will be for 12 months. The lease will renew automatically for 12-month terms with the following exception:

- SNRHA will not renew the lease if the family has violated the community service requirement (24 CFR 966.4).
- Due to the community service requirement, the lease does not automatically renew for terms of 12 months. An annual signing process, the completion of recertification, is required.
- The lease further provides for termination and eviction at the end of any 12-month lease term for non-compliance with the community service requirements at 24 CFR Part 960, Subpart F and Chapter 15 of this Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy.

C. EXECUTION OF LEASE

The lease shall be executed by the head of household, spouse or co-head; and by an authorized representative of SNRHA, prior to admission.

The head or co-head of household is the person who assumes legal and financial responsibility for the household and is listed on the application as head or co-head.

An appointment will be scheduled for the parties to execute the lease. One executed copy of the lease will be given to the tenant, and the SNRHA will retain the original in the tenant's file. The lease is incorporated into this policy by reference. The lease document will reflect current SNRHA policies as well as applicable Federal, State and local law. The following provisions govern lease execution and amendments:

- A lease is executed at the time of admission for all new tenants.
- A new lease is executed at the time of the transfer of a tenant from one SNRHA unit to another
- If, for any reason, the head or co-head of household of the lease cease to be a member of the household, a new lease will be executed with the remaining members, so long as they meet the program requirements.
- Lease signers must be persons legally eligible to execute contracts.
- The names, relationship to head, date of birth, and social security number of all household members are listed on the lease at initial occupancy and on the Application for Continued Occupancy (need to determine name of form to be used) each subsequent year. Only those persons listed on the most recent certification shall be permitted to occupy a dwelling unit.
- Changes to tenant rents are made upon the preparation and execution of an addendum to the lease which reflects any change in household composition or rent. Documentation will be included in the tenant file to support proper notice.

- Households that include a live-in aide are required to execute a live in aide agreement authorizing the arrangement and describing the status of the aide.
- Households that include a live-in aide will contain file documentation that the live-in aide is not a party to the lease and is not entitled to SNRHA assistance, with the exception of occupancy while serving as the aide for the participant family member.

The SNRHA may modify its form of lease from time to time, giving tenants an opportunity to comment on proposed changes and advance notice of the implementation of any changes. A tenant's refusal to accept permissible and reasonable lease modifications, or those modifications required by HUD, is grounds for termination of tenancy.

D. ADDITIONS TO THE LEASE

Only those persons listed on the most recent certification form and lease shall be permitted to occupy a dwelling unit<sup>1</sup>.

All persons listed on the most recent certification form and the lease must use the dwelling unit as their sole residence.

Requests for the addition of a new member of the household must be approved by the SNRHA, prior to the actual move-in by the proposed new member.

Following receipt of a family's request for approval, the SNRHA will conduct a pre-admission screening, including the Criminal History Report, of the proposed new adult member. Only new members approved by the SNRHA will be added to the household.

Family members over the age of 18 who move from the dwelling unit to establish new households shall be removed from the lease. These individuals may not be readmitted to the unit and must apply as a new applicant for placement on the waiting list. Exceptions will be made by the approval of the Director of Operations or designee.

Minors being added to the household by other than birth or legal adoption or court – awarded custody must be verified by court action. Temporary guardianship will be considered as a court action. All temporary guardianship will be renewed and verified every six months.

Factors Determining Household Additions

Household additions subject to screening:

- Resident plans to marry;
- Resident desires to add a new adult family member to the lease or employ a live-in aide.

- A unit is occupied by a remaining family member(s) under age 18 (not an emancipated minor) and an adult who was not a member of the original household requests permission to take over as the head of household. Guardianship and/or custody of the remaining family member(s) under 18 must be obtained by the adult who was not a member of the original household. The family will have 90 days to obtain all documentation. If the adult is unable to provide appropriate documentation regarding the remaining minor, children and/or fails to comply with all screening requirements they are ineligible to occupy the unit at the expiration of the 90 days.

Factors determining household additions that are not subject to screening:

Children born to a family member or whom a family member legally adopts are exempt from the pre-screening process.

Children for whom the family receives court-awarded custody

Persons under the age of 18 years

Foster Children proposed to live in the unit

In cases where the addition of a new member who has not been born, married, awarded legal custody or guardianship, or legally adopted into the family, and the addition will affect the bedroom size required by the family, according to the SNRHA occupancy standards, the SNRHA will not approve the addition. An exception will be granted if the family has submitted a Self-Certification of Physical Custody of Minor Child/Children or an Appointment of Temporary Guardian to the SNRHA. If either of these forms has been submitted, the SNRHA will also require that the family has initiated legal proceedings for guardianship or legal custody.

Residents who fail to notify the SNRHA of additions to the household, or who permit persons to join the household without undergoing screening, are in violation of the lease. Such persons are considered to be unauthorized occupants by the SNRHA, and the entire household will be subject to eviction [24 CFR 966.4(f) (3)].

Family members age 18 and over, other than spouse, who move from the dwelling unit shall be removed from the lease. The tenant must notify the SNRHA of the move-out within 10 calendar days of its occurrence. These individuals may not be readmitted to the unit and must apply as a new applicant for placement on the waiting list.

The SNRHA in making determinations under this paragraph will consider medical hardship or other extenuating circumstances.

Visitors

1. The resident may not allow visitors to stay overnight more than fourteen (14) consecutive days nor more than 30 calendar days in a twelve month period without prior written approval of management.
2. Visitors who remain beyond this period shall be considered unauthorized, and their presence constitutes a breach of the lease.
3. If an individual other than a leaseholder is representing to an outside agency that they are residing in the lessee's unit, the person will be considered an unauthorized member of the household.
4. Roomers and lodgers are not permitted to occupy a dwelling unit, nor are they permitted to move in with any family occupying a dwelling unit. Advertisements for roomers or lodgers shall be considered a violation of the lease by virtue of intent to sub lease portions of the assisted unit.
5. Residents are not permitted to allow a former tenant of the SNRHA who has been evicted to occupy their unit for any period of time.
6. Medical hardship or other extenuating circumstances shall be considered by SNRHA in making determinations under this area. Temporary caretaker request must be provided by the resident and verified by a medical provider. The status must be updated every thirty (30) days. The SNRHA will review the request and verified reasons for the caretaker during an extended medical hardship. Approval of the caretaker to occupy the unit for a period beyond 2 weeks will require prior approval by the Property Manager.

Absences from the Unit

Residents must advise the SNRHA when they will be absent from the unit for more than 30 consecutive days and provide a means for the SNRHA to contact the resident in the event of an emergency. Failure to advise the SNRHA in writing of extended absences is grounds for termination of the lease.

E. LEASING UNITS WITH ACCESSIBLE OR ADAPTABLE FEATURES

[24 CFR 8.27(a) (1) (2) and (b)]

Before offering a vacant accessible unit to a non-disabled applicant or resident, the SNRHA will offer such units:

First, to a current occupant of another unit of the same development, or other public housing developments under the SNRHA's control, who has a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit?

Second, to a current occupant of other public housing developments under the SNRHA's control who has a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit?

Thirdly, to an eligible qualified applicant on the waiting list having a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit.

Accessible units will be offered to and accepted by non-disabled applicants or residents only with the understanding that such applicants/resident must agree to relocate to a non-accessible unit at a later date if a person with a disability requiring the unit applies for housing and is determined eligible or there is an existing resident who require the features of the accessible unit.

The SNRHA will require a non-disabled applicant or resident to agree to move to an available non-accessible unit within 30 days when either a current resident or an applicant needs the features of the unit and there is another unit available for the applicant or resident. This requirement will be a provision of the lease agreement.

F. UTILITY SERVICES

Tenants responsible for direct payment of utilities must abide by any and all regulations of the specific utility company, including regulations pertaining to advance payments of deposits.

If a resident is resident or applicant is unable to establish utility services due to a previous balance owed to the utility company, the resident/applicant will not be permitted to move into a unit with resident paid utilities. This may mean that a current resident cannot transfer or that an applicant cannot be admitted. See page 6-16.

Failure to maintain utility services during tenancy is a lease violation and grounds for eviction. Non-payment of excess utility charge payments to the SNRHA is a violation of the lease and is grounds for eviction.

SNRHA may send utility reimbursement directly to the utility supplier without the consent of the family that is paying an income based rent. SNRHA will notify the family of the amount of any such direct payment to the utility supplier.

The lease will designate the appliances provided by SNRHA (i.e.: stove and refrigerator). The tenant is responsible for proper hook-up, safety and maintenance of any appliances they may provide (i.e.: dryers).

G. SECURITY AND PET DEPOSITS

Security Deposit

Tenant security deposits are required to minimize collection losses and encourage residents to leave their apartments clean and in good condition when they vacate.

Security Deposit Amounts

New tenants must pay a security deposit to the SNRHA at the time of leasing the unit.

The Security Deposits for Public Housing will be based on bedroom size as follows:

- Efficiency Unit: $200.00
- One Bedroom Unit: $200.00
- Two Bedroom Unit $250.00
- Three Bedroom Unit $300.00
- Four Bedroom Unit $350.00
- Five Bedroom Unit $400.00

Scattered Site units will be required to pay an additional $100 deposit for lawn or yard maintenance for which they are responsible for under terms of their lease.

Transfer of Security Deposit

If a resident transfers, the original security deposit may be refunded to the resident. The resident must then pay the required deposit for the new unit. The resident will be responsible for payment of any additional security deposits as outlined in this policy. The tenant will also be further billed for any maintenance or other charges beyond the security deposit.

The SNRHA may permit installment payments of security when a new tenant demonstrates a financial hardship to the satisfaction of the SNRHA. The Authority may allow for one-quarter of the required deposit at the time of admission and the remainder to be paid with additional equal payments for a three month period. The full deposit must be paid within 120 days of initial occupancy.

The Security Deposit will be returned, less any applicable charges, to the tenant after move-out, if the following conditions are met:

- There is no unpaid rent and/or charges for which the resident is liable under the lease or as a result of breaching the lease.
- The dwelling unit and all equipment are left clean, and all trash and debris have been removed by the family.
- There is no breakage or damage beyond that expected from normal wear and use.
- Tenant gave the required 30 calendar days advance written notice of intent to vacate and all keys issued have been returned to the management office when the family vacates the dwelling unit.

The Security Deposit may not be used to pay charges during the tenant's occupancy.

The SNRHA will hold the security deposit for the period the tenant occupies the unit. The SNRHA will refund the Security Deposit less any amounts owed, within 30 calendar days after move out and tenant's notification of new address. If no address is provided, the refund will be mailed to the last known address.

The SNRHA will provide the tenant or designee identified above with a written list of any charges against the security deposits. If the tenant disagrees with the amount charged to the security deposits, the SNRHA will provide a meeting to discuss the charges.

The resident must leave the dwelling unit in a clean and undamaged (beyond normal wear and tear) condition and must furnish a forwarding address to the SNRHA. All keys to the unit must be returned to the Management upon vacating the unit.

The SNRHA will not use the security deposit for payment of rent or other charges while the tenant is living in the unit.

The tenant will be billed for any maintenance or other charges. If the tenant family will be transferred from one public housing dwelling unit to another the SNRHA will conduct the required move-out inspection and determine what charges, if any, should be assessed to tenant's account. SNRHA will establish the security deposit for the new unit based upon the current security deposit policy and the family will be required to pay the balance/new deposit amount in effect at that time.

H. ADDITIONAL SECURITY DEPOSIT COLLECTION PROCEDURES

Security Deposits are governed by the terms of the lease, 24CFR's and Nevada's Statutes. The SNRHA reserves the right to bill a resident's account additional charges if any of the situations below exist or take place within a resident's apartment. This money will be added to the resident's current security deposit. Such deposits may be collected for the following:

- 1) Unauthorized wallpapering.
- 2) Painting walls any color other than the original color upon move-in.
- 3) If the resident fails a housing inspection due to unsanitary housekeeping or excessive damage to the unit that is beyond normal wear and tear.
- 4) Evidence of pet damages (carpet stains, clawing, biting unit components, defecation interior or exterior, fleas, landscaping, lawn or property, fences or other visual damage).

If any of the above items are found within a household the resident will be immediately billed per labor rates established according to the Maintenance Charge List and added into the tenant's security deposit funds. The SNRHA has enacted this change to protect the interest of our housing stock and to reduce the billable charges due by the resident once they have moved out of SNRHA housing.

Pet Deposit

DEPOSIT SCHEDULE:

| Type of Pet                                                | Deposit |
|------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Dog                                                        | $200   |
| Cat                                                        | $200   |
| Fish Aquarium                                              | $50.00 |
| Fish Bowl (Requires no power and no larger than 2 gallons) | $0     |
| Caged pets (birds, gerbils, hamsters)                      | $50.00 |

ALL PET AGREEMENTS SIGNED WITH RESIDENTS OF SNRHA PRIOR TO THE ADOPTION OF THIS POLICY (03/01/2010) ARE NOT SUBJECT TO PAYING ADDITIONAL DEPOSIT AMOUNTS

RESIDENTS SIGNING PET POLICY AGREEMENTS FOLLOWING THE ADOPTION OF THIS POLICY WILL BE SUBJECT TO PAYING DEPOSITS FOR ANY NEW OR ADDITIONAL PETS.

Assistance Animals for persons with a disability are not subject to the pet deposit.

The SNRHA may permit installment payments of when a new tenant demonstrates a financial hardship to the satisfaction of the SNRHA.

The pet security deposit is to cover the cost of damages created by the pet. Tenant will be given a list of all such damages and the applicable charges that will be deducted from the pet deposit at the time the tenant vacates the unit or the pet is removed from the unit, whichever occurs first. Tenant will also be advised of their right to an informal meeting and/or grievance hearing should they dispute the charges. (See Chapter 10 for remainder of pet policy provisions.) The pet deposit will be returned to the tenant or the person designated by the former tenant, upon notification that the pet is no longer in the unit or in the event of the former tenant's incapacitation or death.

Interest

SNRHA will not compute or pay any interest on any deposit.

I. RENT PAYMENTS

See Chapter 13, Rent and Debt Collection Procedures.

J. FEES AND NONPAYMENT PENALTIES

See Chapter 13, Rent and Debt Collection Procedures.

K. SCHEDULES OF SPECIAL CHARGES

Schedules of special charges for services, repairs, utilities and rules and regulations which are required to be incorporated into the lease by reference shall be publicly posted in a conspicuous manner in the community office, and they will be provided to the resident at the time of lease execution.

The SNRHA will assess residents a charge for tenant-caused damage to its Conventional housing facilities (i.e., dwelling unit and/or common areas). Where there is no specific cost listed for an item of work, the charge to the family will be based upon the SNRHA labor rate times (x) the hours of labor charged to the job plus (+) the actual cost of parts and materials that were used on the job. A Schedule of Charges will be maintained by the agency and periodically updated. A copy of this schedule will be posted in all management offices and shall be made available upon request. The SNRHA will not charge for any repairs that are necessitated by normal wear and tear; nor is there a charge for any scheduled periodic work, such as painting or extermination. However, if extermination is required on other than the pre-established scheduled basis and there is a determination that the extra extermination services are due to the negligence of the tenant family, the SNRHA reserves the right to charge for said service.

L. MODIFICATIONS TO THE LEASE

Schedules of special charges and rules and regulations are subject to modification or revision. Tenants will be provided at least thirty days written notice of the reason(s) for any proposed modifications or revisions, and they will be given an opportunity to present written comments. Comments will be taken into consideration before any proposed modifications or revisions become effective.

A copy of such notice shall be posted in the central office, each development office.

Any modifications of the lease must be accomplished by a written addendum to the lease and signed by parties, the resident(s) and the SNRHA.

M. CANCELLATION OF THE LEASE

Cancellation of the tenant's lease is to be in accordance with the provisions contained in the lease agreement and as stated in this policy.

N. SMOKE FREE HOUSING

In order to provide a healthier environment for our residents, the Board of Commissioners has adopted a Smoke Free Housing Policy. The purpose of this policy is to provide a healthier environment for our residents and eliminate the harmful effects of secondhand smoke, fire danger and damage to apartments due to smoke. Secondhand smoke is particularly dangerous to children and people with respiratory disease. It is the third leading cause of preventable death in the United States. In 2006, the US Surgeon General stated that there is no safe level of second hand smoke.

Definition of Smoke/Smoking:

The term “smoke” and “smoking” means inhaling, exhaling, breathing or carrying any lighted cigar, cigarette or other tobacco product on similar lighted product in any manner or in any form.

Smoke-Free Apartments:

The premises listed below have been designated as smoke-free living environments:

- Lubertha Johnson Estates Senior Development

With 45 days written notice and a signed lease addendum for all current residents, future properties may be designated smoke free at the discretion of SNRHA.

Residents, staff and guests are prohibited from smoking on these properties owned and managed by SNRHA, including the apartment rented by the resident, the building in which the dwelling unit is located, and all common areas inside and outside the building up to 15 feet from each building and 50 feet from the buildings entry.

The Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority Not a Guarantor of Smoke-Free Environment

The adoption of a smoke free living environment and the efforts to designate a property as smoke-free does not make SNRHA a guarantor of resident’s health or of the smoke free condition of the resident’s apartment and common areas. However, SNRHA shall take reasonable steps to enforce the smoke-free terms of its leases and to make the property smoke-free. SNRHA will post smoke free properties with “No Smoking” signs inside and outside the buildings and may, at its sole option, consider designating smoking areas at any or all of the properties.

Smoking on the Property as a Lease Violation

If a resident smells tobacco smoke anywhere in the building, they should report this to the office as soon as possible. Management will seek the source of the smoke and take appropriate action. A resident will be in violation of his/her lease if the resident or any guest is determined to be smoking on SNRHA property. Three (3) violations of SNRHA’s Smoke Free Policy may result in eviction. All applicants/residents acknowledge receipt of this Policy and Smoke-Free Lease Addendum in writing at the time of application and/or next rent recertification.

O. INSPECTIONS OF PUBLIC HOUSING UNITS

Initial Inspections

The SNRHA and the family will inspect the premises prior to occupancy of the unit in order to determine the condition of the unit and equipment in the unit. A copy of the initial inspection, signed by the SNRHA and the tenant, will be kept in the unit file and tenant file.

Vacate Inspections

The management staff will perform a move-out inspection when the family vacates the unit, and will encourage the family to participate in the move-out inspection.

The purpose of this inspection is to determine necessary maintenance and whether there are damages that exceed normal wear and tear. The SNRHA will determine if there are tenant caused damages to the unit. Tenant caused damages may affect part or all of the family's security deposit. Documentation, including pictures of tenant caused damages will be maintained in tenant file.

The move-out inspection also assists the SNRHA in determining the time and extent of the preparation and repairs necessary to make the unit ready for the next tenant.

Annual Inspections

The SNRHA will inspect all units annually using HUD-required standards. All inspections will include a check of all smoke alarms to ensure proper working order. Pictures of any damages and/or housekeeping problems may be taken. At each annual inspection, staff will verify that the additional room is still being used for medical equipment or live-in aide.

Residents who "fail" the inspection due to housekeeping or tenant-caused damages will be given 10 calendar days to correct noted items and placed on a schedule of 30, 60, and 90 day inspections conducted to ensure lease compliance. Failure to comply with housekeeping requirements are grounds for lease termination.

Residents may request a copy of the inspection report with required corrections. In cases where units failed inspection for housekeeping or damage, a conference is scheduled with the property management.

If necessary to bring the unit into HUD-required compliance, needed repairs will be completed by the SNRHA.

Required corrections will be repaired by the SNRHA within 30 business days of the inspection date.

Damages beyond "normal wear and tear" will be billed to the tenant.

Residents who repeatedly "fail" the inspection or cause excessive damage to the unit will be in violation of their lease. SNRHA will take appropriate lease enforcement action.

Quality Control Inspections

The housing management staff will conduct periodic quality control inspections to determine the condition of the unit and to identify problems or issues in which the SNRHA can be of service to the family.

The SNRHA management staff will conduct quality control inspections on 5% of the units.

The purpose of these quality control inspections is to assure that repairs were completed at an acceptable level of craftsmanship and within an acceptable time frame.

The property manager may conduct periodic inspections to determine the condition of the unit and to identify problems or issues in which the SNRHA can be of service to the family.

Special Inspections

Housing management staff may conduct a special inspection for housekeeping, unit condition, or suspected lease violation.

HUD representatives or local government officials may review SNRHA operations periodically and as a part of their monitoring may inspect a sampling of the SNRHA's inventory.

Modernized and Scattered Site Inspections: New move inspections will be conducted within 60 days of the resident leasing the unit to ensure the unit and grounds are being maintained.

Unit inspections will be conducted within ten (10) working days from the date SNRHA is notified or receives knowledge of an unsatisfactory condition such as infestation, damages, unsatisfactory housekeeping or complaints of poor exterior conditions.

Other Inspections

The SNRHA management staff will periodically conduct windshield and/or walk-through inspections to determine whether there may be lease violations, adverse conditions or local code violations.

Playground inspections are conducted weekly to determine playground safety.

Building exterior and grounds inspections are conducted at all Public Housing properties to determine hazardous conditions as well as to assist in budget preparation.

Emergency Inspections

Housing management staff may initiate an emergency inspection report to generate a work order if they believe that an emergency exists in the unit or on a Public Housing site. In addition, staff may conduct an emergency inspection without a work order and generate a work order after the inspection has been conducted (see Entry of Premises Notice in this chapter.) Repairs are to be completed within 24 hours from the time the work order is issued.

Emergency Repairs to be Completed in Less than 24 Hours

The following items are to be considered emergency in nature and require immediate (less than 24 hour) repair or abatement:

- Broken window glass that affects unit security, is a cutting hazard, or occurs within inclement weather (to be secured or abated)
- Escaping gas
- Plumbing leaks that have the capacity to create flooding or cause damage to the unit
- Natural gas leaks or smell of fumes
- Backed-up sewage
- Electrical hazard
- Inoperable SNRHA-owned air conditioner/heater (seasonal)
- Inoperable smoke detectors will be treated as a 24-hour emergency and will be made operable by the SNRHA if the smoke detector is in need of repair. Residents who disengage smoke detectors will be charged (see Schedule of Charges posted.)
- Lock-outs – Subject to the resident paying the cost for responding.

Entry of Premises Notices

The SNRHA will give prior written notice for non-emergency inspections. Non-emergency entries to the unit will be made during reasonable hours of the day.

The SNRHA will provide the family with 48 hour notice prior to entering the unit for non-emergency reasons other than the annual inspection.

An inspection may not be conducted if there are minors and no adult (required to show identification) present in the unit during the inspection.

If no person is at home, the staff will enter the unit and conduct the inspection and will leave a written notice to the resident explaining the reason the unit was entered and the date and time.

A written notice specifying the purpose for non-emergency entry into the unit will be delivered to the premises at least 2 days before entry.

Where the SNRHA is conducting regular annual inspection of its housing units, the family will receive reasonable advance notice of the inspection to allow the family to prepare and be able to pass the inspection.

Reasons the SNRHA will enter the unit are:

- Inspections and maintenance
- To make improvements and repairs
- To show the premises for leasing
- In cases of emergency

The family must call the SNRHA at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled date of inspection to reschedule the inspection, if necessary.

The SNRHA will reschedule the inspection no more than once unless the resident has a verifiable medical reason which has hindered the inspection. The SNRHA may request verification.

Repairs requested by the family will not require prior notice to the family. Residents are notified in the lease that resident-requested repairs presume permission for the SNRHA to enter. The resident may specify at the time of request for repair or maintenance that they be present. SNRHA will take reasonable measures to comply with the residents request; however known deficiencies must be corrected.

Non-Inspection Emergency Entry

The SNRHA staff will allow access to the unit to proper authorities when issues of health or safety of the tenant are concerned.

Family Responsibility to Allow Inspection

The SNRHA must be allowed to inspect the unit at reasonable times with reasonable notice. If the resident refuses to allow the inspection, the resident will be in violation of the lease.

Chapter 10

PET POLICY

[24 CFR 5.309]

INTRODUCTION

This chapter explains the SNRHA's policies on the keeping of pets and any criteria or standards pertaining to the policy. The rules adopted are reasonably related to the legitimate interest of the SNRHA to provide a decent, safe and sanitary living environment for all tenants, to protecting and preserving the physical condition of the property, and the financial interest of the SNRHA.

The purpose of this policy is to establish the SNRHA's policy and procedures for ownership of pets and to ensure that no applicant or resident is discriminated against regarding admission or continued occupancy because of ownership of pets. It also establishes reasonable rules governing the keeping of common household pets.

Residents will comply with the dwelling lease, which requires that no animals or pets of any kind be permitted on the premises without prior written approval of the SNRHA.

Nothing in this policy or the dwelling lease limits or impairs the right of persons with disabilities to own animals that are used to assist them.

The SNRHA Pet Deposits, Fees, and Restrictions do not apply to Assistance Animals. An Assistance Animal is an animal that is needed as a reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities.

In accordance with Section 526 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 (QHWRA), SNRHA hereby sets forth rules and regulations concerning pet ownership in its public housing units. Only "common household pets" as defined herein will be permitted in SNRHA owned properties.

A common household pet, for the purposes of SNRHA's conventional housing program: A domesticated animal, such as a dog, cat, bird, or fish that is traditionally kept in the home for pleasure rather than for commercial or breeding purposes. Common household pet does not include reptiles. This definition shall not include animals that are used to assist persons with disabilities.

Residents may own up to two pets as defined in this policy. If one of the pets is a dog or cat, the second pet must be contained in a cage or an aquarium for fish. Each bird or other animal, other than fish, shall be counted as one pet.

Animals That Assist Persons with Disabilities

Only rules related to the health of the animal, the responsibility of the animal’s owner to clean up after the animal and prevent the animal from disturbing others will be applied to animals that assist persons with disabilities.

To meet these exclusions, the resident/pet owner must provide SNRHA with the means to verify that:

That there is a person with disabilities in the household; and

That if the animal is needed because of the person’s disability.

A. MANAGEMENT APPROVAL OF PETS

All pets must be approved in advance by the SNRHA management. The pet owner must enter into a Pet Agreement with the SNRHA; pay the pet deposit as follows:

DEPOSIT SCHEDULE:

| Type of Pet                                                | Deposit |
|------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Dog                                                        | $200   |
| Cat                                                        | $200   |
| Fish Aquarium                                              | $50.00 |
| Fish Bowl (Requires no power and no larger than 2 gallons) | $0     |
| Caged pets (birds, gerbils, hamsters)                      | $50.00 |
|                                                            |         |

See Sections D and E following for other management requirements.

B. STANDARDS FOR PETS

Pet rules as outlined below will not be applied to animals that assist persons with disabilities however rules related to the health of the animal, the responsibility of the animal’s owner to clean up after the animal and prevent the animal from disturbing others will be applied to animals that assist persons with disabilities.

Types of Pets Allowed

No pets except the following will be acceptable:

Dogs

Maximum number: 1
Maximum adult weight: 30 pounds
Maximum height: 20" at shoulder at full growth
Must be spayed or neutered and housebroken
Must have all required inoculations
Must be licensed as specified now or in the future by State law and local ordinance

Cats

Maximum number: 1
Must be spayed or neutered
Must have all required inoculations
Must be trained to use a litter box or other waste receptacle. Cardboard boxes are not acceptable and will not be approved. The resident shall not permit refuse from litter boxes to accumulate, become odorous, to become unsightly, or unsanitary.
Must be licensed as specified now or in the future by State law or local ordinance

Birds

Maximum number: 2
Must be enclosed in a cage at all times

Fish

Maximum aquarium size: 50 gallons
Must be maintained on an approved stand

Rodents (guinea pig, hamster, or gerbil ONLY)

Maximum number: 1
Must be enclosed in an acceptable cage at all times

Types of Pets Not Allowed

Common household pets permitted in dwelling units do not include:

Exotic pets or barnyard animals are prohibited. Exception may be made for certain species of pigs utilized as bonafide “service animals”. (Snakes and reptiles are considered exotic pets.)

Animals who would be allowed to produce offspring for sale

Wild animals, feral animals, and any other animals that are not amenable to routine human handling

Animals of species commonly used on farms

Non-human primates (unless as an assistive animal to a person with disabilities)

Animals whose climatological needs cannot be met in the unaltered environment of the individual dwelling unit

Pot-bellied pigs

Snakes, spiders, reptiles, and chickens

The following restrictions apply to pets, based on weight, size and inherent dangerousness, including prohibitions against the keeping of:

Any animal whose weight could exceed 30 pounds by adult hood

Dogs of the pit bull, Rottweiler, chow, or boxer breeds

Ferrets or other animals whose natural protective mechanisms pose a risk to small children of serious bites and lacerations

Hedgehogs or other animals whose protective instincts and natural body armor produce a risk to children of serious puncture injuries.

Chicks, turtles or other animals that pose a significant risk of salmonella infection to those who handle them

Pigeons, doves, mynah birds, psittacine birds, and birds of other species that are hosts to the organisms causing psittacosis in humans

Tenants are not permitted to have more than one type of pet.

C. PETS TEMPORARILY ON THE PREMISES

Pets which are not owned by a tenant will not be allowed; although service animals of persons with disabilities who are visiting the unit are permitted.

Residents are prohibited from feeding or harboring stray animals.

This rule excludes visiting pet programs sponsored by a humane society or other non-profit organization and approved by the SNRHA.

State or local laws governing pets temporarily in dwelling accommodations shall prevail.

D. REGISTRATION, ADMINISTRATION, AND OTHER RESTRICTIONS

Registration of Pets

1. Pets must be registered with the SNRHA before they are brought onto the premises. Registration includes certificate signed by a licensed veterinarian or State/local authority that the pet has received all inoculations required by State or local law, and that the pet has no communicable disease(s) and is pest-free. This provision applies to assistive animals for persons with disabilities.
2. Registration must be renewed and will be coordinated with the annual recertification date and proof of license and inoculation will be submitted at least 30 days prior to annual reexamination. This provision applies to assistive animals for persons with disabilities.
3. Dogs and cats must be spayed or neutered. This provision applies to assistive animals for persons with disabilities.
4. Execution of a Pet Agreement with the SNRHA stating that the tenant acknowledges complete responsibility for the care and cleaning of the pet will be required.
5. Approval for the keeping of a pet shall not be extended pending the completion of these requirements.
6. Registration for each animal is to be accomplished by the filing of the following disclosures and forms:
  - a. A health certificate prepared by a veterinarian (including attestations of no communicable disease and of spaying or neutering or of a medical condition precluding spaying or neutering)
  - b. Documentation of current rabies vaccination for species subject to state or local rabies vaccination requirements

- c. Copy of the license issued by the applicable municipality for “ownership” of each animal for whom licensing is a legal requirement
- d. Name, address and telephone number of a veterinarian who will be providing regular care
- e. Name of the adult household member who will be primarily responsible for animal care

Refusal to Register Pets

1. The SNRHA may not refuse to register a pet based on the determination that the pet owner is financially unable to care for the pet. If the SNRHA refuses to register a pet, a written notification will be sent to the pet owner stating the reason for denial and shall be served in accordance with HUD Notice requirements.
2. The SNRHA will refuse to register a pet if:
  - a. The pet is not a common household pet as defined in this policy;
Keeping the pet would violate any House Pet Rules;
  - b. The pet owner fails to provide complete pet registration information or fails to update the registration annually;
  - c. The SNRHA reasonably determines that the pet owner is unable to keep the pet in compliance with the pet rules and other lease obligations. The pet's temperament and behavior may be considered as a factor in determining the pet owner's ability to comply with provisions of the lease.

A resident who cares for another resident's pet must notify the SNRHA and agree to abide by all of the pet rules in writing.

Pet Agreement

Execution of a Pet Agreement will be required, under which the resident acknowledges:

1. The right of management to enter dwelling unit when there is evidence that an animal left alone is in danger or distress
2. The right of management to seek impoundment and sheltering of any animal found to be maintained in violation of housing rules, pending resolution of any dispute regarding such violation
3. Receipt of a copy of all animal-related requirements and restrictions administered by management

4. In the context of public housing, that failure to abide by any animal-related requirement or restriction constitutes a violation of the “Tenant Obligations” appearing at 24 CFR 966.4(f)(4) and, therefore, grounds for lease termination pursuant to 24 CFR 966.4(k)(2)

Other Restrictions

The following other restrictions also apply:

1. A prohibition on the keeping of animals by any resident convicted of a felony or of a misdemeanor relating to treatment of an animal
2. A prohibition on the keeping of any dog or cat over six months of age who is not spayed or neutered
3. A prohibition against keeping animals in any dwelling unit having no air conditioning in which ambient temperatures may exceed 82 degrees at any time of day or night.
4. A restriction against walking or transporting any animal outside of the dwelling unit without use of a leash no longer than five (5') feet or animal transport enclosure.
5. A prohibition against allowing animals on any premises outside of the dwelling unit unaccompanied by a family member, including homeless animals that are being fed or otherwise supported by residents.
6. A prohibition against the tethering or chaining of animals outside of or within the dwelling unit.
7. A prohibition of feeding any dog and/or cat outside the unit.
8. A restriction against subjecting animals to any surgical procedure, such as de-barking or de-clawing, that is typically performed as a substitute for correcting environmental deficiencies and providing proper supervision, or that can render animals abnormally aggressive
9. A requirement for the prompt removal of animal feces deposited in any common area
10. A requirement for regular removal and replacement of litter used in litter boxes or in animal enclosures maintained within dwelling units
11. A requirement for implementation of effective flea control by measures that produce no toxic hazard to children who may come into contact with treated animals

12. Pets are to be restrained so that maintenance can be performed in the unit. The resident shall, whenever an inspection or maintenance is scheduled, either be at home or shall have all animals restrained or caged. If a maintenance person enters a unit where an animal is not restrained, maintenance shall not be performed, and the resident pet owner shall be charged a fee of $25.00. If the situation occurs again, the pet shall be removed from the premises. The Housing Authority shall not be responsible if any animal escapes from the residence due to its maintenance, inspections, or other activities.

State and local public health and anti-cruelty laws are applicable. All complaints of cruelty and all dog bites will be referred to the relevant animal control or police agency for investigation and enforcement.

E. ADDITIONAL FEES AND DEPOSITS FOR PETS

SNRHA requires a refundable pet deposit of $200 for dogs and cats subject to charges for pet associated damage.

SNRHA requires a non-refundable pet fee for dogs of $50 annually to defray the cost of providing pet waste receptacles and equipment as well as pet waste clean-up costs associated with the overall upkeep of the community. Residents are expected to properly dispose of pet waste.

SNRHA will allow gradual payment of the deposit in accordance with the following:

- An initial payment of $50 on or prior to the date the pet is properly registered and brought into the apartment; and
- Monthly payments in an amount no less than $50 until the specified deposit has been paid.

SNRHA will allow gradual payment of the pet fee in accordance with the following:

- An initial payment of $10.00 due by the effective date of the annual recertification and up to four additional installments of $10.00.

The SNRHA reserves the right to change or increase the required deposit by amendment to these rules.

The SNRHA will refund the pet deposit to the tenant, less any damage caused by the pet to the dwelling unit, upon removal of the pet or the owner from the unit. Pet fees are non-refundable.

The SNRHA will return the pet deposit to the former tenant or to the person designated by the former tenant in the event of the former tenant's incapacitation or death.

The SNRHA will provide the tenant or designee identified above with a written list of any charges against the pet deposit. If the tenant disagrees with the amount charged to the pet deposit, the SNRHA will provide a meeting to discuss the charges.

All reasonable expenses incurred by the SNRHA as a result of damages directly attributable to the presence of the pet in the community will be the responsibility of the resident, including:

- The cost of repairs and replacements to the resident's dwelling unit;
- Fumigation of the dwelling unit;
- Common areas of the community.

Pet deposits are not a part of rent payable by the resident.

F. ALTERATIONS TO UNIT

Residents/pet owners shall not alter their unit, patio, premises or common areas to create an enclosure for any animal. Installation of pet doors is prohibited.

G. PET WASTE REMOVAL CHARGE

A separate pet waste removal charge of $25 per occurrence will be assessed against the resident for violations of the pet policy.

Pet waste removal charges are not part of rent payable by the resident.

All reasonable expenses incurred by the SNRHA, as the result of damages directly attributable to the presence of the pet will be the responsibility of the resident, including:

The cost of repairs and replacements to the dwelling unit;

Fumigation of the dwelling unit.

If the tenant is in occupancy when such costs occur, the tenant shall be billed for such costs as a current charge.

If such expenses occur as the result of a move-out inspection, they will be deducted from the pet deposit. The resident will be billed for any amount, which exceeds the pet deposit.

The pet deposit will be refunded when the resident moves out or no longer have a pet on the premises, whichever occurs first.

The expense of flea disinfestations shall be the responsibility of the resident.

H. PET AREA RESTRICTIONS

Pets must be maintained within the resident's unit. When outside of the unit (within the building or on the grounds) dogs and cats must be kept on a leash and under the control of the resident or other responsible adult individual at all times.

Pets are not permitted in common areas including lobbies, community rooms and laundry areas except for those common areas which are entrances to and exits from the building.

I. NOISE

Pet owners must control the noise of pets so that such noise does not constitute a nuisance to other residents or interrupt their peaceful enjoyment of their housing unit or premises. This includes, but is not limited to loud or continuous barking, howling, whining, biting, scratching, chirping, or other such activities.

J. CLEANLINESS REQUIREMENTS

Litter Box Requirements.

All animal waste or the litter from litter boxes shall be picked up immediately by the pet owner, disposed of in sealed plastic trash bags, and placed in a trash bin.

Litter shall not be disposed of by being flushed through a toilet.

Litter boxes shall be stored inside the resident's dwelling unit.

Removal of Waste from Other Locations.

The Resident/Pet Owner shall be responsible for the removal of waste by placing it in a sealed plastic bag and disposing of it in an outside trash bin.

Any unit occupied by a dog, cat, or rodent will be fumigated at the time the unit is vacated or during regularly scheduled extermination of the unit.

The resident/pet owner shall take adequate precautions to eliminate any pet odors within or around the unit and to maintain the unit in a sanitary condition at all times.

K. PET CARE

No pet (excluding fish) shall be left unattended in any apartment for a period in excess of 10 consecutive hours.

All residents/pet owners shall be responsible for adequate care, nutrition, exercise and medical attention for his/her pet.

Residents/pet owners must recognize that other residents may have chemical sensitivities or allergies related to pets, or may be easily frightened or disoriented by animals. Pet owners must agree to exercise courtesy with respect to other residents.

L. RESPONSIBLE PARTIES

The resident/pet owner will be required to designate a responsible party for the care of the pet if the health or safety of the pet is threatened by the death or incapacity of the pet owner, or by other factors that render the pet owner unable to care for the pet.

M. INSPECTIONS

The SNRHA may, after reasonable notice to the tenant during reasonable hours, enter and inspect the premises, in addition to other inspections allowed.

N. TERMINATION OF TENANCY

The SNRHA may initiate procedures for termination of tenancy based on a pet rule violation if:

The pet owner has failed to remove the pet or correct a pet rule violation within the time period specified; and

The pet rule violation is sufficient to begin procedures to terminate tenancy under terms of the lease.

O. PET REMOVAL

If the death or incapacity of the pet owner threatens the health or safety of the pet, or other factors occur that render the owner unable to care for the pet, the situation will be reported to the Responsible Party designated by the resident/pet owner. This includes pets that are poorly cared for or have been left unattended for over 10 consecutive hours.

If the responsible party is unwilling or unable to care for the pet, or if the SNRHA after reasonable efforts cannot contact the responsible party, the SNRHA may contact the appropriate State or local agency and request the removal of the pet.

If the pet is removed as a result of any aggressive act on the part of the pet, the pet will not be allowed back on the premises.

P. EMERGENCIES

The SNRHA will take all necessary steps to insure that symptoms of severe illness, or demonstrate behavior that constitutes an immediate threat to the health or safety of others, are referred to the appropriate State or local entity authorized to remove such animals.

If it is necessary for the SNRHA to place the pet in a shelter facility, the cost will be the responsibility of the tenant/pet owner. Pets that become vicious, display aggressive behavior are subject to referral to appropriate State or Local agency.

RECERTIFICATIONS

[24 CFR 5.613, 24 CFR 5.61524 CFR Part 960 Subpart C,
5.657, 880.603, 884.218, 886.124, 886.324, 891.410, 891.610,
891.750, 960.257, 982.516]

INTRODUCTION

HUD requires that PHA's offer all families the choice of paying income-based rent or flat rent at least annually. Families who choose to pay flat rent or families who receive a verifiable fixed income are required to complete a reexamination of income, deductions and allowances at least once every three years. Flat rent or fixed income families must still report family composition and community service requirements on an annual basis.

To determine the amount of income-based rent, it is necessary for SNRHA to perform a reexamination of the family's income annually. At the annual reexamination, families who choose to pay income-based rent must report their current household composition, income, deductions and allowances. Between regular annual reexaminations, HUD requires that families report all changes in household composition, but SNRHA decides what other changes must be reported and the procedures for reporting them.

This chapter defines SNRHA's policy for conducting annual reexaminations. It also explains the interim reporting requirements for families, and the standards for timely reporting.

A. ELIGIBILITY FOR CONTINUED OCCUPANCY

Residents who meet the following criteria will be eligible for continued occupancy:

Qualify as a family as defined in this policy;

Are in full compliance with the resident obligations and responsibilities described in the dwelling lease;

Have provided Social Security numbers on all family members or have certifications on file indicating they have no Social Security number.

Whose family members have submitted required citizenship/eligible immigration status/non-contending documents. Who meet HUD standards on citizenship or immigration status or are paying a pro-rated rent.

Who are in compliance with the SNRHA's community service requirements.

Whose adult family members have passed an annual criminal screening.

Remaining Family Members and Prior Debt

1. Remaining family members age 18 years or older will be held responsible for arrearages incurred by the former head or spouse. SNRHA will not hold remaining family members (other than the head or spouse) responsible for any portion of the arrearage incurred before the remaining member attained age 18.

Exceptions may be made for extenuating circumstances or hardship.

2. Remaining family members under age 18 shall not be held responsible for the rent arrearages incurred by the former head of household.

B. ANNUAL RECERTIFICATIONS

The terms "annual recertification" and "annual reexamination" are synonymous.

In order to be recertified, families are required to provide current and accurate information on income, assets, allowances and deductions, and family composition. The annual recertification of family income and composition will be conducted the staff.

Families who choose flat rent and families who receive fixed income are to be recertified every three years. SNRHA staff will mail annual information packages to families and may schedule an interview if additional information is needed.

Annual recertifications are scheduled; by the anniversary of their admission date.

Admission Anniversary System:

For families who move in on the first of the month, the annual recertifications will be completed within 12 months of the anniversary of the move-in date. (Example: If family moves in August 1, the annual recertification will be conducted at most 120 days prior to be effective on August 1, the following year.)

For families who move in during the month, the annual recertifications will be completed no later than the first of the month in which the family moved in, the following year.

(Example: If family moves in August 15, the effective date of the next annual recertification is August 1.)

When families move to another dwelling unit, the annual recertification date will not change.

Special Reexaminations: When it is not possible to estimate family income accurately, a temporary determination will be made with respect to income and a special reexamination will be scheduled every 90 days until a reasonably accurate estimate of income can be made.

Special reexaminations shall be conducted when there is a change in the head of household that requires a remaining family member to take on the responsibilities of a leaseholder.

Special Reexamination Following Income Disallowance: When a family qualifies for an earned income disallowance, a special reexamination will occur at the end of the initial 12 month disallowance period and at the end of the second 12 month disallowance period.

Zero/Extremely Low Income Families: Unless the family has income that is excluded from rent computation, families who report zero income or extremely low income will have the income be re-verified through EIV every 90 days for income changes and are further required to complete a written no/low income certification every 180 days and undergo an interim recertification every 180 days. (See Other Interim Reporting Issues below).

Recertification Notice to the Family

All families will be notified of their obligation to recertify by staff delivery or first class mail. The written notification shall be sent at least 120 calendar days in advance of the scheduled annual recertification date specifying the date and time of the appointment and the required documents that the tenant will need to supply.

During this reexamination period, the family will be given the option to choose flat rent or income-based rent. SNRHA will provide a form that states what the flat rent would be and what the family's income-based rent would be. The family will be required to make a choice and sign the form prior to the effective date of their reexamination. The form will be retained in the tenant's file.

If the family chooses flat rent, an annual recertification is required to verify community service requirements and family composition. Recertification of income is only required every three years.

Notification of the flat rent and an approximate amount of the income based rent, based on the last certification, and is sent at least 120 days in advance of the scheduled annual certification.

Families that have paid a flat rent for three years must complete a full certification process to determine accurate information regarding family composition and income. The family may choose to pay a flat rent or the income based rent annually.

Persons with Disabilities

If requested as an accommodation by a person with a disability, the SNRHA will provide the notice in an accessible format. The SNRHA will also mail the notice to a third party, if requested as reasonable accommodation for a person with disabilities. These accommodations will be granted upon verification that they meet the need presented by the disability.

Persons with disabilities, who are unable to come to the SNRHA's office will be granted an accommodation of conducting the interview at the person's home, upon verification that the accommodation requested meets the need presented by the disability.

Collection of Information

The family is required to complete the Application for Continued Occupancy –Personal Declaration. Each adult member who reports no income or very low income will also be required to complete the Personal Declaration Form – No Income Questionnaire. Update form may be used for Interims.

Requirements to Attend

The following family members will be required to attend the recertification interview and sign the personal declaration along with other required forms:

- The head of household, spouse, co-head, and

- All adult household members, age 18 and older.

If the head of household is unable to attend the interview, the appointment will be rescheduled one time at the family's request.

Failure to Respond to Notification to Recertify

The written notification will explain which family members are required to attend the recertification interview. The family may call to request another appointment date up to 2 calendar days prior to the interview.

If the family does not appear for the recertification interview, and has not rescheduled or made prior arrangements with the SNRHA, the SNRHA will reschedule a second appointment.

If the family fails to appear for the second appointment, and has not rescheduled or made prior arrangements, the SNRHA will not schedule a third appointment. If a household fails to complete annual recertification, they will receive a 30 day notice of lease termination for non-compliance with the recertification process.

If the family schedules an appointment and completes annual recertification requirements within thirty days of the effective date of the household's annual recertification, the annual recertification will be completed and the household's rent will be based on the income.

Exceptions to these policies may be made by the Asset Manager if the family is able to document an emergency situation that prevented them from canceling or attending the appointment.

Documents Required From the Family

In the notification letter to the family, the SNRHA will include instructions for the family to bring the following:

- Application for Continued Occupancy form Personal Declaration Form completed by head of household

- Documentation of income for all family members

- Documentation of assets

- Documentation to substantiate any deductions or allowances

- Documentation of family composition

- Picture identification for adults 18 years of age or older

- Other required documents on new family members, such as SSN or citizenship requirements

- Documentation of community service requirements

- Self-Declaration form when adult members 18 and over are declaring no income or very low income. (Except those 62 years and older/or disabled or enrolled in educational or approved training programs.)

SNRHA will require a print out of utility bills for three months to be submitted for residents claiming zero income.

Verification of Information

All information which affects the families continued eligibility for the program, and the family's Total Tenant Payment (TTP) will be verified in accordance with the verification procedures and guidelines described in this Policy. Verifications used for recertification must be less than 120 days old on the effective date of the recertification. All verifications will be placed in the file, which has been established for the family.

When the information has been verified, it will be analyzed to determine:

The continued eligibility of the resident as a family or as the remaining member of a family;

The unit size required by the family;

The amount of rent the family should pay.

Changes in the Tenant Rent

If there is any change in rent, including change in family's choice in rent, the lease will be amended, or a new lease will be executed, or a Notice of Rent Adjustment will be issued [24 CFR 966.4(c) & (o)].

Tenant Rent Increases

If tenant rent increases, a 30-day notice will be mailed to the family prior to the family's annual recertification date.

If less than 30 days are remaining before the family's annual recertification date, the tenant rent increase will be effective on the first of the second month following the thirty day notice.

If there has been a misrepresentation or a material omission by the family, or if the family causes a delay in the recertification processing, there will be a retroactive increase in rent to the family's annual recertification date.

Tenant Rent Decreases

If tenant rent decreases, it will be effective on the family's annual recertification date.

If the family causes a delay so that the processing of the recertification is not complete by the family's annual recertification date, rent change will be effective on the first day of the month following completion of the recertification processing by the SNRHA.

If tenant rent decreases and the change occurred within a month prior to the Recertification appointment, but the family did not report the change as an interim Adjustment, the decrease will be effective on the recertification anniversary date.

C. REPORTING INTERIM CHANGES

Families must report all changes in household composition and increases in income/assets in writing within 10 calendar days to the SNRHA between annual recertifications. This includes additions due to birth, adoption and court-awarded custody. The family must obtain SNRHA approval prior to all other additions to the household.

When there is a change in head of household or a new adult household member is added, the head of household will complete an application for continued occupancy – personal declaration or update form and recertify-revify, using the same procedures the SNRHA staff would use for an annual recertification, except for effective dates of changes. In such case, the Interim Recertification Policy would be used.

The annual recertification date will not change as a result of this action.

The U.S. citizenship/eligible immigrant status of additional family members must be declared and verified prior to the approval by the SNRHA of the family member being added to the lease.

Increases in Income to be Reported and Rent Adjustments

Families paying flat rent are not required to report any increases in income or assets between the recertification periods.

Families paying an income-based rent must report all increases in income/assets of all household members to the SNRHA in writing within 10 calendar days of the occurrence.

Families are required to report the following increases in income:

- Increases in income because a person with income joins the household;
- Increases in household income which comes as a result of a new income source.
- Increases in household income that was not anticipated at the annual recertification period.

Families who receive Social Security, Social Security Disability, pensions or Supplemental Security Income (SSI) are required to report their annual increase when it occurs.

SNRHA will process rent adjustments for all increases in income, which are reported between regularly scheduled recertifications.

Rent increases (except those due to misrepresentation) require 30 days' notice.

Decreases in Income and Rent Adjustments

Residents may report a decrease in income and other changes, such as an increase in allowances or deductions which would reduce the amount of the total tenant payment.

The SNRHA will process the rent adjustment unless the SNRHA confirms that the decrease in income will last less than 30 calendar days.

Decreases in tenant rent will be effective the first day of the month following the month in which the change is reported in writing to the SNRHA. If verification cannot be obtained prior to the end of the month in which the change is reported, the decrease will be made retroactive to the first day of the month following the month in which the change is reported.

D. INCOME CHANGES RESULTING FROM WELFARE PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

The SNRHA will not reduce the public housing rent for families whose welfare assistance is reduced specifically because of:

Fraud; or

Failure to participate in an economic self-sufficiency program; or

Noncompliance with a work activities requirement

However, the SNRHA will reduce the rent if the welfare assistance reduction is a result of:

The expiration of a lifetime time limit on receiving benefits; or

A situation where the family has complied with welfare program requirements but cannot or has not obtained employment, such as:

The family has complied with welfare program requirements, but the durational time limit, such as a cap on the length of time a family can receive benefits, causes the family to lose their welfare benefits.

Verification before Denying a Request to Reduce Rent

The SNRHA will obtain written verification from the welfare agency stating that the family's benefits have been reduced for fraud or noncompliance before denying the family's request for rent reduction.

Cooperation Agreements

The SNRHA has a written cooperation agreement in place with the local welfare agency which assists the SNRHA in obtaining the necessary information regarding welfare sanctions.

The SNRHA has taken a proactive approach to culminating an effective working relationship between the SNRHA and the local welfare agency for the purpose of targeting economic self-sufficiency programs throughout the community that are available to public housing residents.

The SNRHA and the local welfare agency have mutually agreed to notify each other of any economic self-sufficiency and/or other appropriate programs or services that would benefit public housing residents.

E. OTHER INTERIM REPORTING ISSUES

Residents are required to report all changes in family composition or status to SNRHA in writing within 10 calendar days of the occurrence. Failure to report within the 10 calendar days may result in a retroactive rent increase, but not a retroactive credit or rent reduction. In order to qualify for rent reductions, residents must report and verify income decreases promptly.

An interim recertification will be scheduled for families with zero income or extremely low income every 180 days. Once income is reported recertification will cease until annual recertification time.

An interim reexamination will be scheduled for families with zero or extremely low-income every 180 days. Unless the family has income that is excluded from rent computation, families who report zero income or extremely low income will have the income be re-verified through EIV every 90 days for income changes and are further required to complete a written no/low income certification every 180 days and undergo an interim recertification every 180 days, until they have a stable income. If any increases in income are indicated in any of the above information or other verification, then the family will be reviewed for an interim and the rent will be adjusted accordingly. Monetary or non-monetary contributions from persons not residing in the dwelling unit for any purpose other than the payment or reimbursement of medical expenses shall be considered income. Families that report zero or extremely low income will be required to provide information regarding their means of basic subsistence, such as food, utilities, transportation, etc.

SNRHA Errors

If the SNRHA makes a calculation error at admission to the program or at an annual recertification, an interim recertification will be conducted to correct the error, but the family will not be charged retroactively. Any decrease in rent will be made retroactive.

False or Incomplete Information Supplied by Family

For families whose rent has been based on false or incomplete information supplied by The applicant/resident family, an interim recertification will be conducted upon notice by The SNRHA. Any increase in TTP and tenant rent will be retroactive.

F. TIMELY REPORTING OF CHANGES IN INCOME (AND ASSETS)

Standard for Timely Reporting of Changes

The SNRHA requires that families report interim changes to the SNRHA in writing within ten calendar days of when the change occurs. Any information, document or signature needed from the family which is needed to verify the change must be provided within 3 calendar days of reporting the change.

If the change is not reported within the required time period, or if the family fails to provide signatures, certifications or documentation, (in the time period requested by the SNRHA), it will be considered untimely reporting.

Procedures When the Change is Reported in a Timely Manner

The SNRHA will notify the family of any changes in Tenant Rent to be effective according to the following guidelines:

Increases in the Tenant Rent is effective on the first of the month following at least thirty days' notice.

Decreases in the Tenant Rent are effective the first of the month following the month in which the change is reported.

The change may be implemented based on documentation provided by the family, pending third party written verification.

Procedures when the Change is not Reported by the Tenant in a Timely Manner

If the family does not report the change as described under Timely Reporting, the family will have caused an unreasonable delay in the interim recertification processing and the following guidelines will apply:

Increase in Tenant Rent will be effective retroactive to the date it would have been effective had it been reported on a timely basis. The family will be liable for any underpaid rent, utility reimbursement payment for which they would not have been eligible to receive and may be required to sign a Repayment Agreement in accordance with SNRHA repayment policy.

Decrease in Tenant Rent will be effective on the first of the month following completion of processing by the SNRHA and not retroactively.

Procedures when the Change is not processed by the SNRHA in a Timely Manner

"Processed in a timely manner" means that the change goes into effect on the date it should when the family reports the change in a timely manner. If the change cannot be made effective on that date, the change is not processed by the SNRHA in a timely manner.

Therefore, an increase will be effective after the required 30 days' notice prior to the first of the month after completion of processing by the SNRHA.

If the change resulted in a decrease, the overpayment by the family will be calculated retroactively to the date it should have been effective, and the family will be credited for the amount.

G. REPORTING OF CHANGES IN FAMILY COMPOSITION

All changes in family composition must be reported within 10 business days of the occurrence in writing.

The members of the family residing in the unit must be approved by the SNRHA. The family must inform the SNRHA and request approval of additional family members other than additions due to birth, adoption, or court-awarded custody before the new member occupies the unit.

The proposed new adult family members will be screened by SNRHA, according to the screening criteria in accordance with the criteria for eligibility and admission, prior to approval.

The SNRHA will not approve the addition of family members other than by birth, adoption, marriage or court-awarded custody where the occupancy standards would require a larger size unit.

An exception will be granted if the family has submitted a Self-Certification of Physical Custody of Minor Child/Children or an Appointment of Temporary Guardian to the SNRHA. If either of these forms has been submitted, the SNRHA will also require that the family has initiated legal proceedings for guardianship or legal custody. SNRHA must receive a court awarded guardianship or custody is received within 365 calendar days. Failure shall result in the deduction being removed; and any income still being received shall be counted.

If an adult family member is declared permanently absent by the head of household, the notice must contain a certification by the head or co-head of household or spouse that the member (who may have been the head of household) removed is permanently absent.

The head of household must provide a statement that the head or co-head of household or spouse will notify the SNRHA if the removed member returns to the household for a period longer than the visitor period allowed in the lease.

Increase in Family Size

The SNRHA will consider a unit transfer (if needed under the Occupancy Guidelines) for additions to the family in the following cases:

Addition by marriage/or marital-type relation.

Addition of a minor who is a member of the nuclear family who had been living elsewhere.

Addition of a SNRHA-approved live-in attendant. Addition due to birth, adoption or court-awarded custody.

Families who need a larger sized unit because of voluntary additions identified above will be placed on the Transfer List at their next regularly scheduled recertification; unless it creates a health and safety hazard upon approval of the Director of Operations.

Definition of Temporarily/Permanently Absent

The SNRHA must compute all applicable income of every family member who is on the lease, including those who are temporarily absent.

Income of persons permanently absent will not be counted. If the spouse is temporarily absent and in the military, all military pay and allowances (except hazardous duty pay when exposed to hostile fire and any other exceptions to military pay HUD may define) is counted as income.

It is the responsibility of the head of household to report changes in family composition. The SNRHA will evaluate absences from the unit in accordance with this policy.

Absence of Entire Family

These policy guidelines address situations when the family is absent from the unit, but has not moved out of the unit. In cases where the family has moved out of the unit, the SNRHA will terminate tenancy in accordance with the appropriate lease termination procedures contained in this Policy.

Families are required to notify the SNRHA before they move out of a unit in accordance with the lease and to give the SNRHA information about any family absence from the unit.

Families must notify the SNRHA if they are going to be absent from the unit for more than 14 consecutive days. A person with a disability may request an extension of time as an accommodation.

"Absence" means that no family member is residing in the unit.

In order to determine if the family is absent from the unit, the SNRHA may:

Conduct home visit

Write letters to the family at the unit Post

letters on exterior door Telephone the family at the unit Interview neighbors
Verify if utilities are in service
Check with Post Office for forwarding address
Contact emergency contact

As a reasonable accommodation for a person with a disability, the SNRHA may approve an extension. (See Absence Due to Medical Reasons below for other reasons to approve an extension.) During the period of absence, the rent and other charges must remain current.

If the absence which resulted in termination of tenancy was due to a person's disability, and the SNRHA can verify that the person was unable to notify the SNRHA in accordance with the lease provisions regarding absences, and if a suitable unit is available, the SNRHA may reinstate the family as an accommodation if requested by the family.

If the dwelling unit is deemed abandoned by the tenant, SNRHA shall take possession of the unit and any of the tenant's possessions remaining in the unit, in accordance with the lease. Property abandoned by the tenant may be disposed of by SNRHA in accordance with Nevada State law, NRS 118A and SNRHA procedures.

Absence of Any Member

Any member of the household will be considered permanently absent if s/he is away from the unit for three consecutive months except as otherwise provided in this Chapter.

Absence due to Medical Reasons

If any family member leaves the household to enter a facility such as hospital, nursing home, or rehabilitation center, the SNRHA will seek advice from a reliable qualified source as to the likelihood and timing of their return. If the verification indicates that the family member will be permanently confined to a nursing home, the family member will be considered permanently absent and removed from the lease. If the verification indicates that the family member will return in less than 180 consecutive days, the family member will not be considered permanently absent, as long as rent and other charges remains current.

If the person who is determined to be permanently absent is the sole member of the household, assistance will be terminated in accordance with the SNRHA's "Absence of Entire Family" policy.

Temporary caretaker request must be provided by the resident and verified by a medical provider. The status must be updated every thirty (30) days. The SNRHA will review the request and verified reasons for the caretaker during an extended medical hardship. Approval of the caretaker to occupy the unit for a period beyond 2 weeks will require prior approval by the Asset Manager.

Absence due to Incarceration

If a sole member is incarcerated for more than 30 consecutive days, s/he will be considered permanently absent. Any member of the household, other than the sole member, will be considered permanently absent if s/he is incarcerated for 30 consecutive days. The rent and other charges must remain current during this period.

The SNRHA will determine if the reason for incarceration is for drug-related or criminal activity which would threaten the health, safety and right to peaceful enjoyment of the dwelling unit by other residents. If the offense is drug related or criminal activity that violates the lease and policy, the lease will be terminated.

Foster Care and Absences of Children

If the family includes a child or children temporarily absent from the home due to placement in foster care, the SNRHA will determine from the appropriate agency when the child/children will be returned to the home.

If the time period is to be greater than 3 months 180 days from the date of removal of the child(ren), the family will be required to move to a smaller size unit. If all children are removed from the home permanently, the unit size will be reduced in accordance with the SNRHA's occupancy guidelines.

Absence of Adult

If neither parent remains in the household and the SNRHA and the appropriate agency has determined that another adult is to be brought into the assisted unit to care for the children for an indefinite period, the SNRHA will treat that adult as a visitor for the first 30 calendar days.

If the appropriate agency cannot confirm the guardianship status of the caretaker, the SNRHA will review the status at 30 calendar day intervals.

If the court has not awarded custody or legal guardianship, but the action is in process, SNRHA will secure verification from social services staff or the attorney as to the status. If by the end of that period, court-awarded custody or legal guardianship has been awarded to the guardian, and the guardian qualifies under Tenant Suitability criteria, the lease will be transferred to the guardian.

The caretaker will be allowed to remain in the unit, as a visitor, until a determination of custody is made.

SNRHA will transfer the lease to the guardian, in the absence of a court order, if the guardian qualifies under the Tenant Suitability criteria and has been in the unit for more than 30 days and it is reasonable to expect that custody will be granted.

When the SNRHA approves a person to reside in the unit as caretaker for the child/ren, the income should count pending a final disposition. The SNRHA will work with the appropriate service agencies to provide a smooth transition in these cases.

If a member of the household is subject to a court order that restricts him/her from the home for more than 180 days, the person will be considered permanently absent.

If an adult child goes into the military and leaves the household, they will be considered permanently absent.

Absence of Spouse or Secondary Wage earner

The absence of the spouse or secondary wage earner must be verified by third-party documentation unless so verified per 24CFR 5.609(2) all income must be included.

Full-Time Students

Full time students who attend school away from the home will be treated in the following manner:

A student (other than head of household or spouse) who attends school away from home but lives with the family during school recesses may, at the family's choice, be considered either temporarily or permanently absent. If the family decides that the member is permanently absent, income of that member will not be included in total household income, the member will not be included on the lease, and the member will not be included for determination of unit size.

If the student is considered temporarily absent from the household, applicable income for that person will be counted. Full time students who attend school away from the home and live with the family during school recess will be considered temporarily absent from the household.

Visitors (See Chapter 9, Leasing)

A visitor/guest is defined as a person temporarily staying in the unit with the consent of a tenant or other member of the household who has express or implied authority to so consent on behalf of the tenant.

Any adult not included on the HUD 50058 who has been in the unit more than 14 consecutive days, or more than 30 cumulative days in a 12 month period, will be considered to be living in the unit as an unauthorized.

The lease must provide the tenant has the right to exclusive use and occupancy of the leased unit by the members of the household authorized to reside in the unit in accordance with the lease, including reasonable accommodation of their guests [24 CFR 966.4(d)]. The head of household is responsible for the conduct of visitors and guests, inside the unit as well as anywhere on or near PHA premises [24 CFR 966.4(f)].

A resident family must notify the SNRHA in writing when overnight guests will be staying in the unit for more than 3 days.

A guest can remain in the unit no longer than 14 consecutive days or a total of 30 cumulative calendar days during any 12-month period.

A family may request an exception to this policy for valid reasons (e.g., care of a relative recovering from a medical procedure expected to last 20 consecutive days). An exception will not be made unless the family can identify and provide documentation of the residence to which the guest will return.

Former residents who have been evicted are not permitted as overnight guests. Guests who represent the unit address as their residence address for receipt of benefits or other purposes will be considered unauthorized. In addition, guests who remain in the unit beyond the allowable time limit will be considered unauthorized, and their presence constitutes violation of the lease.

Absence of evidence of any other address will be considered verification that the visitor is an unauthorized household member.

Statements from neighbors and/or SNRHA staff will be considered in making the determination.

The SNRHA will consider:

- Statements from neighbors and/or SNRHA staff

- Vehicle license plate verification

- Post Office records

- Driver's license verification

- Law enforcement reports

- Credit reports

- Verification from other public or private sources

- Other reliable information

Use of the unit address as the visitor's current residence for any purpose that is not explicitly temporary shall be construed as permanent residence.

The burden of proof that the individual is a visitor rests on the family. In the absence of such proof, as stated above, the individual will be considered unauthorized and the SNRHA will terminate the family's lease since prior approval was not requested for the addition.

Minors and college students who were part of the family, but who now live away from home during the school year and are not considered members of the household may visit for up to 90 consecutive days per year without being considered a member of the household under the following conditions:

- The head of household has reported to the SNRHA, in writing, that the minor is a visitor.

- The SNRHA has provided the head of household with written permission for the minor to occupy the unit for more than 14 days.

In a joint custody arrangement, if the minor is in the household less than 184 days per year, the minor will be considered to be an eligible visitor and not a family member. If both parents reside in Public Housing or are a Section 8 Program participant, only one parent would be able to claim the child for deductions and for determination for the occupancy standards.

Children who are subject to a joint custody arrangement or for whom a family has visitation privileges, that are not included as a family member because they live outside of the public housing unit more than 50 percent of the time, are not subject to the time limitations of guests as described above.

Required Family Reporting to Management

The additional person(s), whether a family member or a visitor, must be reported in writing to the manager within 3 calendar days of a stay intended to exceed the visitation period allowed under the lease/ACOP.

H. REMAINING MEMBER OF TENANT FAMILY - RETENTION OF UNIT

To be considered the remaining member of the tenant family, the person must have been previously approved by the SNRHA to be living in the unit.

A live-in attendant, by definition, is not a member of the family and will not be considered a remaining member of the Family.

In order for a minor child to continue to receive assistance as a remaining family member:

The court has to have awarded emancipated minor status to the minor or is legally married; or

The SNRHA has to have verified that social services and/or the Juvenile Court has arranged for another adult to be brought into the unit to care for the child(ren) for an indefinite period.

A reduction in family size may require a transfer to an appropriate unit size per the Occupancy Standards. If the sole eligible member of the household dies, the unit must be returned to the SNRHA within 14 days.

I. CHANGES IN UNIT SIZE

The SNRHA shall grant exceptions from the occupancy standards if the family requests and the SNRHA determines the exceptions are justified according to this policy.

The SNRHA will not assign a larger bedroom size due to additions of family members other than by birth, adoption, marriage or court-awarded custody.

The SNRHA will consider the size of the unit and the size of the bedrooms, as well as the number of bedrooms, when an exception is requested.

When an approvable change in the circumstances in a tenant family requires another unit size, the family will be placed on the Transfer List in accordance with the Transfer policy. (See Chapter 5, Occupancy Guidelines.)

J. CONTINUANCE OF ASSISTANCE FOR "MIXED" FAMILIES

Under the Noncitizens Rule, "Mixed" families are families that include at least one citizen or eligible immigrant and any number of ineligible members. Mixed families are eligible for prorated assistance in accordance with the mixed-family portion of the policy.

K. UNIT TRANSFERS

See Chapter 8, Transfer Policy.

Chapter 14

COMMUNITY SERVICE

[24 CFR 960.603-960.611]

A. REQUIREMENT

Each adult resident of the SNRHA shall:

Contribute 8 hours per month of community service (not including political activities) within the community in which that adult resides; or

Participate in an economic self-sufficiency program (defined below) for 8 hours per month.

An individual may not skip a month and then double up the following month, unless special circumstances warrant it. The Director of Operations or designee will make the determination of whether to permit a deviation from the schedule.

Individuals who have special circumstances which they believe will prevent them from completing the required community service hours for a given month, must notify SNRHA in writing immediately. SNRHA will review the request and notify the individual, in writing, of its determination within 10 calendar days. SNRHA may require those individuals to provide documentation to support their claim.

B. EXEMPTIONS

The SNRHA shall provide an exemption from the community service requirement for any individual who:

Is a family that is currently participating and is in compliance with the Public Housing Family Self-Sufficiency Program. Is 62

years of age or older;

Is a blind or disabled individual, as defined under section 216[i] [I] or 1614 of the Social Security Act, and who is unable to comply with this section, or is a primary caretaker of such individual;

Is engaged in a work activity as defined in section 407[d] of the Social Security Act; SNRHA will consider 20 hours per week as the minimum number of hours needed to qualify for a work activity exemption;

Meets the requirements for being exempted from having to engage in a work activity under the State program funded under part A of title IV of the Social Security Act, or under any other welfare program of the State in which the public housing agency is located, including a State-administered welfare-to-work program; or

Is in a family receiving assistance under a State program funded under part A of title IV of the Social Security Act, or under any other welfare program of the State in which the public housing agency is located, including a State-administered welfare-to-work program, and has not been found by the State or other administering entity to be in noncompliance with such program. HUD has determined that the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) qualifies as a welfare program of the state. Therefore if a tenant is a member of a family receiving assistance under SNAP, and has been found by the administering State to be in compliance with the program requirements, that tenant is exempt from the CSSR. (PIH-2015-12 HA)

The SNRHA will re-verify exemption status annually except in the case of an individual who is 62 years of age or older.

The SNRHA will permit residents to change exemption status during the year if status changes.

C. DEFINITION OF ECONOMIC SELF-SUFFICIENCY PROGRAM

For purposes of satisfying the community service requirement, participating in an economic self-sufficiency program is defined, in addition to the exemption definitions described above, by one of the following:

Participating in the Family Self-Sufficiency Program and being current in the steps outlined in the Individual Training and Services Plan;

Participating in an educational or vocational training program designed to lead to employment, as long as their educational activities total at least 96 hours per year. A student would not need to be enrolled full time to be in compliance with the CSSR.

Activities administered through Help of Southern Nevada (HELP).

D. ANNUAL DETERMINATIONS

Requirement – For each public housing resident subject to the requirement of community service, the SNRHA shall, 90 days before the expiration of each lease term or effective date of recertification, review and determine the compliance of the resident with the community service requirement.

Such determination shall be made in accordance with the principles of due process and on a nondiscriminatory basis.

If SNRHA has reasonable cause to believe that the certification provided by the family is false or fraudulent, SNRHA has the right to require third-party verification.

E. NONCOMPLIANCE

If the SNRHA determines there is a family member who is subject to the community service requirement and has not complied with the requirement, the SNRHA shall notify the resident of such noncompliance, and that:

The determination of noncompliance is subject to the administrative grievance procedure under the SNRHA's Grievance Procedures; and

Unless the resident enters into an agreement to comply with the community service requirement, the resident's lease will not be renewed, and

The SNRHA may not renew or extend the resident's lease upon expiration of the lease term and shall take such action as is necessary to terminate the tenancy of the household, unless the SNRHA enters into an agreement, before the expiration of the lease term, with the resident providing for the resident to cure any noncompliance with the community service requirement, by participating in an economic self-sufficiency program for or contributing to community service as many additional hours as the resident needs to comply in the aggregate with such requirement over the 12-month term of the lease.

If, after the 12 month cure period, the family member is still not compliant, SNRHA must terminate tenancy of the entire family, according to SNRHA's lease, unless the family provides documentation that the non-compliant family member no longer resides in the unit.

If the family reports that a non-compliant family member is no longer residing in the unit, the family must provide documentation that the family member has actually vacated the unit before SNRHA will agree to continued occupancy of the family. Documentation must consist of a certification signed by the head of household as well as evidence of the current address of the non-compliant family member that previously resided with them.

If the family does not request a grievance hearing, or provide such documentation within the required 10 calendar day timeframe, the family's lease and tenancy will automatically terminate at the end of the current lease term without further notice.

Ineligibility for Occupancy for Noncompliance

The SNRHA shall not renew or extend any lease, or provide any new lease, for a dwelling unit for any household that includes an adult member who was subject to the community service requirement and failed to comply with the requirement.

F. SNRHA RESPONSIBILITY

The SNRHA will ensure that all community service programs are accessible for persons with disabilities.

The SNRHA will ensure that:

The conditions under which the work is to be performed are not hazardous;

The work is not labor that would be performed by the SNRHA's employees responsible for essential maintenance and property services; or

The work is not otherwise unacceptable.

G. SNRHA IMPLEMENTATION OF COMMUNITY SERVICE REQUIREMENT

SNRHA will provide the family with a copy of the Community Service Policy found in Exhibit 14-1 of this chapter, at lease-up, lease renewal, when a family member is determined to be subject to the community service requirement during the lease term, and at any time upon the family's request.

H. ELIGIBLE COMMUNITY SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

All community service performed will be verified by acceptable third part verification and may include:

Community Service with a Certified Resident Council, on site resident Service contractor.

Volunteering in community activities, such as clean up, graffiti removal, painting, neighborhood reduction of criminal activity such as resident patrol and neighborhood watch programs.

Community service with faith based organizations

Any other community service organization that is pre-approved by SNRHA

Public educational facility.

B1f

Homeownership

- (i) SNRHA currently administer a homeownership program under an approved section 5(h) homeownership program [42 U.S.C. 1437c (h)]. SNRHA properties under this program are as follows:

SNRHA has outlined in the most recent FSS Action Plan steps to achieve at least the minimum program size.

C. Welfare Benefit Reductions

- (i) SNRHA is complying with the statutory requirements of section 12(d) of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 (relating to the treatment of income changes resulting from welfare program requirements) by:
- Adopting appropriate changes to the PHA's public housing rent determination policies and train staff to carry out those policies
  - Actively notifying residents of new policy at times in addition to admission and reexamination.
  - Establishing or pursuing a cooperative agreement with all appropriate TANF agencies regarding the exchange of information and coordination of services

Safety and Crime Prevention

A. Need for measures to ensure the safety of public housing residents

- (i) The SNRHA has the need for measures to ensure the safety of public housing residents for the following reasons:
  - a. High incidence of violent and/or drug-related crime in some or all of the PHA's developments
  - b. People on waiting list unwilling to move into one or more developments due to perceived and/or actual levels of violent and/or drug-related crime
- (ii) The PHA used the following information to determine the need for actions to improve safety of residents:
  - Analysis of crime statistics over time for crimes committed “in and around” public housing authority
  - Resident reports
  - Police reports
  - Daily Activity Reports provided by contracted on site security
- (iii) The following developments are most affected:
Sherman Gardens, Villa Capri, Sherman Gardens Annex, Marble Manor, Vera Johnson ‘B’ and Biegger Estates.

B. Crime and Drug Prevention activities the PHA has undertaken or plans to undertake in the next PHA fiscal year

- (i) The SNRHA has undertaken or plans to undertake the following crime prevention activities:
  - Contracting with outside and/or resident organizations for the provision of crime-and/or drug-prevention activities
  - Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design
  - Activities targeted to at-risk youth, adults, or seniors
  - Volunteer Resident Patrol/Block Watchers Program
  - Coordination efforts with other multi-family complexes to share information regarding evicted tenants
  - Safe Village Initiative at Sherman Garden Annex
  - Certification of staff in the Crime Free Communities protocol
- (ii) The following developments are most affected:
Sherman Gardens, Villa Capri, Sherman Gardens Annex, Marble Manor, Vera Johnson ‘B’ and Biegger Estates

C. Coordination between PHA and the police

- (i) The SNRHA have the following coordination efforts between and the appropriate police precincts for carrying out crime prevention measures and activities:
  - Police provide crime data to housing authority staff for analysis and action
  - Police regularly testify in and otherwise support eviction cases
  - Police regularly meet with the PHA management and residents
- (ii) The following developments are most affected: (list below)
Sherman Gardens, Villa Capri, Sherman Gardens Annex, Marble Manor, Vera Johnson ‘B’ and Biegger Estates.

Pet Policy

The SNRHA has implemented a policy regarding the ownership of pets in the public housing developments. The policy outlines deposits, acceptable size and weight and number of pets per household. The policy also provides for those residents who have animals as a result of a Reasonable Accommodations based on handicap or disability.

Asset Management

SNRHA is engaging in activities that will contribute to the long-term asset management of its public housing stock, including planning for long-term operating, capital investment, rehabilitation, modernization, disposition, and other needs. Examples of these activities include:

- Development-based accounting
- Generally maintenance activities are decentralized

B 1h

Substantial Deviation - Significant Amendment/Modification

SUBSTANTIAL DEVIATION” AND SIGNIFICANT AMENDMENT OR MODIFICATION

The Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) at 24 CFR Part 903, Section 7, Public Housing Agency Plan; Final Rule issued on October 21, 1999 is very specific with respect to the information a PHA must provide in its Annual Plan. Part 903 Section 7 I (2) states that a PHA must identify the basic criteria the PHA will use for determining:

- a. A substantial deviation from its Five-Year Plan; and
- b. A significant amendment or modification to its Five-Year Plan and Annual Plan.

Notice PIH 99-51 states that PHAs must define the terms “Substantial Deviation” and “Significant Amendment or Modification” by stating the basic criteria for such definitions in an annual plan that has met full public process and Resident Advisory Board Review.

The Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority considers the following actions to be Significant Amendments or Modifications:

1. Significant changes to rent or admissions policies or organization of the waiting list with the exception of Federally declared disasters.
2. Additions of non-emergency work items (items not included in the current Annual Statement, Five-Year Action Plan, or Physical Needs Assessment) or change in use of replacement reserve funds under the Capital Fund;
3. Any change with regard to demolition or disposition, designation, Homeownership program or conversion activities.

Furthermore, the Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority considers the following actions to be excluded from Significant Amendment or Modifications:

1. The decision to convert to either Project Based Rental Assistance (PBRA) or Project Based Voucher (PBV) Assistance.
  - a. Changes to the Capital Fund Budget produced as a result of each approved RAD Conversion, regardless of whether the proposed conversion will include use of additional Capital Funds
  - b. Changes to the construction and rehabilitation plan for each approved RAD conversion; and
  - c. Changes to the financing structure for each approved RAD conversion.

Any substantial deviation from the Mission Statement and/or Goals and Objectives presented in the Five-Year Plan that cause changes in the services provided to residents or significant changes to the Agency’s financial situation will be documented in subsequent Agency Plans.

An exception to this definition will be made for any of the above that are adopted to reflect changes in Federal Law or HUD regulatory requirements; such changes will not be considered significant amendments.

Hope VI or Choice Neighborhoods (CNI)

SNRHA has not received a HOPE VI revitalization grant however; our agency is planning to apply for a HOPE VI Revitalization or CNI grant in the Plan year for the following:

- Ernie Cragin Terrace AMP 305 (NV 209 - vacant lot)
- Ernie Cragin Terrace AMP 305 (NV 210 - vacant lot)
- Ernie Cragin Terrace AMP 305 (NV 213 - vacant lot)
- Sherman Gardens Annex AMP 408 (NV206a)
- Sherman Gardens AMP 408 (NV214)
- Villa Capri AMP 408 (NV 215)
- Rose Gardens AMP 403 (NV 703) (Received a CNI Planning Grant in 2015)

Mixed Finance Modernization or Development

Please refer to the following Demolition and/or Disposition Section for proposed SNRHA's Mixed Finance or Development Plans.

Demolition and/or Disposition

As a result of the Authority’s extensive redevelopment activities, several of the Authority’s family developments are included as considerations for demolition and/or disposition. It is not expected that all developments be demolished or disposed of, however, revitalization efforts continue to increase and any of all remaining family developments may be considered during the fiscal year. The SNRHA is considering all Public Housing Properties for Demolition or Disposition through Mixed Finance or Conversion under the Rental Assistance Demonstration Program. Landsman Gardens – NV018013003 has been disposed as part of the Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) Program process. Vera Johnson B – NV018002411 to be disposed as part of the Mixed Finance process and after construction completion will convert under RAD Program process. Biegger Estates – NV018013406 and Rose Gardens – NV018007403 to be disposed as part of the RAD Program Conversion. Vera Johnson Manor “A” - NV018002406 to be disposed as part of the Mixed Finance process.

SNRHA has submitted or will be submitting Demolition/Disposition application for the following public housing properties:

This amendment to the plan was reviewed By HUD in accordance with the requirements of Section 7 of the United States Housing Act of 1937. Based on the information available to HUD the plan was approved on January 8, 2014. This plan will be in effect for 5 years from the date of the original approval of May 20, 2011, with an expiration of May 17, 2016. Prior to the expiration, on May 11, 2016, SNRHA submitted a request to extend the designation for an additional 2-year increment.

The Authority may proceed with the designation of Arthur Sartini Annex (a portion of AMP402, consisting of 39 units) as well as Schaffer Heights (a portion of AMP404, consisting of 75 units) as elderly only.

Conversion of Public Housing (RAD)

RENTAL ASSISTANCE DEMONSTRATION (RAD) PROGRAM

Under an innovative new program called Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD), the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is allowing housing authorities to rehabilitate and preserve their aging public housing developments using a variety of public and private affordable housing resources, including tax-exempt bonds supported by project-based rental assistance, Federal Low-Income Housing Tax Credits and Public Housing Capital Funds (CFP) including Replacement Housing Factor (RHF) Funds.

The SNRHA continues with its efforts to convert more public housing assistance under the RAD Program. The SNRHA currently is not under a voluntary compliance agreement, consent order or consent decree or final judicial ruling or administrative ruling or decision therefore; there is no negative impact by the conversion activities. Additionally SNRHA certifies that all RAD conversions complies and will continue to comply with all applicable site selection and neighborhood reviews standards and all appropriate procedures have been and will continue to be followed.

Below, please find a table listing out each of the provisions affecting residents’ rights and participation, waiting list and grievance procedures. The table lists out the provisions applicable to the type of conversion (PBV or PBRA) that the PHA is proposing. This list is not a substitute for providing a copy of the relevant tenant protections listed below.

SNRHA RAD Conversion Status is as follows:

Project Description

Vera Johnson Manor “B” (AMP 410)
503 North Lamb Blvd. Las Vegas, NV 89110
APN# 140-31-501-017 (9.46 acres)

The SNRHA submitted on 12/2013 a RAD application for Vera Johnson Manor B (AMP 314) anticipating a Conditional Housing Assistance Payment (CHAP) agreement issuance by January 2014. As of March 2015 the CHAP agreement has not been issued for the Project; even though Congress lifted the unit cap of 60,000 to 185,000 units under the RAD Program. The SNRHA submitted in FY 2014 a HOME application and a 9% Tax Credit Application for the Rehabilitation of all 112 units at this site. On April 2014 the City of Las Vegas awarded $1 million in HOME Funds to Vera Johnson Manor B and in July 2014 the Nevada Housing Division issued a 2014 Reservation Letter for $1 million annually in 9% Low Income Housing Tax Credits (LIHTC) for Vera Johnson Manor B. In an effort to preserve the HOME Funds and Tax Credit Allocations, the SNRHA proceeded with a Mixed Finance Proposal as an Interim Plan for closing early April 2015. As part of this process SNRHA completed a Section 18 disposition resulting in a reduction of eight (8) public housing units to be set-aside for HOME restricted units for a new total of 104 public housing units. The SNRHA plans to submit the RAD conversion after receiving the CHAP and immediately after the construction and lease-up is complete at Vera Johnson B.

On April 3, 2015-the SHNRA received approval from HUD for the conversion of assistance of 112 public housing units at Development No. NV018002022b, Vera Johnson Manor B (AMP 410). The SNRHA will be submitting a revision to the RAD team to reflect the new total of 104 Public Housing Units for conversion of assistance to Project Based Voucher (PBV) under RAD.

SNRHA will work with HUD to forward needed items to meet any required RAD milestones. However, SNRHA currently does not anticipate converting Vera Johnson Manor B to RAD until construction completion to simplify the conversion.

Vera Johnson Manor “B” entails the acquisition / rehabilitation of an existing 112-unit [104 Public Housing plus 8 HOME restricted units] low-income family development located in Las Vegas, NV. The property was constructed in 1984 under the Federal Low-Income Public Housing program and is owned and operated by the Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority (SNRHA).

The goals of the rehabilitation include:

- To bring the units up to modern standards including new plumbing, wiring, cabinets, countertops, sinks, tubs and vanities, painting, flooring and appliances;

Conversion of Public Housing (RAD)

- To meet and/or exceed energy conservation requirements as detailed in Section 14 of the 2014 Nevada Housing Division Qualified Allocation Plan, and to lower future utility costs for the tenants and the owner; this will include new vinyl dual-pane windows, new exterior doors, additional furring, insulation and duct work, and the addition of gas-fired tankless hot water heaters;
- To increase site security and “defensible space” through landscaping, improved site lighting and security cameras;
- To reduce water consumption through the replacement of some lawn areas with low-maintenance rock and desert landscaping and the addition of low-flow faucets and commodes; and,
- To address remaining site accessibility deficiencies as identified in the physical needs assessment and annual property accessibility audits.

Vera Johnson Manor B opened in 1984 as the 18th family housing development of the former Las Vegas Housing Authority. The site is named in honor of Vera Johnson, former Supervisor Occupancy Specialist at the San Francisco Area of the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

The development consists of 15 one and two-story wood and block-frame buildings on a 9.46-acre site. The unit mix, in 15 residential buildings, is as follows:

| No. of Units | Public Housing | HOME Restricted | Type                 | SF                |
|--------------|----------------|-----------------|----------------------|-------------------|
| 96           | 91             | 5               | 2 Bedroom/1 Bathroom | 1,073 SF          |
| 16           | 13             | 3               | 3 Bedroom/1 Bathroom | 1,213 SF          |
| 112   | 104     | 8        |                      | 122,416 SF |

There are no changes to the number of units or the bedroom distribution of the units proposed as part of the conversion.

The units are arranged in buildings of 5 to 9 units along a series of parking lots entered by way of North Lamb Boulevard. The property contains 138 parking spaces plus 6 parking spaces for disabled persons.

As part of the redevelopment, SNRHA plans to add a community center and work with the Clark County School District and Communities in Schools Nevada to expand its successful Project REACH program to the Learning Center on the Vera Johnson Manor B site. (See below.)

Conversion of Public Housing (RAD)

Vera Johnson Manor B will be owned by a new sole purpose entity, Vera Johnson Family, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company. The 0.01% Managing Member of the LLC will be Vera Johnson Family Manager, LLC, also a Nevada limited liability company. Affordable Housing Programs, Inc. (AHP, Inc.), the non-profit instrumentality of SNRHA, will be the sole manager of the Manager LLC. SNRHA and AHP, Inc. will act as co-developer to the ownership LLC.

Project Financing

The project financing for Vera Johnson Manor B includes 9% Low Income Housing Tax Credits issued through the Nevada Housing Division and HOME Funds from City of Las Vegas.

Under an innovative new program called Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD), the HUD is allowing housing authorities to convert public housing into subsidized housing with a project-based rental assistance contract. The rental assistance contract—15 years with an option to renew for another 15 years under the Project-Based Voucher approach—will allow SNRHA to borrow funds to cover a portion of the redevelopment effort. The RAD contract rent will be the lesser of 110% of Fair Market Rent less Utility Allowance or $710 per unit per month.

SNRHA submitted its application for RAD financing to HUD in mid-December 2013.

Landsman Gardens (AMP 317)
750 Major Street, Henderson, NV 89015
APN# 179-17-503-001 and 003 (11.11 acres)

RAD Conversion Update: Under the Rental Assistance Demonstration the SNRHA converted in 2014 Landsman Gardens a 100-unit family public housing development in the Valley View neighborhood of Henderson, Nevada to Project Based Section 8. Landsman Gardens is the first FHA-financed project in the nation to close under the Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) program. Construction was completed December 2014 and units are anticipated to be 100% lease-up March 2015.

Financing for Landsman Gardens includes tax-exempt bonds issued by the Nevada Housing Division and insured under the FHA 221(d)(4) mortgage guarantee program, equity from the sale of 4% Low Income Housing Tax Credits to PNC Real Estate, short-term tax-exempt bonds for construction from Citi Community Capital, public housing capital funds and operating reserves from the SNRHA, HUD HOME funds from the City of Henderson, Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco Affordable Housing Program (AHP) funds, sponsored by City National Bank and grant funds from Wells Fargo Housing Foundation.

The property renovations included comprehensive modernization of all the units, site upgrades and included upgrading the site and the on-site Administrative Building and Learning Center where the SNRHA and local service organizations will provide a variety of programs to residents such as after-school activities for youth, financial literacy, and resource referrals to nutrition and wellness programs.

Landsman Gardens is an important housing asset for the Las Vegas Valley that includes a complement of scarce two-, three-, four-, and five-bedroom units, serving large families. Through the RAD program, the development will be preserved in the long term for a new generation of families in need of decent, safe and affordable housing.

| (If Performing a Transfer of Assistance) | The property proposed for the transfer of assistance is across the street from Rose Gardens, [former Casa Rosa Public Housing site demolished in July 2010 as approved by HUD and SAC]. This property is also a part of the existing Rose Gardens AMP. The existing units are extremely small 370SF-530SF and very difficult to lease. The proposed units will be more spacious ranging from 600SF-775SF with more amenities. Units will be more attractive and more marketable. It is proposed to relocate the tenants once the construction of the new building is complete at the new location and then demolish the existing Rose Gardens structures. Therefore; the SNRHA is not anticipating any changes in the policies that govern eligibility, admission, selection and occupancy of units at the project after it has been converted. |

Occupancy by Over-Income Families

At this time SNRHA does not admit families who are over income at time of initial lease up. SNRHA is reviewing the impact of Over-Income Families (if any) on its Public Housing Program and will formulate a Policy (if needed) in compliance with Notice PIH 2011-7 and 24 CFR960.503 and 24CFR 903-7(b) to address this issue.

Occupancy by Police Officers

In order to provide an increased sense of security for public housing residents, the SNRHA may allow public housing units to be occupied by police officers.

Police officers will not be required to be income eligible to qualify for admission to the SNRHA's public housing program.

Non-Smoking Policies

N. SMOKE FREE HOUSING

In order to provide a healthier environment for our residents, the Board of Commissioners has adopted a Smoke Free Housing Policy. The purpose of this policy is to provide a healthier environment for our residents and eliminate the harmful effects of secondhand smoke, fire danger and damage to apartments due to smoke. Secondhand smoke is particularly dangerous to children and people with respiratory disease. It is the third leading cause of preventable death in the United States. In 2006, the US Surgeon General stated that there is no safe level of second hand smoke.

Definition of Smoke/Smoking:

The term “smoke” and “smoking” means inhaling, exhaling, breathing or carrying any lighted cigar, cigarette or other tobacco product on similar lighted product in any manner or in any form.

Smoke-Free Apartments:

The premises listed below have been designated as smoke-free living environments:

- Lubertha Johnson Senior Development

With 45 days written notice and a signed lease addendum for all current residents, future properties may be designated smoke free at the discretion of SNRHA.

Residents, staff and guests are prohibited from smoking on these properties owned and managed by SNRHA, including the apartment rented by the resident, the building in which the dwelling unit is located, and all common areas inside and outside the building up to 15 feet from each building and 50 feet from the buildings entry.

The Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority Not a Guarantor of Smoke-Free Environment

The adoption of a smoke free living environment and the efforts to designate a property as smoke-free does not make SNRHA a guarantor of resident’s health or of the smoke free condition of the resident’s apartment and common areas. However, SNRHA shall take reasonable steps to enforce the smoke-free terms of its leases and to make the property smoke-free. SNRHA will post smoke free properties with “No Smoking” signs inside and outside the buildings and may, at its sole option, consider designating smoking areas at any or all of the properties.

Smoking on the Property as a Lease Violation

If a resident smells tobacco smoke anywhere in the building, they should report this to the office as soon as possible. Management will seek the source of the smoke and take appropriate action. A resident will be in violation of his/her lease if the resident or any guest is determined to be smoking on SNRHA property. Three (3) violations of SNRHA’s Smoke Free Policy may result in eviction. All applicants/residents acknowledge receipt of this Policy and Smoke-Free Lease Addendum in writing at the time of application and/or next rent recertification.

Project-Based Vouchers

SNRHA shall use project-based vouchers as required to leverage funds to expand affordable housing. SNRHA shall not utilize more than 50 vouchers as they become available for this purpose.

- Identify method to leverage funding resources; including using up to the allowable 20% of HCV tenant based vouchers, for project based, starting in 2014 or as they become available. SNRHA may Project Base up to 20% of its Vouchers. The general locations for future projects will be outside of areas of high concentration of poverty and as defined in the applicable RFP. Future decisions will be in compliance with this. Project Basing will be consistent with the Agencies efforts and the community to increase affordable housing resources.
- SNRHA will identify certain public housing and affordable housing sites/units for project-based assistance

PHA Certifications of Compliance with the PHA Plans and Related Regulations: Board Resolution to Accompany the PHA 5-Year and Annual PHA Plan

Acting on behalf of the Board of Commissioners of the Public Housing Agency (PHA) listed below, as its Chairman or other authorized PHA official if there is no Board of Commissioners, I approve the submission of the  5-Year and/or  Annual PHA Plan for the PHA fiscal year beginning 10/1/2016, hereinafter referred to as "the Plan", of which this document is a part and make the following certifications and agreements with the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) in connection with the submission of the Plan and implementation thereof:

1. The Plan is consistent with the applicable comprehensive housing affordability strategy (or any plan incorporating such strategy) for the jurisdiction in which the PHA is located.
2. The Plan contains a certification by the appropriate State or local officials that the Plan is consistent with the applicable Consolidated Plan, which includes a certification that requires the preparation of an Analysis of Impediments to Fair Housing Choice, for the PHA's jurisdiction and a description of the manner in which the PHA Plan is consistent with the applicable Consolidated Plan.
3. The PHA certifies that there has been no change, significant or otherwise, to the Capital Fund Program (and Capital Fund Program/Replacement Housing Factor) Annual Statement(s), since submission of its last approved Annual Plan. The Capital Fund Program Annual Statement/Annual Statement/Performance and Evaluation Report must be submitted annually even if there is no change.
4. The PHA has established a Resident Advisory Board or Boards, the membership of which represents the residents assisted by the PHA, consulted with this Board or Boards in developing the Plan, and considered the recommendations of the Board or Boards (24 CFR 903.13). The PHA has included in the Plan submission a copy of the recommendations made by the Resident Advisory Board or Boards and a description of the manner in which the Plan addresses these recommendations.
5. The PHA made the proposed Plan and all information relevant to the public hearing available for public inspection at least 45 days before the hearing, published a notice that a hearing would be held and conducted a hearing to discuss the Plan and invited public comment.
6. The PHA certifies that it will carry out the Plan in conformity with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Fair Housing Act, section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.
7. The PHA will affirmatively further fair housing by examining their programs or proposed programs, identify any impediments to fair housing choice within those programs, address those impediments in a reasonable fashion in view of the resources available and work with local jurisdictions to implement any of the jurisdiction's initiatives to affirmatively further fair housing that require the PHA's involvement and maintain records reflecting these analyses and actions.
8. For PHA Plan that includes a policy for site based waiting lists:
  - The PHA regularly submits required data to HUD's 50058 PIC/IMS Module in an accurate, complete and timely manner (as specified in PIH Notice 2006-24);
  - The system of site-based waiting lists provides for full disclosure to each applicant in the selection of the development in which to reside, including basic information about available sites; and an estimate of the period of time the applicant would likely have to wait to be admitted to units of different sizes and types at each site;
  - Adoption of site-based waiting list would not violate any court order or settlement agreement or be inconsistent with a pending complaint brought by HUD;
  - The PHA shall take reasonable measures to assure that such waiting list is consistent with affirmatively furthering fair housing;
  - The PHA provides for review of its site-based waiting list policy to determine if it is consistent with civil rights laws and certifications, as specified in 24 CFR part 903.7(c)(1).
9. The PHA will comply with the prohibitions against discrimination on the basis of age pursuant to the Age Discrimination Act of 1975.
10. The PHA will comply with the Architectural Barriers Act of 1968 and 24 CFR Part 41, Policies and Procedures for the Enforcement of Standards and Requirements for Accessibility by the Physically Handicapped.
11. The PHA will comply with the requirements of section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968, Employment Opportunities for Low-or Very-Low Income Persons, and with its implementing regulation at 24 CFR Part 135.

12. The PHA will comply with acquisition and relocation requirements of the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970 and implementing regulations at 49 CFR Part 24 as applicable.
13. The PHA will take appropriate affirmative action to award contracts to minority and women's business enterprises under 24 CFR 5.105(a).
14. The PHA will provide the responsible entity or HUD any documentation that the responsible entity or HUD needs to carry out its review under the National Environmental Policy Act and other related authorities in accordance with 24 CFR Part 58 or Part 50, respectively.
15. With respect to public housing the PHA will comply with Davis-Bacon or HUD determined wage rate requirements under Section 12 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 and the Contract Work Hours and Safety Standards Act.
16. The PHA will keep records in accordance with 24 CFR 85.20 and facilitate an effective audit to determine compliance with program requirements.
17. The PHA will comply with the Lead-Based Paint Poisoning Prevention Act, the Residential Lead-Based Paint Hazard Reduction Act of 1992, and 24 CFR Part 35.
18. The PHA will comply with the policies, guidelines, and requirements of OMB Circular No. A-87 (Cost Principles for State, Local and Indian Tribal Governments), 2 CFR Part 225, and 24 CFR Part 85 (Administrative Requirements for Grants and Cooperative Agreements to State, Local and Federally Recognized Indian Tribal Governments).
19. The PHA will undertake only activities and programs covered by the Plan in a manner consistent with its Plan and will utilize covered grant funds only for activities that are approvable under the regulations and included in its Plan.
20. All attachments to the Plan have been and will continue to be available at all times and all locations that the PHA Plan is available for public inspection. All required supporting documents have been made available for public inspection along with the Plan and additional requirements at the primary business office of the PHA and at all other times and locations identified by the PHA in its PHA Plan and will continue to be made available at least at the primary business office of the PHA.
21. The PHA provides assurance as part of this certification that:
  - (i) The Resident Advisory Board had an opportunity to review and comment on the changes to the policies and programs before implementation by the PHA;
  - (ii) The changes were duly approved by the PHA Board of Directors (or similar governing body); and
  - (iii) The revised policies and programs are available for review and inspection, at the principal office of the PHA during normal business hours.
22. The PHA certifies that it is in compliance with all applicable Federal statutory and regulatory requirements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Commissioners
Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority
Las Vegas, Nevada

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the enterprise fund and the aggregate discretely presented component units of the Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority (the Authority), as of and for the year ended September 30, 2015, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the Authority's basic financial statements as listed in the table of contents.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Opinions

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the respective financial position of the enterprise fund and the aggregate discretely presented component units of the Authority as of September 30, 2015, and the respective changes in its financial position and, when applicable, cash flows thereof for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of a Matter

During fiscal year ended September 30, 2015, the Authority adopted GASB Statement No. 68, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Pensions and the related GASB Statement No. 71, Pension Transition for Contributions Made Subsequent to the Measurement Date – an Amendment of GASB Statement No. 68. As a result of the implementation of these standards, the Authority reported a restatement for the change in accounting principle (see Note 2). Our auditors' opinion was not modified with respect to the restatement.

Other Matters

Required Supplementary Information

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require that the Management's Discussion and Analysis on pages 4 through 10, Schedule of Authority's Proportionate Share of Net Pension Liability on page 37, and Schedule of Authority's Contribution on page 38 be presented to supplement the basic financial statements. Such information, although not a part of the basic financial statements, is required by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board who considers it to be an essential part of financial reporting for placing the basic financial statements in an appropriate operational, economic, or historical context. We have applied certain limited procedures to the required supplementary information in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which consisted of inquiries of management about the methods of preparing the information and comparing the information for consistency with management's responses to our inquiries, the basic financial statements, and other knowledge we obtained during our audit of the basic financial statements. We do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on the information because the limited procedures do not provide us with sufficient evidence to express an opinion or provide any assurance.

Other Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements that collectively comprise the Authority's basic financial statements. The schedule of expenditures of federal awards, financial data schedules, project financial data schedules and statement and certification of program costs are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements. The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards is presented for purposes of additional analysis as required by U.S. Office of Management and Budget Circular A-133, Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations, and is not a required part of the basic financial statements.

The financial data schedules, project financial data schedules, statement and certification of program costs and schedule of expenditures of federal awards are the responsibility of management and were derived from and relate directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the basic financial statements or to the basic financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America.

Board of Commissioners
Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority

In our opinion, the financial data schedules, project financial data schedules, statement and certification of program costs and schedule of expenditures of federal awards are fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the basic financial statements as a whole.

Other Reporting Required by *Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated June 27, 2016 on our consideration of the Authority's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Authority's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

SOUTHERN NEVADA REGIONAL HOUSING AUTHORITY
MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
SEPTEMBER 30, 2015

This section of the Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority's (the Authority) financial report presents management's analysis of the Authority's financial performance during the year ended September 30, 2015.

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS AND CONCLUSIONS

At September 30, 2015, total assets were $190,821,177, deferred outflow of resources was $964,466, liabilities were $40,320,452, and deferred inflow of resources was $5,236,196; thus total net position was $146,228,995. Total revenues and expenses were $144,134,223 and $152,717,683, respectively.

REQUIRED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The financial statements of the Authority report information using accounting methods similar to those used by private sector companies (Enterprise Fund).

The Statement of Net Position (Balance Sheet) includes all of the Authority's assets and liabilities and provides information about the amounts and investments in assets and the obligations to Authority creditors. It also provides a basis of assessing the liquidity and financial flexibility of the Authority. Over time, increases or decreases in net position may serve as a useful indicator of the financial health of the Authority.

The current year's revenues, expenses, and changes in net position are accounted for in the Statement of Revenues, Expenses and Changes in Net Position. This statement reports the Authority's operating and non-operating revenue, by major sources, along with operating and non-operating expenses and capital contributions.

The Statement of Cash Flows provides information about the Authority's cash receipts and disbursements during the reporting period. The statement reports net changes in cash resulting from operations, investing activities and capital related activities.

FINANCIAL ANALYSIS OF THE AUTHORITY

The Statement of Net Position and the Statement of Revenues, Expenses and Changes in Net Position report information about the Authority's activities and are summarized in the following sections.

Total Assets decreased by $7,973,867 from FY 2014. Other Noncurrent Assets increased by $1,037.

Current and Other Assets increased by $696,059 from $22,707,454 to $23,403,513 for the year. The increase was attributed primarily to development costs advanced in relation to the Vera B mixed finance project via the Capital Fund Program.

The Authority's Capital Assets decreased by $8,670,963 during FY 2015 due to the disposition of assets and current year depreciation exceeding the additions to capital outlay. See footnote 6 for further details.

While the Statement of Net Position shows the change in financial position, the Statement of Revenues, Expenses, and Changes in Net Position is designed to show the results of operations of the financial position for the year.

Current Liabilities decrease $293,038 (6.1%) as invoices in FY 2015 were paid more timely than in prior years. See footnote 9 for further details regarding long term debt.

Deferred Outflow of Resources, Deferred Inflow of Resources, and Noncurrent Liabilities increased due to the implementation of GASB 68.

| Long-term Portion | 6,892,684           | 7,194,163           |
| Total             | $ 7,194,178 | $ 7,480,330 |

ECONOMIC FACTORS AND EVENTS AFFECTING OPERATIONS

Several factors may affect the financial position of the Authority in the subsequent fiscal year. These factors include:

The 2015 prorated funding level was 85.36% compared to the prior year of 88.79%, which is an increase of 3.86%. The 2016 prorated operating subsidy funding level is anticipated to be approximately 89%. The funding proration for the Housing Assistance Payment (HAP) 2015 was 101.25%; whereas the Administrative Fee proration was 81%. The HCV's funding for 2016 is at 99.58% for HAP, but the Administrative Fee proration remains at 81%. Overall, HUD's funding had been consistently lower than 100% forcing the Authority to use operating reserves. The Authority continues to find strategies to enhance its revenue stream and control expenses.

SOUTHERN NEVADA REGIONAL HOUSING AUTHORITY
MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
SEPTEMBER 30, 2015

The Authority continues to comply with the HUD requirements of asset-based management since regionalization of the Authority. The Authority has developed and maintained a system of budgeting and accounting for each asset management project (AMP) in a manner that will allow for analysis of the actual revenues and expenses associated with each property.

CONCLUSIONS

Overall, the Authority demonstrates a sound financial position. It has a management team committed to the mission of providing safe and decent housing to those in need. As the environment changes, the Authority will continue to seek ways to remain a viable organization and continue to operate at the highest standards established by the Real Estate Assessment Center and the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

SOUTHERN NEVADA REGIONAL HOUSING AUTHORITY
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
SEPTEMBER 30, 2015

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority (the Authority or SNRHA) was established effective January 1, 2010, in accordance with Nevada State law for the purpose of consolidating three housing authorities located in Southern Nevada. Las Vegas Housing Authority, Housing Authority of Clark County, and North Las Vegas Housing Authority were combined to form the Authority. On October 20, 2009, the Authority requested to enter into an Annual Contributions Contract (ACC) with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) effective January 1, 2010 to be the administrator of the housing and housing related programs described herein.

The Authority is a public body and a body corporate and politically organized under the laws of the State of Nevada as a tax-exempt quasi-governmental entity under the United States Housing Act of 1937 for the purpose of providing adequate housing for qualified low-income individuals. The Authority is not subject to Federal or State income taxes and is not required to file Federal or State income tax returns.

Reporting Entity

The accompanying combined financial statements include the accounts of all Authority operations for the year ended September 30, 2015. The criteria for including organizations as component units with the Authority's reporting entity, as set forth in Section 2100 of GASB's Governmental Accounting and Financial Reporting Standards, include the following:

- The organization is legally separate (can sue and be sued in its own name)
- The Authority holds the corporate powers of the organization
- The Authority appoints the voting majority
- The organization has the potential to impose a financial benefit/burden on the Authority
- There is fiscal dependency by the organization on the Authority

On the basis of application of these criteria, the Authority is a legally separate entity that is fiscally independent of other governments, and there are no other entities that are to be reported as component units of the Authority, except as noted below, nor is the Authority to be included in the City of Las Vegas, or Clark County's financial reports, therefore the Authority reports independently.

Development Corporations

The Development Corporations (the Corporations) operate exclusively for nonprofit purposes and were created to assist in carrying out housing projects for persons of eligible income. Housing projects undertaken, financed, or assisted by the Corporations and their related expenditures must be approved by the Authority. The Corporations are legally separate from the Authority, and are included as blended component units, since the Authority can significantly influence the programs, projects, or activities of, or the level of service performed by the Authority, and their boards of directors are substantially the same as the Authority.

The following Development Corporations are included as blended component units of the Authority:

- Affordable Housing Program, Inc.
- Honolulu Street Family Housing, Inc.

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Real Estate Limited Partnerships

Landsman Family, LLC (the Company) – was formed on December 10, 2012 as a limited liability company under the laws of the State of Nevada, for the purpose of acquiring, owning, operating and financing a rental housing project known as Landsman Gardens (the project). The Company's partnership interests are held by third parties unrelated to the Authority, with the exception of the managing member, Landsman Family Manager, LLC, a Nevada Limited Liability Company, which is wholly owned by Affordable Housing Program, Inc., which is a blended component of the Authority. The Authority has certain rights and responsibilities, which enables it to impose its will on the Company. In accordance with GASB Statement No. 61, the Company is included as a discretely presented component unit in the financial statements.

Basis of Presentation

The Authority's accounts are maintained in accordance with the principles of enterprise fund accounting to ensure the observance of limitations and restrictions on the resources available, including those imposed by HUD. The funds of the Authority are all considered proprietary fund types and consolidate into one enterprise fund. The Authority is required to follow all statements of the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB). GASB Statement No. 62, Codification of Accounting and Financial Reporting Guidance Contained in Pre-November 30, 1989 FASB and AICPA Pronouncements, was issued to incorporate GASB and AICPA guidance into GASB authoritative literature. The more significant of the government's accounting policies are described below.

A fund is an independent fiscal and accounting entity with a self-balancing set of accounts comprised of its assets, liabilities, net position, revenues, and expenses. The funds maintained by the Authority allow compliance and financial accountability by separate functions and activities.

A summary of each significant program administered by the Authority included in the financial statements is provided below to assist the reader in interpreting the financial statements. These programs do not constitute all programs subsidized by HUD and operated by the Authority.

Low Income Public Housing programs provide subsidy funding annually, by a formula for Housing Modernization and Housing Operations Programs. These programs support public housing operations by way of an annual contributions contract with HUD, ACC# NV018. Under this contract, the Authority develops, modernizes and manages public housing developments. Funding is provided by eligible residents who are charged monthly rent based on family size, family income, and other determinants, as well as by the subsidies provided by HUD.

Housing Choice Voucher programs (HCVP) include the Voucher, VASH, Mainstream and Disaster Housing programs. Under these programs, rental assistance payments are made by the Authority primarily to landlords on behalf of eligible families. These programs are funded by the annual contributions contract with HUD, ACC# NV018.

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Capital Funding Programs (CFP) provide funds annually, by a formula, to public housing authorities (PHA) for capital and management activities, including modernization and development of public housing. Section 519 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 (Public law 105-276) amends Section 9 of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 to provide for a Capital Fund Program to be established by HUD for the purpose of making assistance available to PHAs to carry out capital, management, development and other activities. It also requires HUD to develop a formula (through a negotiated rulemaking process) for determining the amount of assistance to be provided and a mechanism to reward performance. The CFP funds, which are allocated annually, represent the major source of funding for capital and management activities at PHA's.

Resident Opportunity & Supportive Services Program provides reliable transportation for all elderly and disabled residents of the service area and contracts for housekeeping and personal assistance for residents who meet certain criteria. The program also provides for a service coordinator who implements and coordinates the program. Funding for this program is provided by grants from HUD.

Business Activities - The Non-aided Housing Program is funded with other than federal financing and is used to account for various activities of the Authority. In addition to dwelling rents, this fund is used to account for fees charged to nonprofit organizations for managing their low-income housing projects and fees paid by other funds for services provided and for the use of facilities owned by the Non-aided Housing Program.

Component Units – The Authority has two blended component units - Affordable Housing Program, Inc. and Honolulu Street Family Housing, Inc. Both of these corporations share the same board as the Authority and are considered to be blended component units. Separate stand alone financial statements for the component units are not prepared.

Basis of Accounting and Measurement Focus

The Authority uses the accrual basis of accounting for the proprietary funds. Under this method, revenues are recorded when earned and expenses are recorded at the time liabilities are incurred, regardless of when the related cash flow takes place. All assets and liabilities associated with the operation of these funds are included on the Statement of Net Position.

Budgets and Budgetary Accounting

The Authority is required by contractual agreements to adopt annual, appropriated operating budgets for all its programs receiving expenditure awards. All budgets are prepared on a HUD basis, which is materially consistent with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). The Authority prepares its budget annually. The Board of Commissioners adopts the budget through passage of a budget resolution prior to the beginning of the fiscal year.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses in the financial statements and in the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes amounts in demand deposit accounts and short-term investments with an initial maturity date of three months or less for purposes of measuring cash flows. Restricted cash is included for purposes of reporting cash flows.

Investments

Investments of the Authority consist of those permitted by the Nevada Government Code including obligations of the U.S. government and federal agencies. The Authority's investments are carried at fair value based upon quoted market prices, as required by generally accepted accounting principles. The Authority adjusts the carrying value of its investments to reflect their fair value at each fiscal period end, and it includes the effects of those adjustments in income for that fiscal period. The Authority classifies its investments as current or non-current based on the maturity dates. Short-term investments have maturities within one year.

Accounts Receivable

Tenant and other accounts receivable are carried at the amount considered collectible by management. The Authority periodically reviews accounts receivable and determines whether an allowance for doubtful accounts is necessary. Other accounts receivable consists of amounts due from HUD and State and Local governments for grant income.

Inventories

Inventory is valued at the lower of cost or market on a first-in, first-out basis. Inventory consists of expendable maintenance supplies held for consumption. Inventory at September 30, 2015 is shown net of an allowance for obsolete inventories of $25,512.

Prepaid Expenses

Payments made to vendors for services that will benefit periods beyond September 30, 2015 are recorded as prepaid expenses.

Capital Assets

Capital assets include all land and site improvements thereon; all dwelling and non-dwelling structures, including fixtures permanently attached thereto or installed in a fixed position; and all items of nonexpendable equipment acquired and held for the projects that cost $5,000 or more and have an estimated useful life of at least one year. It also includes items of expendable equipment paid for from funds provided for the development of the projects.

Capital assets are valued at historical cost. Donated capital assets are recorded at fair market value on the date received. Interest expense incurred during the development period is capitalized.

Maintenance, minor repairs and replacements are recorded as expenses; extraordinary replacements of property resulting in property betterments are charged to the property accounts.

Capital Assets (Continued)

Depreciation is charged to operations using the straight-line method based on the estimated useful life of the related asset. The estimated useful lives of the various asset categories are as follows:

|                         |                |
|-------------------------|----------------|
| Buildings               | 30 to 40 years |
| Improvements            | 15 years       |
| Furniture and Equipment | 2 to 10 years  |

Proceeds from the sale of property acquired or significantly improved with HUD or State funds are refunded to HUD or the State as required by contract.

Income Taxes

The Authority is exempt from Federal and State income taxes and Nevada franchise taxes.

Compensated Absences

Compensated absences are absences for which the employees will be paid, i.e., sick leave, vacation, and other approved leaves. In accordance with GASB Statement No. 16, Accounting for Compensated Absences, the Authority accrues the liability for those absences that the employee has earned the rights to the benefits. Accrued amounts are based on the current salary rates. Full-time, permanent employees are granted vacation and sick leave benefits in varying amounts to specified maximums depending on tenure with the Authority. Vacation and sick pay is recorded as an expense and related liability in the year earned by the employees.

The policy of the Authority is to accumulate earned but unused annual vacation benefits, which will be paid to employees upon separation from Authority service. Vested or accumulated vacation is earned at a rate ranging from 10 days per year for the first year of service, up to a maximum of 20 days per year after 14 years of service. The maximum permissible accumulation is 200 hours. At termination, employees are paid for any accumulated vacation leave. Sick leave is accumulated at the rate of one day per month and may be accumulated to a maximum of 20 days. Accumulations in excess of 20 days are forfeited. The value of unused sick leave is not payable upon separation from the Authority. Vacation pay is recorded as an expense and related liability in the year earned by the employee.

Grant Restrictions

The Authority has received loans and grants from HUD to build and improve housing projects. The grants require that only individuals and families that meet various income, age and employment standards be housed or aided.

Revenue Recognition

Proprietary funds distinguish operating revenues and expenses from non-operating items. Operating revenues and expenses generally result from providing services and producing and delivering goods in connection with a proprietary fund's principal ongoing operations. The principal operating revenues of the Authority are charged to customers for rents, HUD grants received for operations, other operating fund grants and operating miscellaneous income. Operating expenses include the cost of sales and services, administrative expenses, and depreciation on capital assets. All revenues and expenses not meeting this definition are reported as non-operating revenues and expenses. Capital grant funds are added to the Net Position below the non-operating revenue and expense.

Net Position Classifications

Generally accepted accounting principles require the classification of net position into three components as described below:

Net Investment in Capital Assets: This component of Net Position consists of all capital assets, reduced by depreciation and the outstanding balances of any bonds, mortgages, notes or other borrowings that are attributable to the acquisition, construction, or improvement of those assets.

Restricted Net Position: This component of net position consists of restricted assets when constraints are placed on the asset by creditors (such as debt covenants), grantors, contributors, laws, regulations, etc.

Unrestricted Net Position: This component consists of net position that does not meet the definition of "Net Position Invested in Capital Assets," or "Restricted Net Position."

New Accounting Pronouncements

In fiscal year 2015, the Commission implemented GASB Statement Nos. 68, 70 and 71 as follows:

Statement No. 68, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Pensions – an Amendment of GASB Statement No.27 - The objective of this Statement is to improve accounting and financial reporting by state and local government employers for the pension in which they are involved. See notes 2 and 12 for further details about the restatement required to establish the entity's net pension liability.

GASB Statement No. 70, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Nonexchange Financial Guarantees required a government that extends a nonexchange financial guarantee to recognize a liability when qualitative factors and historical data, if any, indicate that it is more-likely-than-not that the government will be required to make a payment on the guarantee. The implementation of this standard did not have an effect on the Authority's 2015 financial statements.

Statement No. 71, Pension Transition for Contributions Made Subsequent to the Measurement Date—an Amendment of GASB Statement No. 68 – The objective of this statement is to address the application of transition provisions of Statement No. 68 related to contributions made to a defined benefit pension plan after the measurement date of the entity's beginning net pension liability. See notes 2 and 12 for further details about the restatement required to establish the entity's net pension liability.

NOTE 3 CASH, CASH EQUIVALENTS, AND INVESTMENTS

Nevada law NRS 356.360 requires banks and savings and loan institutions participating in the Nevada Collateral Pool to pledge government securities with a market value of 102% of the amount of uninsured balances of public money held by the depository. Under Nevada law this collateral is held in a separate investment pool by another institution in the depository's name.

Cash, restricted cash, and investments are classified in the financial statements based on whether or not their use is restricted under the terms of the Authority's debt instruments or agency agreements. The Authority's carrying amount of cash and cash equivalents as of September 30, 2015 was $11,001,639, and the bank balance was $12,152,143.

Cash

Cash and cash equivalents are maintained on deposit in demand accounts with Wells Fargo and BNY Mellon. Of the amounts deposited into the bank, $500,000 is covered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The remaining $10,501,724 is properly collateralized by the financial institution in accordance with the regulations of the Nevada Collateral Pool.

Investment Policy

The Nevada Government Code allows the Authority to invest in the following, provided ratings of the issuers are acceptable to the Authority and approved percentages and maturities are not exceeded. The table below also identifies certain provisions of the Nevada Government Code. The Authority has no documented investment policy of its own.

At September 30, 2015, the Authority had the following investments:

| Investment Type              | Fair Value   | Maturity (yrs) |              |
|------------------------------|--------------|----------------|--------------|
|                              |              | Less than 1    | 1 to 5       |

Interest Rate Risk

Fair value of an investment fluctuates with interest rates and increasing interest rates could cause fair value to decline below the original cost. The Authority follows the Nevada Government Code investment policy which does not limit the weighted average maturity of its investment portfolio.

Credit Risk

The Authority does not have a formal policy on credit risk. The Federal Code of Regulations, Part 85, Subpart C, (24 CFR 85.20) for cash management and investments permits investments in the following types of investments: direct U.S. obligations, U.S. agency obligations, repurchase agreements, and money market mutual funds. All investments of the Authority meet these guidelines. As of September 30, 2015 the Authority's investments were rated AAA by Moody's and AA+ by Standard & Poor's.

Custodial Risk

For an investment, custodial credit risk is the risk that, in the event of the failure of the counterparty, the Authority will not be able to recover the value of its investment or collateral securities that are in the possession of an outside party. As of September 30, 2015, the Authority held investments in U.S. Treasuries and other federal agency securities which were held by the Authority's custodian in the Authority's name.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
SEPTEMBER 30, 2015

NOTE 3 CASH, CASH EQUIVALENTS, AND INVESTMENTS (CONTINUED)

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Authority is required to disclose investments that represent a concentration of five percent or more of investments in any issuer held by individual Authority funds in the securities of issuers other than U.S. Treasury securities, mutual funds and external investment pools. The Authority's policy does not set a limit on the amount that may be invested in any single issuer. At September 30, 2015, investments in Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation notes represented approximately 50 percent of total investments.

Restricted Cash

Restricted cash consisted of the following at September 30, 2015:

|                                      |                     |

NOTE 5 NOTES RECEIVABLE

The Authority is an affiliate to the Managing Member of Honolulu Family Street Housing LLC with a low-income tax credit development on the site of the former Ernie Cragin Annex 3, where 54 housing units built in the 1970s were razed in 2005. The 8.13-acre site is located at East Charleston Boulevard and Honolulu Street. The 60-unit mixed finance development is financed utilizing $8,905,576 of Capital Fund Program Replacement Housing funds, $8.579 million raised through tax credits from the state, $360,000 of FHLB grant, and $490,159 in Housing Authority reserves.

While these units are not owned by the Authority, they are part of the PHA's Annual Contributions Contract and are eligible to receive low-income public housing subsidy. The Authority has entered into a 90-year ground lease (at $1 per year) with the project's owner, Honolulu Street Family Housing, LLC and has retained the right of first refusal to purchase the units at the end of the tax-credit compliance period.

SOUTHERN NEVADA REGIONAL HOUSING AUTHORITY
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
SEPTEMBER 30, 2015

NOTE 12 EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT PLAN

Plan Description

The Authority contributes to the State of Nevada Public Employees Retirement System (the System), a multi-employer, cost sharing defined benefit plan. The System was established in 1948 by the legislature and is governed by the Public Employees' Retirement Board, whose seven members are appointed by the Governor. The System is administered to provide a reasonable base income to qualified employees who have been employed by a public employer and whose earnings capacities have been removed or substantially impaired by age or disability.

Benefits Provided

Benefits, as required by the Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS or statute), are determined by the number of years of accredited service at time of retirement and the member's highest average compensation in any 36 consecutive months with special provisions for members entering the System on or after January 1, 2010. Benefit payments to which participants or their beneficiaries may be entitled under the plan include pension benefits, disability benefits, and survivor benefits.

Monthly benefit allowances for members are computed as 2.5% of average compensation for each accredited year of service prior to July 1, 2001. For service earned on and after July 1, 2001, this multiplier is 2.67% of average compensation. For members entering the System on or after January 1, 2010, there is a 2.5% multiplier. The System offers several alternatives to the unmodified service retirement allowance which, in general, allow the retired employee to accept a reduced service retirement allowance payable monthly during his or her lifetime and various optional monthly payments to a named beneficiary after his or her death.

Post-retirement increases are provided by authority of NRS 286.575-.579.

Contributions

The Authority, for establishing and amending the obligation to make contributions and member contribution rates, is set by statute. New hires, in agencies which did not elect the Employer-Pay Contribution (EPC) plan prior to July 1, 1983, have the option of selecting one of two contribution plans. Contributions are shared equally by employer and employee. Employees can take a reduced salary and have contributions made by the employer (EPC) or can make contributions by a payroll deduction matched by the employer.

The System's basic funding policy provides for periodic contributions at a level pattern of cost as a percentage of salary throughout an employee's working lifetime in order to accumulate sufficient assets to pay benefits when due.

The System receives an actuarial valuation on an annual basis indicating the contribution rates required to fund the System on an actuarial reserve basis. Contributions actually made are in accordance with the required rates established by the Nevada Legislature. These statutory rates are increased/decreased pursuant to NRS 286.421 and 286.450.

The actuary funding method used is the Entry Age Normal Cost Method. It is intended to meet the funding objective and result in a relatively level long-term contributions requirement as a percentage of salary.

NOTE 12 EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT PLAN (CONTINUED)

For the fiscal year ended June 30, 2014 and June 30, 2015 the Statutory Employer/employee matching rate was 13.25% for Regular and the Employer-pay contribution (EPC) rate was 25.75%.

Net Pension Liability

The Authority's net pension liability (NPL) of $26,608,483 was measured as of June 30, 2015, and the total pension liability used to calculate the net pension liability was determined by an actuarial valuation as of that date. The net pension liability is allocated among all employers which includes the State and participating agencies.

Actuarial Cost Method

The Entry Age Normal actuarial funding method is used to determine costs. Under this funding method, the total employer contribution rate consists of two elements: the normal cost rate and the unfunded actuarial liability (UAL) rate.

The individual entry age normal method is used to determine liabilities. Under the individual entry age normal method, a normal cost rate is calculated for each employee. This rate is determined by taking the value, as of age at entry into the plan, of the member's projected future benefits, and dividing it by the value, also as of the member's entry age, of his or her expected future salary. The normal cost for each employee is the product of his or her pay and his or her normal cost rate. The normal cost for the group is the sum of the normal costs for all members.

Experience gains and losses, i.e. decreases or increases in liabilities and/or in assets when actual experience differs from the actuarial assumptions, affect the unfunded actuarial accrued liability.

Asset Valuation Method

The actuarial valuation employs a technique for determining the actuarial value of assets which dampens the swing in the market value. The specific technique adopted in this valuation is a 5-year smoothed market.

Amortization

The net pension liability of the System is amortized over separate 30-year period amortization layers based on the valuations during which each separate layer previously established.

Significant actuarial assumptions employed by the actuary for funding purposes as of June 30, 2015 and June 30, 2014 are as follows:

Investment Rate of Return – 8.0% per annum, compounded annually including 3.5% for inflation.

Salary Increases, Merit and Inflation – 3.50% to 5.50% per year

Mortality Rates – For active members and non-disabled retirees, the RP2000 Tables projected forward to 2015 using Scale AA are used; for all recipients of disability benefits, the Revenue Ruling 96-7 Disabled Mortality Table for Males and Females is used.

The long-term expected rate of return on pension plan assets was determined using a building-block method in which best-estimate ranges of expected future real rates of return (expected returns, net of pension plan investment expense and inflation) are developed for each major class of assets. These ranges are combined to produce the long-term expected rate of return by weighting the expected future real rates of return by the target asset allocation percentage and by adding expected inflation. Best estimates of arithmetic real rates of return for each major asset class included in the pension plan's target asset allocation as of June 30, 2015 are summarized in the following table.

| Asset Class           | Target Allocation | Long Term Expected Real Rate of Return |
|-----------------------|-------------------|----------------------------------------|
| Domestic Equity       | 42%               | 5.50%                                  |
| International Equity  | 18%               | 5.75%                                  |
| Domestic Fixed Income | 30%               | 0.25%                                  |
| Private Markets       | 10%               | 6.80%                                  |

*As of June 30, 2015, PERS' long-term inflation assumption was 3.5%

Discount Rate

The discount rate used to measure the collective total pension liability was 8.00% for 2014 for the System. The projection of cash flows used to determine the discount rate assumed that the plan member contributions will be made at the current contribution rate and that employer and non-employer entity contributions will be made at contractually required rates, actuarially determined. Based on these assumptions, the pension plan's fiduciary net position was projected to be available to make all projected future benefit payments to current plan members. Therefore, the long-term expected rate of return on pension plan investments was applied to all periods of projected benefit payments to determine the total pension liability.

Sensitivity of the Authority's proportionate share of the net pension liability to changes in the discount rate

The following presents the Authority's proportionate share of the net pension liability calculated using the discount rate of 8.00%, as well as what the Authority share of the net pension liability would be if it were calculated using a discount rate that is 1-percentage-point lower (7.00 percent) or 1-percentage-point higher (9.00 percent) than the current rate:

Additional financial and actuarial information with respect to the System can be found in the NvPERS' 2014 Comprehensive Annual Financial Report available online at www.nvpers.org or by contacting the System at (775) 687-4200.

NOTE 13 ECONOMIC DEPENDENCY

The Authority is economically dependent on annual contributions and grants from HUD. The Authority operated at a loss prior to receiving the contributions.

SEPTEMBER 30, 2015

NOTE 14 COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Amounts received or receivable from HUD are subject to audit and adjustment by grantor agencies. If expenses are disallowed as a result of these audits, the claims for reimbursement to the grantor agency would become a liability of the Authority. In the opinion of management, any such adjustments would not be significant.

The Authority is involved in various legal proceedings and litigation arising in the normal course of business. Management does not believe that the settlement of any such claims or litigation will have a material adverse effect on the Authority's financial position or results of operations.

NOTE 15 RISK MANAGEMENT

The Authority is exposed to all common perils associated with the ownership and rental of real estate properties. A risk management program has been established to minimize loss occurrence and to transfer risk through various levels of insurance. Property, casualty, employee dishonesty and public officials' liability forms are used to cover the respective perils. Commercial carriers insure all common perils such as business auto, computer and other miscellaneous policies.

NOTE 16 FUTURE ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

GASB routinely issues standards that will become effective in future years. The following is a list of standards that have been issued that management has determined may have an impact on future financial statements of the Authority.

GASB Statement No. 72, Fair Value Measurement and Application, addresses accounting and financial reporting issues related to fair value measurements. This Statement is not expected to have an impact on the Authority.

GASB Statement No. 73, Financial Reporting for Postemployment Benefit Plans Other Than Pension Plans. This statement is effective for fiscal years beginning either after June 15, 2015 or June 15, 2016. This Statement is not expected to have an impact on the Authority.

GASB Statement No. 74, Financial Reporting for Postemployment Benefit Plans Other Than Pension Plans. This statement is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2016. This Statement is not expected to have an impact on the Authority.

GASB Statement No. 75, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Postemployment Benefits Other Than Pensions. This statement is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2017. This Statement is not expected to have an impact on the Authority.

GASB Statement No. 76, The Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles for State and Local Governments, identifies, in the context of the current governmental financial reporting environment, the hierarchy of generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). This Statement is not expected to have an impact on the Authority.

SINGLE AUDIT REPORT

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

Board of Commissioners
Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority
Las Vegas, Nevada

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of the Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority (the Authority), which comprise the statement of net position as of September 30, 2015, and the related statements of revenues, expenses and changes in net position, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated June 27, 2016.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered the Authority's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Authority's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Authority's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the Authority's financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the result of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the Authority's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Authority's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON COMPLIANCE WITH REQUIREMENTS THAT COULD HAVE A DIRECT AND MATERIAL EFFECT ON EACH MAJOR FEDERAL PROGRAM AND ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER COMPLIANCE IN ACCORDANCE WITH OMB CIRCULAR A-133

Board of Commissioners
Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority
Las Vegas, Nevada

Report on Compliance for Each Major Federal Program

We have audited the Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority's (the Authority) compliance with the types of compliance requirements described in the OMB Circular A-133 Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on each of the Authority's major federal programs for the year ended September 30, 2015. The Authority's major federal programs are identified in the summary of auditors' results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

Management's Responsibility

Management is responsible for compliance with the requirements of laws, regulations, contracts, and grants applicable to its federal programs.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on compliance for each of the Authority's major federal programs based on our audit of the types of compliance requirements referred to above. We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and OMB Circular A-133, Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations. Those standards and OMB Circular A-133 require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about the Authority's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion on compliance for each major federal program. However, our audit does not provide a legal determination of the Authority's compliance.

Opinion on Each Major Federal Program

In our opinion, the Authority complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major federal programs for the year ended September 30, 2015.

Report on Internal Control Over Compliance

Management of the Authority is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above. In planning and performing our audit of compliance, we considered the Authority's internal control over compliance with the types of requirements that could have a direct and material effect on each major federal program to determine the auditing procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing an opinion on compliance for each major federal program and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with OMB Circular A-133, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Authority's internal control over compliance.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the result of that testing based on the requirements of OMB Circular A-133. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.

SOUTHERN NEVADA REGIONAL HOUSING AUTHORITY
NOTES TO SCHEDULE OF EXPENDITURES OF FEDERAL AWARDS
SEPTEMBER 30, 2015

NOTE 1 BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The Schedule of Expenditures of Federal Awards is presented on the accrual basis of accounting and includes all expenditures of federal awards administered by the Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority (the Authority). Several programs are funded jointly by the State in accordance with requirements of the various federal grants. Costs incurred for such programs are applied to Federal grant funds in accordance with the terms of the related Federal grants with the remainder applied to funds provided by the State.

All costs charged to Federal Awards are determined based on the applicable Federal grants and OMB Circular A-87, Costs Principles Applicable to Grants and Contracts with State and Local Governments.

NOTE 2 FEDERAL COGNIZANT AGENCY

The Federal cognizant agency for the Authority is the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

NOTE 3 FINDINGS AND QUESTIONED COSTS

Any findings and questioned costs identified in connection with the 2015 Single Audit would be disclosed in Schedule I.

| Type of Finding:           | Noncompliance, Significant Deficiency               |

Condition/Context

Testing of Public Housing Tenant Participation expenditures identified multiple exceptions. Our sample reviewed 4 quarters of expenditures covering 4 tenant councils, the detail of which accounted for 45 individual transactions. The following was noted:

- Resident Council budgets were not prepared during the fiscal year as mandated by the compliance requirement.
- There were 5 transactions that were for expenses not considered allowable.
- There were 4 transactions that did not contain adequate support for the expense.

Recommendation

We recommend that management review its policies and procedures over the tenant participation program to ensure adequate controls exist over the disbursement of funds and that expenditures are allowable and in accordance with approved resident council budgets.

Status

This finding was resolved during the 2015 audit.

Progress Report.

Five-Year Goal: Expand the supply of Low Income and Affordable housing.

SNRHA will continue to explore and implement various models of mixed-financing with innovative partnerships to assist with the re-development and/or modernization of public housing developments. Options will include but not be limited to HOPE VI, Choice Neighborhood Initiatives (CNI), Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) Program, Capital Fund Financing (CFFP), Low Income Housing Tax Credits (LIHTC), various bonds types and other leveraging options as identifies in HUD's Transforming Public Housing plan.

SNRHA will continue to explore opportunities of various types of bond issuance.

In 2014 the City of North Las Vegas as the Lead applicant and the SNRHA as the co-lead applicant submitted a Choice Neighborhood Initiative (CNI) Panning Grant. The CNI award letter was received January 2015 through the Department of Housing and Urban Development in the amount of $485,000. The money will be used to prepare a Transformation Plan to revitalize North Las Vegas Urban Core Neighborhood, which includes the Rose Gardens Senior Public Housing and Buena Vista Springs communities. CNI Transformation Plan is due to HUD early 2017

The SNRHA, in partnership with City of North Las Vegas, is planning to submit in upcoming years a CNI Implementation grant application to revitalize and address the redevelopment needs of the North Las Vegas Urban Core Neighborhood, which includes the Rose Gardens Senior Public Housing and Buena Vista Springs communities.

The SNRHA will continue to explore CNI planning as well as, implementation grant to address some of the redevelopment needs of the neighborhood of Sherman Gardens, Sherman Gardens Annex and Villa Capri sites.

The SNRHA is planning to submit in upcoming years a tax credit application to develop Phase II of Bennett Plaza and may utilize Replacement Housing Factor (RHF) Funds, adding 35 additional public housing units. The SNRHA may self-develop or partner with a developer for this project.

Under the Rental Assistance Demonstration the SNRHA converted in 2014 Landsman Gardens a 100-unit family public housing development in the Valley View neighborhood of Henderson, Nevada to Project Based Section 8. Landsman Gardens is the first FHA-financed project in the nation to close under the Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) program. Construction was completed December 2014 and 100% units lease-up as of March 2015.

The SNRHA submitted on 12/2013 a RAD application for Vera Johnson Manor B (AMP 314) anticipating a Conditional Housing Assistance Payment (CHAP) agreement issuance by January 2014. As of March 2015 the CHAP agreement has not been issued for the Project; even though Congress lifted the unit cap of 60,000 to 185,000 units under the RAD Program. The SNRHA submitted in FY 2014 a HOME application and a 9% Tax Credit Application for the Rehabilitation of all 112 units at this site. On April 2014 the City of Las Vegas awarded $1 million in HOME Funds to Vera Johnson Manor B and in July 2014 the Nevada Housing Division issued a 2014 Reservation Letter for $1 million annually in 9% Low Income Housing Tax Credits (LIHTC) for Vera Johnson Manor B. In an effort to preserve the HOME Funds and Tax Credit Allocations, the SNRHA proceeded with a Mixed Finance Proposal as an Interim Plan for closing mid-April, 2015. The CHAP was received April 3, 2015, SNRHA will work with HUD to forward needed items to meet any required RAD milestones. However, SNRHA currently does not anticipate converting Vera Johnson Manor B to RAD until construction completion to simplify the conversion. The SNRHA is partnering with Nevada HAND for this project.

The SNRHA in March 2015 submitted a RAD application for Biegger Estates (AMP 406)–and received a Conditional Housing Assistance Payment (CHAP) agreement in July 2015. The SNRHA submitted in May 2015 a 9% Tax Credit Application for the Rehabilitation of all 119 units at this site and received an allocation in July 2015. All the financing has been secured and the project is on track for closing in May 2016. Construction is scheduled in phases with an estimated completion within 13 months from the notice to proceed date or June 2017. The SNRHA will self-develop this project.

Additionally, in March 2015 the SNRHA submitted a RAD application for Rose Gardens and received a Conditional Housing Assistance Payment (CHAP) agreement in July 2015. The SNRHA is also planning to submit in FY 2016 a Bond/4% Tax Credit Application for the Re-development of all 120 units (on-site or off-site). The project has received HOME Funds allocation in the amount of $1MIL from Clark County and $500K from City of North Las Vegas. Financing closing is anticipated for December 2016 with a construction completion of February 2018. The SNRHA may self-develop or partner with a developer for this project.

In 2015 the SNRHA also submitted a RAD portfolio application for several of their public housing inventory.

- First Group includes: 1)Otto Merida (AMP405), 2)Lubertha Johnson (AMP401), 3)Bennett Plaza (AMP401), 4)Espinoza Terrace (404), 5)Hullum Homes (AMP407), 6)Jones Gardens (AMP407), 7)Sartini Plaza (AMP402) & 8)Sartini Annex (AMP402), 9)Archie Grant (South Parcel) (AMP401) and 10)Ernie Cragin Terrace (AMP406) totaling 844 public housing units.
- Second Group includes: 1) Schaffer Heights (AMP404), 2) Aida Brents (AMP403), 3) Levy Gardens (403), 4) James Down Towers (AMP402), 5) Hampton Court (Amp404), 6) Simmons (AMP406) and 7) Sherman Gardens Annex (AMP408) totaling 564 public housing units.
- The RAD portfolio is pending HUD review and issuance of Commitment to enter into a Housing Assistance Payment contract (CHAP) for the First Group 1.

Additionally, the SNRHA is planning to submit Mixed Finance application for Vera Johnson Manor A (AMP 406). The SNRHA is also planning to submit in FY 2016 a 9% Tax Credit Application for the Re-development of all 76 units. Financing closing is anticipated December 2016 with a construction completion of January 2018. The SNRHA will self-develop this project.

Enhance the SNRHA's Scattered Site Homeownership Program as lender options are available.

The SNRHA jointly with the City of Las Vegas are evaluating the future of the three vacant lots located in the general area of Bonanza and 28th Street [former public housing Ernie Cragin Terrace (ECT) Sites NV209, NV210 & NV213] and the proposed use to improve marketability of future housing in this area of the City.

In 2010, SNRHA contracted with The Calida Group, Lucchesi Galati Architecture and ESG Construction to prepare a master plan for the redevelopment of the Ernie Cragin Terrace (ECT) sites. The Plan included between 325 and 390 units of housing, primarily rental, in a variety of configurations (detached, semi-detached, row-house and low-rise elevator). The Plan also included between 20,000 and 25,000 square feet of commercial development along Bonanza Road and 45,000 square feet of public facilities along the northern and southern boundaries of the plan area.

While the real estate market in 2010 was not strong enough to support this vision for a mixed-use, mixed-income development project, the physical plan sections of the ECT Master Plan provide a good roadmap for a comprehensive revitalization of this neighborhood including areas of mixed-use, a variety of housing/building types, energy efficiency, green building, New Urbanism and live/work communities and improvements to educational and public facilities.

For the past year the City of Las Vegas has been looking at the viability of building the public facilities as proposed in the master plan. Currently the city is exploring the possibility of building the park with soccer fields as proposed for Parcel 3 [28th Street & Cedar]. Also, the Las Vegas-Clark County Library District has secured the funds to build a new library approximately 122,000 sq. ft. in the same area [28th Street & Sunrise] however; the 6 acres of land donated by the city is now under consideration since 8 acres of land will be more suitable for this facility. The Library District in partnership with the city now is proposing a land swap with the SNRHA vacant parcel located at 28th Street & Bonanza (Parcel 2) or 28th Street & Cedar (Parcel 3) which are more accessible sites with the required acreage. The final proposal was received and approved on January 2016 by the SNRHA Board of Commissioners. Special Application Center approved the land exchanged on March 2016. Escrow process anticipated to close May 2016.

Five-Year Goal: Improve the quality of assisted housing.

The Authority's other modernization activities are addressing necessary work items in order of priority as established in the Capital Plan.

SNRHA will develop customer service surveys and analyze them to develop proactive measures.

SNRHA continues implementing the approved 5-Year Strategic plan.

SNRHA has introduced a training model to all agency staff designed to improve customer satisfaction.

Five-Year Goal: Increase assisted housing choices.

The Authority sold Fifty seven (57) public housing scattered site units under its Public Housing Homeownership Program in FY03, FY04, FY05, FY06, FY07, FY08, and FY2012. Additionally, forty-six (46) Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Homeowners are under contract.

Five-Year Goal: Improve marketability of SNRHA owned units.

The Capital Fund Program continues to include other provisions that are aimed to increase the marketability of Authority-owned units. Non-viable units and developments are identified and continue to be revitalized through various approaches.

Where marketability cannot be achieved; the Authority is requesting approval for the demolition of units and/or identifying other sources of funding to accommodate the capital needs.

Updated Physical Needs and Portfolio Assessment to identify current capital improvement needs.

SNRHA will seek HUD approval to implement a Force Account to perform vacancy reduction duties as well as select other capital improvement duties. The initiative will reduce the need for contractors; create new jobs of which one or more qualified residents may be hired to promote economic self-sufficiency.

The SNRHA may outsource certain programs elements for agency sustainability including but not limited to:

- HQS Inspections
- Selected Public Housing Property Management.

The SNRHA will ensure that Executive Order 13495, “No displacement of Qualified Workers Under Service Contracts” signed by President Obama on January 2009, will be followed if any programs are outsource requiring that qualified workers on a Federal service contract who would otherwise lose their job as a result of the completion or expiration of a contract be given the right of first refusal for employment with the successor contractor. Generally, the successor contractor may not hire any new employees under the contract until this right of first refusal has been provided. The equal opportunity applies to a successor contract for the performance of the same or similar services at the same location.

Five-Year Goal: Promote self-sufficiency and economic independence of assisted households.

The HCV and Public Housing FSS programs have merged. As of April 1, 2016, the FSS program has 236 voluntary slots and 127 mandatory slots.

The Authority continues to develop partnerships with local service providers, training resources and educational institutions with the goal of making self-sufficiency available to all residents and participants. Year to date, we have established partnerships with a total of 89 community service providers. Commitments with these organizations are established either verbally or through MOU's.

The Authority has two homeownership programs under the Housing Choice Voucher and Public Housing Programs; each program continues to assist low-income families reach the dream of owning a home of their own.

SNRHA expects to expand its Community Partners program with public, private, and faith-based agencies.

SNRHA will enter into Memorandum of Understanding offering public housing units and/or turnover vouchers with recognized homeless shelter providers who provide supportive services for the homeless in efforts to eliminate homelessness in the Southern Nevada Region.

Five-Year Goal: Increase affordable housing resources.

SNRHA Continues to evaluate its portfolio for redevelopment opportunities.

SNRHA conducted a PNA and will develop a consolidated plan to identify sites for modernization, upgrades, and improvements.

SNRHA continues implementing the approved 5-Year Strategic Plan.

Continue updating the detailed plan for replacement Housing fund.

Identify method to leverage funding resources; including using up to the allowable 20% of HCV tenant based vouchers, for project based, starting in 2014 or as they become available. SNRHA may Project Base up to 20% of its Vouchers. The general locations for future projects will be outside of areas of high concentration of poverty and as defined in the applicable RFP. Future decisions will be in compliance with this. Project Basing will be consistent with the Agencies efforts and the community to increase affordable housing resources.

SNRHA will identify certain public housing and affordable housing sites/units for project-based assistance.

  - b) VAWA Exceptions To Terminations For Unauthorized Occupancy: Administrative Plan, chapter 5, page 7. There are many problems with this section of the policy, but it should contain some sort of acknowledgement of VAWA exceptions. Other suggestion for SNRHA Policy Change include:
    - I. deleting “Mail sent to the assisted unit may be considered as unauthorized occupancy.” Mail sent to the family’s unit does not qualify as evidence that the family would use to demonstrate a lack of unauthorized occupancy.
    - II. deleting “burden of proof that the individual is a visitor rests on the family.” CFRs do not give any kind of power to shift the burden of proof in the realm of termination for unauthorized occupants. (**This is covered in the VAWA section of the Administrative Plan)
- Limits on Vacate Date; Extensions for Contract Cancellation/Abatement:
Administrative Plan, Chapter 9, page 14, Extension of Tenancy after Initial notice to Vacate. Update to policy is set to include the addition that “only one extension will be granted by SNRHA to extend the vacate date. The participant must be occupying the unit during the time of the extension request.” This is detrimental towards families in the moving process, especially when the leasing process, with accompany required notice from SNRHA on tenant portion, can take up to 60 days after all required information is submitted, the tenant should be allowed to continue to extend vacate date as the original policy allowed. (** The proposed language does not limit the number of days that the vacate date may be extended; only the number of extensions is being limited.)

- 3.) Guardianship: Administrative Plan, Chapter 5, page 8, Temporary Guardianship. SNRHA's revisions to the guardianship rule violate the Fair Housing Act. SNRHA no longer requires participants to sign the 365-day short-term guardianship form when adding minor children, but instead, SNRHA will "not increase the bedroom size for addition of minor children, other than by birth, adoption, marriage, court awarded custody, court awarded guardianship, or an assignment with verification from a social service agency." In essence, this revision means a participant who adds a family member, such as a niece, nephew, or grandchild, will not receive any benefits whatsoever for taking care of an additional minor child, such as a larger unit or deductions their adjusted income. These proposed revisions similarly discriminate on the basis of familial status by treating families with guardianships over minor children different from those that do not. We propose that SNRHA allow a participant to add minor children to the Voucher if the participant has the consent of a parent. If a participant meets the requirements to add a minor child, then SNRHA must treat the additional minor child no differently than any other minor child of the participant's family, such as increasing the bedroom size and adding a dependent for income calculation purposes.
- 4.) Porting Residents: Administrative Plan, Chapter 10, page 7, Portability, Overview. Participants who port from one PHA's jurisdiction to another's must navigate a confusing, unfair bureaucracy where PHAs blame each other and the participant may be left without a Voucher and without any recourse. We believe the revisions do not do enough to protect participants porting into and from SNRHA's jurisdictions. Many of the revisions assign responsibilities to other PHAs, but the revisions do not address what happens to participants of other PHAs fail to abide by the requirements stated in SNRHA's policy. In particular, SNRHA needs to promulgate rules to allow participants porting out of SNRHA to keep their Voucher if the receiving PHA fails to timely return the Voucher back to SNRHA. In particular, SNRHA should toll the days on a Voucher once the participant requests SNRHA to send the Voucher to a receiving PHA. Moreover, the current rules offer no protection to participants if the receiving PHA denies or terminates the Voucher under the receiving PHA's screening process. SNRHA should allow participants to return to SNRHA's jurisdiction if the receiving PHA refuses or otherwise does not accept the participant. Overall, SNRHA places too much bureaucratic burden on participants attempting to port out. Under the current system, the participant must figure out which PHA controls which jurisdiction and how to contact the receiving PHA. SNRHA should assist participants with finding and contacting the receiving PHA on behalf of the participant. Finally, SNRHA's revisions require the family to select the receiving PHA, and if the receiving PHA refuses, then SNRHA will select the receiving PHA on behalf of the family. SNRHA should allow the family to decide and should not be selecting the receiving PHA on behalf of the family. (** The Portability process is being executed in accordance with regulations.)

- 5.) HQS Opt-Out: Administrative Plan, Chapter 8, page 2, Section 8.1.A. HUD Performance and Acceptability Standards. SNRHA’s revision states that Housing Quality Standards (HQS) are “the responsibility of the owner unless otherwise stated on the lease.” SNRHA, however, should not permit a landlord from contracting away its responsibility onto the tenant via the lease. At NLS, we have seen too many examples of owners using leases to assign all repair responsibilities onto the tenant. This violates 24CFR 982.404(a)(1), which states, “The Owner must maintain the contract unit and premises in accordance with the HQS.” We propose deletion of the above mentioned revision because the owners have responsibility under federal regulations to maintain HQS. (** SNRHA’s policy is in compliance with 982.404, 982.551, and 982.552. Only a portion of the regulation was quoted in this comment.)
- 6.) Responsibility for Damages to the Unit: Administrative Plan, Chapter 8, Section 8.1.D. Owner and Family Responsibilities, page 7, Family Responsibilities. SNRHA’s revision states, “Tenant may be billed for the cost of repairs made by the owner that were determined to be caused by the family.” This statement is vague because SNRHA does not specify who makes the determination of what caused the damage. We propose the revision should state, “Tenant may be billed for the cost of repairs made by the owner that were determined by a court to be caused by the family.” (** This is a landlord tenant issue. SNRHA is not a party to the Lease; therefore, the tenant may dispute such charges to a court of proper jurisdiction.)
- 7.) Quarterly Utility Payments: Administrative Plan, Chapter 5, Section 5.III.A, Page 40, Utility Reimbursement. SNRHA’s revision opens the possibility that SNRHA may provide utility reimbursement payments (URPs) each quarter as opposed to each month. We propose SNRHA implement the quarterly URP system. Currently, SNRHA provides the same amount to participants each month by averaging the estimated cost of utilities over the year. As any resident of Southern Nevada knows, heating and cooling bills greatly depend on the season. Providing the same amount each month in URP makes no sense when participants need more for summer and winter and less for spring and fall. (** No change was suggested for the proposed policy language.)
- 8.) Online Portal for Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Tenants: SNRHA should include the creation of an online portal for Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher recipients as part of its Five Year Plan. Currently, SNRHA has an online portal for landlords in the Section 8 program. This online portal allows landlords to access their payment histories and otherwise view details about their rental units. There is no similar online portal for tenants. Allowing Section 8 tenants to manage certain program requirements online rather than in person or by mail would decrease the amount of in person appointments between Section 8 participants and their caseworkers. This faster, easier process would greatly reduce the burden on the caseworkers in the Section 8 program by decreasing the number of meetings they must schedule. It would minimize the burdens on tenants, some of whom must take several buses to reach the Section 8 office or take time off from work to come in during SNRHA’s office hours. Moreover, online services would minimize the risk of important tenant documents being lost in the process, and would prevent disputes about whether SNRHA received a particular document from a tenant. Even if SNRHA is not able to set up a complete online portal for tenants, SNRHA should consider whether there are alternatives. For instance, SNRHA could develop a phone app that would let tenants report changes in household composition and income, as well as HQS violations that require an emergency inspection. Such an app could allow tenants to submit pictures of their new pay stubs or leaking faucet directly to SNRHA via the app. Several tenants' rights organizations around the country have had success developing phone apps for tenants via "hackathons" where technology developers develop apps by donating their time pro bono. NLS would be more than happy to assist SNRHA with working to find appropriate pro bono tech partners.

(** This item is being considered for future use, but will not be added at this time)

9.) Issuing Moving Packets to Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Recipients who have received a Five Day Non-Payment of Rent or a Five Day Unlawful

Detainer: Section 7 of SNRHA's Housing Choice Administrative Plan provides that SNRHA will not issue a moving packet to a family where SNRHA has been served a written notice that a notice of non-payment or any form of an eviction notice "for cause" has been served. We believe that this section is problematic given that Nevada's summary eviction process is unlike traditional evictions and other lawsuits. Unlike other states, where a landlord must file a complaint with the court in order to initiate an eviction, a landlord can initiate an eviction by placing a notice on the tenant's door. The tenant must then file an affidavit in court to prevent the eviction and contest the case. If the tenant does not file, the landlord can obtain the eviction merely by filing a paper with the court claiming they have served the tenant with the eviction notice. If the tenant has filed their affidavit, no action will be taken on the eviction until the landlord pays to file an affidavit in support of the eviction with the court. At that point the court schedules an eviction hearing to determine the validity of the landlord's complaint.

One of the drawbacks of this system is that because there is practically no cost to the landlord to initiate the eviction, landlords may abuse the eviction notices. Landlords frequently post eviction notices merely to serve warnings to a tenant about a particular issue, even if the landlord has no intention of filing. However, the tenant is then forced to pay to file an affidavit contesting the notice in order to protect themselves because they have no way of knowing whether the landlord will go forward with the eviction or not. We would suggest that SNRHA limit its practice of denying moving packets to cases where the landlord has actually filed a court pleading in support of an eviction. By limiting moving packet denials to cases where landlords have actually invested the time and money in filing an action with the court, SNRHA can prevent landlords from serving specious eviction notices on tenants in order to prevent them from moving. As it stands now, an unscrupulous landlord can game SNRHA's policy with little cost to themselves in order to extort money from their tenants. NLS has seen cases where a family serves the landlord with a 30 day notice that they will be moving at the end of their lease. In response, the landlord will serve the family with an eviction notice in an effort to get the family to agree to give up their deposit or pay for damages over and above the deposit without having a change to contest those charges. In those cases, the family is stuck in a legal limbo. They cannot get a new unit approved by SNRHA because they have been served an eviction notice which the landlord has no intention of pursuing. However, because they have served the landlord with a thirty day notice, they have no legal right to stay in their old unit past those thirty days. While we understand that the SNRHA may be concerned about tenants abusing the system by moving from units before they are evicted, because the summary eviction process in Nevada proceeds so quickly, any meritorious eviction will almost certainly be resolved before the tenant could complete the approval process for their new unit. (** SNRHA will continue with its current policy until further review can justify the claims made.)

10.) Notify housing applicants of Nevada Legal Services and our Criminal Record Sealing Proposal: Nevada Legal Services provides free criminal record sealing for eligible clients. We think housing applicants on the Section 8 and Public Housing waitlists could greatly benefit from that service both for the purposes of procuring housing and employment. SNRHA should list the contact information for Nevada Legal Services along with a blurb about our criminal record sealing program when it sends correspondence to applicants on the waitlist. (**This information may be provided on SNRHA's website in the future.)

11.) Voucher Extensions and Reasonable Accommodations for Section * Housing Choice Voucher Recipients: Currently, SNRHA's voucher policy states that SNRHA "Shall issue vouchers to disabled participants for 90 days for their initial search. The SNRHA may extend an additional 30 days as a reasonable accommodation." Federal regulations at 24 CFR 982.303 state that a voucher recipient with a disability must be given reasonable extensions to their voucher term if it is necessary for the voucher recipient to obtain housing. The federal regulations do not include a specific term of days for the amount of time that a disabled tenant has to extend a voucher. Instead the length of the voucher term should be based on an individualized inquiry into the disabled tenant's limitations and needs. By arbitrarily capping the length of time a disabled individual has to find a voucher, SNRHA is violating the Fair Housing Act and 24 CFR 982.303. (**SNRHA gives all disabled participants an initial 90 days, the participant may request extensions in 30 day increments as a reasonable accommodation, as long as the request is made prior to the expiration of the voucher. Voucher extensions cannot exceed 150 days unless a Reasonable Accommodation is approved by the 504 Coordinator.)

12.) SNRHA's Admissions Policies and Criminal Records: SNRHA's admissions policies for Public Housing (2-24) and Section 8 (12-13) both state that applicants will be denied housing if they have been arrested or convicted of a crime within one year from the last date of their sentence. HUD Notice 2015-19/H 2015-10 both state that the mere fact of an arrest cannot be ground to deny housing, absent some other evidence. These admission sections should be changed so that an arrest within a year of completing a sentence is not automatic grounds to deny housing. Additionally, SNRHA should add language to its policy clarifying that the fact of an arrest, by itself, is not sufficient proof of criminal activity that would justify denying housing. Additionally, SNRHA's admissions policies state that those who have any felony convictions not specifically listed in the admissions policy are also barred from admissions for a specified time period, without regard to the type of criminal activity. The April 4, 2016, HUD office of the General Counsel, specifically states that in order to avoid violating the Fair Housing Act, housing providers must not have blanket bans on admission for people with criminal convictions. The Office of General counsel believes that these policies may discriminate on the basis of race because they have a disparate impact on people of different racial backgrounds. Instead, a housing provider must show that its policy accurately distinguishes between criminal conduct that indicates a demonstrable risk to resident safety and/or property and criminal conduct that does not meet this standard and may be in violation of the Fair Housing Act. SNRHA should revise its admissions policy to comply with the Office of General Counsel's recommendations. Finally, SNRHA also has a blanket ban on admissions for people who are on probation or parole, without regard to the nature of the crime. Per the Office of General Counsel's letter, this policy may also violate the Fair Housing Act as it does not distinguish whether crime for which the applicant is on probation or parole is one that presents a demonstrable risk to resident safety or property. This portion of the admissions policy should be revised limiting the ban on admissions to cases where the underlying crime presents a safety hazard to the community. It is particularly urgent for the SNRHA to revise these policies as leaving the policies as they are may expose SNRHA to legal liability. (** At this time, the letter issued by the Office of General counsel is a recommendation, not a regulation. Since SNRHA must also screen for suitability in its Public Housing Program, SNRHA will consider the comments and may have them reviewed by Legal Counsel.)

SOUTHERN NEVADA REGIONAL HOUSING AUTHORITY

DATE: June 16, 2016

TO: Chairman Tim O'Callaghan

FROM: Resident Advisory Board (RAB) Members

RE: SNRHA 5-Year Plan

We, the members of the Resident Advisory Board (RAB), have reviewed the proposed revisions to the Southern Nevada Regional Housing Authority Annual Agency Plan for FY2017 and Five Year Plan for FY2017 through FY2021. We have had the opportunity to ask questions, review all of the proposed changes, and have submitted comments as needed.

We commend the SNRHA on preparing the Plan in house utilizing staff instead of paying an outside firm.

Statement of Capital Improvements

- RHF 2nd 5YR Inc./CFP NV39R018502-14. Total funds of $170,192. The SNRHA will be utilizing this RHF Grant for the Biegger Estates and/or Rose Gardens RAD Conversion.
- FFY 2013
  - CFP NV39P018501-13 – Total funds of $3,666,347. The SNRHA will be utilizing the funds already allocated for Landsman Gardens in this grant for the RAD Conversion. Also, the SNRHA will be utilizing the funds already allocated for Vera Johnson B in this grant for the Mixed Finance Conversion.
- Capital Fund Grants closed between March 2014 and March 2015 are as follows:
  - FFY 2012
    - CFP NV39P018501-12 – Total funds of $3,745,945. The SNRHA will be utilizing the funds already allocated for Landsman Gardens in this grant for the RAD Conversion.

C.1 Capital Improvements:

Capital Fund Financing Program (CFFP).

The SNRHA is considering to use any portion of its Capital Fund Program (CFP)/Replacement Housing Factor (RHF) to repay debt incurred to finance capital improvements

The Five Year Plan of the Capital Fund Grant includes work items amounts based on funding allocation received February 2016 for FFY 2016 Capital Funds and Replacement Housing Factor (RHF) Funds.

The Five Year Action Plan has been updated to provide the estimated reduction of the CFP allocation FY2016-FY2019 as the result of the proposed conversions under RAD.
